PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL SESSION

Asheville, March 26, 1918.

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, met in its twenty-eight annual session in the First Baptist Church of this city at 7:45 o'clock to-night.

Rev. Benjamin Sargee, pastor of the North Asheville Church, presided and conducted the devotional exercises. After singing by the congregation "Come Thou Almighty King", prayer was offered by Dr. S. G. Pinnock, Abeokuta, Africa. Hymn, "Draw Me Nearer" was sung. Mr. Sargee then read from Matt. 17 and led in prayer.

The choir rendered Kipling's Recessional.

The annual sermon was preached by Rev. W. F. Powell, D.D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, Asheville, on the theme, "Royal Service." Text, "She hath done what she could," Mark 14:8.

The benediction was pronounced by Dr. A. E. Brown, Asheville.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 27.

The Union assembled at 9:30, with Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, President, in the chair.

The devotional exercises were led by Miss Annie Logan, Superintendent of the Buncombe Association. "Take Time to be Holy," was sung, after which Miss Logan read a psalm of thanksgiving and prayer was offered by Mrs. H. M. Finch, Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Mrs. R. B. Lineberry and Mrs. R. H. Bowden. "Savior Thy Dying Love" was sung.

Welcome was extended by Mrs. W. F. Powell, of Asheville, for the W. M. U. of the Buncombe Association; by Mrs. H. A. Dunham, Corresponding Secretary of the W. M. U. of the Methodist Western Conference, for the city of Asheville.

Response by Mrs. George Vernon, Greensboro.

On motion of the Recording Secretary, it was ordered that the calling of the roll be dispensed with; that those whose registration cards have been deposited with the Secretary up to this time be recognized as constituting the organization, but that the Secretary be empowered to add to this list from the cards that may be subsequently deposited.

Mrs. G. A. Martin moved that the program prepared and now in the hands of the delegates be adopted as the order of business for this session. Carried.

The President presented to the Union, on behalf of Mrs. M. H. Heck, the gavel used by the late President, Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, during her term of office of twenty-four years. The Union accepted the gift by rising and the Secretary was instructed to convey to Mrs. Heck the thanks of the body.

Miss Bertha Carroll, Corresponding Secretary, presented her annual report as follows:

ANNUAL REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY. 1917-18.

Again we assemble at our Annual Meeting with abundant reason for joy and thanksgiving. The Lord has blessed our efforts in His name even more than we had faith to expect.

In the midst of world confusion and strife the work of our Union has gone steadily forward, so that we see today, not only our year's aims realized, but a general state of development hitherto not reached by our societies. We are moved to exclaim with the apostle, "Thanks be unto God who giveth us the victory!"

As we glance back over the reports given at other Annual Meetings we realize that year by year, as faithful workers have planted and watered, God has given the increase. Within the last ten years the number of our societies has been doubled and our gifts to Missions multiplied by three. In one year's time we raised our State aim from $49,000 to $63,000.

Financial Report.

Again we have reached the goal which we set for ourselves last March. Except for the Expense Fund and the Church Building Loan Fund, we have exceeded our aim by a liberal margin. We went $1,400 beyond it for Foreign Missions, nearly $400 for Home Missions, and over $600 for State Missions.

It is clear that our failure to reach our aim for the Church Building Loan Fund and the State Expense Fund is due to the fact that the contributions of our societies were not given to the various objects in quite the proper proportion. Next year we shall doubtless avoid that mistake.

Since the cost of printing and stationery has increased it is important that societies remember to send their proportionate part to the State Expense Fund in May.

The fact that we did not reach our Church Building Loan Fund aim is not at all discouraging. Our women have taken the work up with enthusiasm. The Eastern, Pilot Mountain, Liberty, Central, South Fork, Piedmont and Pee Dee Associations have pledged themselves to establish memorials. And the Societies of Clayton, Raleigh First Church, Raleigh Tabernacle, New Bern Tabernacle, Wilmington First Church, Statesville First Church, Asheville First Church, French Broad Asheville, Monroe First Church, Rocky Mount, Durham First Church, Charlotte First Church, Greenville Memorial and Nashville have also undertaken to establish memorials. Two of our workers in the Haywood Association have established $500 memorals; one by gift, the other by an annuity bond. We greatly regret that memorials established as annuities cannot count on State apportionments, but we are glad to know that our individual workers are erecting these beautiful living memorials in honor of their loved ones.

Facts About Societies.

We now have on our mailing list 1,557 societies; 1,409 having reported, and six hundred and thirty-one of these having reported on time every quarter. One hundred and ninety-three new societies have been added to our roll this year. Compared with last year's report these figures show a slight falling off in the number of new societies and in the number of societies reporting. Decidedly our growth this year has not been in numbers. Although we regret this, we believe that it is caused by the fact that we have been growing in a far more important way.

How We Have Grown.

During the past year we seem to have paused in our work of extension and begun intensive development. Instead of spreading new branches we have been growing at the root. Through all the years to come, we believe that the life which will flow through these older, stronger societies into the newer and weaker ones will be richer and fuller and more abundant. Both by percept and example we shall be better able to enlist other workers in the missionary enterprise because of this year's growth.

First of all we have developed in the prayer life. Instead of the 277 societies reported last year as observing the Week of Prayer for World-wide Missions, we have 342. Four hundred and fifty-five made a special Foreign Mission offering; 393 observed State Mission Day; 374 the Home Mission prayer season.

The January Week of Prayer this year was quite generally observed and may loving letters came to the office telling of the large attendance, increased gifts and spiritual warmth of the meetings.

(2) We have developed in Mission Study. One hundred and fifty-eight study classes were conducted this year, and more than 4,900 copies of our Mission magazines went into the homes of our society members.

(3) Our gifts were larger. Last year the average contribution for Women's Missionary Societies was $56. This year it is $70.36. The Y. W. A. contributions have advanced from $28.18 to $31.28 per society, and the other departments show a similar gain.

(4) Our Personal Service report is the best in our history.

Large Gifts From Individuals.

We have at last reached a period in the life of our Union when individuals are beginning to make large gifts to Missions. This year several of our women have established gift or annuity memorials with the Church Extension Department of the Home Board. One lady in Charlotte gave $192 for the support of a Foreign School, and quite a number of our workers have given checks for sums large enough to support a Bible woman.

We are glad to welcome this new era in our giving, for, though we know that the small but loving gifts of many workers have been and will continue to be the chief source of our regular Mission income, we feel that we are beginning to give more nearly "as the Lord has prospered us." May we never again be content to do small things while the opportunity to do larger ones lies without our grasp.

Facts About the Association.

(1) Superintendents.—Our 54 Associations now have 51 superintendents, the Dock, Macon, Stanly and Yancey having formed Unions this year. We are glad to welcome into our circle of leaders Miss Smithe Ward from the Dock Association, Miss Bertha Moore from the Macon, Miss J. M. Mauney from the Stanly, and Miss Loretta Stout from the Yancey.

The value of the work done by the superintendents is inestimable, and the amount accomplished by them is truly remarkable. Forty-seven superintendents held Annual Associational Meetings this year, having a total of 761 societies represented. They wrote more than 7,000 letters and cards to societies and individuals and traveled over 9,000 miles in the interest of Missions. From them we obtain a clearer knowledge of the conditions in all parts of our State, and we owe very largely to their service the splendid reports of our Union from year to year. May our Father's blessings be ever on them and their efforts in His name.

(2) Associations reaching financial aims: Twenty-one Associations reached their apportionment for the year. It is but just to mention here two of our strong Associations which did not reach their goal. The Superintendents of the Flat River and Central Associations accepted at our last Annual Meeting apportionments which they knew they could not reach in order that our State aim might be a high one. We are deeply indebted to them for this sacrifice because we feel that through it, we have attained a height which we would not otherwise have attained.

Thirty Associations made at least a 10 per cent increase in their contributions. And the gains range from 10 to 45, 63, 97 and 207 per cent.

(3) Points of leadership among the Associations.—The West Chowan leads in contributions, with the Central and Mt. Zion following. The Haywood, Little River and Roanoke make the highest gain per cent in gifts this year,—207 per cent. 97 per cent and 63 per cent, respectively. The Tar River leads in the number of new societies, having organized 14. The Raleigh, King's Mountain and Johnston County have each organized 12, and the Roanoke, 10.

The Robeson Association had the largest number of societies represented at its Annual Meeting—54 in number. The South Fork had 40; the Tar River and Pee Dee 36 each; the Eastern 33, and the Johnston County and King's Mt. 30 each.

The Eastern Association leads in points made in Associational Standard of Excellence and in the per cent of societies sending quarterly reports.

Baptist Women Yet Unenlisted.

There are yet more than 1,100 of the 1,850 churches in our Union territory in which there is not a Missionary Society. There are over 144,000 women and children in these Associations who do not belong to any Mission Society. Will not our 30,000 workers reach out during the new year and draw others into more active service for the Master?

Meetings Attended by Officers.

Mrs. Jones attended the Southern Baptist Convention, the Seaside Assembly, and eight Associational Meetings. Miss Briggs conducted our W. M. U. Conference at Ridgecrest, and attended seven Associational gatherings. The Corresponding Secretary was present at the Southern Baptist Convention, the Seaside Assembly, the Conference at Ridgecrest and 16 Annual Associational Meetings. Mrs. J. W. Bunn, of Raleigh, who is a member of our Executive Committee, attended the Yadkin Meeting and Mrs. C. E. Mason, our Ex-Y. W. A. Secretary, visited the Pilot Mountain. In all, 33 Associational gatherings were visited by the officers or their representatives.

In addition to the usual printing of reports, report blanks, and the Annual Minutes, a little leaflet of instructions has been published for the societies.

In the early winter, the Twelve Programs for Misisonary Societies, which the superintendents at our last Annual Meeting requested us to print, were ready for circulation. These programs were prepared for the most part by our workes who know best the needs of new or weak societies, and we trust they will meet a long felt need for such literature. Already about 200 copies have been sent out and many societies bear witness to their helpfulness. These booklets may be had from our W. M. U. office at ten cents each.

Report adopted.

A violin solo was beautifully rendered by Mrs. E. L. Wolslagel of Asheville.

The annual report of the Treasurer was read by Miss Carroll. (See page 55.) Mrs. H. M. Finch moved that the report be received with praise and thanksgiving. Carried, and the Union joined in singing "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," after which Mrs. John Webb led in prayer.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, Junior Superintendent, presented her annual report as follows:

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT.

If you have ever known the realization of a long unfulfilled wish you know something of the joy with which I present to you a report of the past year's work of the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors of our State. It was, I think, as far back as 1908, ten years ago, when the girls and boys unitedly were giving $2,413, that I put my hopes into words and said that some day I believed they would be giving $5,000. Since then the boys have been called out into an organization of their own. The rapid development also of work among the Young Woman's and Girl's Auxiliaries has more closely graded our Junior work. Yet with this division the Sunbeams this year stand by their own efforts upon the mountain top of $5,000.05. It is most fitting that the event should be celebrated here in this mountain city, and in a church that has contributed so largely toward the realization of this aim.

The Royal Ambassadors come in for a very large share in our rejoicing. They have gone beyond the $615 we asked of them and report $650.41.

The increase in contributions this year is all the more remarkable in face of the national conditions and the unusually severe winter. We realize that this has been a testing time, that some have weakened and others failed under the strain, but that others have risen with redoubled determination and strength for the tasks.

Last year we had reports from 451 Bands, this year from 433, a loss of 17, though we have enrolled 72 new Bands. One-third of these were, however, organized too late to report any contributions. Last year there were 53 R. A. Chapters in the report, this year there are 59, and 16 new chapters have been organized.

We can readily see that our weak point in this year's work has been in loss of organizations. Our stress for 1918-19 must be upon reviving the Bands and Chapters that have, for various reasons, fallen out of rank.

Had it not been for the splendid work of some of our Bands and Chapters our mountain top would not have been attained.

The Sunbeams of Rocky Mt. lead the State with their wonderful offering of $209.25. This is the second time that a $200 mark has ever been reached by a North Carolina Sunbeam Band,—Charlotte First Church having given this in 1913. The other Bands that have out-distanced all others are,—Edenton, $163.62; Asheboro St. (Greensboro), $114; Lumberton $113.95 (technical error of $12 in report); Hickory, $105.89.

Of the Royal Ambassadors, the leaders are to be found here in the Asheville First Church with their contribution of $91.54. The other leading chapters are, Hickory, $60.60; Asheboro St. (Greensboro) $37.83; Buckhorn, $31.84; Statesville, $30. It will be seen that two churches, Asheboro St. and Hickory appear in both of these lists and so deserve special mention.

The average per Band has risen to $11.35; per Chapter to $11.02; and we have 83 Bands and 14 Chaptres giving more than $15. In accordance with recommendations of last year, lists of these have been printed in connection with the Honor Roll of those reporting every quarter. Our hope is to bring our average up to $15.

The Association leading in Sunbeam work both in number of Bands and in contributions is the Robeson with 40 Bands giving $593.94. The following Associations report more than $300,—South Chowan, Chowan, Eastern and Roanoke; more than $200,—the South Fork, Central and Piedmont. With the appointment of Junior Superintendents in about 25 Associations we are looking for unprecedented growth in our young people's work. These Junior Superintendents are already taking hold of their work with great earnestness and we bespeak the loyal following of all leaders of Bands and Chapters.

It has been my privilege this year to visit seven Associations: the South Yadkin, West Chowan, Eastern, Mt. Zion, Little River, Johnston, and Chowan. I deeply regret that I was prevented from visiting the Robeson and Central. Besides these I attended a four day's Woman's Missionary Union Conference at Ridgecrest in July. I also had the delightful experience of being the guest of the Woman's Missionary Union of Alabama in their annual session in Birmingham in November. It was inspiring to be with the competent workers of that State and to see their enthusiasm over the Junior Societies.

Our fine State Mission Program last September was prepared by Mr. Elliott Earnshaw of Wake Forest, one of our most capable leaders.

Besides quarterly letters counted in the office report of the Secretary, your Junior Superintendent has written some 300 personal letters and postals, sent out more than 8,000 literature and envelopes and travelled 1,714 miles, not including the Birmingham trip of 1,170 miles.

And now as we stand upon the heights of this year's work, let us look forward with prayerful purpose to greater things, knowing that it is God which worketh in us both to will and to do of His good pleasure.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS.

Adopted.

The President expressed regret that Mrs. R. N. Simms, Y. W. A. Secretary, was prevented by illness from attending the meeting. Her report was read by Miss Bertha Carroll and received.

REPORT OF Y. W. A. WORK, 1917-18.

It is with a very thankful heart that your Y. W. A. Secretary submits her report to you, for in spite of many unfavorable conditions, our girls and young women have realized their great responsibility and our work has grown. The growth has been internal rather than external, personal development and efficiency rather than a growth in numbers. Such development is greatly to be desired.

With the many calls upon us during the past year, both for money and service, and with continuous sickness rendering your Secretary unable to carry out her plans, this growth is very gratifying.

This year's contributions are the largest the girls have ever made, being $6,539.20, against $6,077.15 last year—a gain of $462.09.

This represents the gifts from our 209 societies—an average of $31.28 per society. The average last year was $28.18.

Sixteen Y. W. A.'s gave over $100 this year and one society, that of the Durham First Church, gave $752.80. The Y. W. A. of Charlotte First Church gave $300.75 and the Eliza Yates Y. W. A. of the First Church in Raleigh, composed of fifteen working girls, gave $192.70, or over $12 each. This society has the largest per capita contribution in the State, W. M. S. or what not. If all of our twenty-five thousand women in missionary societies would do as well our total annual report would be $300,000 instead of $63,000. Can't we do it?

Strange to say, our girls always fall off in their contributions during the summer quarter. This past summer we gave only $980, but the third and fourth quarters came up gloriously—$1,843.85 and $2,137.33 respectively—the largest we have ever had. Next year let us make a special effort to keep up our gifts during the summer quarter as well.

This year there have been twenty-two new G. A.'s organized against thirteen of last year, and twenty-seven Y. W. A.'s while last year there were twenty-eight.

The number of societies reporting every quarter last year was sixty-two, while this year we had seventy-one. Let me urge every leader to see that her society reports each quarter next year.

As during last year the Mt. Zion Association led in contributions, giving $1,176—next was Pilot Mountain with $625 and the Central and Mecklenburg-Cabarrus each with $567.

The Central, Robeson and Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Associations each have eleven Y. W. A.'s reporting, while the Mt. Zion has fifteen and West Chowan sixteen. We are hoping each Association will largely increase its number of societies next year.

God has blessed our efforts more richly than we deserved, and we pray that we may more fully realize the privilege that we have of fighting under the banner of the King of kings and being the means of sending the message of gospel to lost souls.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS.
Y. W. A. Secretary.

A telegram from Mrs. C. E. Mason, former Y. W. A. Secretary, was read by the Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Wesley N. Jones,
President, Raleigh, N. C.

Accept heartiest congratulations for a wonderful year's record. My thoughts, my love, my prayers are with you and the dear North Carolina women. I Thess. 1:2-3.

MRS. CLARENCE E. MASON.

The W. M. U. Banner, awarded to the Association reaching the highest number of points in development, was presented by Miss Elizabeth Briggs to the Eastern Association. Miss Briggs spoke as follows:

No more interesting morning has ever been spent in the office of the Executive Committee than that of March 21st. The time had come for your State officers, Mrs. Jones, Miss Carroll and myself, to go over the year's records of the Associations and decide upon the one that, for all-round development and progress, should be awarded the Associational banner.

First it was necessary to decide upon the points that are to be applied from year to year in awarding the banner and the following were chosen.

1. Increase in total contributions for the year.
2. Increase in contributions from each grade of organization.
3. Each grade in the Association, Woman's Societies, Young Woman's Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors and Sunbeams.
4. Number of churches in Associations having one or more societies.
5. Per cent of women in Association enlisted.

6. Number of Societies observing special offerings.
7. Number of mission magazines subscribed to.
8. Points made in Associational Standard of Excellence.
9. Proportionate number of societies present at Associational meeting.
10. Number of societies reporting each quarter.
11. Number of new societies.
12. Total number societies reporting in proportion enrolled.

With all of these points to be applied we went through the reports of 1917 and the newly finished report of this year. It is not necessary for us to say that our desire was to have each Association show to its greatest advantage, and that as we discussed the relative points in the work of each, we exclaimed again and again, "Surely this is going to be the Banner Association!"

No Association, according to the facts submitted to us by the Superintendents and societies, attained all of these points. The list of those most nearly reaching all requirements was finally sifted to twelve,—the Beulah, Cumberland, Eastern, Johnston, King's Mt., Little River, Mt. Zion, Pilot Mt., Pee Dee, Roanoke, Robeson and West Chowan. Each one of these might be separately commended for special points of growth and efficiency.

But the final result of our searching brought out the following facts from one Association:

A 25 per cent increase in contributions; increase in contribution from each grade of organization; all grades represented; of the 40 churches of the Association, 27 have one or more societies; 50 per cent of the women of the Association enlisted; 97 societies observed one or more of the special offerings; 221 mission magazines subscribed to; 9 points made in the Associational Standard of Excellence; 32 societies reported every quarter; 5 new societies; and of the 60 societies of the Association, 60 reported during the year.

We feel that it will cause rejoicing to this body as a whole to hear the announcement that the Association reaching the greatest number of points and the one to which the banner goes this year is the Eastern Association.

Miss Cox, we at the Central Office have watched you in your faithful work, untiring zeal and consecrated service for these ten years that you have been Superintendent of the Eastern Association. We have known that many outside duties and cares rested on you, yet your Association has grown under your unflagging effort until now it stand as the Banner Association of our State.

We congratulate you upon the results of your decade of work in the Eastern Association. We present to you this banner of white and gold, the colors of our State Union. You will appreciate it all the more when you know that the perfect embroidery was done by the skilled hands of our State President.

This beautiful banner will be to you and your Association this year a visible reminder of victory over difficulties. As we of the other Associations look to your example of attainment may we rally more loyally to the work in which you lead.

When you take this banner back to your Association and display it at your meetings and to the societies, may each woman and child who beholds it pledge new allegiance to the service of the Lord Christ and exclaim with the Psalmist, "We will rejoice in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banner."

Miss Macy Cox, Superintendent of the Eastern Association, accepted the banner.

The President then delivered her annual address.

"WAY MARKS ALONG THE HIGHWAY."

"Set thee up way marks, make thee high heaps; set thine heart toward the highway," sang the weeping prophet of Israel in the darkest period of the nation's history. Today, when the highway of our King stretches from nation to nation and all men realize as never before in the world's history that only the teachings of the Man of Galilee can meet the world's deep need, the message comes to us with an added force and a new meaning.

The thought of the highway as symbolical of the Kingdom of God comes to us from far back in Bible history. When, during the period of the Judges, the enemies around about had conquered the people of God, Deborah, the prophetess, gives as a reason for her activity in bringing deliverance that the highways were unoccupied and the traveler had to walk in the byways or crooked paths, a literal as well as figurative description of the condition of Israel.

The Psalmist in his songs of praise and thanksgiving has many references to the way of God. "Teach me thy way, O God," "Lead me in the way everlasting." Isaiah, in his vision of the coming of the Kingdom, the ministry of John the Baptist, and the coming of Christ uttered the words, "Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and crooked shall be made straight and rough places plain." And again, "And a highway shall be there and a way, and it shall be called The Way of Holiness." Since the days of which I am speaking the children of God have been building the highway. Some have built alone in desolate places with no one to understand, but they kept tirelessly at work because of the vision of what was to be that God had given them. Some have built wide stretches that made the way plain for others to follow and strengthen foundations and lengthen stakes; some have timidly kept the way they found, as it was given to them without being able to make any progress that the human eye could see; others have but "kept the stones out of the way." But all have had a part in the building of the great highway that stretches from shore to shore and have had their part in the coming of the Kingdom.

Today we stand at the beginning of a new era in mission history. There has come to all thinking people a realization that only the gospel of Christ can meet the great problems of reconstruction that will follow the close of the war; that we stand on the eve not of retrenchment in mission work but at the beginning of a period of greater activity, larger conception of opportunity, greater service and increased gifts. It is not a new experience that war has brought a deeper interest in mission work. A writer in the Missionary Review of the World brings this to our attention and shows how former wars have affected missions—that the first missionaries sent out from America went out during the War of 1812, that the carrying of testaments into Mexico by the soldiers in the Mexican war opened the way for missionary work in the country later on, and that when this war closed, the large territory now occupied by California, Nevada, New Mexico, Arizona passed into the hands of the United States and was opened to the gospel. Even the Civil War with its great suffering, and followed by a period of great financial depression did not put an end to missionary activity, the Presbyterian Church alone sending out fifty-eight missionaries in the four years from 1861-1865. We do not often think of the Spanish-American war in relation to its effect on missions. Of that the writer says, "Undertaken to assist a single island in the Atlantic in its struggles for freedom in the providence of God it opened a whole archipelago in the Pacific to the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ." "In 1900 there were no Protestant Christians in the Philippines; in 1917 there were 76,000."

In this present war we find the mission societies of Great Britain not only keeping their mission forces on the fields, maintaining their schools and hospitals, but increasing their gifts. In our own land there is a wide-spread feeling that while we must meet the demand for relief for the physical needs of those suffering from war conditions, and while we must give our government and those who are giving themselves in service for their country our fullest loyalty, yet these things must not be done at the expense of the Kingdom of Christ. And there must be fuller consecration to His service and greater sacrifice in giving if we measure to the present opportunity.

That we may be ready for this larger service let us look briefly at some of the way marks that our Woman's Missionary Union has set up along the highway in our thirty-two years of history.

First, we have 30,000 women enlisted, perhaps the biggest organization of women in our State. Surely the enlistment of 30,000 may be counted a heap by the highway, but, let us think a moment—how many members have we in our Baptist churches? 283,000! We usually estimate that the women constitute two-thirds of the membership of our churches; but not to overestimate let us say one-half of this number are women and we have 141,000 women members of our churches, 30,000 of whom are enlisted in our missionary societies, leaving 111,000 who are doing no active mission work and in most instances who are not contributing to missions in any way. But, you say, "They are not interested, we cannot teach them." We cannot afford to say that any longer; we must interest them and we must do it at once, and there is no better way than the apostolic way of personal work. Let each of our thirty thousand members make one woman see the great opportunities for service that are ours today and the imperative need of evangelizing a world lost in darkness and sin, and next year our membership would be doubled and we would have sixty thousand women on our roll. Another year let each one again but bring one other and we would have one hundred and twenty thousand and in less than three years we would have all of our women actively engaged in mission work. This is not only possible but practicable. We must reach the women in our churches who have not heard the voice of the Master calling them to His service. The need today is too great, the work cannot do without them and they cannot afford not to have their part in building the great highway of our King that shall reach to earth's remotest bounds. Enlist them for the sake of the Kingdom; enlist them for their own sake. Dr. Hamilton Mabie says, "Our interest in missions is a mark of our Christian character, our knowledge of missions is a measure of our Christian attainment, our participation in missions is a measure of our Christian efficiency." How many of our church members could afford to have that test applied to them individually?

We have a graded organization in fifty-one of the sixty-five associations in the State, another mark along the highway, but again we have only laid foundations; the structure is yet to be reared. Not one of our Associations has one of our organizations in each of their churches. We have 2,173 churches, 1,557 societies, 734 woman's missionary societies. I cannot give you the exact figures, but there are still about fourteen hundred churches within our bounds with no missionary society of any kind. Then there are a large number of churches where there is but one society and the younger women, the boys and the girls, and the children are having no special training or teaching along mission lines. There is nothing that I would like to impress more upon you today than the imperative need and the paramount importance of training the young people in our churches in mission thought and activity. It is the most fruitful field of service that is before us today, when the demand for service is so far-reaching and so insistent. We cannot leave this to the pastors of our churches. They would do it if they could, but many of them do not even live near their congregations, and missionary training can not be given to an occasional service. It cannot be done through the Sunday-school. We have hardly time there for our Bible study, and while all Bible study is missionary, we lack the time in the brief period given to the study of the lesson. We must have our young people's societies in order that we may teach them the facts of missions, for in the day in which we are living we cannot interest anyone in a cause that to them is an abstract thing, and not a vital issue.

We have Annual Associational Meetings in forty-nine of our Associations, a foundation stone on which we will build largely in the future. The leaders in these Associations are a great source of strength to our work, but there is not one of them but will tell you that she has but barely begun the work on her field. The vision I would have you see today is the entire woman force of our churches enlisted, united, consecrated in a spiritual warfare against the forces of sin, "a warfare in which there is no discharge."

It is with gratification that we look at the gifts we have made to build the highway in the years that are past. From five thousand dollars the first year they have increased year by year until today we report an annual contribution of $63,000, and the combined contribution since 1886 amounts to the large sum of $600,000. Surely this is a far larger sum than we dared hope or dream of in those first days of our organization, yet again I must remind you how little the gifts compared with what we might have done if we had learned the lesson of sacrificial giving. Some of our women have done nobly in this respect, but take your society as an example: how many of your members are really giving as they could and should for the advancement of the Kingdom? And then think of the women who have not been actively engaged in missionary work, and who know nothing of the joy and privilege of giving. This is a large heap by the wayside; but, should it not have been larger?

That we may have a larger vision of the task before us, we must have an abiding faith in the coming of the Kingdom and the ever-ruling providence of God—an abiding faith because the faith that wavers is not the kind that will bring any large results, but it is the faith that takes hold of the promises of God and having that sure foundation cannot be shaken by any of the turmoil and strife of the world about us which conquers. This very lack of faith has been the great handicap in Christian service from the days of the apostles down. Jesus said more than once in His ministry: "Oh! ye of little faith." Is there not even greater reason for His speaking thus to His disciples today? In our zeal for activity we must not for a moment lose sight of the great fact that the world is not to be won for Christ through human agency, but through the power of the risen Christ working through human agency. There must be the absolute assurance of the ultimate conquest of the world and the realization that we are a part of God's great plan for the world's redemption. With this overcoming faith there must be a fixed purpose. Like the great apostle we must say, "This one thing I do," and we, too, must forget the things that are behind in our Christian experience, the mistakes and the failures that have marred our service and wounded our vanity so many times in the past, and press forward to the prize of our high calling in Christ Jesus. The life without a purpose is a failure counted from any standpoint, how much greater the failure viewed from the Christian standpoint. We have the two alternatives before us to live with the fixed purpose to make our lives count for the coming of the Kingdom, so fulfilling God's purpose in us, or drifting with the tide about us letting our selfish interest and the quickly fading pleasures of this world absorb our thought and energies and waste our time and strength, the things that are temporal and shall quickly pass away. Joshua just before his death assembled the children of Israel together and told them again of God's dealings with them from the days of their forefathers and of His promises to them who would serve Him and His judgments on them who forsook Him to follow the strange gods of the people around them and reminding them that their God was a jealous God and would not be served with a divided allegiance, said: "Choose ye this day whom ye will serve." Today we have the same God and the joy of service will not be ours unless there is the fixed purpose that the things of the Kingdom come first in our lives.

It is the last part of the message of the prophet that gives us the keynote of the whole—"Set thine heart toward the highway." If we only have our hearts set toward the highway, the fixed purpose and the larger faith will be ours. Solomon said, "Keep thy heart with all diligence, for out of it are the issues of life" and as it was in the days of the wise king of Israel, so it is today. The greatest thing in all the world is God's love to sinful man, the love that caused Him to send His only Son as an offering for our sins. The greatest thing we see in human life is the life that sacrifices itself for others. The children of God should so love Him that they are glad to give themselves in service for the cause for which He gave Himself.

Are not all our shortcomings in the past, all our failures in Christian attainment due to the fact that while we have labored in the building of the highway our hearts oftentimes have been elsewhere? It has not had the first place. In this day in which we have "come into the Kingdom," in the crisis that is upon us now if we measure up to the responsibility that is ours, it is imperative that we "set our hearts toward the highway" with a new vision and a new purpose.

The story is told that the Emperor Constantine marching against the rival for the imperial throne saw in the heavens at noonday a great shining cross with the words, "By this sign conquer," and that he led his army from victory to victory under the banner of the cross. Today "His banner over us is love," love as exemplified in His sacrificial death, love that gives itself in service to a world that knows Him not. With this love as our motive shall we not set our hearts anew to the highway and get a new vision of our place in the divine plan for the redemption of mankind?

"Heralds of Christ who bear the King's command,
Immortal tidings in your mortal hands,
Pass on and carry swift the news ye bring,
Make straight, make straight the highway of our King."

Miss Briggs read the following resolutions, also the year's program for Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors, after which she spoke on "Applied Inspiration." The resolutions were adopted.

RESOLUTIONS FOR SUNBEAM AND ROYAL AMBASSADOR LEADERS OF NORTH CAROLINA, 1918-'19.

The Request: Jesus said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not; for of such is the Kingdom of God.

The Response: And they brought young children to Him, that He should touch them.

The Result: And He took them in His arms, put His hands upon them, and blessed them.

Desiring, like the women of old, to bring the young children of our time to the Saviour for His blessing, that knowing the joy of His love they may grow up with the purpose of sending and taking this knowledge to the whole world, we the leaders of Sunbeam Bands and Royal Ambassador Chapters, do resolve and covenant together to strive for the following:

1. Consecration: Acknowledging our responsibility to Him to train the children of our Sunday-schools and communities in His service, we will consecrate ourselves anew to this work, holding as our highest motive the conversion of the children under our care, our prayers, plans and programs being to this end.
2. Devotional: To study the Bible more regularly that we may show its truths to the children. To pray daily for our societies, remembering that Wednesday is the special day chosen for united prayer for the Junior work.
3. Mission Study: We will read and study mission books and literature that we may have our minds filled with facts for the children. We will take the Correspondence Course for Leaders if possible this year. We will subscribe to Royal Service and to as many other mission publications as our situation permits. (See notes 1 and 2.)
4. Offerings: It shall be our endeavor to train the children in tithing, having them bring an offering to each meeting. Special offerings for Home, State and Foreign Missions shall be made at the times set for them in the year's program. We will set an aim for our society and keep it before them during the year.
5. Personal Service: We will look carefully for some kind of personal service for the children, to render to the unfortunate of our communities. . .
6. Meetings: We will try to hold our meetings regularly, filling our programs with mission facts in forms best suited to attract and teach the children. We will have our Bands observe the special days for Home, State and Foreign Missions with suitable programs.
7. Co-Operation and Extension: We will co-operate with the Primary Sunday-school teachers in mission work, endeavoring to secure mission offerings from the younger pupils in the school. We will attend our Associational Meeting unless unavoidably hindered and will co-operate with our Associational Leader in all plans she suggests for strengthening and extending the Junior Work of the Association.
8. Dollar Subeams and R. A.'s: The names of children contributing one dollar or more to missions during any quarter shall be sent to the State Junior Superintendent for publication in the Recorder. Little books of the Bible from the Pullen Fund will be furnished to these givers.
9. Honor Roll: We suggest the continuance of the Gold Star list of all Bands and Chapters reporting every quarter, and also the list of those contributing more than $15.00 during the year.
10. Standard of Excellence. We will make an earnest effort to reach a high place in the Standard of Excellence.
11. State Aims: We will unite in adopting the following aim for the year:

	Sunbeams	R. A.
Foreign Missions .....	$1,850.00	$250.00
Home Missions .....	$1,450.00	$200.00

THURSDAY MORNING.

The Union was called to order at 9:40 and united in singing "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

The theme for the morning devotions was Prayer, Consecration, with Mrs. J. F. Brooks leading. Mrs. C. L. Haywood offered a special prayer of consecration, after which hymn, "I Am Thine, O Lord," was sung.

Minutes of afternoon session were read and approved.

The W. M. U. hymn for the year, "Lord, Speak to Me, That I May Speak," was sung by the congregation.

The Union then heard the reports of the Vice-Presidents of the several Divisions.

The President spoke with regret of the absence of Mrs. Hight C. Moore, Vice-President of the Greensboro Division, who has removed to Nashville, Tenn. On motion of Mrs. C. L. Haywood it was voted to send greetings to Mrs. Moore. Committee, the Vice-Presidents with Mrs. Weston Bruner, chairman.

The President introduced Mrs. Weston Bruner of Raleigh, who read the Report of the Greensboro Division.

REPORT OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE GREENSBORO DIVISION, 1917-18.

The Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union was held in the Greensboro Division in 1917, meeting at Greensboro with the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Church. In looking over the reports for the year that has just closed, it seems that as a Division, we have not made as large an increase as the State as a whole, though most of our Associations report an increase in contributions. The Beulah Association made the largest increase in our Division nearly doubling its gifts. Associational meetings were held in each of our Associations during the summer and fall months. These meetings were well attended and showed careful preparation on the part of our leaders. Four of our Associations have undertaken the establishment of Memorials for the Church Building Loan Fund; one Association having two.

Forty-two new societies were organized during the year. The Central reports seven points made on the Standard of Excellence for Associations; the Flat River nine; the Piedmont five; the Raleigh six; and the Tar River seven.

The Vice-President of our Division, Mrs. H. C. Moore, who had served our Woman's Missionary Union so faithfully for a number of years, moved to Nashville, Tenn., in September, and no attempt was made to fill her place. Mrs. Moore has been recently elected President of the Union of Tennessee, a well deserved honor. and we know that under her capable leadership much will be accomplished for the mission work in that State.

Two of our societies are supporting missionaries and others have special workers in the foreign field. All of our Associations are well organized, but as yet, we are not reaching all of the women of our churches.

MRS. WESTON BRUNER,
For State Executive Committee.

Mrs. S. N. Watson, Vice-President of the Elizabeth City Division, having also removed to another State, her report was presented by Mrs. W. R. Haight, Windsor.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION.

The Elizabeth City Division is composed of four of the largest Associations in the State—the Neuse-Atlantic, the Roanoke, the Chowan and the West Chowan.

The work in the Neuse-Atlantic is progressing under the leadership of Mrs. C. W. Blanchard, Superintendent.

The Roanoke Association, Mrs. W. E. Daniel, Superintendent, has made a marked increase in contributions—has organized twenty-one new societies—has two circulating libraries, the gifts of the W. M. S. of the Rocky Mount Church.

There are societies in more than half of our churches. The slogan in the Roanoke is "A Missionary Society in each Church in the Association."

The Chowan Association, Mrs. E. M. Sawyer, Superintendent, has as its special work, the support of a splendid young woman at the Louisville Training School.

Five new societies have been organized during the year.

The West Chowan Association, Miss Una White, Superintendent, is the only Association in the State that is supporting a missionary on the Foreign Field. One County Union in this Association is helping a worthy girl at Chowan College; another Union is supporting two Bible women in China. There is one circulating library. Seven new societies have been organized. Mission Study ought to be emphasized more in the West Chowan. The crying need of the four Associations in the Elizabeth City Division is: more leaders for the Junior Societies. Let us, as older women, resolve to give more time to the work of our young people this year than we have ever done before. Let us be willing to make sacrifices in order to lead our young people to a higher and nobler life.

MRS. S. N. WATSON,
Vice-President Elizabeth City Division.

Mrs. H. T. Pope, Vice-President of the Wilmington Division, presented her report as follows:

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION.

In the Wilmington Division there are eleven Associations, with a Superintendent for each, except the Bladen, but this vacancy will be filled.

In this Division is the Eastern Association which has won the State Banner this year. Every Superintendent has been faithful in her service, and has led her Association to an increase in membership and contributions.

The Division is lengthening its cords and strengthening its stakes, for it is now contributing to the education of girls in China; to the support of Bible women—through birthday offerings; to the erection of houses of worship on the foreign fields—through the Judson Centennial Fund—already completed, and to the destitute and homeless churches in our own land, a helping hand is extended through the Church Building Loan Fund.

An annual meeting was held in all but one Association. The weak place here, as I fear it is in every Division, is the lack of Royal Ambassador Chapters. Why take girls from the Sunbeam Band on to the Girls' Auxiliaries, Young Woman's Auxiliaries and W. M. S. and let the boys go? Our boys all over the land are in training camps, preparing to fight for freedom and world-wide democracy, and yet we are not mobilizing our younger boys in the R. A. training camps, where they may be better fitted to war against the sin all about them.

The annual meeting of the Division was held in Harbor Island Auditorium at Wrightsville, N. C. We had one hour each day for four days. The attendance was double that of last year. The meeting this year will be held at the same place.

MRS. H. T. POPE,
Vice-President Wilmington Division.

The Charlotte Division was reported by Mrs. T. S. Franklin.

REPORT OF THE CHARLOTTE DIVISION.

Because of certain circumstances the Charlotte Division did not hold a meeting this year. However a list of ten questions was sent to the Superintendents of the sixteen Associations in the Charlotte Division. Nine answers were received, and from these we can report that in these Associations,—Nine Associational meetings have been held this year, twelve new Woman's Missionary Societies organized, two new Young Woman's Auxiliaries, three new G. A.'s, two Royal Ambassador Chapters, fourteen new Sunbeam Bands.

One Association reports a gain of ten per cent in membership.

Six Associations reached their financial aim.

Three Associations have established a Building Loan Memorial.

Two Superintendents could not report an Associational Building Loan Memorial, but told of two Woman's Societies that had each established a Building Loan Memorial.

Some of the Superintendents wrote long, interesting letters telling of their work, others simply answered the questions sent to them, however the reports were all so encouraging that I feel sure had we held a meeting of the Division it would have been most interesting.

MRS. T. S. FRANKLIN,

Vice-President Charlotte Division.

Mrs. W. H. Woodall presented the report of the Asheville Division as follows:

The Vice-President of Asheville Division feels that there is much to be thankful for in the work of the 12 Associations included in her territory. There has been no mushroom growth but there has been a steady development, based upon good foundational work, insuring permanence. Six years ago there were five Superintendents—now there are nine; at that time none ventured to have Associational meetings apart from the Association proper. This year all will attempt this.

Gifts for missions have doubled in the last two years. This does not mean wonderful giving but it indicates wonderful growth. A two-day institute has been held each year, that has aided in giving us better equipped leaders. The best is coming. "Watch us grow."

MRS. W. H. WOODALL,

Vice-President Asheville Division.

Reports as given above were adopted.

Our Summer Assemblies were reported as follows:

Wrightsville Beach—Mrs. F. G. Battle, New Bern.

Ridgecrest—Mrs. R. N. Barber, Waynesville.

At the conclusion of these reports, the Woman's Missionary Hymn, "Come, Women, Wide Proclaim," was sung.

Mrs. J. M. Justice, Buenos Aires, Argentina, spoke on "Missions in Argentina".

Dr. S. G. Pinnock made brief remarks in regard to the mission study book for the year, "The Romance of Missions in Nigeria," of which he is the author.

The final hour of the morning session was devoted to the Conference on Mission Literature, conducted by Mrs. J. Ernest Erwin of Morganton. The following topics were discussed: Mission Maps," Miss Carroll; "Mission Magazines," Mrs. A. V. Joyner; "Mission Literature," Mrs. J. Yates Killian; "The Use of the Bible," Mrs. H. B. Moore; "Associational Libraries," Miss Macy Cox.

The final report of the Enrollment Committee showed 290 delegates registered.

The President mentioned the bereavement of Dr. and Mrs. Johnson in the loss of their little grandson, Wingate Johnson, Jr. The Corresponding Secretary was requested to send a telegram of sympathy.

Adjourned after prayer by Mrs. D. B. Snyder.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

Miss Bertha Carroll presided during the Y. W. A. session.

After the audience had sung the Young Woman's Auxiliary hymn, "O Zion Haste," Miss Louise Holland of Chowan College, led the devotional service. Theme, Prayer. Petition. Miss Holland read John 17 and made fitting remarks, after which Mrs. George Shuford offered prayer.

Singing. "Take Time to Be Holy."

A message from the Y. W. A. Secretary, Mrs. R. N. Simms, was read by Miss May Carter, Asheville. It was followed by a chain of prayer for special blessings on the Y. W. A. leader and her efforts during the coming year.

The Report of Louisville Training School Trustee was presented by Miss Bertha Carroll and adopted.

REPORT OF LOUISVILLE TRAINING SCHOOL TRUSTEE.

The past year has seen the dreams and prayers of many of our Southern Baptist women realized. The wonderful new Training School Building—the new House Beautiful, into which has already entered the sweet Christian spirit which characterized the old House Beautiful,—has been completed. In April the cornerstone was laid amid great rejoicing, and on October 3. the girls of the Training School were able once more to move back to the loved site of their first building.

By October 6, only 30,000 of the 150,000 dollars which the building cost remained to be raised, and that had been arranged for without mortgaging the building. This is the first debt the school has ever had and we are glad that our State is not to blame for it. Illinois, Kentucky and North Carolina were the first States to raise their apportionments for the new building, and we are happy to know that all of our $15,000 was in the hands of our Southern W. M. U. Treasurer when the building was completed.

The girls are delighted with their new quarters. They are light, roomy and comfortable. At the present time a part of the building has been rented to the Y. W. C. A. till the student body has grown large enough to need it.

In May immediately after the Southern Baptist Convention the new building will be dedicated and we expect to have several representatives there. It will be a great day for all of us, though the dedicatory exercises can be but a rededication of the building which has been erected in the name of God by thousands of faithful women and dedicated to His service.

Five scholarships have been given this year through our State Training School Fund. One of these is given by the Chowan Association and one, the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, has been endowed by Mrs. Joel G. Layton of Dunn.

Our State is represented this year at the Training School by seven young women: Misses Vonnice Lance, Hattie Lance, and Elma Towe, of Asheville First Church, Miss Floy Johnson of Four Oaks, Miss Mattie Bain of Coats, Miss Cora Caudle of Houstonville and Miss Rose Goodwin of Elizabeth City. Misses Bain and Caudle are two of our scholarship girls who complete their work at the Training School this spring. Let us not forget to ask our Father's blessings on them as they go out into the world to serve Him.

Miss Towe is also a scholarship girl, and Miss Vonnice Lance has been granted a scholarship for the spring term. Miss Goodwin is the beneficiary of the scholarship given by the Chowan Association.

May the number of our Training School girls increase every year till we shall have a great host of young women trained in Christian leadership and dedicated entirely to the service of Him whose heart swelled with compasison as He beheld the hungering multitudes.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA CARROLL, Cor. Sec.,

For

MRS. H. C. MOORE, N. C. Trustee.

Messages from our North Carolina girls at the Training School were read by Miss Valeria Green, and Miss Mamie Carroll.

"Good Neighbors" was the subject of an address by Miss Mary Faison Dixon, Baltimore.

Miss Annie Ruth Caldwell, Lumberton, spoke on "The College Girl in the Home Church."

Mrs. B. A. Hocutt, Clayton, discussed "Mission Demonstrations."

Minutes of the morning session were read and approved.
Announcements.

Closing prayer by Mrs. J. J. Roddick.

THURSDAY EVENING.

Opening hymn, "From Greeland's Icy Mountains."

Prayer by Dr. W. F. Powell.

Scripture reading, Rev. J. C. Owen, Asheville.

After a duet, "I Am Happy in Him," Mr. Owen presented Dr. T. W. O'Kelley, Raleigh, Vice-President of the Foreign Mission Board for North Carolina, who delivered an address, "Missions in the Present Crisis."

The second address of the evening was given by Dr. S. G. Pinnoek, Abeokuta, Africa. Subject, "Mission Work in Nigeria."

Dr. O'Kelley read the following resolutions, which were adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTIONS.

Feeling deeply grateful to the Baptist churches of the Buncombe Association and the citizens of Asheville for the very hospitable way in which they have entertained the Woman's Missionary Union for the session of 1918, and desiring to express our appreciation, we, the Executive Committee and delegates of said Union, do hereby resolve:

First: That we extend our thanks to the pastor and members of the First Baptist Church for their cordial welcome and untiring efforts in our behalf; to the Entertainment and Hospitality Committees for their forethought in providing for us comfortable homes; and especially do we thank the hostesses who have so kindly thrown open their homes to us. We also desire to express our thanks to the Boy Scouts, who so gallantly escorted us to our homes; to the choir, and the chorus from Mars Hill College for the beautiful musical numbers rendered during our sessions; and to the ushers for their many courtesies.

Second: That we also wish to express our thanks to our visiting sisters who have taken part on the program. To the brethren, our appreciation of their services during the night sessions; and to the citizens of Asheville for the delightful drive on Wednesday afternoon which enabled us to enjoy to the fullest the beautiful scenery in the "Land of the Sky."

Third: That we extend our thanks to the Asheville papers for the courtesies which they have shown us.

Fourth: That a copy of these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the Union and that copies be sent to the Asheville papers for publication.

Minutes of the afternoon session were read and approved.

Mrs. W. C. Riddick, Raleigh, conducted the Conference on Personal Service and War Work Activities. In the absence of Mrs. C. E. Brewer, Chairman of the Committee on Personal Service, her report was read by Mrs. W. C. Riddick.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT, 1917-1918.

The record of the year's work reminds us of Jesus when He said, "I was hungered and ye gave me meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me drink; I was a stranger and ye took me in; naked and ye clothed me; I was sick and ye visited me; I was in prison and ye came unto me." Blessed thought that in ministering unto the least of these our Saviour accepts the service as unto Himself!

Our report can give only a part of the work done. Much of it cannot be expressed in figures. In some societies practically every form of service helpful to the community is rendered. As one society expressed it, "the response in every case has been equal to the knowledge of the need." The sick have been visited, have been nursed and provided with medicine and comforts,—flowers and dainties have been given; and letters of cheer written. Garments and food, bedding, ice and fuel have been sent to the needy; boxes of clothing sent to flood sufferers; donations of garments and bed linen given to hospitals, and one society sent Christmas gifts to all our women missionaries—150 in number. Aid has been given to traveling girls. One society has provided a crib in a railroad station and kept it furnished with clean linen. Many tracts and gospels have been distributed. Weak churches and societies have been strengthened by visits and teachers.

A new form of service has come to us because of the awful war in which our country is engaged. Many of our women give much time to the work of the Red Cross—making hospital supplies for the soldiers and layettes for the babies in France. Comfort bags and boxes have been sent our soldiers in camp. Many garments have been knitted for them. Neither time nor money has been spared to make them comfortable.

In Charlotte women have invited soldiers to their churches and to their homes, entertained them socially at dinners, tried to mother them, thus throwing around them the best influences. They have visited them in the hospitals in camp, cheering them with flowers and dainties. In fact they have done everything possible to make them comfortable and happy.

While the war continues not only will this work of providing for our soldiers be upon us, but the loved ones at home need to be given kindly thought, the cheering visit, and often the helping hand. Our task is great. We can do all things through Him who strengtheneth us.

The following are the statistics on Personal Service for the year based on the reports sent in by the societies: Number of Woman's Missionary Societies doing Personal Service work 89; number having Personal Service Committees 75; persons taking part in the work 1505; teaching in Mission Sunday-schools 33; Home Makers Clubs 1; Cottage Prayer Meetings 231; visits to sick, shut-ins and strangers 23,352; visits to prisons 161; visits to weak churches and Sunday-schools 135; services held 256; literature distributed—gospel tracts, etc., 2,754. Five societies report rescue work; thirty-nine work for negroes; one work among foreigners; four Boy's and Girl's Clubs; one Cheer-all Club. Baskets of food and meals given 1,471; garments 2544; food and garments to the value of $1,431.68; given in cash to charitable objects $3,239.39; number of sweaters knitted 337; others garments knitted 322.

The Y. W. A.'s reporting Personal Service Committees number 15; members taking part 133; teaching in Mission Sunday-schools 14; visits to shut-ins, hospitals and strangers 795; services held 46; societies working among negroes 1; rescue work 2; Cheer-All Clubs 1; tracts and books distributed 57; food 12 trays; garments 25; food and clothing valued at $89.10; cash $98.36. One society is clothing and educating a girl in boarding school. Sweaters knitted 54; other garments knitted 43.

The Girls' Auxiliaries report three Personal Service Committees; 25 members taking part in the work; 142 visits to sick. Two societies have given groceries; ten garments given; $13 in cash contributed to charity.

The Sunbeam Bands report one Personal Service Committee. Two report helping in the work; 50 visits made.

Respectfully submitted,

Miss Carroll read the Recommendations of the Executive Committee for the year 1918-1919. On motion of Mrs. H. M. Finch they were adopted without discussion.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1918-1919.

Grateful to God for the blessings of the past, and for the enlarged opportunities of service that are ours today, the Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union recommend for the year 1918-1919:

I. Watchword and Hymn. That we adopt for our watchword Colossians 3:24, "For ye serve the Lord Christ," and for our hymn, Come Women Wide Proclaim.

II. Prayer. That, recognizing prayer as the greatest force in our lives, and feeling the need of power in our service, all societies and individual members unite daily in prayer for the coming of the Kingdom, and for world-wide peace. That we remember daily in our prayers the men in our army and navy, those at the front, and those in camp.

In order that our Union in this crisis may measure up to its opportunity and responsibility we ask our members to keep the Prayer Calendar constantly before them, and to pray each morning for the special object for that day.

Sunday—For Foreign Missions.

Monday—For our Woman's Missionary Societies.

Tuesday—For Home Missions.

Wednesday—For our Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador Societies.

Thursday—For the Louisville Training School.

Friday—For our Young Woman's Auxiliaries.

Saturday—For State Missions.

That the first week of the year be observed as a Week of Prayer for World Wide Missions; the second week in April for Home Missions; and one day in September for State Missions; and that we endeavor to unite our entire membership in these special seasons of prayer and offerings.

III. Sympathy. That as an organic part of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention, we endorse the resolution adopted at the session in New Orleans, May, 1917, declaring our sympathy with those forces in our country which make for righteousness, patriotism working towards universal and permanent peace, prohibition, Sabbath observance, the sacredness of the home, the establishment of the family altar, and the crusade against poverty, disease, illiteracy, and crime.

IV. Division Leaders. That our five Vice-Presidents serve as leaders of their respective divisions, holding institutes in their divisions where it is requested by their Associational Superintendents, assisting their Superintendents in every way possible, and making a report of their division at the Annual Meeting of the Union.

V. Contributions. That we endeavor to secure systematic contributions to missions from every woman and child in our churches; that a monthly offering be made through the society and that special offerings be made at the following stated periods: A Christmas Offering for Foreign Missions in December or during the Week of Prayer for World Wide Missions, a Thank Offering for Home Missions the second week in April, and an offering for State Missions on State Mission Day in September; that the monthly contributions the first quarter ending May 31 be given with the special offerings in April to Home Missions, and that the Expense Fund for the Executive Committee be sent in in May. We further recommend that a part of the contributions of the Woman's Missionary Societies, Young Woman's Auxiliaries and Girls' Auxiliaries the first month of the second quarter, June, be given to the Louisville Training School for current expenses and for scholarship funds, and that the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors contribute this month $100 for the Bible Fund of the Sunday School Board and $150 for the Margaret Educational Fund. That the contributions of the remaining two months, July and August, be given toward completing our apportionment for the Church Building Loan Fund; and that special effort be made to secure contributions for this object and to complete Memorial Funds. That the third quarter be given to the special work for State Missions, and that all societies be urged to observe State Mission Day, special programs being prepared for that purpose by the Executive Committee. That the contributions of the fourth quarter be devoted to Foreign Missions, and in view of the increasing demands of our Board, we ask each society this year to increase their gifts to this department of our work. We further recommend that all members of Missionary Societies make their contributions to missions through their societies; that wherever the budget or duplex envelope plan is used the society arrange with the church treasurer to credit all mission contributions of members of the society to the society, and that all contributions made by the society be credited both to the society and to the church.

VI. Organizations. That, through the Associational Superintendents, we attempt to organize missionary societies in every church in our respective Associations this year. Realizing the importance of training the younger women and the children in mission thought and giving, we would emphasize the importance of our Auxiliary and Junior societies and urge our Women's societies to assume the responsibility of forming and fostering these organizations, believing that there is no greater work than that of training in Christlike service those on whose hands the future work of our churches depends.

VII. Louisville Training School. That, having completed our $15,000 apportionment for the New Building of the Louisville Training School, and needing now that our societies raise only the sum necessary for the maintenance of our part of the Current Expenses, and for our three Scholarships, we recommend that the gift for this fund this year be $1,000, the same to be contributed during the month of June.

VIII. Mission Literature. Realizing the need of more information in regard to mission work, we recommend that each Society appoint annually a Literature Committee who shall endeavor to secure subscriptions to Royal Service, to Home and Foreign Fields and to our State denominational paper, the Biblical Recorder. We recommend that the Society as a whole subscribe to the above publications, if there are no individual subscribers among its members. That we endeavor to make the Woman's Missionary Union page in the Recorder a means of weekly communication between the officers of the Union and the Societies, and that reports of all Associational Meetings and items of general interest to the work be sent to the Editor, Miss Bertha Carroll, for publication.

We suggest that the Literature Committee in each Society keep a file of mission magazines and leaflets for the use of program committees. We also recommend that at the Annual Associational Meetings a Literature Committee who shall endeavor to secure subscriptions to our mission magazines and to the Biblical Recorder be appointed to serve during the meeting.

IX. Traveling Libraries. That we continue to circulate Missionary Libraries throughout our Associations, confident that the reading of these books will do much to increase and sustain interest in mission work. (Information in regard to these books will be gladly furnished by the chairman of the Library Committee, Mrs. J. W. Bunn, Raleigh.

X. Bible and Mission Study. That while we endorse the plan of using the mission study text books as the basis for the program in the circle meetings of our larger societies we would urge that the regular mission study class once or twice a year be maintained and that every society give some place in the year's work to definite mission study. For the coming year as text books we recommend: for Woman's Missionary Societies and Young Woman's Auxiliaries, The Romance of Missions in Nigeria, by Dr. Pinnock, and Missionary Milestones, by Seebach; for Royal Ambassadors and Girls' Auxiliaries, African Adventurers, by Miss McKenzie, and Bearers of the Torch, by Crowell; and for Sunbeams, African Adventurers and African Picture Stories.

That in addition to the devotional service consisting of Bible reading, prayer and praise with which all our society meetings are opened, we have a study class during the year for systematic study of the Bible. We further recommend as a text book Bible Outlines, prepared by one of the field secretaries of the Southern Baptist Convention, Dr. Beauchamp. We suggest that Bible study and mission study classes be combined giving one-half time to each and having two teachers.

XI. Personal Service. That we endeavor in every way to meet the needs of the unsaved and unfortunate in our own communities and that each society report annually to the chairman of our Personal Service Committee, Mrs. C. E. Brewer, Raleigh, all activities along that line. As a guide in this work we recommend the plans outlined in the hand book of Personal Service published by the W. M. U. at Baltimore at the same time calling attention to the fact that no contributions of money to relief work are included in the reports of the Union. That we pledge our loyalty to our country and that we co-operate as far as possible with the Red Cross and all other organizations for the war relief in our various localities.

XII. Annual Meetings. That we emphasize the importance of every Society's sending a representative to the Annual Associational Meeting and of entering heartily into all of the plans of the Associational Superintendents. We recommend further, that these meetings be held at a separate time and place from the General Association wherever this is practicable. That a report of the work done by the Woman's Missionary Union be sent each year to the General Associational meeting, this report to be read by some pastor selected by the Associational Superintendent; and that the request be made that this report be embodied in the minutes of the Association under the head, Woman's Work; that delegates be sent to the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, who on their return shall give a full report of this meeting to the Society.

XIII. Summer Assemblies. That the Vice-President of the Wilmington Division conduct a department of W. M. U. work at the Wrightsville Assembly and that the Vice-President of the Asheville Division conduct a conference at Ridgecrest. We further recommend that societies in the eastern part of the State send representatives to the Wrightsville meeting, and those in the western sections to Ridgecrest.

XIV. Standard of Excellence. That we adopt the following Standard of Excellence for Woman's Societies and Young Woman's Auxiliaries.

1. At least twelve regular meetings a year with a devotional exercise and a definite missionary program.
2. An increase in membership during the year of at least ten per cent of the number enrolled at the beginning of the year until all eligible members are enlisted.

3. An increase of gifts to missions of not less than ten per cent of the preceding year's contributions to similar objects.

4. Regular reports to State Officers each quarter of the year.

5. *One of the denominational magazines or a Calendar of prayer subscribed for in at least half of the homes represented in the Missionary Society, the ultimate aim being one in every home.

6. **Observance of the special season of prayer for State, Home and Foreign Missions.

7. ***At least one Mission Study Class during the year.

8. An average attendance at regular meetings of a number equal to one-half of the membership.

9. Some definite, organized Personal Service rendered regularly to those of your own community in spiritual or physical need.

10. ****Organization and fostering of a Missionary Society in a neighboring church, or for the younger people of the local church.

XV. Financial Aim. That our financial aim for the year be $65,000.00 to be divided as follows:

To Foreign Missions .....	$ 23,000.00
To Home Missions .....	16,000.00
To State Missions .....	12,900.00
To Louisville Training School.....	1,000.00
To Margaretville Educational Fund .....	150.00
To Sunday School Board.....	150.00
To Expense Fund .....	800.00
To Church Building Loan Fund.....	11,000.00
Total .....	$ 65,000.00

The Report on Louisville Training School was presented by Mrs. H. F. Brinson.

RREPORT ON LOUISVILLE TRAINING SCHOOL.

In view of the fact that, we have completed our $15,000 apportionment for the new building of the Louisville Training School, and need now that our societies raise only the sum necessary for the maintenance of our part of the current expenses and our scholarships, we, your Committee on the Louisville Training School, recommend that the gift for this fund this year be $1,000, the same to be contributed during the month of June.

We further recommend that we lay more stress and importance on our Training School in our individual societies, in our Associational Meetings; and, also, that we have a Training School Hour in our Annual Associational Meetings.

The Report on Personal Service was read by Mrs. J. H. Haynes and received.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PERSONAL SERVICE.

The first qualification for personal service is a thoroughly yielded life. As a Union and as individuals we must lay ourselves at the feet of the Master. We must think, work, give, pray—pray unceasingly for the cause of Christ. We must love individuals; serve individuals; study individuals sympathetically, study them with the purpose of serving them individually. As Christ won those about Him through the personal touch, we should likewise enlist those about us for Christ.

Feeling something of the value Christ puts on the individual we, the Committee on Personal Service recommend:

(1) That we seek of God the vision that will make us to know that we cannot render sincere, loving service until we have first crowned God supreme ruler in our own lives. To have the power to do effective personal service we must "put on the whole armor of God."

(2) That we study to realize the physical needs of those around us and minister to those needs.

(3) That in all service for individuals we have as our highest aim the saving of the soul and of the life of the individual.

(4) That we be "good neighbors" to the sojourners in our midst. Especially do we emphasize our duty to encourage by love and personal interest the teacher and boarding pupils in our elementary and high schools whether these schools are Christian or State schools.

(5) That during the coming year we make the soldier boys our especial object of prayer and personal effort, co-operating with our government not only through organizations but also individually. Let us seek the opportunity of giving them the personal touch. Does some one ask how? Greet them cordially at your church services, provide for their social needs when they are in your midst. Let them know that we honor and love them for their service and that we are praying for them.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON Y. W. A. WORK.

Realizing our possibility, and our responsibility in mission work at these perilous times, we recommend the following:

(1) That we use the Standard of Excellence as our ideal of attainment, keeping constantly before our minds a definite aim. in study, in enlistment, in finance and in prayer.

(2) That we use the Bible, Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields, the Biblical Recorder and our leaflet literature in the preparation of our programs, and in gaining a deeper knowledge of mission work, and that we use the Calendar of Prayer in as many auxiliaries as possible.

(3) That we urge each auxiliary to have during the year at least one Mission Study Class.

(4) That special effort be made to observe Home, State and Foreign Mission Days.

(5) That we endeavor to enlist every girl in our churches in some organized mission work.

(6) That every Y. W. A. have a Personal Service Committee, and try to follow out as far as possible the Circle Plan.

(7) That we organize seventy-five new societies during the coming year.

(8) That we observe Promotion Day.

(9) That each auxiliary foster and organize other auxiliaries wherever possible, and that they assume a special responsibility in the organization of Girls' Auxiliaries.

(10) That we attend the Missionary Institutes and Associational Meetings, and send a representative to the Annual State W. M. U. and the Missionary Conferences at Ridgecrest and Writgsville, and that, wherever it is possible, we have an Associational Y. W. A. Rally.

(11) That we take for our financial aim for 1918-1919 a 10 per cent increase over our contributions for this year.

(12) That each Y. W. A. leader stress the importance of sending quarterly reports regularly and promptly.

(13) That each Y. W. A. leader take the Correspondence Course.

(14) That we strive to enlist the full co-operation of college girls; that Ann Hasseltine Circles be organized in our colleges; and that during the vacation months the co-operation of these students be enlisted in the Y. W. A.'s in our local churches.

(15) That during the 1919 session of our Annual Meeting, one afternoon be given to the discussion of Y. W. A. work.

(16) That we strive for deeper spirituality in our work, and that we hold up before our members the ideal of a life of service and that as many of our Y. W. A. girls as possible be urged to enter our Louisville Training School to prepare themselves for definite Christian work.

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
TWENTY-NINTH ANNUAL SESSION

EDENTON, March 25, 1919.

The twenty-ninth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, was held in the Baptist Church of Edenton, March 25th-28th.

Opening session, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock; Rev. E. L. Wells, pastor of the Baptist Church, presiding.

Singing by the congregation, "Jesus Shall Reign."

Mr. Wells presented Rev. H. I. Glass, pastor of the Methodist Church, Edenton, who led the devotional exercises. Prayer and Scripture reading by Mr. Glass. Singing, "O Zion, Haste." Prayer by Dr. J. B. Weatherspoon, Winston-Salem.

The annual sermon was preached by Dr. Weatherspoon. Theme, "The Christian's Cross." Text, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." Matt. 16:24.

Benediction, Rev. W. R. Haight, Windsor.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 26

The Union assembled for business at 10:15, with Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, President, in the chair.

Singing, "Come, Thou Almighty King."

The morning prayer service was led by Mrs. F. G. Battle, New Bern, who read the 145th Psalm, emphasizing "Praise" as the keynote of the meeting. At the conclusion of her remarks, Rev. W. C. Newton, Hwang-Hien, China, offered prayer.

Singing, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."

The Union was graciously welcomed by Mrs. E. J. Griffin, President of the Woman's Missionary Society, on behalf of the Society and the Baptists of Edenton; by Mrs. W. H. Clark for the city. Response by Mrs. W. C. Riddick, Raleigh.

Singing, "Work, for the Night is coming."

The President read the following telegram, and requested Mrs. Robert Royall, Wake Forest, to respond for the Union:

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 25, 1919.

PRESIDENT, MRS. WESLEY N. JONES,
Woman's Missionary Union,
Edenton, N. C.

My heart turns toward you as you meet in annual session this week. Your year's work has been glorious, and I rejoice with you. My sojourn in another State does not diminish my love for you and interest in you. May you have an epochal meeting in historic Edenton.

MRS. HIGHT C. MOORE.

Enrollment cards were distributed by the ushers.

On motion of the Recording Secretary, it was ordered "That those whose registration cards have been deposited with the Secretary up to this time shall be recognized as constituting the organization, but that the Secretary shall be empowered to add to this list from cards that may be subsequently deposited."

Miss Bertha Carroll moved that the program prepared and now in the hands of the delegates be adopted as the order of business. Carried.

Reports of Vice-Presidents were presented, as follows:

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

With profound gratitude in our hearts to God for what He has permitted the women of our State to accomplish this past year, we desire to pledge ourselves anew to the work committed to us, and to determine to be more faithful to our task, remembering that He has promised to be with us always.

In the Greensboro Division there are eight associations—Beulah, Central, Flat River, Mount Zion, Piedmont, Raleigh, Sandy Creek, and Tar River. Each of these held its annual meeting in the summer or fall, and all have superintendents, except the Raleigh, whose superintendent resigned recently and moved from the State.

We are grateful that there has been growth along many lines. Twenty new societies have been organized, eight memorials in the Church Building Loan Fund have been established, approximately fifty mission study classes have been held, the subscriptions to the Mission magazines have been increased, many are becoming vitally interested in the question of tithing, and our contributions for the year amount to $25,424, an increase of over $8,000 over last year.

We have a great task ahead of us, challenging us to do our best. In our Division there are 322 churches with 28,118 women. Of that number, we have enlisted only 8,179, or less than one-third, in our W. M. U. work. May God help us to see the great white harvest, and may we be willing to give ourselves unreservedly in service to Him to reap it.

MRS. WESTON BRUNER,
Vice-President.

REPORT OF ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

While we have fewer associations in this Division than in the others, yet I believe we cover quite as much territory, and we have a great field for work. Our four associations are large and well organized. There is much room for encouragement along all lines.

Miss Una White is superintendent in the West Chowan, and under her leadership the association has made marked progress this year. While supporting a missionary and Bible woman in China, they have pledged a $1,000.00 memorial in the Church Building Loan Fund.

The Chowan, this great association in which we are holding our meeting, is always doing big things; and this year, under the leadership of Mrs. Sawyer, they have decided to raise a $1,000.00 memorial in the Church Building Loan Fund, besides the $500.00 memorial pledged by the Hertford Church. One of the greatest achievements in this association is the scholarship which they are still maintaining in the Louisville Training School. This scholarship is at present held by Miss Rose Goodwin, who will graduate this year, and I for one envy these noble women the part they have had in preparing this beautiful, consecrated young life for greater work in the Master's vineyard.

The Roanoke, under Mrs. Daniels, is especially well organized, and is developing along all lines most satisfactorily. Great progress has been made this year in the gracious spirit of giving. They, too, are raising a memorial to the association.

Mrs. C. W. Blanchard is superintendent in the Neuse-Atlantic; and while little could be done during the fall and winter, the work is more encouraging than ever. Here, as in the Roanoke, we have much undeveloped territory, but the State Mission Board is going to give us a missionary this year; and while he is not yet on the field, we expect him very soon, and hope through his co-operation to reach many of our women in these churches. Our weakest point has been the lack of interest in Junior societies, but with the aid of a Junior superintendent we are expecting great improvements here. While the association has no memorial fund, two churches in the association are each trying to raise one.

MRS. F. G. BATTLE,
Vice-President.

In the absence of Mrs. H. T. Pope, of the Wilmington Division, her report was read by Miss Macy Cox.

REPORT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION.

The work in the Wilmington Division, as elsewhere, has been interrupted by conditions over which we had no control, and I am unable to give a full and accurate report.

Nevertheless, the women have shown themselves ever ready for any undertaking along missionary lines. Many of the societies have taken up the Church Building Loan Fund, and a number of memorials have been established. Tithing has not been given the attention it should have, but if interest in mission study continues, our women will be led by information to inspiration, and to deeper consecration and sacrifice.

Annual meetings were held in all but two of the associations, and these omissions were caused by sickness. Each one has met its apportionment, and some have gone beyond.

Every association now has a superintendent. The Robeson has suffered a very great loss in the "home going" of its consecrated leader, Mrs. R. D. Caldwell.

As usual, the annual meeting of this division was held at Wrightsville at the time of the Summer Assembly, and will be held there this year.

May we begin the new year with grateful hearts to God for all His mercies, and with renewed enthusiasm for His work. Let us work and pray, and with His help make this the best year in our history.

Respectfully submitted.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. T. POPE,
Vice-President.

The report of Mrs. T. S. Franklin, Vice-President of Charlotte Division, was presented by Mrs. H. M. Finch, of Rocky Mount.

REPORT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION.

The influenza has hindered the work of the Charlotte Division so much that the report seems very good, under the circumstances. Only ten associations sent in reports.

Their reports show a total of 69 W. M. S., 14 Y. W. A., 7 G. A., 6 R. A., 28 Sunbeam Bands, 37 new societies, 4 memorials. Four reached or more than reached their aim. All report splendid personal service. A number report a growing interest in missions. The Catawba River, while not reporting any Y. W. A., reports an increased interest among the young women who are members of the W. M. S., the association not being strong enough for both organizations. All are very active in the work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. S. FRANKLIN,
Vice-President.

The report of Mrs. W. H. Woodall, Vice-President of Asheville Division, was read by Mrs. H. M. Baker, of Lumberton.

REPORT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

At the annual meeting of the W. M. U. in Asheville in 1918 the representation from the west was large and enthusiastic, and at that time many plans for the enlargement of our work were made. We, like the rest of the world, have learned anew this year that man may propose, but God does dispose; and so, because of the condition arising from the "flu," our plans for the three Institutes that were to have been held in the three sections of our territory were not held. It was a very great disappointment to us, because in each of those sections new territory had been enlisted. We are not discouraged, because interest of the women is just as great now, and the longing for the touch with the other sisters in the work is great. For the first time since the division has been made in our State work, we have been in active touch with the Yancey County women, and plan, as soon as spring opens, to hold one of the institutes there.

The work done by the different associations, as shown in the Associational Meetings, exceeded all of our expectations. Most of the associations in this division held their first Associational Meeting separate from the regular Associational Meeting. The number of churches represented, the number of delegates reporting from the different churches, the interest manifested by those already enlisted in our women's work and by the women present from churches that have not been lined up, were conclusive proof that the only way to get real results in our work is in a separate meeting, where the women may have all the time and all the interest of the women who attend. Your vice-president was able to be present at five of the Associational Meetings—gave what assistance she could by letter to the other superintendents; she has kept no report of the number of letters and postals written, but she feels that she is in close touch with the work of every association in her division, and that in spite of all the difficulties of the past year, the work of the Woman's Missionary Union in Western North Carolina has told much in His name.

MRS. W. H. WOODALL,
Vice-President.

The President announced the resignation of Mrs. H. T. Pope and Mrs. T. S. Franklin as Vice-Presidents.

On motion of Miss Briggs, the reports of Vice-Presidents were adopted.

Miss Bertha Carroll, Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer, presented her report.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY-TREASURER

"The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad." Two years ago, while our Union was in session in Greensboro, our country declared war on Germany. A year ago, during our meeting in Asheville, the great German drive was on. Today the war is over, and the boys are coming home.

There have been many things to claim the time, thought and resources of all of us—Red Cross work, war relief, war finances, and, last of all, the influenza epidemic. We feared that all these things might cause a decrease in our activities for missions, but such has not been the case. On the contrary, we have this year abundant evidence of renewed consecration and redoubled endeavor on the part of our workers. How wise is our Heavenly Father's leadership, and how gracious is His care of His people!

The year's records show that our progress has been steady along many lines which we did not have the faith to expect.

THE YEAR'S GIFTS

Our gifts to regular objects have exceeded our year's aim by ten and one-half thousand dollars. Including contributions to Christian Education, we have reached not the $65,000 which was our goal, but $98,300, or over $33,000 above our aim! Was not the poet right when he said, "A man's reach should exceed his grasp, or what's a heaven for"? And shall we not set for ourselves this new year a yet higher goal and undertake a larger task with greater faith?

ORGANIZATIONS

Eighty Women's Missionary Societies, 53 Auxiliaries, 17 Royal Ambassador Chapters, and 63 Sunbeam Bands have been organized this year, making a total of 213 new societies, against 193 last year; 1,408 societies have reported, 597 reporting on time each quarter. Last year, 1,409 societies reported, 613 on time every quarter. This slight falling-off is found in the young people's organizations, and may be justly attributed to the illness of leaders during the epidemic. The women's societies have increased in numbers and have reported as regularly as last year.

The fact that for the past three or four years the number of active societies has remained practically the same, in spite of the new ones organized each year, causes us to feel that we must investigate and stop this leak in our numbers. Will not each worker do her utmost this year to prevent the death of her society or of the society near her? Let us, as our Standard of Excellence suggests, foster weak societies, giving them the help they need to make them strong in mission interest and activity; then our list of societies at work will grow in proportion to the new organizations formed.

SPECIAL MENTION OF ASSOCIATIONS' WORK

In spite of the epidemic and the quarantine, only two associations were prevented from holding their annual meetings, although the attendance was not quite so good as last year. In several associations, however, practically all the societies were represented. The Union reports 15 out of 16 present; the Catawba River, 16 out of 19; the French Broad, 6 out of 7; the Haywood, 11 out of 14; the South Yadkin, 30 out of 47; and the King's Mountain, 33 out of 52.

Of the 52 associations reporting, 47 made a 10 per cent increase in their gifts this year, and nearly all of them reached their apportionment, not including their gifts to Christian Education.

The Eastern, Mount Zion, South Yadkin, and Catawba River each made nine points on the Standard of Excellence for Associations; and the Central, Chowan, Flat River, King's Mountain, Roanoke, South Fork, and Wilmington made eight points.

The largest numbers of new societies were organized in the Eastern, Macon, Roanoke, Johnston County, King's Mountain, and Catawba River Associations, the numbers being 16, 14, 13, 12, 12, and 11, respectively.

The 147 Mission Study Classes reported is not a complete record. The superintendents were unable to ascertain the number in many cases, and we could give only the figures which were reported to us. The West Chowan leads in this work, having conducted 27 classes. The Roanoke reports 15, and the Central, Tar River, and Neuse-Atlantic 13, 11, and 10, respectively.

Several of our former superintendents have given place to new workers during the year. Mrs. Jessie Earnshaw, of Wake Forest; Mrs. E. P. Brock, of Wilmington; Miss Mattie Bain, of Coats; Mrs. S. D. Swaim, of Lexington; Mrs. J. R. Moore, of Forest City, and Mrs. R. E. Powell, of Bladenboro, are the new superintendents. Mrs. Powell is the superintendent of the Bladen Union, which was organized since our last meeting.

Although we miss the former workers in these associations, we welcome the new ones most heartily, and pledge them our loyal and loving co-operation.

ENLISTMENT CAMPAIGN

The enlistment campaign which we have carried on the past year has accomplished much in many societies. One society reports a gain of 76 members since the beginning of 1919, and another says that every woman in her church has been enlisted, except three. However, this work has only been begun in our State, and we hope it will be steadily carried on this year. Enlistment cards may be had in any quantity from the W. M. U. office. Our object in using the cards is to enlist new members, but we need also to enlist many inactive churches by organizing missionary societies among their women and children.

STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN

"The tithe is the Lord's; it is holy unto the Lord." We feel that our workers have studied proportionate giving this year more than ever before, and that many of them have said, "Of all that thou shalt give me, I will surely give the tenth unto Thee." One hundred and thirty-four Stewardship cards have been signed and sent in, and the superintendents report 407 tithers in their associations. When God's people give according to the plan which He has made for them, His coffers will overflow and the windows of heaven will pour upon us such abundant blessings that there will not be room to receive them, according to His gracious promise.

CHURCH BUILDING LOAN FUND

Two years ago the raising of the $31,400 apportioned our State for the Church Building Loan Fund seemed a large task for us to undertake. We are glad to report that practically all of that amount has been raised in gifts and pledges. Forty-eight memorials have been pledged—five by individuals, twenty by societies, and twenty-three by associations. The West Chowan, Chowan, King's Mountain, and Robeson Associations have pledged memorials of $1,000 each.

The large gifts to this fund have been contributed this year by Mrs. Emma E. Williams, of Mount Gilead. Mrs. Williams has established three memorials—one of $1,000 and two of $500 each. The Roanoke Association leads in the number of memorials, having five pledged by societies and individuals.

EMERGENCY PLEDGES

Realizing that there are often calls for gifts to help our Mission Boards out of financial emergencies, the Southern Union adopted a plan last May by which such funds could be secured. The following pledge was prepared and printed on cards, to be signed by individuals: "Since I am deeply interested in the work fostered by our denomination, and recognize that crises sometimes call for unusual and even sacrificial support, I hereby pledge myself, until further notice, to pay at least five dollars in response to any appeal made by the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention, with the understanding that there shall never be more than one such emergency call during the year."

The Emergency Fund this year has been given to the Church Building Loan Fund of $50,000 being raised by the Southern W. M. U. in memory of Miss Heck. Sixty-seven of these pledges have been signed and placed on file in our office. Forty-four of these have been paid, and both pledges and payments are still being sent in.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

By agreement of the Education Commission of the S. B. C., in conference with the W. M. U. Auxiliary to it, the State Unions are given credit for all contributions made to Christian Education by women in the State. In accordance with these directions, we have secured from the treasurer of our Convention Board of Education a full report of the gifts of our women the past year. This accounts to a large extent for the difference in the reports of the superintendents and the W. M. U. treasurer. We ask that no gifts made before March 1, 1919, be reported to us, as we already have the record of such gifts. We request also that societies do not report pledges, but gifts only.

MEETINGS ATTENDED

During the year the president and corresponding secretary attended the S. B. C. in Hot Springs, Ark., the dedication of the new Training School building in Louisville, and the Wrightsville Assembly. The Junior superintendent held a conference in Ridgecrest and assisted in the Ten-Days Student Conference at Blue Ridge. Thirty-four associational meetings were visited—seven by the President, thirteen by the Junior Superintendent, and fourteen by the Corresponding Secretary.

Total year's expenses, $2,544.06, or less than three per cent of the amount which we have given to missions. We are glad to announce that our expenses have been slightly less this year than they were last year. This we attribute to the fact that many societies were careful to send postage when ordering literature.

In the light of past achievement, under the inspiration of a great task yet to be accomplished, let us continue to go forward. Faithful in service, constant in prayer, assured of our Father's approval, may we be ever increasingly blessed and a blessing.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA CARROLL,
Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. H. M. Finch moved that the Union adopt this splendid report by a rising vote of thanks. Carried.

Miss Carroll then presented the report of the Treasurer, reading the totals by associations. (See page 78.) Report received.

The Mission Library of ten books awarded by the Union to the society making the best record of enlistment was presented by the Corresponding Secretary to the W. M. S. of East Durham. Received by Mrs. R. S. Ellis, President. Mrs. C. L. Haywood spoke with appreciation of the above named society and its work.

The Corresponding Secretary then presented the W. M. U. banner, won the second time by the Eastern Association. It was accepted by Miss Macy Cox, Superintendent.

The chair presented Dr. Livingston Johnson, of Raleigh, editor of the Biblical Recorder, who spoke on "The Biblical Recorder and The Woman's Missionary Union."

ing Fields."

ANNUAL ADDRESS OF MRS. W. N. JONES, PRESIDENT

Nearly twenty centuries have passed since Jesus, weary from His labors, rested by the well in Samaria, and spoke to the woman, who was a sinner, of the living water of which those who would drink should never thirst again. The disciples, returning from their journey into the city in search of food, said, "Master, eat." But He said, "I have meat to eat that ye know not of." Therefore, said the disciples one to the other, "Hath any man brought Him aught to eat?" Jesus saith unto them, "My meat is to do the will of Him that sent me, and to finish His work. Say not ye, there are yet four months and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white already to the harvest." To the disciples that day in Samaria there was probably little evidence of the harvest that the Master could with His divine knowledge see. There was the intense opposition of the Jewish leaders of their time, the indifference of the multitude who were satisfied with conditions, because they were accustomed to them, and did not recognize in the man of Galilee the long-expected Messiah, because His coming was so different from what they had thought and been taught that it would be.

Throughout the years that have passed, the coming of the Kingdom has seemed long delayed to those who in every period have waited, confident that the word of God would be fulfilled, and that the harvest was coming, notwithstanding the few indications that were apparent. But today even those whose vision of spiritual things is dim can see the many evidences that the fields are white for the harvest, and can realize that we must be diligent if we would share in its reaping.

In the new year that we are facing, let us consider together briefly the things that await our Woman's Missionary Union in this period of greater missionary activity that lies before us. Looking at the field nearest to us, we recognize the need of a more vital Christianity in our own lives, our churches, and our communities. The past two years, in which all have enlisted in a common cause, have given us a new standard of service. No longer can we be satisfied with a church membership with 25 per cent active in church affairs and the remaining 75 per cent passive, receptive of unnumbered blessing and content to have no part in bringing the world to Christ. We must continue an intensive campaign in our missionary societies to reach the women who are uninterested; ~~for~~ the missionary society is, after all, only the women of the church organized for Christian service. It is not an organization outside, but an organization within, the church, and its primary purpose is to enlist every woman and child in an active effort for the coming of the Kingdom. In this new day we must have a church membership whose faith is a living, glowing reality, and we must bring to the careless and indifferent the realization that they may have a part in God's great plan for the redemption of mankind. How we may do this, I cannot tell you, but I do say that one life filled with the power of His Spirit, and dominated with a purpose to serve, can transform her own church and community. The greatest influence in any life is the influence of example. It is not what we do for the Master's service that shall count for the most in the end, but what we are in life and character, because He is the dominant power in our lives. We must bring into active service the great number of those who are yet but awakening to the task that lies before us.

One of the largest fields of activity before our Union today is the field of Christian Education, that our Executive Committee presents to you this year for the first time in its recommendations. At the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention in Hot Springs, Ark., in May, 1918, the following recommendation was presented and adopted:

"Resolved, That, anticipating the adoption by the Southern Baptist Convention of the Education Commission's report, we pledge our co-operation in the proposed five-year campaign which begins May, 1919."

Falling into line with the policy of the Union as approved by the Convention, the resolution making Education one of the regular departments of our work is presented to you at this session. In our State the Educational Board has canvassed every association in their campaign to raise one million dollars for Christian education. A large part of this amount has been pledged. The plan we present to you is to make Christian education a regular department of your work, setting aside the months of July and August for that fund, and to give all money contributed by our societies in the next two years to Christian education to the Million-Dollar Fund. After that time, all funds are to be paid to the Education Board and to be disbursed by that Board, just as our contributions to missions are disbursed by the various boards. This matter will be presented to you this evening. It is almost unnecessary to speak to the women of our State about the importance of Christian education. We have only to look back a brief space and see the difference a trained leadership has made in our woman's work. No one has put this matter more forcefully than Dr. McGlothlin in his address at Hot Springs last May. I quote from him: "The educational commission has laid before us a great program. It contemplates not only adequate endowment and support for our schools, but, what is really more important, it seeks to arouse our Baptist people to a proper appreciation of education. It is the supreme hour for the Christian school. State school systems, as the sole means of educating a nation, are being discredited. By their fruits in Germany and France ye shall know. State school systems throughout the world as the sole and only means of educating the people would endanger both civilization and religion. They must be supplemented by Christian schools, free from the State, where the innermost conviction of the Christian heart can express itself. After the war the world must be reorganized, not from the standpoint of a belligerent and narrow nationalism, but from the standpoint of the Kingdom of God, in which a brotherhood as broad as humanity reigns. There must be no man and master, no men and supermen, but only men, brothers. To train men to accomplish this great and holy task is the task of the Christian school. It is a task worthy of all that is great and good in us."

There are many evidences of the whitening fields in the realm of social or, as we call it, personal service. On one of our manuals these words from Gladstone are found: "Talk about the questions of the times: there is but one question—how to bring the truths of God's word into vital contact with the minds and hearts of all classes of people." All of the various social problems that affect the world today, and that seem too complex when we seek to solve them by human methods, will be solved when we put into practice the teachings of Christ. Child labor and temperance legislation, welfare work, prison reforms, social-service centers, every activity of this kind, is but an effort to follow His example in meeting every human need that was brought to Him, and to make the world ready for His coming. A larger interest in the welfare of those in our communities shows a larger spirit of Christlike service. We should acquaint ourselves with the State and Federal laws relating to health, care of delinquents and defectives, employment of women and children, and endeavor to eradicate all social evils as far as possible. The church cannot shut itself up from the conditions round about it. Christ's prayer for His disciples was not that they should be taken from the world, but that they might be kept while in it. The greatest example of social service the world has ever seen has been done the past two years by the Red Cross and other war-work agencies, but the power behind these organizations was Christianity. Without the impelling power of the gospel of Christ, no organization could have supplied the men or the means. These things that I have mentioned apply not only to our State, but to our nation.

Perhaps no one thing has been more impressed upon us the past few years as the vital need in preparation for our whitening harvest in our Southern Baptist territory, than a larger conception of our needs in church houses. The statement is often made that we in the United States have more church organizations than are really needed or can do effective work; but recent investigations do not bear out this statement. In fact, they prove that the contrary is true. But even granting that we have a sufficient number of organizations, what kind of church houses have we? It is an inspiration to see the number of new and beautiful church houses that have been built in North Carolina the past few years, and now that the war is over we must greatly increase this number. Old things are passing, and the church house that was adequate a generation ago is not at all suited to our day and to the modern methods of Sunday-school teaching. Our Home Board is endeavoring to raise a million-dollar fund, that we may erect suitable church buildings all over our Southland. The W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention will give $325,000 of this amount. North Carolina's part is $31,400. Let us complete this fund in the next three months and do our part towards building suitable houses of worship all through our Southern Baptist territory. We need these houses to be ready for the large tide of foreign immigration that will soon be coming again to our shores. Notwithstanding there has been no immigration the past two years, we have a large increase of foreign population in our cities. We must be ready to meet the spiritual as well as the physical needs of these people, and to show them by example and precept that the things of the Kingdom are dominant in our lives. What impression as a Christian nation are we making on the constantly increasing number of students from foreign lands who are coming to our universities and colleges? These men and women will go back to their own lands in a short time. Shall they go as they came, or with a new knowledge of our God in their hearts and lives? Surely, this field is white for the harvest. We work on the foreign field through our prayers and our gifts, but we may have an active part in making this land of ours a nation whose God is the Lord.

As we look out upon the changing conditions in the world today we are reminded of the words of Balaam, "What hath God wrought?" Surely, "The wrath of man has been made to praise Him." We see no more closed doors to missionary enterprise. As some one has said, they are not only open wide, but they have been taken off the hinges. Even Tibet, that stronghold against the Christian faith, has thrown off the yoke imposed upon her by China, and the land closed against the missionary for so many years is open.

With the downfall of Turkey as a political power, the whole Moslem world will be opened to the gospel, and this presents the most wonderful opportunity for Christian work the world has ever seen. The testimony of the Christian martyrs who were given grace to die triumphantly during these past years of cruel suffering and oppression will leave its impress on the hard hearts of those who by their cruelty and treachery have won the name of the unspeakable Turk.

It is a most interesting coincidence that this year marks the centenary of missionary work in Turkey. A hundred years with so little apparent result, closing with all barriers removed. The day is dawning, and in the providence of God the harvest will soon be white in the land of the Moslem. Had I time I would like to speak of the preparation for the harvest in Japan, China, India, and the great dark continent of Africa. These nations are all in the midst of social and political changes, realizing that something more is needed if they are to keep pace with the world's progress. America, by her unselfish and sacrificing spirit in the world war, is in a position, as never before, to lead the world, not only in temporal things, but in spiritual. The question is, not whether the heathen people are ready for this guidance, but are we prepared spiritually to avail ourselves of this wonderful opportunity? Five million men from India have been engaged on the various battle lines. Five million men who probably had never been outside of their native villages have been brought into contact with men from Christian lands, who are waging a conflict for justice and world righteousness. The force of this contact cannot but be felt in the coming years. The mass movements in India, in which great numbers of the people have embraced Christianity, have continued throughout the war. The Indian, by his loyalty to the British Government, has impressed the world that he is worthy of greater things than we have given him, and there must be a larger effort to meet conditions in that country. Africa is ready for the combined effort of all missionary organizations. The liquor traffic must not be allowed to fasten itself upon this primitive people. Laws regarding land ownership must be made fair and just to the native. Now is the opportune time to stem the great tide of Islamism that is sweeping down from the northern part of the continent.

There is a new spirit of confidence manifested by the people of Latin America towards the United States, and a larger number of students are coming each year from South America to our country. There are evidences of a growing interest in spiritual things, and this should be an incentive to a greater activity on the part of our mission boards.

One of the most hopeful things in connection with mission work in the world today is the changed status of women in all heathen lands. Women have been forced by war conditions into places formerly occupied by men, not only in Christian lands, but in heathen lands as well. They have shown their fitness for all these unaccustomed tasks, and there is a new sentiment in the East as to the position of women. Even the men in Moslem lands are advocating the education of women, and there is a growing realization of the truth that the progress of any land is directly dependent on the proportionate progress of its women. One of the leading thinkers of India recently said, in an article in the Century Magazine: "Womanhood is the greatest asset of any nation; a weak womanhood means a feeble nation; an emancipated womanhood means a nation based on a sound foundation." An educated womanhood will revolutionize social and religious conditions in the Orient.

It is safe to say that in every land today there are evidences of the whitening fields—evidences so plain that all may see. The great question that comes to us individually is the question as to our part in the coming harvest, and the question of preparation, that we may be ready for the great things before us. Christ saw the coming harvest two thousand years ago.

There are those among us today who, in spite of all these evidences, have no vision. Having eyes, they see not; having ears, they hear not; and each one of us needs to pray the prayer of the Psalmist, that our eyes may be opened. We must have the vision if we are to be diligent in our Master's business. We must be able to look beyond all doubt and discouragement, and to realize the imminence of the coming of the Kingdom. We must have a vision of the world's great need, and we must not close our ears to the cries of those groping in ignorance and darkness, and we must not look beyond the many evidences of human suffering and sin. We cannot see it as the Master saw it, or look with compassion on the multitude as He looked: but we may find our way into the waste places and hear the divine commission to help in making the rough places plain and the crooked ways straight. The best preparation that we can make is to get for ourselves a new knowledge of God, a new knowledge of His saving power, His grace and mercy, and His wonderful love for a lost world. There must be a closer fellowship with Him if we are to be prepared for the greater day that is before us. Then it is essential that we have power in our service. There will always be failure when we go in our own strength. Power is from God; we recognize this every time we offer the prayer—"For Thine is the power," but it is His will that we should have this power. "All power is given me, and lo, I am with you always."

In the new year before us, let us recognize that there is a divine call to share in the labor of the harvest to each of us, and that with the call there is the promise of power to accomplish the task which He has given.

In an editorial in the Missionary Review of the World some months ago we find these words: "What counts most in the war, and will inevitably determine all, is not the shells poured forth in thunder from the guns, but the lives poured out in silence by the men." This is the great work, and the man who knows it, and who knows that in doing it he is doing the infinite will of the silent or the low-spoken God, has entered into power. As Newbolt wrote of Chinese Gordon—

"For this man was not great
By gold or royal state,
By sharp sword or knowledge of earth's wonder.
But more than all his race
He saw life face to face,
And heard the still small voice above its thunder."

Singing, "He Leadeth Me."

Devotional service, led by Mrs. T. B. Davis, Kinston. Prayer by Mrs. H. W. Baucom, Smithfield.

Minutes of the morning session read and approved.

Miss Briggs spoke on the theme, "First the Blade, Then the Ear," after which she presented the report of the Junior Superintendent.

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT

It would be a real pleasure to your Junior Superintendent to give a detailed history of the work of the year that has just closed. When we met last March in Asheville it seemed that we were entering the most trying year of the life of our nation, and that it would naturally be a difficult one in which to arouse mission interest, hold mission meetings, and secure mission offerings. That in each of these points we were wrong has already been shown by the reports presented today.

We rejoice greatly over the wonderful advance of the women and young women in their work, but our rejoicing would not be complete if the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors had not also made an increase over any previous year. You have noticed that the Sunbeams reported $5,518.86, which is more than $500.00 ahead of last year, and the Royal Ambassadors report $792.10, an increase of $142.00. These splendid amounts bring the Sunbeam average per Band to $13.29 and the average per Chapter to $13.42.

These averages mean more for the boys than for the younger children, since exactly the same number of Chapters reported this year as last—59; while the 415 Bands reporting show a loss of 19. Exactly the same number of Chapters sent reports each quarter—21; but the Sunbeams have fallen 24 behind last year, in that they have 143 reporting each quarter. But it is easy to understand this small change in figures, when we remember the heavy influenza handicap under which all our work was done in the third and part of the fourth quarters. When the leader of a young people's organization is sick or kept from the work, there can be no meetings, no offerings, and therefore no reports. We feel that under the circumstances the wonder is that there was not a greater loss in the number reporting.

There have been 63 new bands and 17 new Chapters organized during the year.

The Sunbeam Band leading the State this year is the same that led last year—the First Church of Rocky Mount, $210.00. We are proud of the record of this Band, and of the others that have accomplished so much in this year of difficulties—Asheboro Street, Greensboro, $176.85; Raeford, $111.50; Edenton, $102.29; Lumberton, $89.84; Ahoskie, $88.90; Boardman, $81.22.

The leading Royal Ambassador Chapter is Hickory, reporting $59.55; then Asheville, $52.81; Asheboro Street, $48.50; Mount Moriah, $48.00; Clayton, $39.90; Greensboro, $37.90; Buckhorn, $37.60; Askewville, $33.38; Statesville, $32.80.

A very encouraging feature of the year has been the large number of "Dollar Sunbeams and R. A.'s" reporting to the Superintendent. The total reached 1,027, the largest two lists being 63 from Rocky Mount and 40 from Edenton for the Christmas Offering. Since it is hard for any of us to be satisfied, your Superintendent is wondering if the list could be made to reach 1,500 this year. It is not alone that we want a long list, but we wish the boys and children to realize that the cause for which they are working is worthy of large gifts, even if this means sacrifice for the givers.

No part of the year's work meant more to your Superintendent than the visits to the thirteen associations. It would be a pleasure to mention special points in each of these meetings, for in each of them there were particulars worthy of record. But in this brief report only the list can be given: Piedmont, Carolina, Buncombe, French Broad, Western, N. C.; Tennessee River, Macon, Tuckasiegee, Haywood, Central, Raleigh, Little River, South Fork.

Besides these meetings, four societies have been visited, a four-session meeting held at Ridgecrest, and ten days spent in the Mission Education Movement Conference at Blue Ridge. These have necessitated traveling 2,300 miles, at an expense to the State Union of $51.00.

As our thought for the year that lies ahead of us we will do well to adopt the motto, "First the blade, then the ear"—St. Mark, 4:28. We have the promise of God that "While the earth remaineth, seed time and harvest shall not cease." We may take it that this promise applies to the individual as well as to the earth; that in the life of each there shall be a time when the seed which is the word of God may be received into the heart, there to bud and appear as the tender plant; after that, the ear shall develop, indicating the kind of fruit that shall later be found in the ripened ear. In the first epistle of John we read of the same three classes—little children, young men, fathers. We who are leaders of the young are dealing with the planting and cultivation of the delicate first leaves, so easily destroyed by the wrong touch of careless hands. The parable from which our motto is taken does not mean to encourage idleness, as any one acquainted with the simplest rules of gardening can see; but it is to strengthen our confidence in the living force of the truths we teach and to bring with force to our minds that "His word shall not return unto Him void, but shall accomplish that which He pleases, and shall prosper in the thing whereto He sent it."

So often leaders are discouraged because they have little time to give to their work, yet they who are really in earnest have the promise that precious seed, watered with tears, shall, through the divine power, be later gathered with a rejoicing heart.

But the ones to whom we must ask a searching question are those who are leaving the ground to the wind-blown seeds of evil. The prophet Haggai asks, "Are the seed yet in the barn?" There is a full supply of the seed of the Kingdom, but if we fail to draw from it, the hearts of our young people and children will be but fallow and uncultivated ground.

With renewed earnestness in our efforts for faithful planting and tending, may we receive into our hearts the words of the great apostle—"Now He that ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness."

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS,
Junior Superintendent.

Resolutions of Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador leaders, 1919-1920, were read by Mrs. E. W. Tatum.

RESOLUTIONS OF SUNBEAM AND ROYAL AMBASSADOR LEADERS, 1919-1920

Realizing that we, as leaders of Sunbeam Bands and Royal Ambassador Chapters, are sowing the seed of mission information and cultivating the tender plants of budding mission interest, we do again covenant together to adopt the following resolutions:

1st. MOTTO—"First the blade, then the ear," the thought in full being, "And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground, . . . and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. First the blade, then the ear; after that, the full corn in the ear.—St. Mark 4:26-28.

2. CONSECRATION—To reconsecrate ourselves to this important work for the coming of the Kingdom of God, holding as our great aim the conversion and development in Christian life of the children in our societies.

3d. PRAYER—To be more steadfast in prayer for our own Bands and Chapters and to keep in mind that Wednesday is the day chosen for special united prayer for the Junior work.

4th. STUDY—To give ourselves to a deeper study of the Bible, that we may be better prepared to show its great mission purposes to the children; to read our own and other mission magazines and books, that we may have present-day facts of the progress of the Kingdom of God to use in our teaching.

5th. MEETINGS—To make every effort to hold our meetings regularly, that the children may be impressed with the importance of faithfulness in this work; and to use our best means to increase the membership and attendance.

6th. PROGRAMS—To adapt mission material to the minds of the children, using mission stories, having as many as possible to take part in each program, but being sure that the program teaches missions and does not merely entertain.

7th. OFFERINGS—To have the offering an important part of the meeting, so as to leave a real impress on the minds of the children; to have the program give facts about the object to which the offering is made, and to train the children in the principles of proportionate and systematic giving; to try to have every child contribute to each of the Special Offerings as indicated in the Year's Program; to set an aim for the society, and to work untiringly to attain it.

8th. SPECIAL MEETINGS—To have at least one special meeting during the year, inviting the parents and older people, that the work and purpose of the children may be better understood.

9th. LEADERS—To remember that we are training future workers, and therefore to note and try to develop talents for leadership, at the same time encouraging those who have talents of helpful followers, that both leaders and followers may supplement each other in strengthening the work of the society.

10th. PERSONAL SERVICE—To look for simple forms of service the children can render, that they may know the joy of helping those around them.

11th. CO-OPERATION AND EXTENSION—To secure the co-operation of the primary Sunday-school teachers in giving mission instruction and securing mission offerings from the pupils of their classes; to attend our Associational Meeting and to aid our associational leader in all her plans for strengthening and extending the Junior work of the association.

12th. DOLLAR SUNBEAMS AND R. A.'s—To send the names of those in our societies who contribute one dollar or more any one quarter to the State Junior Superintendent for publication in the Biblical Recorder, little books of the Bible to be furnished in return if requested.

13th. HONOR ROLL—To continue the Gold Star Honor Roll of Bands and Chapters reporting every quarter, and also the list of those contributing more than $15.00 during the year.

14th. STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE—To make an earnest effort to reach a high place on the Standard of Excellence.

15th. STATE AIMS—To unite in striving to reach the following aims for the year.

Mrs. H. W. Baucom, Smithfield, presented the Year's Program for Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors.

YEAR'S PROGRAM FOR SUNBEAMS AND ROYAL AMBASSADORS, 1919-1920

FIRST QUARTER: MARCH—APRIL—MAY

Special Object—HOME MISSIONS

Sunbeam Aim: $1,600.00.

Royal Ambassador Aim: $270.00.

Also, 25 cents Expense Fund is asked from each Band and Chapter.
Report due May 31st.

Suggestions—Make a box as much like those used on R. F. D. routes, and mark it "R. S. D." (Real Self-Denial). Urge the children to give up special things during the quarter, that they may have offerings to drop in this box. They may write what they gave up on a piece of paper and wrap their offering in it, and "mail" them, signing or not, as they choose. The Leader can read the letters aloud at the end of the meeting. The special Home Mission Program should be prepared and rendered.

SECOND QUARTER: JUNE—JULY—AUGUST

Special Objects and Aims

Training School: Sunbeams .....	$ 175.00	R. A.'s..	$ 80.00
Margaret Fund: Sunbeams .....	200.00	R. A.'s..	20.00
Bible Fund: Sunbeams .....	140.00	R. A.'s..	10.00
Church Building: Sunbeams .....	400.00	R. A.'s..	75.00
Christian Education: Sunbeams .....	140.00	R. A.'s..	50.00
Total for quarter.....	$1,055.00		$175.00

Report due August 31st.

Suggestions—On as large a piece of brown paper as you can get, print in big letters "Our Sunbeam Garden" (or "R. A. Garden"). Draw roughly some green plants, with no flowers. Explain to the children that every 5 cents they bring to the meeting will make a flower bloom. Cut flowers from old catalogues or from bright paper, and at the end of each meeting during the quarter add as many flowers as the offering warrants; or, each child may be given a plot in the garden and allowed to put on a flower for every 5 cents he brings. Many variations to this plan will suggest themselves to the Leader.

THIRD QUARTER: SEPTEMBER—OCTOBER—NOVEMBER

Special Object—STATE MISSIONS

Aims: Sunbeams, $1,300.00; R. A., $175.00.

Report due November 30th.

Suggestions—Programs and envelopes for the State Mission offering will be ready in August. Order envelopes in time to distribute early in September. Ask the children the number of counties in North Carolina (100); then ask how many will try to give a penny for each county. In some Bands the whole Band could try to give 2 cents, 3 cents, 4 cents, or 5 cents for each county. A map of the State, divided into counties, will help to keep the record of progress, or just a list of the counties could be made and checked off as the amounts are given.

FOURTH QUARTER: DECEMBER—JANUARY—FEBRUARY

Special Object—FOREIGN MISSIONS

Aims: Sunbeams, $2,000.00; R. A., $250.00.

Report due February 29th.

Suggestions—As the offering for Foreign Missions is the largest for any object of the year, it is necessary to put the greatest amount of preparation on it. Begin teaching Christmas songs and hymns early in November. Give out the Christmas Offering envelopes, and encourage as many children as possible to try to give a dollar, even if it takes them the whole quarter to earn it. Explain to the society that $15.00 will keep a Chinese child in school for a year, and ask the children if they will not unite in taking care of a child for a year, or certainly for half a year. (Of course, stronger Bands and Chapters can do more than this.) The offering should be brought in at an open meeting of the society held jointly with the Woman's Society during the Week of Prayer.

For Sunbeam and R. A. literature, special programs, offering envelopes, etc., write to Devotional service, led by Miss Lillie Mae Aycock, Meredith College.

The chair expressed regret that Mrs. R. N. Simms, Y. W. A. Secretary, could not be present. Her report was presented by Miss Dorothy Gower, Clayton, and adopted.

REPORT OF Y. W. A. SECRETARY, 1918-1919

Truly, this past year has been a testing time. Unprecedented conditions in our own land and in our own homes have caused us to fear for the outcome of our work, but we were of little faith, for your Secretary rejoices to present to you the best report in the history of the North Carolina Y. W. A. God has blessed our feeble efforts more largely than we deserve, and we bow before Him in humble gratitude, realizing that without His guidance we could do nothing.

There has been growth in every phase of our work this year—an increase in reporting, organization, and contributions.

The total contribution from the Y. W. A.'s and G. A.'s is $10,669, against $6,539.24 last year. Not including Christian Education (which, of course, was not in last year's report), our total contributions amount to $7,706.00, or a gain of $1,166.76. Last year our gain over the year previous was $462.09—at that time, the best in our history. This makes an average of $35.00 per society; that of last year being $31.28.

Nineteen Y. W. A.'s gave over $100.00 this year, several giving over $200.00. The Durham First Church Auxiliary is once more the banner society in contributions, giving a total of $939.28. The Eliza Yates, Raleigh First Church, still leads the State in per capita contributions.

Again, the Mount Zion Association leads in contributions with $1,452.11 to her credit. Next is the Central with $656.37, and South Fork with $575.61. The Mecklenburg-Cabarrus and the Neuse-Atlantic ran a close race with each other, having respectively $414.05 and $411.45.

The Meredith College Y. W. A. has pledged $350.00 annually for the support of an African girls' school. The amount was pledged in a very short time and will all be collected before school closes, $287.50 being in hand now.

These contributions are the gifts of our 220 societies this year. There were 209 last year.

New Y. W. A.'s.....	1919..32	1918..27
New G. A.'s .....	1919..21	1918..22
Total.....	53	versus 49

The Mount Zion Association leads in number of societies reporting, having 17, while West Chowan follows, a close second, with 16.

We have missionary work established in 52 Associations, but only 41 have Y. W. A.'s. May we not establish a Y. W. A. and G. A. in each of these during the next year?

The West Chowan Association organized the largest number of new societies—six; the Eastern came next with five, and Mount Zion third with three. Next year we hope to report a much larger increase.

Your Secretary has been unavoidably prevented from visiting during the past year, but we trust that by both personal and quarterly letters the growth of the work has been encouraged.

A special effort has been made along two lines—the election of Associational Y. W. A. leaders and the organization of college Y. W. A.'s. Personal communications have been sent to the Associational Superintendent in regard to these matters. Already we have had gratifying results in the election or appointment of Y. W. A. leaders in the Associations where it is feasible to have them, and we believe our work will be greatly strengthened as well as enlarged in this way. A set of helpful suggestions for these leaders has been prepared, and a copy will be given each one.

We hope, by the end of another year, to be able to report a flourishing Y. W. A. in every Baptist college and high school in North Carolina. Won't you help organize one in the school nearest you?

As we rejoice over these things accomplished, let us determine to consecrate our talents more completely during the coming year. Go home with the determination to give your best to God's service.

Remember to make each quarter's report, summer as well as winter, what it should be.

Let me urge every Auxiliary to conduct an enlistment campaign. May we not ask each society to organize one new society? And will not every girl now a member of a missionary society determine to bring just one new girl into the work? Think what that would mean! It can be done. In every way possible, co-operate with your Associational Superintendent and Associational Y. W. A. Leader. Invite her to speak to you, and ask her to help you organize a new society in the church near you.

If there is no G. A. in your church, let me urge you to interest the younger girls and help them organize. This is a real duty.

May we set for ourselves more than a 10 per cent increase as our financial aim? May we not reach $12,000.00? We can do it.

We need to pray more earnestly. There is no power like that. Observe the days of prayer for our special offerings, and enrich your own heart and life, as well as helping our cause by following the Prayer Calendar daily.

By all means let each Auxiliary use the Mission Study books. Nothing will so enthuse the girls as a knowledge of the real needs of the various fields.

It is of great importance, too, for each society to engage in some form of Personal Service. The giver is oftentimes more enriched than the one to whom the service is rendered. Jesus Christ Himself was the exemplification of Personal Service.

Let us more completely enshrine His example in our hearts, and, with greater love for Him and His Kingdom, catch a larger vision of our opportunities and more fully consecrate our time, thought, and means to the coming of His Kingdom here on earth.

MRS. R. N. SIMMS, Secretary.

Mrs. W. N. Jones was called to the chair during the presentation of Training School report. The report was read by Miss Bertha Carroll, Training School Trustee for North Carolina. Adopted.

LOUISVILLE TRAINING SCHOOL REPORT

At this time, when our thoughts are so centered on Christian Education and training for Christian service, we are especially glad to present the report of our W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky.

Although many schools of our land suffered serious handicap during the past year on account of war and sickness, we are grateful that our Training School was not one of these. The 1918 spring term was finished with enthusiasm. Just before its close, the new building was dedicated, and many friends of the school from many Southern States were present on that great occasion, and were entertained in the "House Beautiful." Our State was represented at the dedication by the president, who spoke for the vice-presidents of the Southern W. M. U.; by Mrs. J. D. Boushall, a member of the executive committee, and by the corresponding secretary. Mrs. Boushall presented, for her mother, a beautiful portrait of Mis Heck, which hangs today in the chapel, named in her honor.

Representatives of the Foreign, Home, and Sunday School Boards spoke most enthusiastically of the splendid work done in the Training School, and of the large per cent of their women workers which are drawn from the alumnae of the school. Dr. Mullins, of the Seminary, in speaking of the faculty and students, said that the girls from the Training School contribute a great deal to the life of the Seminary, and that they average higher than the men in grades on their studies.

The new building is as beautiful and comfortable as it is reputed to be, and we are proud of the part North Carolina has had in its erection. At the dedication we learned that it still needed screens to complete it; so we were happy to send an extra sum of $500.00 for that purpose, in addition to our current expense and scholarship funds.

Soon after the beginning of the fall term, Mrs. McLure, who has been for eleven years the loved and honored principal of the Training School, and the mother of every girl who entered its portals, asked to be released from her duties, in order to take up Y. M. C. A. work, for her only son was in France. She was granted a year's leave of absence, and Mrs. G. W. Perryman was elected principal pro tem., with Mrs. George B. Eager, chairman of the local board of managers, as her assistant. Under these splendid leaders, the ideals and standards of the school have suffered no loss, and the work done has been of the usual high order.

Eighty house students and twenty wives of Seminary students have been matriculated this year.

The siege of influenza which visited the school last fall resulted in no serious illness, although several students were called home on account of sickness or death there.

A new phase of work undertaken by the Training School girls and the Y. W. A. this year is that of a once-a-month missionary meeting for the wives of the Seminary students and their children.

Mrs. Eager states that the canned goods sent the school last winter were thankfully received, both because they appreciably reduced table expenses and because of the love and interest which the gifts indicated.

North Carolina is represented at the Training School this year by six scholarship girls, three girls who are paying their own way, and seven wives of Seminary students. Misses Mary Warren, of Dunn; Vonnice Lance, of Asheville, and Eugenia Morrison, of Flat Rock, are using the three scholarships given by our State each year. Miss Vera Ruth, of Salisbury, has been granted for the spring term the half scholarship left from last year's fund. Miss Valleria Green, of China, is using the Louis Castlebury scholarship, and Miss Rose Goodwin, of Elizabeth City, the scholarship given by the Chowan Association.

Mrs. Eager, in a recent letter to the State trustees, especially mentions two of our girls, Misses Greene and Goodwin, as contributing much to the life of the student body. We feel that our Father's blessings are on them and on every life dedicated to His service.

Let us pray earnestly and continually for our girls in the Training School—for their health, for their spiritual and mental development, for God's divine guidance in all their activities, and for their teachers; and let us pray, too, for those girls in our midst who should dedicate their lives to definite Christian service and be trained for it. Day by day, as we pray for the whitening fields, may we pray for more laborers and more abundant harvests.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA CARROLL,
Trustee for North Carolina.

Greetings from North Carolina girls at the Training School were read by Mrs. F. B. Hamrick, Thomasville, after which Miss Mattie Bain, former student of the Training School, spoke of the great opportunities afforded by that institution.

Miss Kathleen Mallory gave an address, "For Glory and Beauty."

Singing, "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me."

"The College Y. W. A.: Its Conduct, Its Opportunities," was discussed by Miss Irene Mitchell, Chowan College. Following Miss Mitchell; Miss Lillie Mae Aycock told of special work done by the Y. W. A. of Meredith.

Miss Mabel Clark, Greensboro, spoke on "The Associational Y. W. A. Leader."

Concluding the session, Rev. W. C. Newton made an earnest appeal for a higher spiritual life, after which he led the Union in a season of prayer and consecration.

The President stated that, in order to complete the business of Friday morning's session, it would be necessary to begin one hour earlier. Motion to assemble at 9 o'clock. Carried.

FRIDAY MORNING

Session opened at 9 o'clock with singing, "Trusting Jesus."

Mrs. W. R. Haight, Windsor, led the devotional service, emphasizing the thought, "Grow in Grace."

Prayer by Mrs. F. G. Battle.

Minutes of Thursday's sessions, morning and afternoon, were read and approved.

The report on "Personal Service" was presented by Mrs. Charles E. Brewer, Chairman Personal Service Committee, and adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT, 1918-1919

Never in the history of our Personal Service work have there been greater opportunities for service than during the past year, and never before have our women responded more heroically or cheerfully to the needs of their fellow-men. No pen can record all the work done. Many societies reported that since their churches were closed, no record of their personal-service work was kept; others stated that much had been done, but could only give the approximate amount.

The work has been largely war work, Red Cross work, and, more recently, that of caring for the victims of the influenza epidemic. Many hours were given to Red Cross work, and a great deal of knitting was done in the home. The close of the war has brought no let-up in the number of garments made for the suffering people of Europe. In addition to these activities, our women have given valuable assistance in the war-work drives. They have given not only their means, but hours of time in soliciting funds.

Probably the most sacrificial service has been that in connection with the influenza epidemic. With self-forgetful love, they have entered the homes and nursed the sick and helped in every way needed. Many have provided food and delicacies, while one church fitted up an emergency kitchen and ministered to stricken families.

In spite of these unusual calls, other phases of work have not been neglected. The reports show the following facts: Number women's societies doing personal-service work, 87; number having personal-service committees, 74; number members doing personal-service work, 1,774; number teaching in mission Sunday-schools, 22; number cottage prayer meetings held, 35; number visits to weak churches and Sunday-schools, 133; services held, 75; number doing rescue work, 16; work for negroes, 13; work for foreigners, 16; literature distributed, 1,612 pieces; boys' or girls' clubs conducted, 8; Home Makers' Clubs, 1; Good Will Centers, 1; visits to sick, shut-ins, and strangers, 26,577; visits to jails or prisons, 338; baskets of food distributed, 11,023; garments distributed, 3,210.

Many societies bear testimony to the helpfulness of personal-service work. A few of the examples are: "It creates more interest in the work"; "Brought in new members"; "Broadens the sympathies and draws members closer together and closer to God, who Himself went about doing good."

The Young Women's Auxiliaries report: 14 societies doing personal-service work, 9 of which have committees for that purpose; 153 members of Y. W. A.'s are actively engaged in this work; number teaching in mission Sunday-schools, 1; cottage prayer meetings held, 6; visits to weak churches and Sunday-schools, 55; services held, 4; work for negroes, 1; literature distributed, 65 pieces; number visits to sick, shut-ins, and strangers, 460; baskets of food distributed, 175; garments distributed, 72. Eight societies testify that personal-service work has helped their society.

In addition to this work, many Y. W. A.'s nursed the sick during the epidemic. One society provided shrouds when needed. Another gave books and clothes to two boys to enable them to attend school. Others visited the county home and gave dainties and flowers to the sick.

The Girls' Auxiliaries report one society doing personal-service work, one personal-service committee, 15 members at work, 25 visits to sick, 30 baskets of food given, and 24 garments. This is the report of the G. A. of Clayton.

The R. A.'s of Clayton report the personal-service committee of their chapter as having made 3 visits to sick, and distributing flowers, food, etc., to the needy. They have also written letters to those who were in need of cheer.

Seven Sunbeam Bands report six personal-service committees, with 60 members at work. They have held 20 meetings, made 442 visits to sick, shut-ins, etc., given 76 baskets of food and 79 garments to needy, and distributed 43 pieces of literature. Five of these bands say that personal-service work has helped them.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. CHARLES E. BREWER,
MRS. T. W. O'KELLEY,
MRS. J. D. BOUSHALL.

Following the report, distinct phases of personal service were presented, as follows:

Mrs. Weston Bruner spoke of the work of the Tabernacle Church, Raleigh, during the influenza epidemic.

Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount—"Personal Service in the Sunday-school."

Mrs. D. J. Thurston, Clayton—"Personal Service in the Home."

Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, Nashville—"Rural Mission Work."

The Union then held the memorial service for those who have entered into rest during the past year.

Mrs. L. L. Henry paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of Mrs. R. D. Caldwell, late Superintendent of the Robeson Association. Following this, four high-school girls of Edenton sang "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown."

The congregation stood while the Corresponding Secretary read the list of names, after which the memorial hymn, "For All the Saints Who From Their Labors Rest," was sung.

The following resolutions were read by the Corresponding Secretary, and adopted:

WHEREAS, We, the Baptist women of North Carolina, who wear the Gold Star in memory and in honor of our loved ones who made the supreme sacrifice in the service of their country, in training camps, on the seas, or on the battlefields of Europe, in the righteous cause of suffering humanity, mourn together in bonds of love and mutual sympathy; and since we may not be able to erect a stone in memory of each of them, or place a flower on each honored bed, we do hereby pledge ourselves, in appreciation of all those who gave their lives, to build a memorial more soul-satisfying and more lasting than stone, by some gift for Christian charity or helpfulness here in the homeland of our heroes. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That this work be under the auspices of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, and a copy of these resolutions be sent to the President of the Woman's Missionary Union of each Baptist District Association in North Carolina, requesting her to inform the society in each church in her association of the object of this movement. Be it further

Resolved, That the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, in its present session, respectfully recommends this plan of memorial to the coming session of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention in Atlanta for its adoption and recommendation to all our State Woman's Missionary Union organizations. Be it further

Resolved, That all who wear the Gold Star in each State shall, through the local or associational Woman's Union representatives, decide at each annual State Convention of the Union what shall be the nature of their memorial gift, and that the name of each martyred hero represented by any local church or district association shall be written in an honor roll and read at each annual meeting as a distinct token of his being remembered when the annual report of work done through the memorial is read. Be it

Resolved, That this work be known as "The Baptist Gold Star Memorial Society," operating through the Woman's Missionary Union.

May the luster of these Gold Stars enable all who wear them to realize the glory of their sacrifice.

Respectfully submitted in memory of her son, Lieut. Leon H. Hattemer, who made his supreme sacrifice November 5, 1918, and whose dear form finds rest from battle in Argonne Forest.

Asheville, N. C.

Recommendations in regard to Christian Education were read by Miss Bertha Carroll.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

A very important step in the history of the W. M. U. was taken at Hot Springs last May, when it was voted to put the work of Christian Education on the budget along beside that of Missions. This new phase of the work is begun at a most opportune time, when our people are undertaking the important task of raising a million dollars for the Baptist schools of North Carolina. In view of the fact the main energies of our people are concentrated on this great task just now, we would recommend:

1. That the women in their societies throughout the State do everything in their power to aid those in charge of this campaign in developing and maintaining interest in the campaign among the churches of our State.

2. That they study carefully the aims and purposes of the campaign, and do everything in their power toward bringing them to a successful realization.

3. That they give special attention to the important matter of enlisting the boys and girls in the Junior Reserve Force of the campaign.

4. That all the contributions from our women to education go to this Million Dollar Fund while this campaign is on.

W. R. CULLOM,
General Manager.
R. T. VANN,
Sec. and Treas.

Mrs. F. G. Battle was called to the chair during the reading of recommendations and reports of committees.

Recommendations of the Executive Committee for the year 1919-1920 were read by the Corresponding Secretary.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1919-1920.

Grateful that during the past year with its unprecedented conditions the work of the Woman's Missionary Union has gone forward along all lines, and believing that the present hour demands an enlarged program, your Executive Committee recommends for the year 1919-1920:

I. Watchword and Hymn. That we keep our watchword, "For ye serve the Lord Christ," continually in mind as our incentive for service, and that our hymn, "Come Women Wide Proclaim," be to each of us a call to greater activity in mission work.

II. Sympathy. That we again declare ourselves on the side of those forces that make for righteousness, loyally upholding the policies of our government, working for universal temperance, social purity, Sabbath observance, the sacredness of the home, and against poverty, disease, illiteracy, vice and crime.

III. Prayer. Believing that the success which has come to our work the past year has come largely through prayer, we again urge all our women individually and unitedly to pray constantly for the coming of His Kingdom and for Divine blessing and guidance in our work. That we set apart some definite time each day for special prayer for these things, and that in our societies we observe, as far as possible, the special seasons of prayer in our mission calendar: 'The Week of Prayer for World-wide Missions the first week in January, the week of prayer for Home Missions in March, and a day of prayer for State Missions in September.

We urge a larger use of our prayer calendar and ask that our different departments and mission objects be remembered day by day as suggested therein:

Sunday—Foreign Missions.

Monday—Woman's Missionary Societies.

Tuesday—Home Missions.

Wednesday—Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador work.

Thursday—Louisville Training School and Christian Education.

Friday—Our Young Woman's Auxiliaries.

Saturday—State Missions.

IV. Mission and Bible Study. That societies of all grades, as well as individual members, carry on a systematic study of the missionary teachings of the Bible—all meetings of the society to be opened with a devotional service. In addition to using mission study text books as a basis for the program of the circle meeting, we recommend that each society organize at least one mission study class each year. As text book for the year we recommend, for Bible Study, All the World in all the Word by Dr. W. O. Carver; for mission study, The Crusade of Compassion.

V. Christian Education. That in accordance with the resolution adopted at the Annual Meeting of the Southern W. M. U. at Hot Springs, Arkansas, May, 1918, we make Christian Education one of the regular objects of our gifts, and that the months of July and August be given to this new department of work. That all gifts for a period of three years be given to the Million Dollar Campaign Fund, and that after the completion of said fund, all money given to Christian Education through the W. M. U. be disbursed by the Education Board of the Baptist State Convention. To accomplish the above, we urge our women to enter heartily and unitedly into this new work that makes such a forceful appeal at this time.

VI. Contributions. Realizing that, if we meet in any adequate way the constantly enlarging opportunities for world-wide evangelization, we must increase our gifts, we ask that persistent effort be made not only to secure regular gifts to mission causes month by month, but that we try to enlist the entire membership of our churches in the special offerings in connection with the seasons of prayer, and that the privileges and joys of stewardship be emphasized in our societies. We further recommend the following schedule for our gifts and special offerings:

First quarter ending May 21, Home Missions. Special offering in March. We recommend that we endeavor in this period to complete our Memorial Funds and to secure a contribution from each member of our societies for the Church Building Loan Fund, thus endeavoring to complete our apportionment of $31,400 by the end of the first quarter, also that our Expense Fund of ten cents per member be collected and sent in the last of May.

Second quarter, ending August 31. Regular contributions and special offerings this quarter to be for the current Expense and Scholarship Fund of the Louisville Training School, for Christian Education, for Bible Fund of the Sunday School Board and the Margaret Educational Fund.

Third quarter, ending November 30. State Missions. Day of Prayer and special offering for State Missions.

Fourth quarter, ending February 28. Foreign Missions. Special Christmas offering for China. Week of Prayer in January for World-Wide Missions.

We ask that all members of Missionary societies make all their contributions to missions through their societies and that wherever the budget or duplex envelope plan is used the society arrange with the church treasurer to credit all mission contributions of members of the society both to the society and to the church.

VII. Enlistment and Organizations. That we continue our efforts to reach the unenlisted and inactive women in our churches, our ultimate aim being, every woman in the church a member of the missionary society. With this in view, we ask our Associational Superintendents to plan an active campaign to organize societies in all the churches in their associations.

VIII. Young People's Work. Realizing the great importance of training the young people in our churches in Christian service we suggest that our senior societies take an active interest in the Junior Societies and assume, if necessary, the responsibility of maintaining such organizations in their churches. That we endeavor this year to largely increase the number of junior organizations.

IX. Literature. In view of the fact that it is impossible to maintain interest along mission lines without information, we would emphasize the importance of circulating missionary magazines—Home and Foreign Fields, and Royal Service—not only in the societies as a whole, but among the individual members. In order that our women may have an intelligent knowledge of denominational affairs and that they may keep in touch week by week with this committee, we ask that each society subscribe to our State paper, the Biblical Recorder, and endeavor to secure subscriptions among its members. We would suggest the appointment in February each year of a Literature Committee for this special work.

X. Personal Service. That in our efforts to reach out to the uttermost parts of the world, we would not forget those in our own communities who are in need physically or spiritually, and we recommend that each society appoint from time to time a Personal Service Committee who shall endeavor to meet the needs of the unfortunate in their communities, and that the work of this committee be reported annually to the Chairman of the State Personal Service Committee, so that she may be able to make a full report of this department of our work at our Annual Meeting. It is not desired by the State Union or by the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention that any money expended in any local work be reported.

XI. Annual Meetings. It shall be the policy of the Union to hold an Annual Session of the representatives of the various societies. Each Associational Superintendent is asked to plan for a meeting of representatives of the societies in her association each year. Union meetings of associational circles are advised where it is practicable. The Vice-presidents of the Union may hold institutes in their respective Divisions whenever it is requested by the Associational Superintendents and it shall be their duty to conduct Associational Meetings in the absence or illness of the Superintendent.

The Executive Committee shall arrange for a department of W. M. U. work at summer conferences whenever those in charge of such conferences desire that such a program be arranged.

XII. Standard of Excellence. That we adopt the following Standard of Excellence for Woman's Societies and Young Woman's Auxiliaries.

1. At least twelve regular meetings a year with a devotional exercise and a definite missionary program.
2. An increase in membership during the year of at least ten per cent of the number enrolled at the beginning of the year until all eligible members are enlisted.
3. An increase of gifts to missions of not less than ten per cent of the preceding year's contributions to similar objects.
4. Regular reports to State Officers each quarter of the year.
5. *One of the denominational magazines subscribed for in at least half of the homes represented in the Missionary Society, the ultimate aim being one in every home.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PLANS OF WORK

(2) That each society in the State be more prompt and more definite in sending in their annual reports to the Associational Superintendent, in order that a more accurate report may be made at the Associational Meetings and to the State Secretary.

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
THIRTIETH ANNUAL SESSION

Shelby, April 6, 1920.

The thirtieth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, was held in the Baptist Church of Shelby, April 6th-9th.

Opening session, Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. J. M. Kester, pastor of the church, presiding.

After the opening hymn was sung, Rev. J. W. Suttle, of Shelby conducted the devotional service. Mr. Kester presented Rev. J. E. Welsh, pastor of the First Church, Durham, who preached the annual sermon from the text, "I am debtor to the Greeks and to the Barbarians; both to the wise and the unwise." Rom. 1:14.

Benediction, Dr. J. E. Welsh, Durham.

Wednesday Morning, April 7th

The meeting was called to order by the President.

Hymn, "He Leadeth Me," was sung.

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. W. J. Roberts, of Shelby, who took as her theme "The Call of the West," using Paul's vision at Troas of the Macedonian call, "Come over and help us."

"Jesus Shall Reign" was then sung, after which prayer for God's blessing and guidance in our deliberations was offered by Mrs. T. B. Henry, Wadesboro.

The address of welcome from the King's Mountain Association was made by Mrs. William Archer, Superintendent of the Association.

A most cordial greeting from the churches of Shelby was given by Mrs. P. L. Hennessee. Response by Mrs. W. S. Privett, Edenton.

On motion of Mrs. W. R. Haight, Windsor, it was ordered that "those whose registration cards have been deposited with the Secretary up to this time shall be recognized as constituting the organization, but that the Secretary shall be empowered to add to this list from cards that shall be subsequently deposited."

Miss Bertha Carroll moved that the program prepared and now in the hands of the delegates be adopted as the order of business. Carried.

The report of the Corresponding Secretary and Treasurer was then presented.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY, 1919-1920

In the long ago, when God's people fought one day against the enemy and overcame, their leader set up a stone at the place of victory, and cried, "Ebenezer, hitherto hath the Lord helped us." Surely, as we stand at the close of another year and look back upon its victories, we, too, may exclaim with joy and gratitude, "Ebenezer, hitherto hath the Lord helped us." His is the victory, and the praise is his.

Like the rapid leafing and flowering of plants in springtime has been our progress the past year. Every department and every phase of our work has put out new roots and leaves and flowers; in every department there has been most gratifying development. Those of you who so steadily and patiently cultivated the soil during the many years when our growth was slow may well rejoice to see the results of your labors.

The Campaign.—Our year was well begun when plans for the 75 Million Campaign were launched. Most gladly did we enter into the task of organizing, enlisting, informing and leading the women of our State to prayer. Without hesitation, we undertook the securing in cash and pledges of $1,100,000 apportioned us by the Southern W. M. U. Following the Campaign plans outlined by the Conference in Nashville, Tenn., we went happily to work. Superintendents and other women in fifty-five Associations agreed to become Associational W. M. U. directors. With their aid, we secured directors in 1,600 of our 2,100 churches.

August 9-11 found a large number of our workers attending the Intercessional Conference in Raleigh. These went out into the forty-eight regional intercessional conferences, held August 31 to September 10, and helped to lead our people to pray in faith for victory.

At our school in Raleigh, September 8-10, for training teams to work in the training centers, nine of our ablest women volunteered and gave their best efforts to this work from September 15 to October 8. From their classes in these schools went hundreds of women back to their churches as W. M. U. organizers, team workers, and four-minute speakers.

The day of fasting and prayer, September 24, was quite generally observed, and prayer circles were formed and covenants of prayer were entered into which we know have made lasting impress on the history of Baptist people.

Enlistment week, November 26—October 1, was another memorable period during the Campaign. To the efforts of our workers at that time we owe the large number of Societies organized this year, and their larger membership. But, more than that, we feel that Enlistment Week, culminating in the great "Calling out the called" service, was the turning-point in many a Christian's life.

Time forbids my relating here how our Associational and Church directors went up and down the land, distributing literature, taking subscriptions for the Recorder and mission magazines, organizing church teams, speaking on world needs and Campaign plans, and calling the people to service and to prayer. The results you already know. At the close of Victory Week, December 1, our quota was over-subscribed. Pledges up to date total $2,167,330. This amount represents the pledges of the women and children of only 890 churches. Others, we feel sure, have subscribed, but no separate report of the women's pledges in these churches has yet been sent us.

During the Campaign months more new societies of all grades were organized than ever before, and in every branch of our great W. M. U. tree there is evidence of a quickening into new life such as we had not dared to hope for. It was a glorious campaign, and it continues to be glorious. Surely, since we know the thrill for the great achievement, we shall not again be content to undertake small things.

Never before has the value of our great W. M. U. program of prayer, study, training, and giving been so clearly shown as during the Campaign. It was the Missionary Societies who supplied the workers; it was the churches where we have societies which most easily raised their Campaign quotas and went far beyond. It was the women of our societies who made the most liberal pledges and reported them most promptly; and it is to these same women that we must look to see that the pledges made are properly collected and reported. It is to them also that we must look to complete the task of enlisting others in kingdom service, and to aid in the great Evangelistic Campaign upon which we are entering.

Readjustments.—If the new era upon which our Union has entered calls for readjustment of our work, let us make them gladly. Last year's garments do not fit the growing child. Many of our pastors are establishing new systems of giving in their churches, and are requesting that the women of the Missionary Societies co-operate in these plans. I am sure we shall be wise enough to comply with such requests, remembering that such compliance will strengthen the church without necessarily weakening the Missionary Society. If such adjustment is made, it means only a change of a method, and not of any principle for which our Union has stood. If, however, gifts are made through the church at its weekly or monthly services, special care should be taken to present reports of such gifts to the society each month, and to the W. M. U. Treasurer and Associational Superintendent, each quarter.

Many of our societies, we are glad to say, have already solved the problem of distributing Campaign gifts, and are sending them undesignated, according to the request of the State Convention. More than $28,900 was sent in this way the past two quarters.

Superintendents' Work.—The reports of the Associational Superintendents reveal the following facts: Forty-nine Associations held annual meetings, at which 749 societies were represented. The superintendents traveled 9,550 miles in carrying on their work, and wrote 7,208 letters and cards.

Enlistment and Organization.—This year more than 5,000 new workers were enlisted and 452 new societies were organized, 201 of these being W. M. S., 96 Auxiliaries, 29 R. A. Chapters, and 126 Sunbeam Bands. By a careful checking of our mailing list, we found that 185 societies had to be dropped because they had not reported this year. This gives us a net increase of 266 societies and 1,845 active organizations now on roll.

Reporting.—Fifteen hundred and ninety-five societies reported this year—an increase of 187 over last year; 646 reported every quarter. This is 49 better than a year ago.

Contributions.—The contributions for the year show a gain of $76,000 over any other year of our history. Had it not been for the influenza epidemic, we feel sure our gifts for the last quarter would have totaled $100,000, or one-fourth of the amount we must raise each year in order to redeem our Campaign pledge. In spite of existing conditions, our report for December, January, and February totaled nearly $80,000.

Forty-eight Associations made from ten to several hundred per cent gain in their contributions, the Pilot Mountain leading with a total of $15,768.40. The W. M. S. of Winston-Salem First Church leads all the societies with $9,083.52 contributed during the year.

The number of tithers reported has increased from 414 to 769.

Magazines.—The number of subscribers to the Recorder and our Mission magazines has more than doubled the past year, reaching 9,940.

Mission Study.—One hundred and eighty-six Mission Study Classes were conducted this year, a gain of 50. One hundred and twenty-three Mission Study certificates were granted, and 217 seals. Four members of our Union have studied all six of the books required by the Southern W. M. U. in the certificate course and have won their Union monogram seals. These were awarded to the following ladies in the order named: Miss Annie Logan, Asheville; Mrs. J. W. Veasey, Asheville; Mrs. G. V. Whitton, Weaverville, and Mrs. J. A. Groves, Asheville. The Buncombe Association has the honor of leading in the Mission Study work of the year.

Standard of Excellence.—The Standard of Excellence grading this year, both for Associations and for Societies, has been better worked out than usual, though that is still one of the points we need to strengthen. Seven Associations—the Brunswick, Cumberland, Mount Zion, Pee Dee, Sandy Run, and South Yadkin—made 9 points on the Associational Standard, and four Associations made 8 points. The others made fewer or did not classify themselves.

Fifty-one W. M. S. and three Y. W. A.'s made all points on the Society Standard, and thus win the coveted position of the honor roll. Fifty-four W. M. S., nine Y. W. A.'s, and eight Sunbeam Bands made Class A, sixty-seven societies of different grades made Class B, and forty-four Class C.

Field Work.—A larger amount of field work than usual was done the past year. Forty associational meetings, the Assemblies at Wrightsville and Ridgecrest, and thirty other points were reached by one or more officers of the Union; 17,647 miles were traveled, and 186 talks were made. During the summer Mrs. Jones attended the Campaign conferences in Nashville, Tenn., and in February both the President and Corresponding Secretary attended similar conference in Nashville. During October Mrs. Bose, our Southern W. M. U. organizer, visited Wilmington, Raleigh, Greensboro, Charlotte, Asheville, and Hendersonville and spoke in the interest of the Campaign. In November Miss Malory also visited us, speaking in a number of important towns. Our Union felt highly honored last summer when other States solicited the aid of Miss Briggs, our Junior Superintendent, in their summer assemblies and Campaign work. She visited in South Carolina and Florida, and the workers there sent us glowing reports and testimonials of her helpfulness. The saying, "A prophet is not without honor save in his own country," is not always true, because we in North Carolina know her value and love her for her service.

Mobile Schools.—In compliance with the request of our State Board of Missions, our W. M. U. secured eleven of our most competent women to teach in the Mobile Schools planned for March. These schools were postponed on account of the epidemic, but a still larger number will be held in July, and we hope to have the Manual of W. M. U. Methods taught in each school.

Office Work.—The great amount of work needed in the office necessitated the securing of a stenographer early in the summer. With her help, we report the following office statistics: Personal letters written, 2,628; circular letters sent out, 18,762; postals, 3,632; programs, 10,213; minutes and manuals, 5,409; enlistment cards, 18,169; envelopes, 34,352; report blanks, 9,059; mite boxes, 1,563; leaflets, 133,225. Total letters and literature, 237,014.

The Year's Expenses.—Paid by the State Board of Missions:

For Stamps and postals .....	$ 483.00
“ Printing and Stationery .....	203.20
“ Multigraph work .....	44.65
“ Salary Corresponding Secretary .....	1,200.00
“ Traveling expenses Corresponding Secretary.....	50.00
“ Stenographer .....	618.20
<hr/>
Total.....	$2,599.05
Paid from expense fund.....	1,389.11
Total.....	$3,988.16

We are glad to state that our expenses the past year were less than 2 1/3 per cent. of the money we contributed.

A Personal Word.—It is with a feeling of deep emotion that I announce to this body, as I have already announced to our Executive Committee, that I do not feel that I can serve the Union another year as Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer, even should you desire me to do so. The four years which I have spent in W. M. U. work have been years of strenuous activity, but full of joy for me and of blessings more than I can number. Association with our officers and Executive Committee in Raleigh and with you dear women out in the State has been a privilege for which I shall always be grateful. If it were expedient for me to do so, I would call many of you by name and thank you personally for your constant helpfulness to me, and your hearty response to every request I have made of you. Your loving service will continue to be a joy and inspiration to me, and I am sure that He who causes a Book of Remembrance to be kept will look well to your reward.

A Look Ahead.—I cannot close this report without a brief outline of what I think are some of our outstanding needs. Our Union has, I am sure, reached a stage of development which demands careful and intensive cultivation. The efforts which we have put forth the past year to inform and enlist our people should be continued. We should look well to the matter of Mission and Bible study, to prayer and to training the young. The annual and the quarterly reports of societies and associations should be carefully prepared and recorded. From them we should be able to learn conditions to be dealt with, and one day we shall turn to them for their historical value.

We should keep in mind that our Union is a live and growing organism, and that as it grows it will need to change some of the methods which were formerly used with success. As we become stronger we shall need all the more to remain auxiliary to the general State work, and to lend our aid to carrying out plans adopted by the State Convention. From time to time new problems will arise and must be solved, but always joyously and full of faith let us continue, every one, to serve the world in our day, and to glorify our Lord yet more and more, till we have attained the fullness of his statue and have entered through the gates of God into his Eternal City.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA CARROLL,
Corresponding Secretary-Treasurer.

This report was adopted by a rising vote of thanks to Miss Carroll for her faithful service and untiring efforts for our Union, and her resignation was accepted with sincere regret.

The report of the Treasurer was presented, reading the totals of the various Associations (see page 64). Report adopted by a rising vote.

Our Union hymn, "Come, Women, Wide Proclaim," was sung.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs then presented the W. M. U. banner, won the third time by the Eastern Association. It was accepted by Miss Macy Cox, Superintendent of the Association.

The President delivered her annual address, "Memorial Stones."

PRESIDENT'S ANNUAL ADDRESS, "MEMORIAL STONES"

As David, the great Hebrew king, drew near the close of his life, he perfected plans for the building of the temple which by its magnificence should be a fitting place for the altar and worship of the most high God. He gathered from all parts of his kingdom the gold, the silver, the precious stones, the marble of varied hues, the cedar from the hills of Lebanon, and all needed material. From his own store he brought forth the large offering that he had prepared through the years in which he had dreamed and planned for the temple. Having provided the material, the call was made for those who would consecrate their service to this great undertaking, and the people responded with one accord and offered willingly their gifts and their service. When David saw this great response to his call, he lifted up his heart and voice in thanksgiving to God, and to him ascribed all the glory for what had been done. Today our hearts are filled with praise and thanksgiving for the achievements of the year that is past, and, like David, we would look up to God and say, "Thine is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory."

It was the custom in ancient Israel to erect an altar or a memorial stone to mark the place where God had given special help in time of need, or some particular evidence of his care, and strict laws were made that these stones or altars should not be removed. All through the Old Testament narrative we find the record of these stones. Abraham erected an altar on the mount of God, whither he had gone to sacrifice Isaac to commemorate God's providence in providing the lamb for the sacrifice, calling it Jehovah-Jireh. Jacob erected a stone at Bethel when alone in the night a fugitive from his family and home, he had the heavenly vision and the promise of success and a safe return to his own people and his own land. Twelve stones were placed in the River Jordan to mark the holding back of the waters and the dry passage of the children of Israel. Twelve others were placed on the bank of the stream in Gilgal, that in the years to come, when their descendants should ask, "What mean these stones?" they should be told how God brought his people across on dry land, and "That all the people of the earth might know the hand of the Lord, that it is mighty, that ye might fear the Lord your God forever." Samuel raised the Ebenezer stone after the great deliverance from the Philistines, saying, "Hitherto the Lord hath helped us," that in the days that would follow, this evidence of the providential care of their God might be their assurance of his ever-present help in a time of need.

As we look back today across the years and see the small beginning of our Woman's Missionary Union, the slow progress of the early years, the gradually increasing interest, and then look at the achievements of today and the open door of enlarged opportunity set before us, we can say, with Samuel, "Hitherto the Lord hath helped us," and we, too, would, to mark this year of victory, place our memorial stones.

First, Jehovah-Jireh, the stone of God's providential care. "The Lord will provide," or "In the Mount of the Lord it shall be seen."

To those of you who have given many years to the work of our Union it seems hardly necessary to speak of God's providential care. You have had so many evidences of it in your own lives and experiences, but to the younger workers who are bringing to us their trained and consecrated services I would recall the days when the work of the Woman's Missionary Union was an untried thing, when some of the wisest and best of the leaders of our denomination feared that an organization of the women in the church would prove a danger and bring a host of imaginary evils, that the women would seek to control and usurp the authority that was rightfully not theirs. The work was new in those days; the leaders knew not to what large things God was leading; they had no experience to meet the difficulties in the way, the problems that arose from time to time. With faith that looked for the Divine guidance they labored from day to day and from year to year, and dared not look further, and they had no conception that in thirty-four years the women in the Baptist churches of North Carolina would pledge for five years over two million dollars. We can truly say today that our every need has been met, opposition has all passed away, the co-operation without which our efforts would have failed has been ours in a large measure, financial needs have never handicapped our work, for enlarged opportunities and increased demands adequate provision has always been made. God has not met these outward needs, but he has given us the strength for the task before us. Always we have been able to do the thing that He asked of us. We have not always had the clear way before us; difficulties have arisen from time to time, but as we pressed forward we have found that as we drew nearer to Him, looking to Him alone for guidance, the difficulties vanished, the way was made plain, and the experience has been ours that "In the Mount of the Lord it shall be seen." This was particularly true in our recent Campaign. When our Southern Baptist Union asked us to raise $1,100,000 of the $15,000,000 assigned to the Union as a whole, it seemed at first an impossible thing, and that we could so far exceed this quota was not even thought of. Today we would testify that this thing was done, not by effective organization—we had that, it is true; not by the faithful service that was given in such large measure, but by the power of the Spirit of God. In the years that are coming, when the hard places come and difficulties arise in the way, let us look back and, remembering "what God hath wrought," let this year in which we place our Jehovah-Jireh stone be an assurance of the everlasting strength that shall be ours.

Jehovah-Nissi. Another memorial stone was the one that Moses erected after the conflict between Amalek and Israel, "Jehovah-Nissi, the Lord is my banner." You recall the story, how Moses on the mountain stood with the banner, the symbol of God's power, uplifted, and when he became weary as the conflict lengthened and the banner was lowered, the enemy's forces gained, and Aaron and Hur came to his help and held up high the rod of God until the going down of the sun, and the enemy was vanquished. A wonderful lesson to the children of Israel in the beginning of the wilderness journey, that their power and their strength lay in the God under whose banner they had enlisted. From time immemorial every nation has had its emblem for the assertion of its authority at home and its rights abroad. The eagles of the Roman empire extended their sway over a large part of the known world; the crescents of the Saracens called a host to warfare and to a religious zeal that was unsurpassed; the banners of the crusaders made a strong appeal in the Middle Ages, and today the flags of our nation stand for the loyalty and the protection of the land that we love. The flag of our country has a new meaning to many of us when we recall the spirit of heroism and sacrifice of the past two years.

The Lord, our banner, means to us the leadership of our God, his guidance in all our ways. It is His warfare in which we are engaged, and we are to battle with all our strength against the things that would hinder his will being done and his kingdom coming, and to him alone must we look for victory. His banner must be uplifted wherever there is wrong and suffering in all this world of ours. We must lose ourselves in this great conflict, and strive not that our plans may be carried out, but to find out what His will is, and make ourselves and our desires subservient to his great purpose. We have not trusted in human wisdom these past thirty-four years, but in the leadership of Him whose banner we have endeavored to hold so high that all might see. That banner over us as recorded in His Word is love. It is God's wonderful love that has called us to his service, that has given us the guidance when the way was not plain, that has been the source of the joy that has been ours, and that has brought us to the larger place in which we stand today, and we would place our stone of testimony, our Jehovah-Nissi, in gratitude.

Jehovah-Shalom. God sending Peace.

The altar that Gideon erected after the heavenly vision had appeared to him, and which he called Jehovah-Shalom — God sending Peace—was not an assurance of peace in the ordinary acceptance of the term. It was really a call to war. The salutation of the heavenly visitor was, "Peace be unto thee and to all thy house." Here was a call to service, with the assurance that in the midst of the troublous times that had come to Israel there would be for him and for all who kept God's law and did his bidding an abiding peace, an inward peace that was not dependent on outward circumstances, but whose foundation is God. Peace came to Gideon through a personal experience of God, through the consciousness that God had called him to definite service, and that in the task to which he was assigned there was the assurance of the power and the presence of the one whom he served.

There is more unrest in the world today, perhaps, even among Christian people, than at any period in history; certainly we hear more of it. Men are everywhere seeking something they have not—restless, dissatisfied, busy with an activity that is bringing no results to themselves, so far as happiness and satisfaction are concerned. There will be no peace, and consequently no happiness, until we individually recognize that God is controlling our lives and that he is directing the work of his kingdom, that the kingdom will come in his time and his way, and that our part in its coming is to bring our lives so into harmony with his will that he may use us in this great purpose. In our Union there has been peace, whether the passing years brought the desires of our hearts or not. The results of our labors have not always been just what we had hoped or planned, but always there has been the trust and quietude that comes from faith in God, and we can say that his peace has kept our minds amidst all perplexities. In his letter to the church at Thessalonica, Paul enjoined those early Christians that "they study to be quiet." At first thought, it may seem that to be quiet needs no effort, but in the turmoil and confusion of life today it would be well for us to literally obey the apostolic injunction and to study that we may learn the quiet of trust, the quiet of prayer, the quiet of the immeasurable love of God, and through these things enter into the covenant of his peace.

Jehovah-Tsidkenu.

To these altars of testimony to the goodness and mercy of God through the years we would add our witness to his providential care, his guidance, and his peace. Looking to the future, I would add to my message the Jehovah-Tsidkenu of Jeremiah. The Lord, our righteousness. The prophet, on the eve of the captivity of his beloved nation, recognized and warned his people that sin had brought the calamities that were upon them, but he also saw with his prophetic vision the return from exile, the repentance toward God, and promised that God would again look with favor upon his chosen people.

Peace and righteousness—how naturally we place them together in our thoughts—one a direct result of the other. We have no righteousness of our own but that which comes through Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith—righteousness in letting Christ rule within our hearts and making our lives conformable to him. Do we not recognize today a tendency to lower the standard of Christian living? Israel's calamities came unfailingly because of the desire to follow the example of the heathen nations around about them. Let us not, in the activity of today, when every hour finds new duties and opportunities for service, fail to realize that the holiness and beauty of a life that is lived in accordance with God's commands and with a single purpose to glorify him will mean much more to the coming of his kingdom than many of the things that we strive to accomplish. What we are will speak more forcibly than the words we utter with our lips or the things we do in our efforts to serve.

I close my message this morning with the Jehovah-Shammah. The Lord is there and would have you see, with Ezekiel, the vision of the waters flowing out from the altar, and the holy city. First, the small rivulet; then the stream, growing broader and deeper until it became a river that could not be passed over, going down by way of the desert to the sea, and making everything live "wherever the river cometh."

It is our privilege and our responsibility to live when the river of the knowledge of God has become broad and deep. This year, by your sacrifice and your love, you have helped to deepen and widen the life-giving stream. With the greater opportunities before us, there may come new plans, new methods of work, but we must build on the things of which I have spoken this morning—the things that have been the foundation-stones and that have brought to us the large results of today. These are to be our sure foundations for the years to come. The purpose of the Woman's Missionary Union, the purpose for which it was organized and for which it has stood these thirty-four years, is to give the women and young people in our churches, through organization and training, the opportunity of having a part in making the world ready for the coming of the King. Ezekiel, in his vision, saw the holy city, filled with the glory of God, and said, "Jehovah-Shammah, the Lord is there." May this Union, as it strives to serve, be so filled with His Spirit that his very presence may be felt, and we may say, "Jehovah-Hinene, the Lord is here."

The report of the Junior Superintendent was presented and adopted.

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT FOR YEAR 1919-1920

"Call unto me, and I will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not." Jer. 33:3. From this great text Dr. Scarborough preached his searching and stirring sermon before the Intercessory Conference in Raleigh last August. It was when plans for the 75 Million Campaign were beginning to be put into operation and when the call to prayer had gone out to all Baptists. How earnest and widespread has been the response of our people as they have gone singly, in groups and in great companies to call unto God during this great Campaign year! And how ready has been His answer! How He has led us out to see the great and mighty things that lie within our power when it is "strengthened with all might according to His glorious power." Things which we knew not how to do have been made possible for us. Though we "despise not the day of small things" through which we have passed, we feel that a standard has been set, from which neither we nor those who follow us can ever turn back with content.

It is hard for us to realize that when we met a year ago to rejoice over our good reports, and to accept what seemed reasonable advances in our work, that none of us dreamed of the great and mighty things of the 75 Million Campaign we were later to attempt and in a measure to accomplish. We accepted for our Sunbeam aim $6,000.00, and for the Royal Ambassadors $900.00, as large aims as our faith and vision warranted. In the light of the reports read today, we must adjust ourselves to new standards of giving for the children, for we have seen the greater things of which they also are capable.

When the women of our State were asked to take the Campaign aim of $1,100,000.00, our President, Mrs. Jones, figured out that a doubling of the gifts of last year for five years would reach the amount. The word of this went out to all the Societies and to the Junior Societies as well. To our great joy, we can report today that the Sunbeams doubled last year's gifts with an additional $270.00 thrown in for good measure, their total report being $11,308.57. Their pledges to the Campaign amount to $69,089.29, an average of about $14,500.00 for the next four years.

The Royal Ambassadors lacked only $54.00 of doubling their gifts of last year, their total for this year being $1,530.26. The great increase shown by both organizations is not due to the addition of such objects as the Orphanage, Ministerial Relief, etc.

The regular aims for all objects have been met and in many cases doubled and more than doubled.

The average gift per Band is $24.06, against $13.29 of last year; and the average of the Royal Ambassadors is raised from $13.42 to $20.13.

We have eleven Bands giving $100.00 or more, as are shown in the Honor Roll. Asheboro Street, Greensboro, leads with $786.78. The others come in the following order: Winston-Salem, Rocky Mount, Ahoskie, Edenton, Calypso, Hickory, Oxford, Fairmont, Spencer, New Bern, Advance, and Caroleen.

Our leading chapters have not yet reached the $100.00 mark, but they are fast gaining in their gifts. Those above $50.00 are as follows: Asheboro Street, Greensboro, $94.00; Clayton, Carthage, Hickory, Buckhorn, Greensboro (First), Rocky Mount.

Our financial report is made up of gifts from 470 Sunbeam Bands and 76 R. A. Chapters, an increase of 55 and 17, respectively. Our roll shows 126 new Bands and 29 new Chapters. The number of Dollar Sunbeams and R. A.'s published this year is 1,429, an increase of 400 over last year.

In Campaign pledges the Royal Ambassadors have made the greatest proportionate advance, their total pledge being $20,-360.80, a 512 per cent. increase. The Sunbeams are represented by a pledge of $69,089.29, a 200 per cent. increase.

In the work of the Junior Superintendent this has been a year of unusual interest. It was a pleasure to be present at the Southern Baptist Convention in May, and to see the very large place the Junior Mission Societies are assuming in the work and plans of the General W. M. U.

In June the Seaside Assembly at Wrightsville Beach was attended. Two hours each day were given to the Woman's Missionary Union. One was used for discussing general methods for the work of the various grades of Mission Societies. During the other hour a Mission Study Class was conducted, Miss Mallory being present two days to teach the class. A story hour was arranged for the children on Sunday afternoon, and the last day of the Assembly was given over to the meeting of the Wilmington Division.

July 9th to 17th was most delightfully spent at the Florida Baptist Assembly at Deland, Fla., as the representative of the General W. M. U. The crowd of splendid young people present offered material for a most alert and interested Mission Study Class on "Principles and Methods of Mission Work for Juniors." In the closing evening service, certificates were awarded to thirty-four of the class who had successfully taken the examination. From Deland a day was spent in Jacksonville at the quarterly meeting of the City Woman's Missionary Union. This meeting was interesting and well attended, though mid July is not the popular season for that section.

During August and September eight Associational Meetings were attended—the Sandy Creek, King's Mountain, Sandy Run, Mount Zion, Pilot Mountain, Bladen, Robeson, and Pee Dee. Encouraging progress was indicated in each of these. The Bladen W. M. U. is in its beginnings, but from the interest manifested and plans proposed, rapid development may be expected.

The real work of the 75 Million Campaign began in August with the Intercessory Conference in Raleigh. The large number of women present attested their eagerness to bear their part of the work. In consequence, they were requested later to share in the teaching of the Campaign Schools. In the division of Campaign duties it fell to the lot of the Junior Superintendent to outline and teach the W. M. U. subject in the preliminary training school for teachers. The following W. M. U. workers taught in the Divisional Campaign Schools held under the auspices of the State Campaign Committee: Mrs. T. B. Henry, Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Mrs. Lydia Hilliard, Mrs. Weston Bruner, Mrs. Foy Willingham, Mrs. Fred Battle, Mrs. W. H. Woodall, Miss Annie Logan, Miss Rose Goodwin, Miss Una White. The able way in which these teachers presented the W. M. U. work made a strong appeal to the pastors and laymen attending the schools, and won new friends for the organization. The large number of new Societies reported today are in a measure due to the influence of these schools and the opportunity they afforded for presenting the woman's work.

It was the very great honor of the Junior Superintendent again to represent the General W. M. U. in the party that toured South Carolina with Dr. Truett in the interest of the 75 Million Campaign. In the five days—October 3d to 7th—seven cities were visited—Greenville, Spartanburg, Greenwood, Columbia, Florence, Charleston, and Orangeburg—and as many meetings held with the women. One of the blessings of the Campaign has been the opportunities offered for knowing the splendid workers and leaders of other States.

During most of the winter months the Junior Superintendent was kept away from the office. Many thanks are due to Miss Carroll for carrying on the Sunbeam and R. A. work, in addition to her already heavy duties.

Statistical report of the Junior Superintendent is as follows: Letters and postals, 358 (besides quarterly letters); literature sent out, 9,689; Associations visited, 8; Assemblies, 2; 75 Million Campaign conferences and meetings, 17; miles traveled in the State 1,913, out of the State 2,610, total miles 4,523; talks made, 60. Received of Miss Carroll, Treasurer, for State traveling expenses $70.00, expenses in State $51.55; amount on hand $18.45.

As we close the volume of the past year, our prayer is that in the coming years our eyes may be opened to see yet greater things of love, of giving, and of service in the wondrous Book of His Law.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS.

Miss Briggs spoke to the report, using as her theme "The Fourfold Increase"—"And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man."

After distribution of the recommendation for the Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador Leaders, they were read by Mrs. H. W. Baucom, Smithfield, and, after discussion, adopted.

RESOLUTIONS OF SUNBEAM AND ROYAL AMBASSADOR LEADERS FOR 1920-1921

With thanksgiving to God for the enlarged ideals and possibilities that have come to the children's mission organizations through the inspiration and impetus of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, and greatly desiring to measure up to these ideals and possibilities, we, the Leaders of Sunbeam Bands and Royal Ambassador Chapters, resolve to adopt as our aim The Four-Fold Increase, and as our motto, "And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man."—St. Luke 2:52.

I. Wisdom.

That, as the children of our Bands and Chapters are at the age of greatest mind and memory expansion, we resolve:

1. To teach them the basic principles of missions as given in God's Word, having them commit to memory many of the great verses and passages that especially relate to giving the Gospel to the whole world.

2. Through facts, stories, pictures, etc., to show conditions and needs of the world today.

3. Through Mission Study Classes, Mission Reading Circles, and encouraging the reading of mission books at home, we acquaint the children with those who have lived truly missionary lives in all lands and at all times. That we use the mission certificates for those who faithfully attend the mission classes and circles, and the cards and stamps for those who read at home. We suggest that a list of mission books for juniors be sent to the Leaders early in the year, that this work may be taken up during the vacation months.

II. Stature.

Since the children and boys are in the period of rapid physical growth, we resolve:

1. To teach them to observe the laws of health as a part of their service to God.

2. To lead them to desire for all children everywhere the opportunities of normal physical growth and of bodily care and safety which they enjoy.

3. That as we wish for the growth and development of the individual child, we shall also plan for the growth of the Mission Band or Chapter, for the accomplishment of this entering into the Every-Member Canvass as conducted annually by the churches, and at all times striving to reach and enlist more of the juniors in these mission organizations.

4. That we shall not be content with a few well conducted Bands and Chapters, but we will earnestly endeavor to extend the organizations into churches where they do not exist. To this end, we urge the appointment of an active Junior Superintendent in each Association, the holding of Junior Rallies during the summer, and the exchange of mission books, stories, pictures, etc., among the Leaders of junior organizations.

III. Favor with God.

Realizing that all of our work is in vain if we do not lead the children into loving relationship with the Heavenly Father, we resolve afresh:

1. To give ourselves to more careful and prayerful effort to teach the children that God so loved the world that He gave His Son, and to lead them to so love God that they will give themselves to Him and to His service for the world.

2. With the giving of self, we will teach them the principles of stewardship of life, talents, and possession, using in this connection the Stewardship and Giving sections of "The Campaign Manual for Baptist Boys and Girls."

3. Since the power of prayer was so demonstrated during the Campaign, we will pray for our junior work with more purpose and fervor, remembering that Wednesday is the special day for united prayer for these organizations.

IV. Favor with Man.

Knowing that love for God must show itself through us in our loving helpfulness to those around us, we will—

1. Seek for definite service for the children to render to the needy of their community, at the same time teaching them that thoughtfulness and consideration for those in the home, the school, and on the playground is another form of service to God.

2. Since co-operation is one of the truest forms of helpfulness, we will co-operate with the local church by participating in the giving plan as adopted by the church, either paying through the duplex envelope system of the church, or collecting funds at the meetings and paying them to the church treasurer at the close of each quarter. In cases where all gifts are expected to be made at the regular church service, the Leader shall so arrange with the church treasurer that she (the Leader) can keep an accurate record of individual contributions by the children. Announcements of the progress of the Band or Chapter in the payment of the amount pledged shall be a regular part of each meeting, and the children who fall behind in their payments shall be notified.

3. Co-operation with the 75 Million Campaign idea shall be maintained in making the regular payments in lump sum to the objects of the Campaign.

4. Co-operation with the approved plan of the general Woman's Missionary Union shall also be maintained in preserving the habit and custom of special offerings at the times and for the purposes suggested by the general Union, these offerings to be credited on the Campaign pledge of the individual and of the organization.

5. We will co-operate with our Association and State Union by prompt and careful reports at the close of each quarter, and by bearing our share of the moneyed aim of the year—Sunbeams, $13,000.00; Royal Ambassadors, $2,000.00.

The Union then enjoyed a most interesting demonstration by the Sunbeam Band of Shelby.

Mrs. H. H. McMillan, of Soo-Chow, China, spoke on her work in China, and presented in an impressive way the hardening effects of sin, and the uplifting power of the gospel as seen on the mission fields.

Miss Attie Bostick brought to the Union a message from North China, and emphasized China's need of Christ.

Announcements.

The reports of the Vice-Presidents were presented, as follows:

REPORT OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE GREENSBORO DIVISION

Truly, this is Victory Year for Southern Baptists! When the Southern Baptist Convention met in Atlanta last May and launched a program far surpassing anything we had ever dreamed of, it sounded a note of progress and forward movement; and from the very first the whole South rallied to the great task, and we felt victory was sure. Our own State did nobly and our W. M. U. very nearly doubled its apportionment.

We are happy to report that the Greensboro Division had a large share in our great Campaign, pledging $582,099.98. All eight of the Associations held annual meetings and all made over 10 per cent gain in gifts.

Mount Zion, Mrs. Charles Haywood, of Durham, Superintendent, is to be especially commended for its excellent Campaign work, its Y W. A. work, year's gifts, new organizations, study classes, etc.

The Tar River Association grieves over the home-going of its Superintendent, Mrs. W. W. Parker, of Henderson, and Mrs. Win-gate Underhill, of Louisburg, was appointed in her place.

Miss Mollie Strum, of Roxboro, is the new Superintendent of the Beulah; Mrs. John F. Mitchiner, Franklinton, of the Central; Mrs. G.N. Cowan, Apex, of the Raleigh; and Mrs. Wingate Underhill, Louisburg, of the Tar River. Mrs. John Webb, Oxford; Mrs. Charles Haywood, Durham; Mrs. C. C. McLean, Greensboro, and Mrs. P. H. St. Clair remain faithful to their work in the Flat River, Mount Zion, Piedmont, and Sandy Creek Associations, respectively.

The Vice-President had the great pleasure of attending the annual meeting of the Sandy Creek Association, and was greatly encouraged to see the excellent way the women are carrying on their work in this Association. Sanford was beautiful in her hospitality, and Mrs. St. Clair is doing a fine work.

I was also greatly encouraged at the new life that has come into the Raleigh Association since Mrs. Cowan has had charge of the work there. There was a splendid attendance and a wholesome spirit in their annual meeting.

Twice I was permitted to be present in meetings in Durham—in the spring at the First Church, when they observed their Day of Prayer for Home Missions and had the echoes from the Convention, and later in the winter with the Women's Missionary Council of Durham at the North Durham Church.

It was a great joy to me that I was permitted to be one of the faculty in two of our Campaign Schools in Raleigh, and a great grief that I was providentially hindered from taking an active part, except for so short a time.

The following figures will give an idea of the work our division has accomplished:

Campaign apportionment .....	$314,000.00
Campaign pledge .....	582,099.98
Year's gifts .....	42,621.18
Number of churches .....	323
Number of churches pledging.....	180
Number of new Societies.....	81
Total Societies of all grades.....	339
Mission Study Classes .....	39
Periodicals taken .....	1,262

One of the great needs of our work is that our Societies shall realize the imperative necessity of sending their quarterly reports. We are convinced that, had all the Societies reported regularly to our Superintendent, the figures here presented would be much larger.

Another great need is for us to realize the seriousness of being co-workers with God, and of being more faithful in the discharge of our Father's business.

And what of our New Year? Never have we faced so great an opportunity. Never has there been a time that called for greater consecration of life, time, money, talents. Let us determine that, with God as our leader, we shall "go forward" until the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdom of the Lord and his Christ.

MRS. WESTON BRUNER.

REPORT OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

Presented by Miss Una White, Severn

Deeply conscious of God's guidance during the past year, and with hearts overflowing with gratitude for all the blessings he has showered upon us, as he has permitted us to work in his vineyard in the eastern part of the State, we gratefully submit the following report of the work done in the Elizabeth City Division:

The four Associations composing this division have made wonderful progress during the past year, thus bearing testimony to the efficiency of the Superintendents.

The Neuse-Atlantic is at present without a Superintendent, Mrs. C. W. Blanchard being compelled to resign because of ill health, but we trust this vacancy may soon be filled.

The Chowan led in the number of new Societies organized and members enlisted. Mrs. Sawyer, the Supereintendent of this Association, has put herself into the work, and the whole Association is permeated with her charming personality.

Miss White, the enthusiastic Superintendent of the West Chowan, has achieved marked results from her labors. Enthusiasm is contagious, and the women seem to have caught the spirit, and they have attempted great things for God. Realizing the great value of Christian education, they are investing largely in this phase of the work, and each county in the Association is planning to send a girl to our Training School in Louisville next year. We shall watch this Association with much interest.

Mrs. Daniels, who for several years has guided the destiny of the Roanoke, reports progress along all lines, especially in gifts. the women of this Association pledging on the Campaign more than two and one-third times their quota.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. G. BATTLE,
Vice-President.

REPORT OF THE VICE-PRESIDENT OF WILMINGTON DIVISION

Presented by Mrs. B. A. Hocutt, Clayton

The Wilmington Division reports, with grateful hearts, a growing interest in the work of the W. M. U.

Associational Superintendents give glowing accounts of work accomplished by the 75 Million Dollar Campaign. Each Association has met, many exceeded, apportionments. Tithing is of vital interest. Subscriptions to mission magazines have greatly increased. Many of the Societies have taken up the Church Building Loan Fund, and a number of memorials have been established.

As usual, the annual meeting of the Division was held at Wrightsville at the time of the Summer Assembly. The presence of Miss Briggs and Miss Mallory was a source of inspiration.

We close the year with gratitude for increasing opportunities of service.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. HORACE M. BAKER.

REPORT OF VICE-PRESIDENT OF CHARLOTTE DIVISION

A pound of picture is worth a ton of talk. Those attending the annual meeting of the Charlotte Division at Norwood saw what we did this year, and those who will attend the annual session in June at Monroe will help us improve the past.

The Charlotte Division numbers seventeen Associations and will have the addition of the Gaston next year, making eighteen.

The Pilot Mountain Association led the State, contributing $15,768.40. Every Association in the Charlotte Division went over the top in the 75 Million Campaign.

An increase was made in Study Classes, organizations, and mission periodicals.

The 1920 session of the Charlotte Division will be the first week in June, at Monroe.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. B. HENRY,

Vice-President.

REPORT OF VICE-PRESIDENT OF ASHEVILLE DIVISION

The year just closing has been an epoch-making period in our Southern Baptist history. Our work will never again be on the same basis. We climbed the mountain peaks and caught visions that must forever make us dissatisfied with valley experiences.

And no part of our territory has had more experience and work than the western part of our State. I know we surprised ourselves in the 75 Million Campaign, and I believe we surprised the rest of the folks.

At the two western training centers—Asheville and Bryson City—the attendance of women was most gratifying, there being representatives from every Association in the Division, except one, and the interest and hunger for information regarding W. M. U. work on the part of the pastors was even more momentous. The results accomplished by the training schools emphasize anew the value of the missionary institute, and I feel that for the next few years two or three such meetings should be held in every Association in the west. The ability of the west to handle such a work has been fully demonstrated. One Associational Superintendent, Miss Annie Logan, of Asheville, was W. M. U. teacher in one of the training schools. Mrs. Joyner, Superintendent of the Haywood Association, supplied in another school. The wife of one of our pastors was a tower of strength in the school in Bryson City. Seven of the eight superintendents in the division attended one of the training schools, and they proved themselves not only faithful soldiers in the Campaign, but most efficient ones. Several of them undertook work in neighboring associations that were not lined up in W. M. U. work. Nearly every one touched large numbers of their churches personally, and the results of their work cannot be measured in term of years nor merely by the amount pledged in the Campaign, gratifying as that was. Our youngest superintendent in point of years and service, Miss Bertha Moore, of the Macon Association, reported returns from the women in twenty-one churches.

The conditions in the west are such that growth in the W. M. S. must be slow. We are a rural people and the world overruns us in summer. The roads are bad in winter, and the churches are poorly warmed; but with the great impetus given, we should and must do more work in that line than ever before.

The vice-president, besides teaching four weeks in one of the training centers, visited fifteen churches in four Associations, traveled 2,184 miles, in all the known ways of locomotion, except the subway and the aeroplane; she would like to say how many times she spoke, but to those who know her it is sufficient to say that she talked herself down. The most interesting of all her most interesting experiences was the time spent in the Indian reservation. She talked, through an interpreter, to the dear old Indian women. They sat quiet, almost stolid, as the speaker told of the work; but when the name of Jesus was called, their faces lighted up, their eyes lifted, and their heads bowed in reverence. Truly, at His name every knee shall bow. The Indian churches, under the leadership of Mrs. J. N. Lee, made a great showing.

We are facing a crisis. The vision that we have had, to be crystallized into fact, means that we must work and study and pray as never before. And, with Paul, may I say, "I beseech you, therefore, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice which is but your reasonable service"?

MRS. W. H. WOODALL.

On motion, the reports of the Vice-Presidents were adopted.

There being no objection, a change was made in the order of business, and Miss Bertha Carroll presented the Campaign Banner to the Buncombe Association. Miss Annie Logan, Superintendent; Mrs. C. A. Klutz, and other representatives of the Association were called forward, and Miss Logan accepted the banner.

Mrs. C. E. Brewer, Chairman of the Personal Service Committee, presented her annual report.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT, 1919-1920

The reports from the Woman's Missionary Societies show that our women have been diligent in the many activities for serving their fellow-men. They have cheered the lonely, fed the hungry, nursed the sick, and by their kindly ministrations have in some cases been the means of saving lost souls.

In the influenza epidemic our women have again responded to the needs of the sick. They nursed them in their homes and in hospitals, furnished food, garments, and fuel, when needed; used their automobiles in the service, and when entire households were stricken they took charge of the work in the homes.

In some societies the work of personal service was carried on in connection with the Red Cross, and no record was made. Other societies have been actively engaged in the work, but failed to send in a report or to make their report definite; and so the report that follows does not give the full amount of work done:

The Associational Superintendents report 493 societies doing personal service work. However, only 82 societies returned the report blanks sent out in February, and I can but record here a summary of the work of those organizations. The following are the statistics furnished me: Number having personal service committees, 61; persons doing personal service work, 3,031; number teaching in Mission Sunday-schools, 24; number cottage prayer meetings, 494; visits to sick, shut-ins, or strangers, 33,542; visits to weak churches or Sunday-schools, 212; services held, 253; visits to jails or prisons, 30; visits to county homes, 197; number doing rescue work, 1; work for foreigners, 6; literature distributed, 9,061 pieces; boys' or girls' clubs conducted, 3; Good-Will Centers, 1; baskets of food distributed, 5,769; garments distributed, 2,770.

In addition to the above, flowers, dainties, and Christmas cheer have been given to the Old Ladies' Home; assistance given to Associated Charities, tubercular ward at county home; twenty Christmas boxes to county home; a box of clothing to the Armenian Relief Committee; a box of fruit, candies and magazines to the soldiers at Oteen Hospital; six poundings to needy families; six Christmas boxes to prisoners; two young people helped with school expenses; a widow and child clothed; an orphan baby adopted; transportation provided to and from church, and a baby layette furnished.

We are glad to report that we have one Good-Will Center in our State. This is conducted by Mrs. J. N. Lee, our Home Board missionary to the Cherokee Indians in the Tennessee River Association. Mrs. Lee has secured an old building, in which she meets the Indian children frequently, tells them the stories of the Bible, and teaches them how to read and sew. She is doing a great work, and we cannot help feeling that more of that sort of service is needed in many undeveloped sections of our State.

The Y. W. A.'s report 10 societies doing Personal Service work, seven of which have committees for that purpose; 90 members actively engaged in this work; number of cottage prayer meetings held, 6; visits to weak churches and Sunday-schools, 4; services held, 9; literature distributed, 5 times; number visits to sick, shut ins, and strangers, 690; visits to prisons, 16; baskets of food distributed, 92; garments, 42. In addition to this, clothing was given to four people, a knitted quilt was sent to a hospital, and flowers were given thirty times.

The Girls' Auxiliary reports four societies doing Personal Service work; three Personal Service committees, with 20 members taking part in the work; 14 pieces of literature distributed; 89 visits to sick; 11 baskets of food given.

The Sunbeam Bands report 11 societies engaged in Personal Service work; five committees, with 94 members taking part in the work; 127 visits to sick; 36 baskets of food given; clothing to an old lady; flowers carried 22 times. One band sent picture cards to a mission school.

Many societies testify to the helpfulness of Personal Service in increasing membership, in adding life to the societies, and in deepening spirituality.

Although our W. M. U. workers are giving much real Personal Service to those whose needs they see, we know that there is still a great amount left undone. Our day of opportunity to serve is short. Let us not forget that.

"There are lonely hearts to cherish,
 While the days are going by;
 There are weary souls who perish,
 While the days are going by;
 If a smile we can renew,
 As our journey we pursue,
 Oh, the good we all may do,
 While the days are going by."
 Respectfully submitted,

Minutes of morning session read and approved.

Words of welcome from the hostess Y. W. A. by Miss Elizabeth Ebeltoft, Shelby. Response, Miss Helen Lyon, Durham.

The President was called to the chair, and the Y. W. A. report for the year presented by Mrs. R. N. Simms.

REPORT OF Y. W. A. LEADER, 1919-1920

As we meet together this year, our hearts are filled with praise and thanksgiving as never before.

When, last March, we considered the work of the preceding year, we felt that great things had been accomplished, and we set for ourselves a higher goal. That goal has been reached and greatly exceeded. At that time, little did we dream of the opportunity that was soon to be ours. We now bow in humble acknowledgment of the divine power that was planning for us.

We rejoice that we have been permitted a share in the glorious work accomplished this past year by Southern Baptists.

Growth of Work.

The growth of our work is seen not only in contributions, new organizations, and more faithful rendering of reports, but also in a deeper spirituality and sense of responsibility, and in a marked increase of personal consecration on the part of our membership.

Last March the total amount of Auxiliary contributions reported amounted to $7,706.00, not including the Christian Education fund. I am happy now to report that this year our young women and girls have given $16,245.31—a gain of $8,539.31—more than double. Each quarter showed a remarkable gain, only the last being affected momentarily by the Campaign, although, of course, the third quarter was largely influenced by the inspiration of the work being done among our people.

This sum of $16,245.31 represents the gifts from 250 societies—an average of $64.99—against an average of $31.28 last year.

Again Durham First Church Society leads the State in contributions, giving $1,320.85. Rockingham follows with $707.45, and then Greensboro First with $580.20. Spring Hill and Wilmington First gave $438.92 and $416.25, respectively. In the $400.00 class is also the Brown Memorial, Winston-Salem, with $402.23. You will be interested to know that while last year nineteen societies gave over $100.00, this year forty two have given over that amount, and five have given over $400.00. The G. A. reporting the largest amount is that of Clayton, with $176.65. Brown Memorial comes next with $145.20.

The Mount Zion is the banner Association, with $2,485.29 to her credit. Next is the Pee Dee with $1,804.95, followed by the Sandy Run, giving $1,185.24. Close behind comes the Pilot Mountain with $1,116.23 and the Piedmont with $1,073.74.

New Societies.

In addition to strengthening the work done in societies already reporting, our workers have been busy organizing new societies. We have ninety-six new ones, against fifty-three last year.

Societies Reporting.

Eighty organizations reported every quarter. We cannot too strongly emphasize the importance of regular and prompt reporting. Our work is greatly handicapped by the lack of it. Mount Zion is again a leader, having eleven societies to report every quarter. Next highest are Chowan, Robeson, and the Eastern with six each. Can we not better this in the year to come?

Associations Having Y. W. A. and G. A. Work.

As yet, in some Associations it is not possible to have auxiliaries, but we rejoice that in two more our work has been started this year, making forty-three Associations in which we have auxiliaries. The West Chowan has the largest number, twenty-one; Mount Zion has nineteen; the Eastern, sixteen; and the South Fork and Mecklenburg-Cabarrus come next with eleven each.

Girls' Auxiliaries.

Statistics show that the Girls' Auxiliaries are strongest in the West Chowan, Mount Zion, and Roanoke Associations.

Your Secretary has especially stressed the organization of G. A.'s this past quarter, and expects for that department of our work a great increase.

Secretary's Work.

In addition to the regular duties of the office, such as the preparation of the quarterly letters, the Recorder notes, personal correspondence, etc., a number of special objects have claimed the attention of your Secretary this year. It has been a pleasure to assist the Foreign Mission Board in arousing interest among the college students in the Baptist Student Conference held in Greenville, S. C., in March. A number of North Carolina students attended, Meredith alone sending six delegates.

A still larger opportunity was that of personal correspondence with those who volunteered for religious work in our State at the special services for that purpose during the 75 Million Campaign. A list of these young people was furnished by Dr. Scarborough.

The efforts put forth to encourage the development of college and school Y.W. A.'s have received support in most of our schools, and these auxiliaries have done fine work. Splendid enlistment campaigns were held in our schools. Many young lives were dedicated to Christian work on the day of the "Calling of the Called," and sacrificial pledging marked them all.

Campaign.

The outstanding feature of the year's work has been our part in the great 75 Million Campaign. No other thing has meant so much as the special Campaign work and correspondence.

Nothing has so aroused our people to their responsibility. A year ago we would not have believed it possible that we could undertake and accomplish so much, but with divine guidance and inspiration the great task was planned, and by faith and works it was accomplished. Truly, "We can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth us."

Girls' Part in Campaign.

I am happy to report that our young women have had a glorious share in the campaign. While not assigned any definite quota by the campaign officers, they gave themselves in service as workers in many capacities, and pledged of their substance the splendid sum of $201,729.85. This amount was pledged by 211 societies reporting through our office. Of this number, 132 were Y. W. A.'s, giving $174,216.23, and G. A.'s, giving $27,513.62.

The Mount Zion Association has the distinction of leading in Campaign pledges, giving $21,265.13, closely followed by the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus with $20,581.28. The Y. W. A.'s of the Mount Zion surpassed those of the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus, while the G. A.'s of the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus outstripped the G. A.'s of the Mount Zion. The Pee Dee and the Pilot Mountain ran a close race, pledging $17,321.00 and $16,830.50, respectively.

If we redeem our pledge in the five years time, we will need to raise a total of over $40,000.00 each year. Dear girls and young women, our Campaign has really just begun. Let us realize the great importance of holding the goal constantly before the eyes of our societies. Only by earnest, constant prayer, through organization and continual enlistment and reconsecration can we hope to attain the victory. "Thanks be to God which giveth us the victory."

The finest part of the Campaign is yet in the future. We have thus far only raised pledges for money. The same budget which provided for $75,000,000.00 also provided for 2,500,000 souls. Really, the winning of these additional church members in the five years time will require more effort and will be a more glorious achievement than what has been done in a financial way. This phase of the Campaign ought to be of surpassing interest to our workers, for the five-year period will find our girls grown into womanhood and bearing the responsibilities of mature church members. We must have a large part in the great period of revival and evangelism which must characterize the work of our Baptist churches during the next five years.

In order that we do our work well, we must continually increase the efficiency of our organization, and to that end your Secretary offers the following recommendations, the adoption and execution of which, it is hoped, will greatly benefit our cause:

Prayer.

In all our societies we desire to emphasize the importance of prayer and Bible study. In both the Y. W. and G. A.'s we urge that an endeavor be made to train every girl to lead in the prayer service, as well as in other parts of the program. It is further recommended that all societies faithfully observe the special days and seasons of prayer, and that they follow our mission calendar, remembering especially to pray for our auxiliaries on Friday of each week.

Programs.

Realizing the importance of attractive programs, we recommend that our society officers endeavor to prepare them more carefully, studying our mission literature and ordering available tracts for suitable material. In order to do this we need to appoint in our societies competent program committees, who, with the help of the counselor, will plan wisely.

Mission Study and Mission Literature.

We cannot expect our young people to be interested in missions without a knowledge of its needs; so we urge that every society use at least one mission study book each year. We recommend "The White Queen of Okoyong" and "The Crusade of Compassion." The latter is better for matured classes, while for girls who have never had any mission study "Ann of Ava" is unexcelled. To further interest and teach them, it is hoped that we will endeavor to secure many subscriptions to Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields, and the Biblical Recorder.

Enlistment.

As we know that the most important thing we can do for the girls and young women of our denomination is to interest them in missions, and that the future of our work depends upon these young people, we recommend that our societies make a determined effort to enlist and make active members of all the girls in our Sunday-schools and churches. We believe that every one especially who is a church member should feel it a duty to participate in the missionary activities of the church, and we hope that the time will come when every girl who joins the church will be assigned to her proper auxiliary.

Soul-Winning.

Believing that every Christian should have an active part in bringing others to Christ, we recommend that at some time during the year our auxiliaries make a study of soul-winning. The pastor or some other Christian worker would be glad to teach such a class. We urge our young people to throw themselves most heartily into the great evangelistic campaign now starting all over our Southland. So far, we have been conducting largely a campaign for money—this one is for members—for souls—and is even more important.

G. A. Work.

Now that our G. A. work is growing, we recommend that, as in many other States, its reports be kept separate from those of the Y. W. A.; also, that our Y. W. A. and W. M. U. workers be urged to do all in their power to organize and foster the G. A. work in their churches. The G. A. age is really the most important for reaching and interesting girls in missions. In those churches which have the complete cycle of missionary societies, and where it is feasible, we recommend the observance of promotion days at suitable intervals. As girls are graduated from the Sunbeams into the G. A., so we should graduate them from the G. A. into the Y. W. A., and from the Y. W. A. into the W. M. S.

Apportionment and Reporting.

We most earnestly hope that our young people will endeavor in every way possible to set for themselves the ideals of our Union and follow its desires as fully as possible. From our pledges we know our apportionment, individually and as societies and associations, for the coming year. Let each auxiliary leader begin now to let her members know what they need to raise during the coming year. By training our girls in stewardship, teaching them to tithe, our problem will be solved. Let us further urge the importance of keeping accurate accounts of work done, and the prompt reporting of same, and a greater determination to reach the standard of excellence. We hope that our Y. W. and G. A. leaders will co-operate in the all-day summer rallies, as has been suggested.

Personal Service.

A great department of our Union's work is that of Personal Service. We recommend that every society emphasize this work and the importance of keeping a record of what the members do, and of making a report at the close of the year to our Personal Service Chairman.

Standard of Excellence.

We further recommend that our societies make a greater effort to reach the standard of excellence, and that they keep a faithful record of such points as are made, so as to report them next year.

Students.

Many of our Baptist girls are for the greater part of the year in high schools and colleges and out of touch with the missionary activities of our denomination, unless it can be given them in the schools. Realizing the importance of this training for them, and the wonderful benefit of such to the home churches and communities from which they go, and to which they will return, we urge our people to foster the Y. W. A.'s and G. A.'s in our Baptist schools, and to influence their daughters to join them. We would further urge our college students on their return home to enter heartily into the work of their churches and give to them the benefit of their training.

Volunteers for Life Service.

Scattered throughout our State are many young women who, during the 75 Million Campaign, pledged their lives for definite Christian service. We hope that our people will constantly remember these dear girls in their prayers, and that the Missionary Societies will keep in close touch with them, encouraging them to fulfill their high purposes. They are God's chosen ones. Many come from our Y. W. A. ranks. We praise God for them. There are many others who ought to respond. We crave for our auxiliaries the privilege of being so used, year by year, as that many more may be called from our membership. No greater benediction upon our work can we ask than that our Heavenly Father may from time to time find many among us fitted to strengthen the ranks of those already in the fields, so white for harvest. Thus shall we, in the highest and finest sense of the word, prove ourselves to be auxiliaries, helpers, in the greatest thing of time and eternity—the redemption of the lost.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
Y. W. A. Secretary.

On motion, the report was adopted.

The Training School report was presented by Miss Bertha Carroll, Training School Trustee for North Carolina.

REPORT ON LOUISVILLE TRAINING SCHOOL.

As we view the record of our W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky., during the past year, the words of our great leader come back to us: "Before the second quarter of the century is far advanced, there will arise a larger Training School. As at present, it will share the enlightening lectures of the professors of the Theological Seminary; as at present, it shall have in its own House Beautiful those distinctive lessons which train soft voices and supple hands of women to lead in God's praise, to bind the broken limb, to prepare the tempting meal, and to meet the problems of women's lives in woman's way; and, as at present, from its doors the young women shall go forth to bless the city around them. But all these things shall be multiplied by its ability to receive, and the eagerness of many to share its benefits."

Already we see the fulfillment of these prophetic words. The larger Training School has, indeed, arisen—larger in building, larger in student body, larger in service. The activities of the students continue to be those outlined by Miss Heck. They study under the Seminary professors, have their distinctive lessons and duties in the House Beautiful, and day by day they go out to bless the great city of Louisville in Good-Will Centers, Bluebird Clubs, Mothers' Clubs, Sunday-schools, hospitals, and slums.

Royal Service for February gives the following report of an average month's field work: Visits made, 1,632; Sunday-school classes taught, 232; clubs or classes led, 200; average time spent on field by each girl, 40 hours. Once a week the girls meet to report their activities and to consult and pray about their field work. It is practically assured that in the near future a nurses' training course will be given in connection with the school.

The larger building of which Miss Heck dreamed is so nearly filled by girls "whose hearts long to bless the world," that the west wing, which had been rented by the Y. W. C. A. since the new building was erected, is now filled with students.

To accommodate the larger classes, some partitions had to be removed and a larger class-room fitted up. The laundry also had to be enlarged. In a short time we shall need to extend the west wing and thus provide additional bedrooms.

For this purpose and to assure the Training School a permanent income, the S. B. C. is to set aside a Building and Endowment Fund of $300,000 from the 75 Million Campaign gifts.

In her report of January 20, Mrs. Eager, chairman of the local board of managers, says: "Three months of the session have passed, with many blessings and encouragements. The largest student body (157, including students' wives) has in the main kept up splendidly in health and morale. A few cases of sickness have necessitated withdrawals, but about the same number of new students are applying. Seventy-eight of these students are on scholarships."

Our State is represented at the Training School this year by ten splendid girls—Misses Mary Warren, of Dunn; Annie Fountain, Tarboro; Valeria Green, Ridgecrest; Eugenia Morrison, Flat Rock; Vera Ruth, Salisbury; Naomi Schell, Asheville; Margaret Rucker, Charlotte; Virgie Rodwell, Macon; Martha Sizemore, Stovall; and Nell Fowler, Mars Hill. Eight wives of ministers from North Carolina are also studying at the Training School. These are: Mrs. R. K. White, of Conway; Mrs. C. F. Hudson, Morganton; Mrs. A. R. Phillips, Dalton; Mrs. B. O. Myers, Plymouth; Mrs. W. L. Griggs, Cary; Mrs. E. F. Sullivan, Wadesboro; Mrs. C. A. Byrd, Morrisville; and Mrs. R. E. Brickhouse, Creswell.

We are happy that the generous and loving gifts of North Carolina women have made it possible for us to give eight scholarships of $200 each this year. These are used by Misses Warren, Ruth, Green, and Morrison, who complete their studies this spring, and by Misses Schell, Rucker, Rodwell, and Sizemore, who began work at the Training School last fall. We feel sure that the investments that we are making in the lives of these young women will bring forth abundant fruit for the Master.

Miss Green has already been received by the Foreign Mission Board and expects to sail for China in August. She has lived most of her life among the Chinese, and both understands and loves them. Thus we are happy to record the Louis Castleberry scholarship used by her the past two years will soon be reaching out to the women of far-away China.

Mrs. McLure tells us that all the girls who graduate this year have already received calls to important fields of service. Truly, the laborers are too few, but we feel sure that the young women trained in our school are the best to be had. We are requested to send to the Training School only those girls who have sound bodies, sufficient technical training, preferably college education, and who have seriously responded to God's call to service.

As usual, our gifts to the Training School have been most liberal the past year. In addition to the eight scholarships, we have paid our part of current expenses, $690; have given $1,000 to the endowment fund, and have a balance on hand of $3,683.50, as the treasurer's report shows. Next year, however, we will need a larger amount, both for scholarships and for current expenses. Applications for scholarships for 1920-21 are coming in every week, and several for 1921-22 are already on file. Many of our young people heard and answered God's voice on Calling Out the Called day last October, and they will desire to enter definite training for definite service. The very least we can do is to provide the means for them to secure this training.

We shall also need a larger amount next year for current expenses. On account of the large number of our girls studying in the Seminary, classes there have become too large for the present class-rooms and for the present teaching force. Since the situation has been brought about by the W. M. U., and because of the generosity of the Seminary to us at all times, we feel that the Union should help to provide the extra teachers needed. This matter is to be brought up at the S. B. C., but the action of the women regarding it is so nearly assured that we feel it should be mentioned in this report.

In accordance with the Southwide campaign plan, and in order to have our gifts recorded on the books of the Convention, all money for the Louisville Training School, during the campaign years, will be sent to the State Convention Treasurer. This plan you will find advised in the recommendations of the Executive Committee, to be discussed at a later session of this Convention. It will, perhaps, be well for us to note here that all such gifts are a part of the Christian Education Fund and should be designated "For Louisville Training School, Christian Education," when sent to Mr. Durham.

As we go about our Father's business, let us keep before us as a constant inspiration the beautiful spirit of surrender and of service seen in the lives of all those who take up work at the Training School. One of our North Carolina girls wrote me recently: "I am ready now to work wherever my Lord shall direct, in the homeland or in foreign lands, for I believe that one is not fit to serve till she is ready to serve anywhere." When Mrs. Eager complimented the work done in the Training School laundry, one day not long ago, the head laundress replied: "We are trying to serve Him down here, too." From parlor and classroom to laundry, our great school is engaged in serving Him.

As we enter a new year's work, may we deem no task too great or vision too lofty to lead us and, through us, others into the blessed service of our King.

Respectfully submitted,

BERTHA CARROLL, Trustee.

Greetings from the North Carolina girls at the W. M. U. Training School were brought by Miss Rose Goodwin, Wilmington, who spoke on the topic, "What the Training School Means to a Girl." All in the audience who had attended the Training School were asked to stand, and a number responded.

"Mission Study in the Y. W. A.'s" was presented in a most interesting way by Mrs. W. C. Barrett, of Gastonia.

Mrs. S. J. Becker, Leaksville, spoke on "Our Future Leaders," and in an original way impressed the value of training our young people for service.

Greetings from Meredith College were extended by Miss Mary Lee Caldwell; from Chowan College, by Miss Mary Kinsey; from Mountain View Institute, by Miss Fay Foster.

These greetings were followed by a song by the Y. W. A. of Boiling Springs Academy.

Rev. G. P. Bostick was then presented, and addressed the Union.

At the close of this address, Mrs. Bostick, the aged mother of the Rev. G. P. Bostick, Rev. W. D. Bostick, and Miss Attie Bostick, all connected with our North China Mission, was recognized by the Union, and the body stood in greeting to this mother of missionaries.

Rev. E. L. Morgan, missionary to Laichou-Fu, and speaker at the evening session, was recognized by the chair, and spoke briefly.

Announcements. Benediction by Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem.

Thursday Evening

Session opened by singing, "Hiding in Thee."

Devotional service, conducted by Rev. W. A. Murray, pastor of the Presbyterian Church. 2 Cor. 5:11-21 was read.

After special music by the choir, the congregation joined in singing, "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross."

The four missionaries present at this session then sang, first in Chinese, then in English, "There is no name so sweet on earth, no name so sweet in heaven."

Rev. E. L. Morgan addressed the Union, using as his theme Hebrews 11:1, "Faith is the title deed of the things hoped for."

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report, through the Chairman, Mrs. B. A. Hocutt, Clayton:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

To say we have wanted to come to Shelby but poorly expresses the great desire that has been in our hearts these months—yea, years—past. Our great expectations have been more than fully realized. Our delight is unbounded when we look upon your broad streets, beautiful trees, superb buildings, and wonderful hills, and a feeling of inexpressible gratitude is in the hearts and minds of each of us for the innumerable courtesies tendered us by one and all.

We, the Committee on Resolutions, in behalf of the officers and delegates of the W. M. U., wish to give expression to these feelings in the following resolutions. Be it resolved:

1. That we express our sincerest admiration for the unmatched ability with which Mrs. O. Max Gardner, chairman of the Hospitality Committee, and her co-workers, handled the unusually large delegation under trying circumstances, and dispatched them with such a genuine warmth of welcome that could not be chilled even by the frosty atmosphere of the mountains, to the gracious homes of host and hostesses, where we were again given a sure Shelby welcome. The efforts of the committee and our hosts and hostesses have been untiring from beginning to end for our comfort and pleasure in every way, for which we are deeply appreciative; and to those who rendered such beautiful and generous service in the post-office, we are grateful.

2. That we express to the Woman's Missionary Society of Shelby Church, the pastor and his people our deep gratitude for their making it possible for the W. M. U. of North Carolina to meet in their town and in their church; and to the pastor and members of the church for their great co-operation; also, our appreciation and thanks to the members of the other denominations, who with Christian courtesy and hospitality have received us into their homes, and with words of welcome have made our hearts glad.

3. That we express our everlasting gratitude to those who have come to us from other States bringing messages of love and inspiration in God's name. Our hearts overflow with unspeakable gratitude when we think of having so many of our missionaries. To Mrs. McMillan, Miss Attie Bostick, Mr. Bostick, and Mr. Morgan we would say, "It is a benediction you have brought to us in His name. We love God and his heathen children the more for your coming."

4. That we express to the Sunbeams, their President and their leader, who inspired us to greater desires and determinations by their beautiful program our unbounded admiration and thanks; and to the ushers our thanks for their ever-ready and intelligent service.

5. That we express to those who in any way assisted in the inspiring music our appreciative enjoyment; and in connection with song we think of flowers. To the Committee on Decoration we are indeed indebted; and to the girls of our colleges who brought us greetings we return them with love.

6. That we express, without a dissenting vote, to the women of King's Mountain Association our open-eyed amazement and open-mouthed enjoyment of their great hospitality in serving such beautiful and bountiful dinners.

7. That we express our deep appreciation to the men of the city who so thoughtfully planned the automobile ride over their wonderful country, and any courtesies they may have shown in any way.

8. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Union, and a copy be printed in the local paper, which has courteously given us recognition in its columns.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. B. A. HOCUTT,
MRS. E. E. BONNAR,
MRS. W. J. CONRAD,
MRS. L. D. BOND,
MRS. LUTHER LITTLE.

Resolutions adopted by a rising vote.

Hymn, "Jesus Saves." Dismissed with prayer by Rev. J. W. Suttle.

Friday Morning

Session opened by singing, "The Morning Light is Breaking." Devotional service, conducted by Mrs. G. N. Cowan, Apex. Prayer offered by Mrs. Weston Bruner, Raleigh. Hymn, "Jesus Calls Us O'er the Tumult."

Minutes of afternoon session read and approved.

Memorial service, Mrs. Henry of Wadesboro, reading the list of our departed members, while the body stood.

Miss Briggs presented the resolutions prepared by the Executive Committee in memory of Mrs. J. S. Farmer, for eight years Recording Secretary of the Union.

RESOLUTIONS IN MEMORY OF MRS. J. S. FARMER

Shortly after the death of Mrs. Farmer, there appeared in the Biblical Recorder an appreciation by our State President, Mrs. W. N. Jones, which many of you doubtless read. Nothing more sincere and beautiful has been written; so I shall simply read this morning the resolutions of a committee appointed by the Executive Committee and submitted to that committee at our meeting in March:

Each member of our committee will recognize, I am sure, these lines from the beautiful prayer of our dear Miss Heck:

Lord, grant me, if thou wilt,
To slip away
As slips the night
Into the dawning gray,
So soft
That e'en the watchers, watching,
Cannot say
"Here ends the night

Thus, quietly and softly, in the morning of February 24th, at the home of her girlhood in Meherrin, Va., after days of much suffering, the gentle soul of our beloved Recording Secretary, Myrtle Hart Farmer, slipped from the shadows of this life into the glorious dawning of immortality.

Drawn thither by a daughter's affection, she nursed her mother through a serious illness, only to fall a victim herself to the epidemic which has everywhere taken so heavy a toll of human life, and left so many aching hearts in its wake.

For nearly eight years Mrs. Farmer had been Recording Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina and of our Executive Committee. To these duties, as well as to all others, she gave her best, and did her work with a thoroughness and efficiency which could only be accomplished by unusual talent fully consecrated to the Master's service.

Possessing a well-rounded sense of Christian duty, there was no phase of church work which did not enlist her prayerful sympathy and a loyal and devoted service.

By the sweet and quiet gentleness of her manner, and the charity of her judgments, she won and held her friends in the spirit of her Master, so that there is no heart among us that does not know its own touch of grief at her going away. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in loving remembrance of her beautiful life, her cherished friendship, and her faithful service, a page in our minutes be inscribed to her memory, and that a copy of this tribute be sent to her stricken husband and bereaved mother.

MRS. W. F. MARSHALL,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,

MISS ELIZABETH BRIGGS,

Committee.

The chair announced that Rev. J. S. Farmer had endowed a scholarship at Meredith College in memory of Mrs. Farmer, and that this gift would go through the Union.

Mrs. John Mitchiner, Superintendent of the Central Association, brought us a tribute to the memory of Mrs. W. W. Parker, former Superintendent of the Tar River Association, while Mrs. W. N. Jones paid tribute to Mrs. J. I. Myers, Superintendent of the Brushy Mountain Association.

At the conclusion of our memorial service, hymn, "It is Not Death to Die," was sung.

A Five-Year Campaign Calendar.

Enlistment—Mrs. E. E. Bomer, Hendersonville.

In behalf of the Executive Committee, Mrs. Weston Bruner, Raleigh, presented to the Convention a beautiful service flag, bearing thirty stars, representing our thirty missionaries from North Carolina on foreign fields.

Mrs. Bruner and Mrs. Weathers, of Raleigh, then sang "Saved by Grace."

Resolutions regarding the resignation of Miss Carroll, prepared by the Executive Committee, were read by Mrs. Weathers, of Raleigh.

RESOLUTIONS REGARDING THE RESIGNATION OF MISS CARROLL

Whereas, Miss Bertha Carroll has resigned as Corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union for North Carolina; and

Whereas, she served the Union most efficiently during four years, and was untiring in her efforts, both in the office and throughout the Associations, to lead the women on to nobler service; and

Whereas, her forceful personality, her strong intellect, her deep spirituality and her vision for the future have made her an excellent leader; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we greatly appreciate the service Miss Carroll has rendered; and

Resolved, That the Executive Committee, with whom she has worked so harmoniously, accept her resignation with keen regret, and pray God's blessing upon her in whatever work she may engage.

MRS. CHAS. E. BREWER,

MRS. JOE WEATHERS,

MRS. Z. M. CAVINESS,

Committee.

Resolutions adopted with a vote of appreciation to Miss Carroll.

Mrs. Bruner was then called to the chair, while Miss Carroll presented the recommendations of the Executive Committee for the year 1920-1921.

Discussion on the following points: Evangelization, Contributions, and Personal Service.

It was moved and carried that the word "fundamentals," Article II., in our recommendations, be changed to "sympathy."

By vote of the body, it was ordered that Personal Service reports be made quarterly instead of annually.

After discussion of Article VI.—Contributions—by Mrs. P. L. Dawson, Charlotte; Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, Raleigh; Mrs. John Webb, Oxford; Mrs. W. N. Jones, Raleigh, and Miss Eva Liddell, Charlotte, the question was called for by Mrs. K. D. Stukenbroke, Spencer, and the resolution passed as presented by the Executive Committee.

On motion the resolutions were adopted unanimously.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1920-1921.

With hearts filled with gratitude for the blessings that have come to our Union the past year, and with the recognition that the large results are due to the power and guidance of God, your Executive Committee recommends for the year 1920-1921:

I. Watchword and Hymn. That we hold our watchword, "For ye serve the Lord Christ," as the motive for service, and that our W. M. U. hymn, "Come Women Wide Proclaim," be again our Union hymn.

II. Sympathy. That we place our Union on record as standing for those forces that make for righteousness, supporting national prohibition, maintaining Sabbath observance, keeping the home inviolate, urging a general re-establishment of the family altar and assisting Americanization, better industrial conditions as regards women and children, public health, education and purity of life.

III. Prayer. Recognizing that the great results of the past year have come to us largely through prayer, we again urge our Societies and our women individually to pray unitedly for the coming of His Kingdom and for Divine guidance and blessing on our work. That we continue to pray definitely for these things each morning at 9 o'clock, or as near that time as is possible. That our Societies observe the Special Seasons of Prayer set apart by our Union: The Week of Prayer for World-Wide Missions the first week in January; the Week of Prayer for Home Missions in March; and a day of prayer for our State Mission work in September.

For the 9 o'clock prayer hour we would suggest the topics on our prayer calendar, as follows:

Sunday—Foreign Missions.

Monday—Women's Missionary Societies.

Tuesday—Home and State Missions.

Wednesday—Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador Work.

Thursday—Louisville Training School and Christian Education.

Friday—Young Women's Auxiliaries.

Saturday—Orphanages, Hospitals and Ministerial Relief.

IV. Bible and Mission Study. That societies of all grades carry on a systematic study of the missionary teachings of the Bible—all meetings of the societies to be opened with a devotional service. We recommend the appointment of a Mission Study Superintendent, who shall have charge of this important feature of our work, and we urge that each society organize at least one mission study class a year, these classes to be formed early in January or November. Where it is practicable, we recommend a mission study class at both of these periods, the January class to study Foreign Missions, the November class to study Home Missions. We recommend as text-books Dr. Carver's "All the World in All the Word," which has already proved most helpful to many of our societies, and the text-book of the United Mission Committee for the year.

V. Christian Education. That we ask our women to give to Christian Education one program in the societies each year, preferably June, the month which Home and Foreign Fields and Royal Service devote to this topic. It is understood that $300,000 of the amount raised for South-wide educational purposes will be given by the Educational Board of the Southern Baptist Convention to our Training School at Louisville as an Endowment Fund, each State paying its proportionate quota of this amount.

VI. Contributions. That we stress in our societies and among our church members the principles of Stewardship; and recognizing the fact that only a small percentage of our members are tithers, we continue our efforts to impress upon them the obligation of the tithe. That we make an earnest effort to raise each year as our apportionment one-fifth of the amount our society pledged in the Campaign. We subtract at the close of the first year the amount we have paid on our Campaign pledge from the total amount of the pledge, and take one-fourth of the remainder as our apportionment for the coming year, continuing this method to find our apportionment each year of the Campaign. In order that the Union as a whole may complete its Campaign pledge in four years, it is absolutely necessary that each society meet its pledge year by year. We ask the Associational Superintendent to keep in touch with the W. M. U. Church Director in those churches that have no societies, and send to them each quarter blanks for reporting all payments on Campaign pledges. We recommend that all members of Missionary Societies make their contributions to missions through the Missionary Societies, and that the Society Treasurer pay the money thus secured to the Church Treasurer. However, the Union recognizes the right of every society and every church to determine all local matters for itself, and societies using other methods will not be considered out of harmony with the plans of the Union. It is asked that societies using the budget or duplex envelope plan arrange with the Church Treasurer to credit all mission contributions given by the women of the church both to the society and to the church.

VII. Enlistment and Organization. We recommend that the large number of new societies and new workers enlisted in our 75 Million Dollar Campaign receive our heartiest support and co-operation in this work. That the older and stronger societies endeavor to help them in every way possible, and we make it our ideal to make this new and valued addition to our W. M. U. forces a permanent and vital part of our organization. That we continue in every Association our campaign to reach the inactive women in our churches, and that we make this an important feature of our work in following up the campaign.

VIII. Evangelism. Whereas, it is the purpose of the Campaign Committee to inaugurate an evangelistic campaign throughout the Southern Baptist territory, we ask our women to give to our pastors full co-operation in this great purpose, and to pray earnestly to this end.

IX. Expense Fund. That each society continue to send each May to the W. M. U. Treasurer an amount based on an estimate of 10 cents for each member, to meet incidental expenses of the Union. This fund is used to pay traveling expenses of officers, office rent, telephone, printing of minutes, expenses of annual meetings, and other items listed in the Treasurer's report and recorded in the minutes.

X. Louisville Training School. That to meet our part of current expenses of the Training School and to provide scholarship funds, we contribute the sum of $3,000 this year, said contribution to be made in the summer quarter—June, July, and August—and sent by the Church Treasurer to the Treasurer of the Convention as other mission funds, care being taken, however, that gifts for this purpose be designated, "For Louisville Training School—Christian Education."

We further recommend that five scholarships of $200.00 each, in addition to the Louis Castlebury Scholarship and to the Associational Scholarships, be maintained this year.

XI. Mobile Schools. That the Union co-operate with the State Board of Missions in the Mobile School work, providing teachers to conduct the W. M. U. Department when requested to do so.

XII. Summer Assemblies. That we co-operate with the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention in the Summer Assembly which they are planning to hold for one week at Ridgecrest, North Carolina, and that we urge our women to attend these meetings and to send a representative delegation from our State. That we continue to hold a W. M. U. period one hour each day in the assemblies under the direction of our State Convention, at Wrightsville Beach and at Ridgecrest; and we recommend that on account of the limited time, the varied program and inspirational features of these meetings, that we endeavor to do class work along the lines of methods of W. M. U. work and Mission Study, in the time allotted to us.

XIII. Interchurch Movement. Whereas, the Southern Baptist Convention and our State Convention have gone on record as not participating in the Interchurch World Movement, as an auxiliary organization we accept their decision in regard to this matter, and for this reason we will not send delegates or participate in conferences.

XIV. Personal Service. That we continue organized effort to reach the unsaved and unenlisted in our immediate localities, and that we may do this in the most effective manner we recommend a personal-service committee be appointed, and reports from this committee be made in our society meetings. That each quarter, on the special blank prepared for this purpose, a full report of this work shall be sent to Mrs. C. E. Brewer, Chairman Personal Service Committee, Raleigh.

XV. Literature. Realizing the size of the task ahead of us in raising our large Campaign pledge, and the necessity of keeping our people thoroughly informed as to our mission work and activity, we would urge continued effort and a special campaign during the month of August to increase the circulation of our missionary periodicals, Home and Foreign Fields and Royal Service and our state denominational paper, the Biblical Recorder.

XVI. Young People's Work. That we continue to emphasize in all of our meetings the importance of the work of our junior organizations, and we urge the older societies to co-operate with these organizations and to foster them in every way possible.

XVII. Annual Meetings. It shall be the policy of the Union to hold an Annual Session of the representatives of the various societies. Each Associational Superintendent is asked to plan for a meeting of the representatives of the societies in her Association each year. Union meetings of Associational circles are advised where this is practicable. The Vice-Presidents of the Union may hold Institutes in their respective divisions whenever it is requested by the Associational Superintendents, and it shall be their duty to conduct Associational Meetings in the absence or illness of the Superintendent.

XVIII. Standard of Excellence. That we adopt the following Standard of Excellence for Women's Societies and Young Women's Auxiliaries:

1. At least twelve regular meetings a year, with a devotional exercise and a definite missionary program.
2. An increase in membership during the year of at least 10 per cent of the number enrolled at the beginning of the year, until all eligible members are enlisted.
3. An increase of gifts to missions of not less than 10 per cent of the preceding year's contributions to similar objects.
4. Regular reports to State Officers each quarter of the year.
5. *One of the denominational magazines subscribed for in at least half of the homes represented in the Missionary Society, the ultimate aim being one in every home.
6. †Observance of the special season of prayer for State, Home, and Foreign Missions.
7. ‡At least one Mission Study Class during the year.
8. An average attendance at regular meetings of a number equal to one-half of the membership.
9. Some definite organized Personal Service rendered regularly to those of your own community in spiritual or physical need.

*Omitted from standards for Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors and Sunbeams.

†To read for Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams: "Observance of at least one meeting of the special seasons."

‡To read for Sunbeam standard: "Participation in the missionary program of the Sunday School Board."

§Omitted from standards of Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams; to read for Young Women's Auxiliaries: "Fostering of the Girls' Auxiliary in the local church or, where none exists, the organization, and fostering of the same; or when a Girls' Auxiliary is temporarily impractical, similar effort for other younger people of the local church."

10. §Organization and fostering of a Missionary Society in a neighboring church, or for the younger people of the local church.

XIX. Financial Aim. That our aim for this year be $400,000, or approximately one-fifth of our pledges to the 75 Million Campaign. That of this amount $3,000 be designated for the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky.; $350 for the Margaret Educational Fund; $275 for the Bible Fund of the Sunday School Board, and $1,500 for the State Expense Fund.

Report on Foreign Missions, read by Mrs. W. R. Haight, Windsor.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Realizing the power, the possibilities, the opportunities of the W. M. U. of North Carolina, and realizing that the promise as given to the sweet singer of Israel is fulfilled today, "Ask of me, and I will give thee the heathen for thine inheritance." The doors are wide open, and as the man of Macedonia beckoned to Paul of Tarsus to come over and help them, and as some one said yesterday that that man proved to be a woman, so the women of China, Japan, India, Africa, and the isles of the sea beckon to us with silent, pleading hands and faces to come to them with the wonderful words of life.

Your committee recommends to you the more careful and prayerful observance of the Christmas Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions, remembering with gratitude and thanksgiving the sacrifice of Miss Lottie Moon, who made the Christmas Offering possible to the heart of every foreign missionary.

In view of the new conditions brought about by the world war, it is a challenge to our deeper consecration. "The Master has come, and calleth for thee." The call is personal, individual. We cannot thrust it upon other shoulders. "The Master has come, and calleth for thee."

Report on Home Missions, read by Mrs. A. L. Grayson, Rutherfordton.

HOME MISSIONS

Among all the agencies being used to spread God's kingdom and to uplift mankind, none have done a greater work than the Home Mission Board. Through its various departments, its activities extend in every direction. Through its evangelistic department it is bringing thousands in our cities and towns to Christ. It is helping to house our homeless churches, through its loan fund, and thereby keeping the light of the gospel shining in many places where otherwise the people would sit in darkness. Its enlistment work is doing wonders in forming compact fields, whereby much more efficient work can be done, and many of our churches are persuaded to go to full-time preaching.

Then the aid given to our Mountain Schools is helping many of them to better equipment, and to this agency some of our schools owe their very existence. As the years go by, the work being done will become more and more apparent, when the boys and girls being educated in these schools become our future ministers, leaders, and teachers.

As we are being taught the vital necessity for information as to conditions in religious realms, we realize what the Publicity Department is doing to inform our people.

We are reaching out, through Home Missions, to Cuba, Panama, and Mexico, to say nothing of the frontier work among our own people and foreigners.

Therefore, we would urge upon our societies to stand loyally by the Board in our Mission Study Classes, in our contributions, and more especially in our prayers.

Respectfully submitted, MRS. A. L. GRAYSON,
MRS. J. M. JUSTICE,
MRS. J. H. HOWERTON, Jr.,
MRS. G. M. KOONTZ.

Report on State Missions, read by Mrs. R. B. Lineberry, Coleraine.

STATE MISSIONS

Christ taught his disciples "That repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem."

Realizing the importance of this instruction, and knowing that there is no interest without information, we recommend:

1. That we stimulate State Missions interest by trying to place the denominational periodicals in every Baptist home.
2. That we continue to observe State Missions Day in September.
3. That we try to reach with the gospel every foreigner who comes within our gates, and that we show a greater interest in the salvation of the negro.

4. That we demand a more sacred observance of the Sabbath, praying always that State Missions, the fountain whose waters ever keep fresh the other missionary interests may be as pure and clean as the New Jerusalem.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. B. LINEBERRY,
MRS. C. E. STEVENS,
MRS. K. D. STUKENBROKE,
MRS. LENA BAKER,
MRS. C. R. BOONE,
MRS. W. R. BEACH,

Report on W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, read by Mrs. F. T. Collins, Ahsokie.

W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

Inspired by the encouraging report of the great progress made this past year in the work of the Training School, and proud of the part North Carolina has taken in making this possible; being impressed anew with the great need of trained workers, not only on the foreign field and in the home field, but in our own state and associational work; realizing as never before the power of prayer, we, your committee, would recommend for the year 1920-1921:

1. That we urge our women to pray, without ceasing, to the Lord of the harvest that he send forth laborers into his vineyard; that we pray for girls, many girls, who will be willing to go, not only to the foreign field, but who may be willing to be trained for work in their own association and church—girls who are able to meet the strict physical qualifications of entrance to the Training School necessary—most of all, girls whose hearts' desire is to serve Him who went about doing good, and to follow in his footsteps.

2. That it be the aim of every association to provide a scholarship for any girl wishing to attend the Training School—if possible, one of their own number.

3. That a special hour be given the Training School at the annual meetings of the associations, having one or more girls to take charge, when possible, making definite appeal to young women to give themselves for special training and service.

4. That we be ever faithful to remember our Training School in our prayers at all times.

5. That great emphasis be placed upon the special program on the Training School during the month devoted to it, and that special effort be made to put the work of Training School before the people and arouse interest in it at all times.

6. That the women continue their generous gifts to the Training School and make a special effort to have more state scholarships, and that all gifts be sent designated, as for "W. M. U. Training School—Christian Education."

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL SESSION

Rocky Mount, March 29, 1921.

The thirty-first Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, was held in Rocky Mount Baptist Church, March 29-31.

The opening session was on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. W. Kincheloe, pastor of the church, presiding.

The devotional exercises were conducted by Dr. I. M. Mercer, of Wilson, who presented Dr. C. L. Jackson, of Wadesboro, who chose as his subject, The Easter Commission, using the text, "Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you." John 20:21.

Wednesday Morning, March 30.

The meeting was called to order by the President.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. H. M. Finch, of Rocky Mount, who took as her theme, "Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world," stressing the thought that our mission is divine.

The address of welcome was made by Mrs. W. H. Bullock, of Rocky Mount.

Response, Mrs. W. J. Roberts, Shelby.

On motion of Mrs. W. E. Daniel, of Weldon, it was ordered that those whose registration cards had been deposited with the Secretary up to this time shall be recognized as constituting the organization, but that the Secretary be empowered to add to this list from cards that shall be subsequently deposited.

Miss Ruth Jinks, of Durham, moved that the program prepared and now in the hands of the delegates be adopted as the order of business. Carried.

The report of Corresponding Secretary and Mission Study Superintendent, Mrs. W. H. Reddish, was then presented.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY, FOR THE YEAR 1920-1921.

The highest honor that has ever been bestowed upon man was when God chose him to be the instrument for bringing about His Kingdom; the keenest joy that comes to man is the result of having given himself unselfishly and unstintingly to Kingdom service; the sublimest fellowship known to man is that which exists between a child and his Heavenly Father when they walk together and talk together about the Kingdom and its work.

When I come as your Corresponding Secretary to make a report of my work and your work, I realize the inadequacy of figures and words to express to you what has been done. For as with all the finer things of life, the better part cannot be expressed. Who would dare try to give a record of the growth in grace and in knowledge of our Lord, of the prayers that have gone up to God like sweet incense, of the seeds that have been sown in the hearts of little children, and of the peace that has come to all who have assumed the privilege of a partnership divine.

What has been accomplished has been the result of your loyalty, of your prayers, and of God's favor. You have made it easy for the officers because of your co-operation and your willingness to assume any new work that was given us to do. It is with heartfelt gratitude that we express our thanks to you and to God for His marvelous grace. Personally, I desire to express my deep appreciation to you and to my co-workers in the office who did my work that I might have six months in which to recuperate from an illness.

Campaign Influence.

This year has given us our first opportunity to see the influence of the Campaign. The new vision of the power of prayer, of the effectiveness of organization, and of the strength of co-operation has been felt in every undertaking. Never before have women been so conscious of their ability to do, and in our meetings there have been unprecedented enthusiasm and consecrated determination to go forward and to invade the impossible if necessary.

The Work of Associational Superintendents.

A most encouraging feature is the efficient work of our Associational Superintendents. Their reports show that they have held forty-four Annual Meetings at which 824 Societies were represented, traveling in doing their work 15,574 miles, and writing 10,936 letters and postals. Besides this they assisted very effectively in the Mobile Schools and the Regional Conferences.

Contributions.

Each year the North Carolina W. M. U. has been able to report a substantial increase in gifts. This year we are able to report a total of $314,004.00, an increase of $139,674.03, which is a gain of more than 80 per cent over last year's gifts. While we have not reached our Campaign pledge, the results are such as will strengthen us for future endeavors and on to victory. The Raleigh First Church W. M. S. led in gifts with an offering of $9,574.19.

The Ashe, Central, Eastern, Macon, Montgomery, Sandy Run, Stony Fork, and Surry Associations reached their Campaign pledges. The Roanoke Association led in gifts, reporting $23,655.58. The Piedmont made the greatest proportionate increase, giving last year $7,383.06, their gifts this year being $19,870, a gain of 160 per cent.

New Societies.

Two hundred and forty-one new Societies have been organized this year, 70 of these being W. M. S., 33 Y. W. A.'s, 52 G. A.'s, 15 R. A.'s, and 71 Sunbeams. Last year 452 Societies were reported, showing that 212 more Societies were organized last year than this, but of course the Campaign caused the high mark last year.

Reports.

The total number of Societies reporting this year is 1,633. Six hundred and seventy-eight of these have reported each of the four quarters.

Periodicals.

The number of subscribers to the Recorder and our mission magazines is 9,637.

The Standard of Excellence.

Realizing that our old method of reporting the Standard of Excellence was inadequate, we sent to each Society with the fourth quarter's literature a Standard of Excellence report blank. Our report is made from the blanks returned. They show that 32 Woman's Missionary Societies, 4 Y. W. A.'s, 2 G. A.'s, and 8 Sunbeams are Class A Societies, making a total of 46 Class A Societies.

Eighty-seven Societies of different grades are in Class B; 69 in Class C; and 43 in Class D.

The Mount Zion, Pilot Mountain, Catawba River, and Gaston Associations made nine points on the Associational Standard of Excellence, while the Eastern made ten points.

Field Work.

During the year the officers of the Union have traveled 7,996 miles, making 44 talks. Twenty-seven Associational meetings were visited, also the Charlotte Division meeting at Monroe, Missionary Rallies at Rocky Mount and Wendell, and the Regional Conferences at Durham and Apex. The Union was represented at the Summer Assemblies at Wrightsville Beach and Ridgecrest.

Owing to the absence of the Corresponding Secretary the greater part of the field work during the summer was done by Miss Briggs. She also attended the Florida Summer Assembly at De Land, teaching a class in "Judson, The Pioneer."

The Corresponding Secretary attended the Mid-winter Conference and Field Workers' Council at Nashville in January.

New Missionaries.

Our Union has been signally honored by having three of its number to answer the call to the regions beyond, carrying the gospel message.

The Future.

The past is encouraging, the present and future are ours to improve. The first step toward making the future better is to find our weak places and strengthen them.

With only 46 Class A Societies, we have much to do to make our Societies already organized more efficient. Special emphasis should be placed upon the points in the Standard of Excellence. While we must not stress money less, we should remember that our W. M. U. provides for a well-rounded program of Christian activities and that the raising of our apportionment is only one feature of this.

Another fact is noticeable. In numbers and efficiency our Woman's Societies outstrip the Junior Societies. In our churches as in our homes, the children are the joy of the present and the hope of the future. With so many avenues of usefulness open to us, we women must not be bewildered and forget that the training of the children in our churches and in the homes is our highest privilege. It is my dream that at least each A-1 Woman's Society will foster A-1 Junior organizations of all grades.

Since more than a thousand Societies of all grades failed to report during each of the four quarters, and less than three hundred sent in Standard of Excellence reports, the matter of reporting seems to be a weak point that needs strengthening.

With glorious achievements in the past for our encouragement, let us press forward until we reach the ideals we have set for ourselves and the standards that have been planned for us by Him "whose we are and whom we serve."

MRS. W. H. REDDISH.

Report was adopted by a rising vote.

The report of the Treasurer, Miss Elsie K. Hunter, was presented, reading the totals of the Associations by Divisions. (See page ----). The report was adopted by a rising vote.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs presented the W. M. U. Banner won by the Central Association. It was accepted by Mrs. J. F. Mitchiner, Superintendent of the Association.

It was moved that a telegram be sent to Mrs. R. N. Simms, Y. W. A. Secretary, who was unavoidably absent.

Miss Margaret Wyatt, of Meredith College, gave the Y. W. A. report for Mrs. Simms. It was unanimously adopted.

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE Y. W. A. SECRETARY.

All through the ages, as God has called upon His people for gifts to Him and His cause, the sacrificial gift has been the one that has counted most, and the thought has come to me many times while preparing this report to present to you, that surely God looks down upon what our North Carolina girls and young women have given this past year and is pleased. During the past twelve months our State and nation have passed through a financial crisis, the like of which has been unknown to many of us before, and surely, when, in spite of the financial depression, our girls have given the magnificent sum of $36,169.12, it means that there has been a great deal of sacrificial giving.

We made our campaign pledges in the full tide of prosperity. God has been testing us. We rejoice that so far we have measured up, and we have faith to believe that He will make us able to completely redeem our pledges.

Our organizations are growing ones. Each year we have new members and our girls grow older and become more able to give, so we expect to so increase our contributions year by year as to completely redeem our campaign pledge of $201,729.85.

Division of Societies.

This is the first year in our State that separate reports of the Y. W. A. and G. A. work have been kept. It has been most interesting and stimulating to both organizations. The sum of $31,914.14 was given by the Y. W. A.'s and $4,254.98 by the G. A.'s.

Increase in Contributions and Work.

We rejoiced over the contribution of $16,245.31 last year, but now with $36,169.12 to our credit we have given $3,678.50 more than double that amount, a 122 percent increase. Each quarter has shown a fine increase, the summer quarter being by far the best summer quarter in our history.

Three hundred and seven societies have given this amount, making an average of about $118.00 per society against an average of $64.99 last year. The Y. W. A. average is $129.00, and that of the G. A. $30.00.

You will be interested in knowing that the Y. W. A., which has the honor of leading the State in contributions is that of Laurinburg, with $3,598.50, Greensboro First and Wilmington First come next, with over $1,000.00 each. Last year five societies gave over $400.00, while this year there have been twenty-five to give that sum. This year there have been eight Y. W. A.'s to give over $700.00. The G. A. leading in contributions is that of the Brown Memorial, with $332.91. Clayton follows with $240.95, while there are ten in the $100.00 class.

In Y. W. A. gifts the Pee Dee Association leads, giving $5,198.07, while the Mount Zion has the banner for the G. A.'s, with $552.81 to her credit.

While these comparisons are interesting and stimulating, still we would not have the smaller societies and associations discouraged by them, for we know that just as much credit is due many whose amounts are not so large and it is on the large number of small gifts that we depend.

An encouraging feature of our work has been the growth of new societies. We have had seventy-five new ones, thirty-three Y. W. A.'s and forty-two G. A.'s. We rejoice too that many old societies have taken on new life and are counting for great things in their community and church life.

Societies Reporting.

Last year at the annual meeting we stressed more regular reporting and during the year have made special efforts along this line with the result that ninety-one societies have reported every quarter against eighty last year. There were 56 Y. W. A.'s and 35 G. A.'s. For the G. A.'s the Mount Zion Association had the largest number and the Gaston for the Y. W. A.'s.

Mission Study and Personal Service.

During the fall months more of our girls have engaged in Mission Study than ever before. The college societies have had large classes and many are planning spring classes. An increasingly large number of societies are reporting personal service, but still we feel sure much more is being done than is reported. These two features of our work are vital to its strength and deeper spiritual growth.

Girls' Auxiliaries.

It has been gratifying to note the growth of our Girls' Auxiliaries. Out of the 154 on our roll 138 have reported and forty-two new societies have been organized. The Mount Zion and Robeson Associations now lead in the number of G. A.'s, having nine each, while West Chowan and Pilot Mountain have seven each.

Secretarial Work.

Your Secretary made a plea last year for the workers to keep her in better touch with their work and this has been done this year, resulting in the writing of a large number of personal letters, in addition to the preparation of the four quarterly letters, the Recorder notes and the accomplishment of the regular quarterly routine report work, besides special correspondence.

In the fall a letter to the college and high school Y. W. A.'s was prepared, sending greetings and asking them to arrange and carry out a special program for the observance of the day of the "Calling of the Called." There were a number of these services held, with fine results.

Special letters were also sent to non-reporting societies during the first two quarters and we feel that this was very worth while. In the last quarters such letters were prepared from the office for all of our organizations.

During the late winter it was a pleasure to help arrange for Miss Tyler, our W. M. U. College Correspondent, to visit a number of our schools. All were eager to have her come, but much to our regret her visit had to be cut short, owing to her throat giving out. Meredith, Oxford, Buie's Creek and the Baptist girls at the N. C. College for Women had the pleasure of hearing her.

This spring special letters have been sent to the Y. W. A. Associational Leaders and to College Y. W. A. Presidents in regard to the closing of the year's work and the annual meeting.

It has been a great pleasure and privilege to have had the opportunity of sharing in the work of our North Carolina Baptist girls during this period of wonderful growth and development, and as we pray for the coming of still greater things for them, we realize that we must ever depend more and more upon our Heavenly Father for guidance and wisdom.

The following recommendations are submitted, hoping that they may help our cause during the coming year.

Enlistment of Girls in Mission Work.

(1) In churches where Y. W. and G. A.'s are already organized their membership committees are the proper ones to see that every available girl is enlisted in mission work. It is our ideal to have the graded societies in our churches and our young people properly advanced from one to the other. In churches where there are no young women's organizations we urge the women of the W. M. S. and the pastor to study our Y. W. A. and G. A. organization literature and plan to enlist their girls at once.

Programs.

(2) After reaching and enlisting our young people we must hold them. This can't be done by half-prepared, uninteresting programs. Appoint live program committees, who with the counselor will plan far ahead. Use attractive posters and give all the girls possible something to do.

Bible Study and Prayer.

(3) Being fully aware that before real successful mission work can be accomplished our girls must have a love for Christ, His word and commands and that all our blessings come through prayer, we urge our leaders to stress more strongly than ever their Bible study and prayer service. As they become more and more familiar with God's Word and learn to pray more earnestly, so their lives will become of more power in His kingdom. Let all societies faithfully observe the special days and seasons of prayer as they are set apart for them.

Mission Study and Mission Literature.

(4) In addition to the regular monthly and special programs, we urge our societies to engage in mission study. There are many attractive books now for young people and it is hoped that each society will have two classes a year, one in the spring and one in the fall. Our Mission Study Leader, Mrs. W. H. Reddish, recommends "A Great Heart of the South" and "Old Trails and New" for Y. W. A.'s, and "Lamp-lighters Across the Sea" for G. A.'s. She will be glad to enroll your class and advise in any way. By all means be sure to report your class to her and obtain seals and certificates.

It is hoped, too, that each member will subscribe to some of our mission literature. Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields and the Biblical Recorder are all helpful and good.

Contributions and Stewardship.

(5) Most of our Auxiliary members have already made pledges to the Campaign Fund, so that our efforts for the coming year will be largely directed toward the payment and collection of these pledges. However, as new members come into our societies we must be sure to secure pledges from them, for in order to reach our aim we shall need these gifts, and one object of our work is to train our young people to give to the Lord's work according as He has prospered them. We urge our leaders to stress the duty and importance of stewardship and tithing, that our young women may know its joy early in life.

In regard to our aim for next year, the jump from $16,000 last year to over $36,000 this year has been wonderful, and all that could be asked, but in order to meet our pledge in the five year time we must increase this amount next year. As we grow in resources and numbers we believe this will be easy to do, and so we recommend that we take the sum of $42,000 as our aim for next year. Let each association, each society and every individual member see to it that all pledges are paid up to date.

Standard of Excellence and Reporting.

(6) Let us during the coming year lay greater emphasis than ever before upon our societies attaining the standard of excellence recommended by our Executive Committee. It is urged that the counselors will take active charge of this, seeing to it that the society officers and members understand it. In addition we urge that all reports be more systematically kept and sent in on time.

Personal Service.

(7) Many of our societies are losing the joy and uplift that comes from actively engaging in this great department of our Union's work. Christ is our example in service for others and we need to train our young people to follow in His footsteps. To that end we recommend the appointment of a Personal Service Chairman, who will help plan special work for the society, keep the reports and send them to Mrs. Chas. E. Brewer, Raleigh, N. C., our State Personal Service Chairman. She will be glad to advise you about your work at any time. The handbook on Personal Service can be obtained from the State W. M. U. office.

Trained Soul-Winners.

(8) As we endeavor to develop our girls along all lines of Christian activity, we must be sure to include training along a line without which no Christian's life is really complete—that of soul-winning. Ask your pastor to conduct a class for your society so that you may feel somewhat prepared for this greatest of all our Master's commands.

Student Organizations.

(9) North Carolina has an unusually large number of high schools and several colleges in which are enrolled hundreds of our bright girls during many months of the year. In most of them we have active Y. W. A.'s or G. A.'s so that these girls may keep in touch with their denominational life and missionary activities and be fitted to become leaders in their home churches. We urge our people to see that their daughters receive this training.

We further recommend that the leaders and counselors of the student organizations themselves endeavor in every way possible to conform to the plans outlined for them by the W. M. U. Commission on Young People's and College Work and to follow the plan of State Y. W. A. work as far as possible.

In addition, it is urged that they see to it that, as their campaign pledges are paid through their home churches, the amounts are credited to the Y. W. A. State pledge.

Furthermore, we urge these girls, who have the privilege of college training, to realize their opportunities and responsibilities and return to their home churches and communities determined to help lead those who have not enjoyed the same privileges into channels of greater service and usefulness.

With the prayer that our Heavenly Father will direct and guide us in all that we undertake,

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
Y. W. A. Secretary.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs presented the report of the Junior Department. This report was unanimously adopted.

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT FOR THE YEAR 1920-1921.

Last year we met at Shelby in our first Annual Session since the launching of the 75 Million Campaign. We rejoiced greatly over the victories in increased contributions, in new organizations, in new members won to our societies, and in indications of deepened spiritual life of our Baptist women. This year has been the testing time of the effectiveness of the Campaign plans and the permanency of the Campaign inspiration.

Looking at our Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador work from the financial angle, we have again cause for rejoicing. The Sunbeam amount needed for this year, according to the Campaign pledge, was $14,500.00. Their actual gifts have reached $14,846.60, being $300.00 beyond their aim.

The Royal Ambassador pledge to the Campaign called for $2,207.00 for this year's part. They have exceeded it by $280.00, giving a total of $2,488.05 for the year.

In these figures we see the splendid gifts of which our children and boys are capable. We had felt when these young workers gave as much as $1.00 apiece during any quarter that they deserved having their name appear in the Recorder. Now we must discontinue this plan, for the names come in by the hundreds and a special edition of the Recorder will soon be needed to publish the lists.

This giving more largely as individuals has naturally made the gifts from separate societies larger. Last year we recorded thirteen Sunbeam Bands giving more than $100.00 each, and no R. A. Chapter reaching this amount. This year we have twenty-eight Bands and seven Chapters giving more than $100.00 each.

Instead of an average of $24.00 per Band and $20.00 per Chapter, we now have an average of $33.00 from each. The per cent is due to the work of many, for now one-half of the Bands and about three-fifths of the R. A. Chapters are giving above $15.00, whereas the proportion was much lower last year.

But a note of warning comes to us in the midst of these splendid figures. We had 470 Bands and 76 Chapters reporting last year. This year there are 449 Bands and 75 Chapters, a loss of 21 and 1 respectively, though we have enrolled 70 new Bands and 15 new Chapters. This cannot mean a loss of interest on the part of the children. It must mean that some women and some whole Woman's Societies are failing in their persistence in keeping these organizations alive. Poor indeed would be our report if we doubled our gifts and lost heavily in the number of young people we are training for missions. While we measure our progress partly by our gifts, our chief work is educating our children and boys for future mission workers and leaders. Let us mark this warning in time and make it our determined endeavor to correct it before we lose more ground.

This has again been a year of unusual interest for the Junior Superintendent. She wishes to express thanks to the State Union for its courtesy in again sending her to the Southern Baptist Convention. The great gathering in Washington is one which will long remain in the memories of those who were present at this epoch-marking gathering.

In June the Sunbeam and R. A. State Mission Programs were prepared to be ready for later mailing. During that month also—June 7-10—a class in the Manual of W. M. U. Methods was taught in connection with the Evangelistic Conference held in Raleigh. Plans also for the W. M. U. work of the Mobile Schools were effected through the Raleigh office.

June 24 to July 2 was spent at Wrightsville Beach at the Seaside Assembly. A class in "Judson the Pioneer" was taught at that time.

Following closely upon this, July 6-14 was again spent with the Florida Baptists in their State Assembly at DeLand. "Judson the Pioneer" was used with a splendid class enrolling seventy, and sixty of them took the examination.

July 25-31 was given to the W. M. U. Assembly at Ridgecrest. A class of children in the morning, story hour in the afternoon, and three conferences on Junior Methods comprise the work done at that time.

Twelve Associations have been visited during the year,—Piedmont, Buncombe, Haywood, Western North Carolina, Tar River, Catawba, Caldwell, Pilot Mountain, Chowan, Roanoke, Neuse-Atlantic, and Mecklenburg-Cabarrus. Mrs. H. W. Baucom, of Smithfield, very kindly supplied for the Wilmington Association. Besides these meetings, the Junior Superintendent has attended a few more of local character, a work she would gladly do more of if time permitted.

The statistical report of the Junior Superintendent is as follows: Letters, 393; postals, 117; literature, 2,273; Associations visited, 12; Assemblies, 3; other meetings, 5; miles traveled in State, 3,480; out of State, 1,418; total miles, 4,898; received of Miss Hunter for traveling expenses, $128.74; amount on hand, 1919-20, $18.45; total expense, $147.19.

The opportunities that lie before us are greater than we have ever known. The helps by way of literature and organization are better than ever; the power of Him who has said, "All power is given unto me," is at our command. Shall we not, therefore, put ourselves more entirely into His keeping that His purposes may be more largely worked through us in the coming years?

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS,
Junior Superintendent.

The President paid a tribute to Dr. J. D. Hufham, whose funeral services were being conducted at this hour in Scotland Neck.

Mrs. W. E. Daniel led in a prayer of thanksgiving for his life of service. A telegram of sympathy was sent to Dr. Hufham's family.

Mrs. H. W. Little, of Wadesboro, sang "Can the World See Jesus in You?"

President's Address—"The Gifts of the Wise Men."

THE GIFTS OF THE WISE MEN.

We have come together in this our thirty-first annual session with the consciousness of achievement, with a deep abiding joy because our service has been worth while. Our gifts this year show an increase of $140,000 over the preceding year, and in the past five years our contributions have increased from less than $50,000 to over $300,000 a year. Of our large Campaign pledge of $2,167,000, we have paid $488,343.99. Not as much as we should have paid at this date, but there is no question but that the full pledge will be paid in the five-year period—the honor of our Union stands behind it. In the gatherings of our people this past year all over our Southern Baptist territory, the one thought has been predominant—What phase of the work shall we lay the emphasis on now that at last our people are learning the lesson of sacrificial giving for the coming of the Kingdom?

With this thought in mind we go back nearly two thousand years and bring to you today a message from the wise men who brought their gifts and laid them at the feet of the infant Messiah. Those men "with seeing hearts whose souls were open to God," who in their distant home saw the wonderful star, shining as no star ever shone before, and remembering and believing in the vision of Balaam, the son of Peor, who said, "I shall see him but not now; I shall behold him but not nigh; there shall come a star out of Jacob; and a scepter shall rise out of Israel," had their hearts thrill with a new hope and leaving their homes set out on the long journey to follow the star impelled by the knowledge that the time was ready for the coming of the King. "And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy, and when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother; and they fell down and worshipped Him, and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto Him gifts, gold, frankincense and myrrh.

Gold.—The silver and the gold, the cattle on a thousand hills are His, yet it is a part of the divine plan that we should honor, notice the word honor, God with our substance, not because of His need but because of ours. David recognized this in his prayer of thanksgiving for the liberal offerings for the building of the temple, "But who am I and what is my people that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee." We find early in the history of the race the law of offerings. Cain and Abel brought their sacrifices, Abraham gave tithes to Melchisedek, priest of the Most High God. Jacob vowed that if he might come again in peace to his father's house, he would give tithes of all that he might possess. There is a direct connection in the Old Testament scriptures between tithing, bringing God his part in our material possessions, recognizing His ownership, and worldly prosperity.

Gold here signifies bringing to God the wealth which He has given to us, and to a certain extent we hasten or hinder the coming of the King as we give or withhold. There was never such a call for gifts of money as today. The world stands in need of material things, famine stalks in the land, and on the other hand there has never been such giving as today, such liberal response to the world's need. The spiritual need that is so much greater than the physical need of the peoples of the earth today is to be met largely through the instrumentality of our material gifts. We cannot without the offerings of gold build the churches, the hospitals, send the missionaries, equip the schools and meet the opportunities of the hour. These are the things you are doing through the payment of your Campaign pledges. Our ability to consecrate our material possessions is a test of our Christian character. If we can give liberally of our gold, we shall be able to give liberally of our time and our strength in

His service. When we find a man or a woman whose wealth is consecrated to God, we always find a life consecrated to His service. Some one has said, that "the material element of life being lowest and least spiritual, if that be surrendered and brought into alignment with the spirit of Christ, the rest will follow almost as a matter of course."

The wise men brought their gifts of gold with joy that they were permitted to see the King. We must, if we would bring the blessing into our own lives, bring our gifts with joy. It is the cheerful giver that our Lord commended and who realizes the truth of His words that it is more blessed to give than to receive. We must bring to His treasury a willing-hearted offering if this great campaign is to permanently enrich our churches and our individual lives. And let us not forget as we bring our offerings that the Master stands as of old over by the treasury, and the size of our gifts is measured not by the world's standards, but by the standard of sacrifice and love.

"The love is the priceless thing
The treasure our treasures must hold;
Or ever the Lord will take the gift
Or tell the worth of the gold."

Frankincense, Prayer.—In the order of worship established under the Mosaic covenant the altar of incense typified Christ as the intercessor through whom our prayers and praises ascended to God. Frankincense whose exact constituents are unknown was added to the incense making the sweet savor offerings typifying Christ in His perfection. In John's vision on Patmos he sees the angel with the golden censer with much incense offering it with the prayers of all the saints upon the golden altar before the throne. "And the smoke of the incense which came with the prayers of the saints ascended up before God." We must bring our offering of prayer to the Messiah that our own lives may be brought into harmony with the divine will and plan, for it is through prayer that God speaks to us and we speak to Him. Only by listening for His voice can we get the guidance that we need in solving the problems and perplexities that often times are ours. The knowledge of His will comes to us only through prayer.

There is only one phase of this great subject of prayer that we can speak of this morning, and that is power, the power that comes to us through prayer. We have said again and again how greatly the apparent results of our W. M. U. work have increased since there has been a persistent, definite program of prayer. The place of prayer in your life depends on your belief in its power. Dr. Hubbard says, "the value of prayer in the life of any individual is largely determined by the view of prayer that he holds." Are you praying for the power of the Spirit in your life and in your service as were those disciples of old whose persistent, believing prayers brought down the Pentecostal blessing. Do you believe that the harvest of souls in the heathen world has a direct relation to the prayers that go up to God from His people on this side of the world. The greatest service you can render to the coming of the King and to the growth of His kingdom is through prayer, persistent prayer that looks at the mountains of difficulty in our way and has faith to say, "Be thou removed." To pray as we should there must be first the deep sense of our need; second, a realization of our dependence on God for His power and third an unwavering faith in His willingness and ability to answer. Our spiritual attainments, our growth in grace, our power in service depends on the place of prayer in our lives. So in the remaining years of our Campaign, let us as we bring our gifts of gold, bring our larger gifts of prayer and praise, and because of our weakness and unbelief let us come like the disciples to the feet of the Master and say, "Lord, teach us to pray."

Myrrh, Sacrifice.—According to the Jewish tradition, "the gift of the wise men of myrrh offered to the Son of Man and the Son of God hinted at His resurrection—myrrh, to a mortal, gold to a king and frankincense to God." Sacrificial service is our reasonable offering according to the apostolic teaching. "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. Dr. Robert Law says, "Service is the path to power and power the path to larger service, this is the political principle of the kingdom of heaven." The gift without the giver is incomplete. The disciples apparently failed to comprehend the teaching of the Master that he who would be great in His kingdom must be great in service, that He who would win great position in the eternal kingdom must follow His example and literally give His life for others.

We are asking today that in this new year we make the gift which we lay at His feet complete—our money, our prayers, and our lives, all to be consecrated to Him. Surely there was never such need as today. The women and children of every land beckon with pleading hands to the women of our land who have been trained under a Christian civilization to give to them the help they so sorely need. We are sending our trained young women as doctors, nurses, teachers, across the seas to hold the light of the gospel amidst the darkness of heathenism, but we who remain should never lose sight of the fact that we, too, are called to offer our lives here in our own land, in our homes in sacrificial service for the Kingdom. In a great address made at a National Conference in Washington last year by Mrs. Helen Barrett Montgomery there was a wonderful appeal for the women of the world. In it she said, "One of the menaces today is the enfranchised woman whom Christ has not enfranchised, and their very education and their very culture and their very freedom they are twisting to use them for things that will tear down the country that our forefathers built." We know that is true, and every woman here today has a definite call to give her life in making our own land Christian and true to the ideals of those who suffered and labored for the privilege of worshipping God according to the dictates of their own conscience. We need as never before to speak with no uncertain sound as to the faith that is within us, to stand as never before for truth, for purity, for holiness in our every-day living, for—

“The glory of our life below

Comes not from what we do, or what we know,
But dwells forever more in what we are.”

My ideal for the host of our W. M. U. women is that they shall stand in the midst of the sunshine and the shadows of our present day as true followers of Him who taught that greatness followed service and said of himself, “The Son of Man came not to be ministered unto but to minister and gave His life a ransom for many.” In your gifts to the King do not leave out the myrrh of sacrificial service.

This old Jewish interpretation of the threefold gifts of the wise men may seem fanciful, but the fact remains that far in their eastern home they saw the star, and they followed the star, bringing gifts of all that was best of their possessions. Today we are looking again for the coming of the King. Shall we not bring our gifts to make ready the world for His coming, not as the Babe in Bethlehem, but as the King eternal?

“They gave to thee

Myrrh, frankincense and gold.

But Lord what shall we Present ourselves before Thy Majesty

Whom thou redeemest when we were sold?

We’ve nothing but ourselves and scarce that neither.

Vile clay and dirt;

Yet it is soft and may

Impression take.

Accept it Lord: and say, this thou hadst

Stamp it, and on this sordid metal make

Thy holy image, and it shall outshine

The beauty of the golden mine.”

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY SUPERINTENDENT FOR THE YEAR 1920-1921.

More than ever are we beginning to awaken to the fact that a large part of the work of the Woman's Missionary Union must be educational. In the policy of most churches the dissemination of missionary information and the teaching of missionary principles to the young has been left to the women. Realizing this tendency of our churches and seeing in it a wide field of usefulness, for the first time this year has Mission Study been given special emphasis in our work.

While some progress has been made, the future has in store for us a far richer harvest, if we will use our opportunities.

Two hundred and sixteen classes have been reported, a gain of thirty over last year. We now have thirteen who have completed the course planned in 1918, ten of these belonging to this year's roll. Besides this we have six post-graduates in this year's class. Mrs. J. W. Crow, of Asheville, was the first to complete the Post-graduate Course, and has also finished the New Course planned in 1920. This means she has completed fifteen books.

During the year 509 certificates have been awarded, a gain of 200 per cent over any previous year. Seventy-eight of these were Juniors. Seven hundred and thirteen monogram seals have been awarded. Twenty-six Reading Cards and forty-eight stamps have been won by Sunbeams. Mabel Beeker, of Leaksville, leads the Sunbeams, having won two cards and nine stamps.

Five of the post-graduates are from the Buncombe Association. The Mount Zion reported the largest number of classes, 50.

The officers have taught four Study Classes. Miss Briggs taught "Judson, the Pioneer" at the Summer Assemblies at Wrightsville and Ridgecrest, and at the Florida Summer Assembly at DeLand. The Mission Study Superintendent taught one in Raleigh.

A study of the above figures will reveal the following situation: We have held 216 study classes. If these classes averaged ten members each, we should have sent out 2,160 seals, whereas we sent out only one-fourth that number. One of our weak points is the failure of our students to stand the simple examination required for the seals. We hope to improve greatly along this line during the new year.

MRS. W. H. REDDISH,
Mission Study Superintendent.

Then followed a demonstration of the Mission Study Courses, under the direction of Miss Annie L. Logan, of Asheville.

Report of Chairman of Personal Service Committee, Mrs. C. E. Brewer. Report unanimously adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT 1920-1921.

Gratefully we acknowledge the blessings that have come to our people during the past year and that these blessings have been shared with the less fortunate is shown by the splendid Personal Service reports of the year.

This is the first year the Personal Service reports have been sent in quarterly and they show remarkable growth. Those of last quarter were unusually large. The work has doubled that of last year. Only 82 societies sent in reports last year as against 173 this year; 3,031 persons were reported as working last year, and now the number has increased to 6,022.

Not only have the societies met the needs of their own communities, but the cry for help in far-off China and in Europe has been heard, and funds and boxes of clothing have been given to the famine-suffering people.

It is encouraging to report that plans are being made for establishing Good Will Centers in Wilmington and Raleigh. We have one in Cherokee County, conducted by Mrs. J. N. Lee, our Home Board Missionary to the Cherokee Indians.

The following are the statistics for the year: Number of societies reporting, 173; number of societies having personal service committees, 139; number of persons doing personal service work, 6,022; number teaching in Mission Sunday-schools, 66; number cottage prayer-meetings, 748; visits to weak churches or Sunday-schools, 350; services held, 305; number members doing rescue work, 10; number members doing work for negroes, 81; number members doing work for foreigners, 11; pieces or packages of literature distributed, 5,178; Boys and Girls' Clubs, 9; Homemakers' Club, 3; visits to sick, shut-ins, strangers, 46,815; visits to jails or prisons, 315; visits to County Home, 34; baskets or trays of food distributed, 10,352; quarts of milk distributed, 409; garments distributed, 8,249; number of times flowers sent, 985; hours nursing, 475; auto services rendered, 46; conversions, 33. Other activities: Five Armenian orphans supported; two orphans adopted; baby cared for while mother was sick; several children cared for while mother worked; winter clothing supplied to mother and five children; nurse furnished four weeks; two rolling chairs furnished for sick; wood and stove given to needy family; a boy sent to school; several card and letter show-ers; five boxes of clothing to European sufferers; poundings and help given to several families; a boy adopted; a French orphan supported for four years; a burial robe made; two boxes sent to mountain schools; two boxes to County Home and jail; box of food to Training School; linen given to a hospital; mending and food to charity patients; wardrobe for mother and infant; one circle is supporting and sending a girl through Meredith College; services held every week and Christmas cheer provided for rescue home; a box of sheets, pillow-cases, towels and other supplies sent to a hospital in China.

Young Woman's Auxiliaries.

The Y. W. A.'s report 29 societies doing Personal Service Work, 29 of which have committees for that purpose; 330 members actively engaged in the work; number teaching in Mission Sunday-schools, 17; cottage prayer-meetings held, 100; visits to weak churches or Sunday-schools, 10; services held, 54; rescue work, 4; work for negroes, 2; work for foreigners, 1; pieces of literature distributed, 746; times flowers sent, 33; visits to sick, shut-ins, strangers, 2,091; visits to jails or prisons, 8; baskets or trays of food distributed, 2,207; garments distributed, 284. Other activities: A box of gifts for children in a hospital; two orphans adopted; a girl clothed, supported and sent to school; a load of wood given; Christmas letters, cards, confections, serenade and tree to sick; 150 Christmas stockings sent to Samarcand; table-cloth to mountain school; a pounding to poor family; baby cared for while mother worked.

Girls' Auxiliaries.

The Girls' Auxiliaries report eighteen societies doing Personal Service work; four Personal Service committees, with 283 members taking part in the work; one teaching in mission Sunday-school; 19 cottage prayer-meetings held; number of visits to weak churches or Sunday-schools, 1; services held, 1; work for negroes, 27; visits to foreigners, 30; Boys' and Girls' Clubs, 1; flowers sent (number of times), 259; visits to sick, shut-ins, strangers, 2,068; visits to jails or prisons, 67; baskets of food distributed, 891; garments distributed, 372; subscription to magazine given to sick.

Sunbeams.

The Sunbeam Bands report 27 societies engaged in Personal Service work; 20 committees, with 267 members taking part in the work; number of cottage prayer-meetings, 6; visits to weak churches or Sunday-schools, 29; pieces of literature distributed, 68; number of times flowers carried, 169; visits to sick and strangers, 1,329; baskets or trays of food given, 338; garments given, 420. Other activities: Scrap-book sent to hospital; three auto rides for shut-ins; one child picked 88 pounds of cotton for sick man without charge; picture cards sent to Indians; pounding given a widow; ten letters sent to sick.

Many societies testify to the blessing that comes from serving others. In serving even the least of these the Master says you serve Him.

"Others, Lord; yea, others,
Let this my motto be,
Help me to live for others,
That I may live for thee."

Respectfully submitted,

Reports of Vice-Presidents are as follows:

GREENSBORO DIVISION.

As another year draws to its close our natural impulse is to take stock and see where we stand. Perhaps, there has never been a year when it was more difficult for our women to keep up their mission pledges, and yet, in spite of financial depression and the many calls for assistance, such as the European and Chinese Relief funds, we present to you a great report from the Greensboro Division.

All eight of our Associations held their annual meetings. Our contributions for the year amount to $87,018.08, Mount Zion leading with the fine showing of $22,466.55. Out of our 338 societies 144 reported each quarter. We rejoice to report 47 new societies organized, Tar River Association leading with 15, Piedmont being a close second, with 13. The Raleigh First Church contributed the great sum of $9,574.18, the largest sum given by any church in the State. Our Division made a substantial increase in gifts during this last very difficult quarter.

Though we have much to be grateful for in this past year's work, we feel we want to especially stress several things for our new year's aims. First of all, comes Mission Study. Why not give a strong pull all together and come up with a great report next year of Mission Study Certificates received? Then, there are also the enlistment of all our women and girls, the training of our young people for future leaders, the accurate and systematic reporting, and undaunted loyalty to our Campaign. Let us "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

MRS. WESTON BRUNER, Vice-President.

ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION.

As we stood on the mountain-peak last March and caught the vision of the great task which lay before us, there came to each of us the determination that our Master's work should have the first place in our lives. It was the enthusiasm born of this determination that carried us through this year of depression, and while merchant and banker has watched and worried over financial problems, the Superintendents in the Elizabeth City Division felt that though all else failed, the women of this Division would prove true to their pledge and to their Lord. That this confidence was not misplaced, our record for the year bears strong testimony. The four Associations are organized as never before for efficient service, a number of new societies have been reported, and the Young People's work has been given special attention. In these reserve forces which are being trained, we feel we have added strength which will be felt all through the years to come. One Association is supporting two missionaries. There are three girls in the Training School and money in hand to send two others. All of this, together with our undeveloped and unenlisted territory, we count as assets, and while we have not reached our aim in the Division, we feel that we have lengthened our cords and strengthened our stakes and that our pledges will all be paid.

We face the coming year with profound gratitude to God for the showers of blessings, for we feel that our business of Kingdom building is on a sound basis, and we are ready with His guidance and help to reach out and embrace in its work not only the unsaved and unenlisted of our great Division, but also "the uttermost parts of the earth."

MRS. F. G. BATTLE, Vice-President.

WILMINGTON DIVISION.

Notwithstanding the fact that our country has passed through one of the greatest financial depressions that has been experienced in the last quarter of a century, our Division has kept the vision.

Our contributions have been increased, the interest in the work has been intensified, and our membership is constantly growing. Thus, all our activities have gone forward, advancing the work of the W. M. U.

Would that all the associations could achieve the Standard of Excellence that Miss Macy Cox has attained in the Eastern Association. Her work is surely inspirational.

To see the work of the W. M. U. go forward under such adversities as we have experienced in the past year, should strengthen our faith, give us new ambition to put the work on a newer and bigger plane than ever before.

The divisional meeting will be held in Lumberton.

We close the year with gratitude to our Heavenly Father for increasing opportunities for service.

MRS. HORACE M. BAKER, Vice-President.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION.

The Charlotte Division makes the best report in its history. At the Division meeting in Monroe, a three-hundred-dollar Edison was presented to Rev. and Mrs. H. H. McMillan to take with them to China.

We led the State in contributions, giving $96,619.71; we also led in Class "A" Societies, and in Y. W. A. contributions. One hundred and thirty mission study seals were received in the Division.

The Annual Meeting will be held in June at Forest City.

MRS. T. B. HENRY, Vice-President.

ASHEVILLE DIVISION.

The W. M. U. work in the Asheville Division has moved steadily forward during the past year. Nothing new in method has been attempted. But several phases of the work have been emphasized and with more marked success than in any previous year. This is notably true of mission study. Those who have attempted no systematic work before have made a splendid start this year. A number of women have completed the post-graduate course.

The interest in Junior organizations is also growing. Qualified leaders and suitable church buildings will solve that problem. In the meantime the combination Sunday-school class and missionary society is helping.

The progress in the Seventy-five Million Campaign is most gratifying. The pledges made by our people was the result of earnest prayerful consideration and they will not fail to redeem those pledges. Though the vice-president has not received full financial reports, the amounts mentioned by the superintendents have been a great revelation. Were there to be no results to follow the campaign except the enlarged vision and the increased activity in the churches participating, our Seventy-five Million Campaign would still have been worth all the effort put forth.

The other features of the Campaign have not been neglected. There has been a most gratifying response on the part of bright young women to the call for volunteers. A prominent minister in the North said not long ago, "The mountains are the great recruiting station for Christian workers. The rest of us are buying off with money." We are longing for the time when we, in the mountains, shall be financially able and spiritually endowed to give our full share in money. God grant though that we shall never be satisfied to contribute merely money.

The splendid work of the superintendents of the division in other than their own associations has in large measure made up for the absence of the vice-president from the associational meetings and from the Mobile Schools this year.

MRS. W. H. WOODALL, Vice-President.

Address, "Our Daughters as Corner Stones," Miss Evelyn Campbell, Meredith College, Raleigh.

Solo, Mrs. H. W. Little, Wadesboro.

Address by Mrs. W. C. James, "They Also Serve."

Prayer by Dr. Livingston Johnson.

Mrs. Z. M. Caviness, Raleigh, presented the Service Flag, and spoke of the eight new stars representing the missionaries that have gone out from our State during the year.

Prayer, Mrs. T. B. Henry.

Address, "Soochow and Our Mission Work," by Mrs. T. C. Britton, of Soochow, China.

The President requested all to stand who were connected with the Missionary Union in this State when the Yates Memorial Fund was inaugurated. Twelve responded to this request.

Report of the W. M. U. Training School Trustee, Mrs. R. N. Simms; read by Miss Ruth Jinks, East Durham.

REPORT OF BAPTIST WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION TRAINING SCHOOL.

One of the most delightful experiences I have been permitted to have during the last twelve months has been that of my service as North Carolina Trustee for our Baptist Woman's Missionary Union Training School for Christian workers. I feel grateful for the more intimate knowledge I have gained of this wonderful school and its conduct, and, especially, for the contact with the fine young women who are seeking and receiving training there. (During the last few months my mail has been literally besieged by applicants in regard to entering.) How grateful we should feel that God is calling so many of our fine girls into the joy of trained Christian service—girls who feel that "Christianity is not merely a message to be heard; it is a deed to be done."

North Carolina has been represented by twelve splendid young women this year: Misses Virgie Rodwell, Macon; Naomi Schell, Asheville; Martha Sizemore, Stovall; Margaret Rucker, Charlotte; Annie Maria Johnson, Durham; Grace Olive, Apex; Hazel Armstrong, Hobgood; Myrtle Fuller, Wake Forest; Katie Murray, Rose Hill; Lois Miller, Fairmont; Novella Ferguson, Durham; and Annie Fountain. The four first named will be among the graduates at Commencement, Miss Naomi Schell expecting to sail for Japan during the summer. Miss Novella Ferguson is happy over the call to be a Christian nurse in foreign lands and goes to one of our Baptist hospitals this fall for a three year's course. She writes in glowing terms of the Training School and of her joy in service there.

Misses Olive, Armstrong, Fuller and Murray are asking for scholarships again next year. In addition, we already have eleven new applicants, mostly college girls, well fitted both in mind and body for the arduous training, and eager to learn how to serve humanity. We trust that none of these will have to be refused for lack of funds. If there are any individuals, societies, or associations who have funds available for scholarships we would be glad to hear from them.

Each year our gifts to the Training School have grown. Last year your generosity enabled us to grant ten scholarships while the executive committee recommends that twelve be granted for the coming session of 1921-1922.

In addition to the ten scholarships, we have contributed $1,-675.00 to the Current Expenses of the School and $5,000.00 to the Endowment Fund. Dr. James, of the Education Board, sent in $3,046.44 for the Endowment Fund to be credited to North Carolina.

I am happy to report that the Training School has had an unusually good session, with little sickness, no special problems, and an earnest, intelligent set of students. It opened in the autumn with one hundred and twenty-six boarders, the capacity "until we build," writes Mrs. Eager, the largest number of enrolled students in the history of the institution. This number was cared for only by using a class room, a guest room and an absent teacher's room in addition to the regular accommodations. There are also about thirty-two married women who attend the classes—wives of Seminary students. These, however, are day students. There were more of these than usual this year because of the day nursery that had been fitted up by the women of the Long Run Association.

A new department for this year in the school was that of a one-year course for Christian nurses—this to precede or follow a three-year's course in an accredited Baptist hospital. This course includes New Testament, Junior Church History, Old Testament for first, third and fourth quarters, Personal Work for Fall Term, Sociology for Spring Term, Expression and Field Work.

In a letter some time ago Mrs. Eager mentioned the fact that Miss Naomi Schell, one of our North Carolina girls, had been a great help in making the Good Will Center successful during the summer. She says, "Over a thousand children were in the Sunday-school in the three months, and there were eight thousand visits to the play-ground. Nearly five hundred baths were given to the children, much visiting done in the homes, many children cared for in absence of the mothers, and many taken to doctors. Italians and other foreigners, Catholics and Jews are making up a part of the clientele of Good Will Center. A class in Americanization has been begun by some of our students. I know all this is rejoicing your hearts. We have to appropriate $300.00 a year more for Good Will Center expenses." Thus we get a glimpse of the practical Christian service our Training School girls are learning to render, and the Good Will Center is only one of their varied activities. Besides, they are actively engaged in work in Blue Bird Clubs, with Camp Fire girls, Mothers' Clubs, Hospitals, Sunday-schools, slums, Orphanages, Homes for Incurables, the Friendless, Y. W. C. A.'s and factories, all in addition to heavy class work under Seminary professors, music, missionary training, and home duties in the House Beautiful.

There a beautiful home spirit reigns, presided over by the beloved Mrs. McLure. Our girls grow into well-rounded, efficient Christian workers, filled with the spirit of the Master. In his book, "The Meaning of Service," Harry Emerson Fosdick says, "When the Master takes possession of us, straightway the principle of service begins to flower out. It widens its horizons to take in all the world; it deepens its vision to take in the most unlovely and the lost; it enlarges its scope to include even our enemies; it surrounds itself with majestic motives in the love of God, and at last a real Christian stands unfolded, with the spirit of service grown to a great compass within. Such a development is the very blossom and fruitage of joy." Such a spirit of service is truly Royal Service—and into such Royal Service our Training School is endeavoring to lead its students. Already over sixty young women have gone out to foreign fields. As kindergarteners, homemakers, nurses and evangelists these women are taking the light to Mexico, China, Brazil, Africa and Burma. More than seven hundred are fighting against the powers of sin from Oregon and California on the west, over the Southland, to West Virginia and Maryland on the east, and are giving help and inspiration to all lines of Baptist work, being engaged as Church Missionaries, Young People's Leaders, Settlement Workers, Trained Nurses, Mission Teachers, W. M. U. Workers, Workers among Foreigners and Colored People, Sunday-school, B. Y. P. U. and Associational Workers.

It is perfectly natural that the alumnae coming out from an institution with such a life should have made their motto the words of the Scripture, "That the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea." Such a spirit can never grow dim or fail in growth. Only eternity can measure the good that shall be accomplished by girls who are favored enough to receive life's training in the walls of the House Beautiful, but how vastly the Master's coming would be hastened, if not only this handful, but all the vast number of our Baptist women had intimate knowledge of, and touch with this institution of power. As my mind and heart were filled with this wish there fell under my observation the account of the recent invention in wireless telegraphy whereby the intangible radio messages of the air may be caught by a new instrument and transmuted into legible type which even a child may read, and the coming of the time is predicted by scientists and inventors when the installation of such an instrument in homes everywhere will permit the instantaneous communication of information from one great center to the remotest homes on the continent. How magnificent it would be if every Baptist woman in the Southland had her heart attuned in such sympathy of purpose and knowledge of aim with this great institution at Louisville, that the pulsations of its deep and spiritual life might be intelligently received, and recorded, and lived out in the homes of the two million members of our sisterhood!

An immediate result of this would be the outpouring of resources—a mighty endowment would be raised, the needed land would be bought, a larger and more wonderful House Beautiful than we ever dreamed would arise, and from it would go trooping great numbers of consecrated women, trained to carry the Master's message by word and deed to the ends of the earth, even unto the coming of our Lord.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
North Carolina Trustee.

This report was spoken to by Mrs. Maude R. McLure.

Miss Vera Ruth, of Salisbury, read a most interesting letter from the North Carolina girls at the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville. A telegram of greeting was also read from the girls in the Training School. Miss Briggs moved that the Union send a letter, expressing our love and interest to them.

Report of the Mobile Schools and Summer Conferences presented by Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs. A rising vote of thanks was given Miss Briggs for her leadership in this work.

REPORT OF MOBILE SCHOOLS AND SUMMER ASSEMBLIES.

During the year of the 75 Million Campaign women who represented our Woman's Missionary Union were requested by the Campaign Organizer and Director to take part in the Campaign Schools. The State Mission Secretary found the teaching of special classes on Woman's Work of such value at that time that he requested similar class work to be done in the later Mobile Schools. Among the last pieces of work done by Miss Carroll before leaving the office of Corresponding Secretary, was securing teachers for these classes. The work was then given into the charge of the Junior Superintendent. A training school for teachers was held in Raleigh in connection with the Evangelistic Conference, June 7-10. A Study Class was conducted in the Manual of W. M. U. Methods, a number of women who were to teach this book in the Mobile Schools being in attendance. Outlines of the book were furnished to those who were unable to attend.

Twenty-eight Mobile Schools were held, July 19-23. There were 539 enrolled in the W. M. U. classes, and 139 took the examination.

Many thanks are due to the following W. M. U. workers who taught in the Schools designated: Andrews, Mrs. C. L. Allison; Burlington, Mrs. M. W. Buck; Burnsville, Miss Annie Logan; Chowan College, Mrs. P. S. Vann; Clayton, Mrs. Weston Bruner; Cove Creek, Mrs. I. G. Greer; Crossnore, Mrs. F. A. Bower; Delway, Mrs. B. R. Page; Franklin, Mrs. J. C. Owen; Fruitland, Mrs. E. E. Bomar; Gastonia, Mrs. W. C. Barrett; Hertford, Mrs. E. J. Griffin; High Point, Miss Ruth Jinks; Maxton, Mrs. J. L. Jenkins; Maysville, Miss Mary Warren; Mooresville, Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok; Mount Gilead, Mrs. C. L. Jackson; Newton, Mrs. J. Y. Killian; Norlina, Miss Mattie Bain; North Wilkesboro, Mrs. T. B. Henry; Orion, Miss Vera Ruth; Rutherfordton, Mrs. A. L. Grayson; Scotland Neck, Mrs. J. L. Carroll; Siler City, Mrs. I. P. Frazier; Shelby, Mrs. P. F. Dawson; Wingate, Mrs. C. M. Beach; Marshall, Mrs. J. M. Justice. Mrs. Alexander Miller was turned back from her trip to Bolivia by a storm and flood that held up all travel for thirty-six hours.

Summer Assemblies.

Our Woman's Missionary Union put on Mission Study work at the two State Summer Assemblies. At Ridgecrest a class was begun by Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok, of Spencer; but she was called away by the desperate illness and death of her sister.

At the Seaside Assembly at Wrightsville Beach, June 24-July 2, the Junior Superintendent taught a class in "Judson the Pioneer," fifteen being enrolled and five taking the examination.

Plans for the Assemblies this year have been delayed by the illness of the State Mission Secretary. They will be published as soon as possible and arrangements will be made to have the W. M. U. work presented and Mission Study Classes taught.

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS.

"Records of Baptist History," Mrs. E. T. Crittenden, Wake Forest.

While the audience stood, Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs read the names of the members of the Union who had passed into the Beyond since our last meeting.

Mrs. John Wacaster spoke briefly of the life of Mrs. William Archer, Superintendent of the Kings Mountain Association at the time of her death, after which the memorial hymn was sung.

Presentation of the Recommendations of the Executive Committee, Mrs. W. H. Reddish. The Recommendations were unanimously adopted.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1921-22.

We, the Woman's Missionary Union of the Baptist State Convention, representing the large number of women and young people in our societies and churches, adopt the following recommendations:

I. Watchword and Hymn. That our watchword be, "For ye serve the Lord Christ"; that we follow also the watchword of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention; that our hymn be the hymn written by Miss Heck for the Union—"Come, Women, Wide Proclaim."

II. Declaration of Ideals. With full appreciation of the relation to our Union work of those forces aiming directly at our spiritual and social uplift, we declare ourselves as supporting prohibition; maintaining the proper observance of the Lord's day; keeping the home inviolate; urging a general re-establishment of the family altar; seeking, through co-operation with our government, to establish true Americanization on Christian principles; and to encourage public welfare that will improve industrial conditions that affect primarily the public health, education, and purity of life among our women and children.

III. Prayer. Believing that prayer is the most powerful influence we can use in bringing the world to Jesus, and in deeply implanting Him in the lives of Christian people, we urge the importance of giving it first place in our individual lives and in the meetings of the societies. That we pray for the coming of His Kingdom and for divine guidance and blessing on our work. That we continue to pray definitely for these things each morning at 9 o'clock, or as near that time as is possible. That our societies observe the Special Seasons of Prayer set apart by our Union; the Week of Prayer for World-Wide Missions, the first week in January; the Week of Prayer for Home Missions, in March; and a day of prayer for our State Mission work, in September.

For the 9 o'clock prayer hour we would suggest the topics on our prayer calendar, as follows:

Sunday—Foreign Missions.

Monday—Woman's Missionary Societies.

Tuesday—Home and State Missions.

Wednesday—Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador Work.

Thursday—Louisville Training School and Christian Education.

Friday—Young Woman's and Girls' Auxiliaries.

Saturday—Orphanages, Hospitals, and Ministerial Relief.

IV. Bible and Mission Study. That societies of all grades pursue the courses in Mission Study outlined by the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention. That the six books outlined for study in 1918 be completed before taking up others, and that the study be done in classes, where practicable, but that individual study be provided for and encouraged. That Mission Study and Reading Courses for Juniors be fostered by the Woman's Missionary Societies. That all who study Missions be urged to stand the examinations required for the awarding of certificates and seals. That each Associational Superintendent be asked to appoint an Associational Mission Study Director for her Association, whose duties shall be to promote the interests of Mission Study in her Association, and to plan a Mission Study hour for the associational meetings.

V. Christian Education. Realizing the importance of Christian Education, and knowing what it means to the continued growth and development of our denomination, we recommend that our women give to Christian Education one program in the societies each year, preferably June, the month which Home and Foreign Fields and Royal Service devote to this topic. Of the amount to be raised for South-wide educational purposes, $300,000 will be given by the Education Board of the Southern Baptist Convention to our Louisville Training School as an Endowment Fund. Each State is to pay its proportionate quota of this amount.

VI. Contributions. That we urge the continued study of Stewardship and the enlistment of all the women of our churches; special effort to be centered upon those who did not pledge to the Campaign, upon new members, and upon those who may be able to enlarge their pledges because of prosperity. That a Stewardship Chairman be appointed in each society, her duty being to secure as many tithers among the membership as possible, and to stress the stewardship of life as well as that of money. That the societies take as their apportionment the amount pledged for one year, plus the amount that may be in arrears. That the society treasurer shall secure from the church treasurer each quarter a statement of Campaign payments made by the non-affiliating women and young people of the church, and include this amount in the quarterly report. The Association Superintendent is asked to keep in touch with churches that have no Woman's Missionary Union work, urging that payment of Campaign pledges be reported to the Woman's Missionary Union treasurer. That each society send to the Woman's Missionary Union treasurer 10 cents per member for the State Expense Fund, and that this fund this year, on account of increased railroad rates and the cost of printing, be not less than $1,600.00. That funds for the Louisville Training School be sent direct to the Woman's Missionary Union treasurer by the society treasurer; funds for all other Campaign objects to be sent Mr. Walters Durham, Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention.

VII. Loyalty Campaign and Enlistment. We recommend that the Loyalty Campaign receive our heartiest support in each of its fourfold objectives: (1) The collection of all pledges made; (2) The enlistment of the Associations which have previously had no part in the Campaign; (3) The extension of the Campaign to include new members and hitherto unenlisted members in participating churches; (4) The further enlistment of all our people in the Campaign through the dissemination of the doctrine of stewardship.

VIII. Baptist Woman's Missionary Union Training School. That we continue our loyal support and co-operation in the work of our Training School at Louisville, paying our proportionate part of the current expenses and maintaining a scholarship fund of $2,000.00 per year in addition to the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, and any associational scholarships that may be established.

That definite information about the Training School be given at some meeting of the society during the summer quarter, and a contribution from each society be sent to the Treasurer of the Union during the same quarter, June, July, and August, for the school.

IX. Summer Assemblies. That we co-operate with our State Convention in the preparation and conduct of the Summer Assemblies at Wrightsville Beach and in the mountains. That at least one mission-study class be conducted at each of these assemblies by a representative of the State Union, and that other work of the Woman's Missionary Union be done as opportunities present themselves. That we also co-operate with the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention in the plans they effect for the Assembly at Ridgecrest, urging our women to attend, and rendering any help requested of our State Union.

X. Personal Service. That we emphasize continually the importance of participating in a ministry of relief to the unfortunate, of comfort and cheer to the discouraged, of evangelism to the unsaved, through committees of personal service. That we urge the appointment of said committee in each society. We endorse most heartily the plans for the Summer School for Personal Service at the Baptist Woman's Training School at Louisville, Ky., and urge societies to send students to this school. That each quarter, on a blank prepared for this purpose, a full report of all personal-service work be sent to Mrs. C. E. Brewer, Raleigh, Chairman, Personal Service Committee, Woman's Missionary Union.

XI. Literature. Realizing that the moment is crucial for the redeeming of our pledges to the Campaign, we urge that greater effort be made to impress upon our people the needs of our greatly enlarged mission fields through mission literature. To this end, we recommend that we enter heartily into all plans to increase the circulation in our State of our denominational paper, the Biblical Recorder, and our missionary periodicals, Home and Foreign Fields, and Royal Service.

XII. Young People's Work. That in our Associations and in our churches the work of the young people's organizations be stressed. That the woman's societies be asked to require quarterly reports from the young people's organizations and to furnish at least one Junior mission book to each leader during the year.

XIII. Annual Meetings. It shall be the policy of the Union to hold an annual session of the representatives of the various societies. Each Associational Superintendent is asked to plan for a meeting of the representatives of the societies in her Association each year. Union meetings of associational circles are advised where this is practicable. The Vice-Presidents of the Union may hold Institutes in their respective divisions whenever it is requested by the Associational Superintendents, and it shall be their duty to conduct Associational Meetings in the absence or illness of the Superintendent.

XIV. Standards of Excellence. That the uniform standards of excellence for all grades of organizations be emphasized by the States; that the standard for Woman's Missionary Societies and Young Woman's Auxiliaries be the one which follows; that this be also the standard for college organizations, Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams, with the changes noted below. That Woman's Missionary Societies and Young Woman's Auxiliaries fulfilling all points of their standard shall be on the list of honor as A-1 organizations; those fulfilling eight, in Class B; six, in Class C; and four, in Class D; college organizations fulfilling all points of their standard shall be on the list of honor as A-1 auxiliaries; those fulfilling seven, in Class B; five, in Class C; and three, in Class D; and Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams fulfilling all points of their standard shall be on the list of honor as A-1 organizations; those fulfilling seven, in Class B; six, in Class C; and four, in Class D.

- *1. At least twelve regular meetings a year, with a devotional service and a definite missionary program, preferably one each month.
2. An increase in active membership during the year of at least 10 per cent of the number enrolled at the beginning of the year until all eligible members are enlisted.
3. Meeting apportionment.
4. Regular reports to State officers, according to the plan outlined by the State.
- †5. One of the denominational periodicals subscribed for in at least one-half of the homes represented in the missionary society, the ultimate aim being one in every home.
- ‡6. Observance of the special seasons of prayer and gifts for State, Home, and Foreign Missions.
- §7. At least one mission-study reading circle, or preferably a mission-study class, during the year.

*To read for college organizations: At least eight regular meetings, etc.

†Omitted from standard for Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams; to read for college organizations: One of the denominational periodicals subscribed to by the society.

‡To read for college organizations, Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams: Observance of at least one day's program of each of the special seasons, etc.

§To read for Sunbeams: At least one mission-study book or curio box, used either in class or preferably in story form.

- ¶8. Some definite organized personal service for the spiritual uplift of the local community, conducted by the members of the society under its oversight.
- 9. An average attendance of at least one-half of the active membership at the twelve meetings.
- ¶10. Fostering in the local church of a Sunbeam Band and of at least one other of the graded W. M. U. organizations for the young people and, where possible, the organization and fostering of a missionary society in a neighboring church.

That the secretaries of societies be urged to send in the Standard of Excellence report with the fourth quarter's financial report, whereby each society grades itself.

XV. Financial Aim. That our aim for this year be one-fourth of our remaining unpaid pledge to the 75 Million Campaign.

Duet, Mrs. H. W. Little and Mrs. H. B. Allen.

It was moved and seconded that there be a change in the constitution regarding the representation at the Annual Meeting.

The constitutional change adopted is as follows:

Those entitled to membership in the Annual Meeting shall be the officers of the Union, Executive Committee, the Associational Superintendents, five representatives from the entertaining society, with one adult representative from each society of any grade, provided no church has more than five delegates. Only such delegates as are personally present and duly accredited by the Union shall be entitled to vote.

Mrs. H. B. Moore, Gastonia, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it be the desire of this, the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, to go on record as being opposed to having a representative of our country at the Vatican in Rome.

The resolution was adopted, and a motion carried that a copy be mailed the President of the United States.

¶To read for Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams: Some definite, organized personal service conducted by the members of the society under the direction of its leader; to read for college organizations: Some definite, organized personal service for spiritual uplift in the local community or within the college, conducted by the members of the society under its oversight.

¶Omitted from standards for college organizations, Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors, and Sunbeams: to read for Young Woman's Auxiliaries: Fostering of the Girls' Auxiliary in the local church or, where none exists, the organization, and fostering of the same; or, where a Girls' Auxiliary is temporarily impractical, similar effort for the other younger people of the local church.

The Union, by rising vote, expressed its opposition to the removal of the W. M. U. Headquarters from Baltimore, Md.

LOYALTY CAMPAIGN.

Realizing the importance of the 75 Million Dollar Campaign, what it has meant to the W. M. U. of the South, to the awakening of the various organizations of the churches, to the Boards of the Southern Baptist Convention, and to the individual church member, we, the Committee on the Loyalty Campaign, wish to submit the following:

1. That we continue the organization of the 75 Million Campaign, each church director and group leader urging the prompt and faithful payment of the individual pledge.

2. A personal card from the President of the Woman's Missionary Society, or Church Director, to every woman in the church.

3. A house-to-house canvass with cards, enlisting especially the unenlisted.

4. That every church in the State that has not already done so observe a Loyalty Rally Day.

5. That the Superintendent or Divisional worker visit the non-remitting churches.

6. That we pray daily and become true intercessors for the success of the Campaign.

7. That we insist upon all contributions of women and children being credited to the W. M. U.

8. That these recommendations be published in the Recorder at once so that no time will be lost in getting the Loyalty Campaign on the hearts of our women.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. H. B. MOORE, Chairman.

The report on Foreign Missions was read by Mrs. J. Clyde Turner, of Greensboro.

FOREIGN MISSIONS.

As we come to the consideration of Foreign Missions, we are impressed anew with the magnitude of the task before us, the greatness of the present opportunity, and the responsibility that is ours.

The recent distress and suffering in foreign fields which has appealed to our sympathies has also opened to us an opportunity of demonstrating Christianity to the world and has thus created a bond which will bring about better co-operation in our mission work.

The mission fields recently entered by our Board also present new opportunities for labor and study, and call for our support.

In view of these new opportunities and responsibilities, your committee recommends that we not only observe our January Week of Prayer for Foreign Missions, but that we shall put special emphasis on individual prayer and Bible study that we may get the Master's view of world evangelism. May we not only lift up our eyes and look upon these new fields with their many needs, but may we also lift up our hearts in earnest prayer that we may prove true to our trust.

This call to faithfulness we lay upon the hearts of our women, both as individuals and leaders, that they shall meet their financial obligations by paying their Campaign pledges upon which our foreign workers have planned for the enlargement of their work, remembering always that it is required of a steward that he be found faithful.

Respectfully submitted,

The Home Mission report was presented by Mrs. M. W. Buck, Burlington.

HOME MISSIONS.

Realizing the very important work being done by the Home Mission Board as it extends over the entire territory covered by the Southern Baptist Convention, as it works in the cities for the upbuilding of character and the winning of the foreigner God has permitted to come to this country; engaging the services of specially trained evangelists to assist pastors in conducting meetings with the objective of winning the lost to a knowledge of the Christ who alone can save; securing faculties for our mountain schools and maintaining this work; helping to house houseless churches through the Church Building Loan Fund; supplying trained workers to meet the immigrant at the important seaports; sending missionaries to the Indians and trying to meet the needs of the negro in our Southland, let us give our hearty support.

Not being content with confining the work to this country, it has reached its arms across to the Canal Zone and to Cuba.

Therefore, we recommend that we endeavor to be more diligent in the observance of the Special Seasons for Prayer, and emphasize the opportunity of contributing to this work; that we keep informed through our State paper (The Biblical Recorder), Home and Foreign Fields and and the Home Mission Study Books.

STATE MISSIONS.

Deeply conscious of the greater needs for State Missions in North Carolina, and realizing the power and opportunities that lie before us for service in the coming year, and recognizing that results cannot be obtained without information and prayer: we recommend:

1. That we continue to stimulate interest in State Missions by trying to place the denominational periodicals in every Baptist home.

2. That we continue to observe State Mission Day in September and that greater efforts be made to get a larger attendance at these meetings.

3. That, inasmuch as foreigners are coming more and more into North Carolina, that we lose no effort to reach them with the gospel, especially those in our own communities.

4. That we endeavor to put aside prejudice in regard to the negro, and that we show a greater interest in their spiritual uplift, especially in those who serve us, regarding them as our personal responsibility.

5. That we demand a more sacred observation of the Sabbath, in home and family life.

6. That we pray fervently for a deeper consecration of our women to the service of our own State and local societies.

The report on W. M. U. Training School was read by Miss Vera Ruth, Salisbury.

W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL, LOUISVILLE, KY.

Realizing as never before the scarcity of trained laborers to glean in His fields that are ripe unto harvest, and knowing the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Ky., to be one of God's greatest training camps, we, as your committee, make the following recommendations for the year 1921-1922:

1. That we bring the subject of the Training School more often and more earnestly before our girls and young women, not only during the month designated for this particular subject, but that this subject be included in the programs rendered at our District and Associational Meetings, as a number of our most efficient young women are uninformed on this subject.

2. That we as a body of Christian women send up daily petitions in behalf of our girls and young women, asking that Jesus be made King of their lives, leading them into the paths of service. He would have them go. That we not only pray that God call these young women into His service, but that our prayers be continuous, as much strength is needed during the time of reparation and active service.

3. That an earnest effort be made by our Associations to have representatives in this great training camp by making possible a greater number of scholarships from our State.

4. That we not only remember our Training School students by our continuous prayers and scholarship money, but that we send other gifts and greetings to them. These "touches" from home add much to the life of a Training School student.

5. We also recommend that after these students have completed their training, we make an earnest and prayerful effort to use those who feel the call to home work in our own State. We need them.

The report on time and place was presented by Mrs. C. C. Hoggard, Ahoskie.

TIME AND PLACE.

The time of the meeting of our next Convention is to be Tuesday after the fourth Sunday in March. There is no invitation for our next meeting. This, in itself, is not discouraging. It simply means that we have grown into such a large body, that it causes hesitancy on the part of our small towns in extending the invitations.

We feel sure, however, that the Executive Committee will receive an invitation in due time and promptly notify the State membership.

RESOLUTIONS.

We, the delegates to the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina in the city of Rocky Mount, feel that we have been favored above ordinary mortals. You have given us keys—three in number—and not even Bassanio of old turned with more eagerness the keys of his fateful caskets than we have unlocked the portals of these treasure houses.

Your Mayor has given us the keys of your city, and they have given us entrance to your beautiful and stately buildings, to your wide, clean streets, which lead through prosperous business districts, past enticing shop-windows where your card welcoming us in shining letters has warmed our hearts. We have felt that the city was for the time our city, and who could blame us for the feeling, when on every hand your clubs and business houses, your up-to-date hotel and your excellent daily paper were welcoming us in so practical and heart-whole a manner? These streets lead also past clipped hedges and smooth lawns, and here the municipal heart throbs most warmly, for these are the homes of Rocky Mount. Do we stand outside, lonely wayfarers? Ah, no!

The citizens of the town have given us the key to their homes. After we have passed in among the flowers, where wistaria hangs in fragrant purple clusters, where cowslips smile a greeting through their gray-green foliage, and early roses nod smilingly on their stems, we find that we do not need the key after all, for the doors swing wide open at our approach. We have hardly crossed the threshold before we realize that your home is our home, and we experience hospitality in a glorified sense. And not only the Baptist hosts of this delightful city, and the county at large, but those whose paths lie parallel with ours, have hung the latch-string outside and have made us feel in a subtle and inimitable way that we were sisters. Our slightest wish has been gratified—nay, anticipated. You have hardly allowed our feet to touch the pavement, so assiduous and so generous have you been with your automobiles.

And when we have been whirled to the splendid church building, we find that we have been given another key—that which unlocks your church home. There the very atmosphere is charged with enthusiasm, and each face with love is aglow. The little children of the church home, the dear Sunbeams, have ready for us printed matter which saves us infinite trouble, and, too, attractive picture postcards of the church, which we proudly send home. Their sturdy brothers, the Royal Ambassadors, we have already noted gratefully as the efficient lads, who cheerfully made themselves indispensable at the railway station. Charming, bright-faced girls, the young lady daughters of this church home, give us delegate's badges and are untiring in their services, combining their efforts with their younger sisters', the Girls' Auxiliary, and their mothers'—the Woman's Missionary Society—in thinking to the last detail of everything that could possibly add to our comfort or our enjoyment. You seem to have an infinite capacity for giving pleasure. There has been music to charm our senses, your pulpit has been a bower of beauty, we have been regaled at luncheon with the most tempting food, there have been rest-rooms for the weary, a postoffice where we might indite letters and telegrams—and these have been but the material blessings. Greater by far than these has been the sense of fellowship, the spirit of true Christian service which has pervaded the meeting. God be thanked for the Rocky Mount women! And their helpers, the men—fathers and elder brothers of this church home, have likewise ministered to our needs in innumerable ways. To your faithful and untiring Sunday-school Superintendent, Mr. Bullock, and his cohorts, we give warmest thanks.

At the close of our pilgrimage we are convinced that the second part of your city's name is well chosen. We have indeed been in a high place—a mountain of spiritual uplift. We have caught a vision splendid of nobler achievement, have heard the trumpet call to larger service, and we are stirred to the depths.

We, the Resolutions Committee, wish, therefore, to offer the following resolutions in behalf of the delegates of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina. Be it resolved:

1. That our sense of overwhelming gratitude be conveyed to each individual and each organization whose efforts were sacrificially spent in making the meeting an unqualified success.

2. That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Union and a copy printed in the Rocky Mount Evening Telegram.

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL SESSION

Charlotte, N. C., March 28, 1922.

The thirty-second Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union was held in the First Church, Charlotte, March 28-30. The opening session was held on Tuesday evening, Dr. Luther Little, Pastor, First Church, presiding. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. L. R. Pruett. Dr. Chas. E. Maddry, Corresponding Secretary, Baptist State Convention, preached the sermon, subject, "A Ministering Woman and a Grateful Saviour."

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 29

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. W. N. Jones. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. C. B. Mooney, Huntersville.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. P. F. Dawson, Charlotte. Response by Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, Nashville.

Telegrams of greeting were read.

On motion of Miss Elizabeth Briggs, the calling of the roll was dispensed with and those whose registration cards were deposited with the Secretaries, up to that time, were recognized as constituting the organization. The Secretaries were empowered to add to this list from the cards that were subsequently deposited.

Mrs. Boushall moved that the program prepared and now in the hands of the delegates, be made the order of the meeting.

Miss Elsie Hunter read the report of the Corresponding Secretary, which was unanimously adopted.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY FOR THE YEAR 1921-22

It is with joy and sadness that we bring to you the year's work of the Union, joy that we have been used as vessels in the service of the Lord Christ, and sadness that during the year the Father said to our co-worker, Mrs. W. H. Reddish, "Come apart and rest awhile." A large part of the measure of success attending our efforts has been due to her far-seeing vision, wise planning, and consecrated devotion to duty. As she grows strong in body, her spirit is still with us and we know that her prayers will constantly rise for the work and the workers. So will the prayers of the sisterhood of our Union be always with her.

In patient forbearance and helpfulness the officers of the Union in Raleigh, the Associational Superintendents, Dr. Maddry and his assistants in the State Board of Missions, and the dear women, girls and boys back in the home Societies have made possible a goodly report of the year's work.

Associational Superintendents.—To the active and aggressive Superintendents in the fifty-five Associations in which the W. M. U. is organized we look for leadership and support in all our work. Nobly have they wrought during the past year. Annual meetings have been held in fifty-one Associations, 869 Societies being represented. They traveled 13,449 miles, and wrote 19,779 letters and postals in carrying on their work. In addition to organizing new Societies, fostering the weaker ones, and encouraging the Societies all along the line, they have featured the Stewardship and Tithing Campaign.

Standard of Excellence.—Societies reporting their record on the Standard of Excellence are as follows: Class A, 52; B, 112; C, 83; D, 50; making a total of 297. Making the ten points on the Standard, and thus being in Class A, are 34 Woman's Missionary Societies, 4 Y. W. A.'s, 1 G. A., 11 Sunbeams, 1 R. A.

The Eastern and South Fork Associations made ten points on the Associational Standard of Excellence; four others made nine points; and nine made eight points. The Eastern Association made the best all-round record for the year.

Societies Reporting.—There were 850 Woman's Missionary Societies reporting this year, 161 Y. W. A.'s, 149 G. A.'s, 523 Sunbeams, 85 R. A.'s; total, 1,768, as against 1,633 reporting last year, showing a gain of 135. Reporting every quarter there were 438 Woman's Missionary Societies, 75 Y. W. A.'s, 56 G. A.'s, 201 Sunbeams, 30 R. A.'s; total, 800. Six hundred and seventy-eight reported every quarter last year, showing a gain of 122. Associations having every church reporting are: The Eastern, Kings Mountain, Mt. Zion, Transylvania, and West Chowan. In the West Chowan Association all but two churches have Missionary Societies, some having all the graded organizations. The Association made a fine record last year in that so many reported each quarter.

New Societies.—There have been organized this year seventy Woman's Missionary Societies, 28 Y. W. A.'s, 39 G. A.'s, 100 Sunbeam Bands, and 27 Royal Ambassador Chapters, making a total of 264. Last year there were 241, giving a gain of 23.

Contributions.—In spite of the financial depression through which we are passing, our women have contributed nobly and sacrificially. The grand total for the year is $298,698.24. Last year we gave $314,004.00. This is a loss of $15,309.79, or 5%. The Reidsville W. M. S. leads the State this year with a contribution of $9,064.99, the Raleigh First W. M. S. coming second with $7,203.37.

The Mt. Zion Association led in gifts, reporting $25,255.53. The following Associations have paid their Campaign pledges to date: Ashe, Eastern, Flat River, Montgomery, Sandy Run, South Fork, South River, Transylvania.

Field Work.—During the year the officers of the Union have traveled 8,208 miles, attended 63 meetings, and made 87 talks.

Summer Assembly at Mars Hill.—The Union was represented at Mars Hill by Mrs. Reddish, who taught a Junior Class, using "Lamplighters Across the Sea," and presented the W. M. U. in an address at a morning hour; by Mrs. C. E. Maddry, who taught a Senior Class in "Old Trails and New"; and by Miss Esther Ivey, who conducted a Story and a Playground Hour for the children, also teaching a class from "Primary Mission Stories."

Stewardship and Tithing Campaign.—During the fourth quarter, the Superintendents of thirty-three Associations began to work this Campaign with their Societies. Lists of workers in each church were sent to the office and each worker was supplied with leaflets and cards for her constituency, totaling 29,038 leaflets and 17,258 cards. The Superintendents found that during the winter months it was impossible to reach the majority of their people. While literature has been distributed, the work has not been pressed as it will be as the spring opens up. One says: "We have only begun the work"; another who reported 174 new tithers said, "On account of weather and roads we have not been able to reach the churches, but we will not stop." So far there have been 1,394 new tithers reported, 1,204 already tithing, total, 2,598. Last year the number reported was 868, a gain of 1,730. We hope to get full returns from the Campaign before the meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention in May.

Russian Relief.—The hearts of our women and children have been deeply touched by the appeals of need from Russia. Tags for shipping bags of clothing were supplied us by the Foreign Mission Board and 836 were sent out to Societies requesting them. Forty-eight Societies reported value of clothing sent, totaling $6,652.96; fourteen reported money sent, $1,262.44. These contributions could not be counted on our Campaign pledges, but were over and above all pledges.

Respectfully submitted,

ELSIE K. HUNTER, Treasurer.

Mrs. W. N. Jones presented the W. M. U. Banner, won by the South Fork Association. It was accepted by Mrs. J. Yates Killian, Mrs. W. R. Gwaltney, and Mrs. H. B. Moore, the three Superintendents of this Association who had served since its organization.

Mrs. R. N. Simms, Y. W. A. Secretary, presented the report of this work for the year, which was unanimously adopted.

Y. W. A. REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

More and more each year, as the privilege of service with our young women and girls in our Master's cause has been mine, do I feel and realize the great joy that comes from the giving of ourselves for others in a holy cause; more and more do I value and appreciate the wonderful way in which our girls and women give of their time and talents for the sake of Him, our Lord, who gave Himself for all the world. Insomuch as we keep Him and His supreme sacrifice in view, giving of ourselves in turn, and living close to Him in prayer and communion, so are we strengthened to press forward and carry His banner to the ends of the world.

In the preparation of this report your Secretary has rejoiced to find an evidence of the fact that these things have been true in a larger measure than ever before of the work of our auxiliaries this past year. This is evidenced by the fact that we have a greater number of societies reporting every quarter, and by a large increase in the number participating in personal service and mission study. This means a deeper, more abiding growth which will continue to make itself felt in the years to come. If to the sacrificial gift of possessions we add the sacrificial gift of self, we can have the assurance that God will be pleased and will abundantly bless.

Contributions

The sum of $34,443.75 has been given by our Y. W. A's and G. A's this year. For this period of financial depression, and when we remember that two years ago we considered $16,000 a big contribution, this is truly a wonderful gift, although it is smaller by $2,000 than that of last year. This falling off, I am sure, is due to the condition of finances in our State, and to wage reduction rather than a loss of interest. The fact that our other organizations and the men's State work also show a decrease this year shows this to be true, and we have faith to believe that when times change and money is more abundant, our girls, as well as the older people, will come forward and redeem their pledges. In the meantime, we must pray and work as never before to encourage them and develop all lines of our work. This will be necessary if we continue to hold the place North Carolina gained last year, that of second in Y. W. A. work in the Southern W. M. U.

The amount has been given by 310 societies, making an average of $111 for each. The Y. W. A's contributed $29,086.80, an average of $180 per society, and the G. A's $5,356.95, an average of $95. The G. A's will rejoice to learn that this represents a 2 per cent gain for them—the best record made this year by any of our organizations.

Interest always centers around which society leads the State in contributions, and this year the race was very close—the honor being won by a very small margin, that of the sum of ten cents. Rockingham leads with $1,664.33 to her credit, while Greensboro First follows closely with $1,664.23. Gastonia forges ahead this year with $1,453.61, while Winston (Brown Memorial) and Durham (Temple) are both in the $1,200 class. Wilmington First, with over $900, and Laurinburg and Raleigh First (Eliza Yates), with over $700, deserve honorable mention.

The Winston Brown Memorial again leads the G. A's in contributions, giving $534.25. Clayton and Winston-Salem First come close together with $336.89 and $329.13, respectively. The Charlotte Division leads the State this year in both Y. W. A. and G. A. gifts, the Greensboro Division following.

For the Y. W. A's, the Mt. Zion Association has the honor of leading the State, its gifts amounting to $3,841.38, the Pee Dee following with $3,499.03. The Pilot Mountain holds the banner in G. A. gifts, with $1,075.28 to her credit. Mt. Zion and Roanoke come next, each giving considerably over $400.

While congratulating these larger and older societies on their accomplishments, we also wish to commend those smaller and younger ones which, in proportion, have done as well, and upon whom, as well, our work depends. We look to each one, large and small, to reconsecrate themselves and face the coming year with a greater determination to put the Kingdom first in their minds and hearts. When this is done, the gifts will come.

We delight to welcome the new auxiliaries who have joined our ranks this year. There are 28 new Y. W. A's and 39 G. A's. The Eastern and West Chowan Associations have led in the organization of new Y. W. A's, while the Pilot Mountain and Roanoke show the largest number of new G. A's.

Societies Reporting

The increase in the number of societies reporting every quarter this year is most encouraging. Last year there were 56 Y. W. A's, while 79 have reported every quarter this year, and 56 G. A's against 35 last year, making a total of 135 this year versus 91 last year. This shows a deeper interest and larger development, and while the gifts haven't been so large, there are more girls giving regularly of what they have.

Mission Study and Personal Service

As hinted at before, another most encouraging feature of this year's work is the increased interest in Mission Study and Personal Service. We rejoice that this has been true, for as our young people are developed in these ways so shall our work grow strong. More seals and certificates have been awarded than ever before, both in churches and our schools. There have been 275 Y. W. A. seals and 96 G. A. seals. Meredith College has a fine record with 122 seals awarded.

The Personal Service reports have shown an increased number participating in the various forms of service that has been most gratifying.

Secretarial Work

A delightful part of your Secretary's service is that of the personal correspondence with her co-workers throughout the State. Besides a large number of these personal letters written, there has been the preparation of three quarterly letters and the weekly Recorder notes and special letters to associational leaders, college and school Y. W. A. presidents, presidents of our Baptist schools, and non-reporting societies.

Endeavoring to enlist all of our Baptist school girls in mission work, a special letter was written their leaders in the fall urging the continuance and enlargement of their work. Where we had no organizations, a letter was sent to the president of the institution asking for his co-operation. This resulted in some fine organizations. We have student organizations which are doing splendid constructive work along all lines and emphasizing mission study and personal service.

In January it was a pleasure to help in the arrangements for seven mission study classes to be taught at Meredith by Raleigh women. Sickness prevented the completion of these plans, but the work was finished by the State Union President with the splendid results elsewhere noted.

A visit to a number of our schools by Miss Mather was planned and hoped for but had to be postponed until next year. Meredith has had the privilege and pleasure of having her teach a mission study class this past week. Her contact with the girls has been an inspiration to many.

It has been a pleasure to accept the invitations which have come to meet with various societies and assist in the organization of others. When we realize what large results have come in the last four years from the limited time a volunteer secretary can put into this great work, the big returns with which God rewards Christian service, we look forward to and long to see the time when a salaried, all-time Y. W. A. officer can be put into the field who can give all her attention to leading and directing the growth of our young women.

Your Secretary feels very grateful for the share she has had with you in this past development. To you, my co-laborers, belongs the credit of what has been done. It has been a great privilege and pleasure to serve with you in this work for the young womanhood of our State. As we look forward now to the larger growth, let us look up into the hills from whence cometh our help, depending not upon our own strength and resources, but upon our Father in Heaven, who is abundantly able and willing to bless.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Looking forward to the intensive cultivation of mission work among our young women next year, the following recommendations are offered:

1. Reconsecration of Leaders

That, as associational leaders, counsellors and auxiliary officers, we more completely consecrate ourselves for sacrificial service, and that by prayer and study better fit ourselves for this great responsibility of helping to train the womanhood of our State. It is hoped that every one who has not already studied the W. M. U. Manual will do so this spring.

2. Co-operation of W. M. S.

That in every community we seek the guidance and co-operation of the members of the Woman's Missionary Society for our girls' organizations. We crave their sympathy and urge them to foster and mother the auxiliary in their churches. Where this is done there are fine results.

3. Graded Societies and Enlistment

In accordance with the plans outlined by the Southern W. M. U., it is recommended that we work toward the establishment of graded societies in all of our churches, and see that our young people are properly advanced from one to the other. Our ideal is to enlist all of our girls in mission work, and we suggest that definite plans for so reaching our girls will be made in every church. We trust that the W. M. S. and pastors will plan to enlist the girls in churches where there are now no auxiliaries.

4. Programs

Our girls will spend their time where they feel paid for so doing. Hastily and poorly prepared programs will not hold them, so we urge that original, wide-awake girls be appointed on the program committees and that they, with the counsellor, will plan far ahead, and use attractive posters, program cards and invitations.

5. Prayer and Bible Study

We cannot stress too strongly the importance of our daily and special prayer services and systematic Bible study. Not until our auxiliary members are filled with the love of Christ, realizing that God has a plan for each individual life, and set themselves to fulfill it, will our mission cause develop as we desire. Let all societies faithfully observe the special days and seasons of prayer as set apart for them.

6. Mission Study and Mission Literature

Realizing that when our girls are truly informed as to the imperative needs of the mission fields and learn the thrilling stories of the past achievements of our pioneer missionaries, their hearts will be so touched and enthused that they will give more fully of themselves and their means, we recommend that each society will endeavor to conduct two mission study classes during the year, one in the spring and one in the fall. Our Mission Study Leader will be glad to enroll your class and to give any help necessary. Be sure to report your class to her and obtain seals and certificates. The Ministry of Women, by Mrs. A. T. Robertson; Mary Slessor, the White Queen of Okoyong; A Wandering Jew in Brazil, are recommended for the Y. W. A's and The King's Own and Home Missions in Action for the G. A's.

Very necessary to missionary and denominational information is the reading of Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields and the Biblical Recorder. We trust that every one will subscribe to one of these, and that all three may go into many homes.

7. Stewardship

One object of our work is to train our young people to give to the Lord's work as He has prospered them. We urge that our leaders emphasize the importance of stewardship and tithing that our young women may know its joys early in life.

8. Contributions

In order to meet our campaign pledges we shall have to determine now to labor without ceasing to that end during the coming year. We cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of each leader making definite plans to arouse her members to a sense of the responsibility and the need of sacrificial giving, if necessary. As new members are gained, pledges must be solicited from them, and we urge that in every church the Y. W. A. leader see that all amounts given by the young women and girls are credited to the Y. W. A. or G. A. The church treasurer is the one with whom to consult about this most important matter.

In order to recoup our losses and make good our pledges, $50,000 should be contributed by the auxiliaries this coming year, $12,500 per quarter. We can do it if every individual will do her part. Let us have faith to believe we can, and press onward to the goal.

9. Standard of Excellence and Reporting

It is hoped that during the coming year we will lay greater emphasis than ever before upon our societies attaining the Standard of Excellence. We urge that the counsellors will take active charge of this, and in addition, that all reports be more systematically kept and sent in on time.

10. Personal Service

While more of our societies have engaged in Personal Service this past year than ever before, there are numbers who are losing the joy and uplift that comes from participation in it. Christ is our example in service for others, and we need to train our young people to follow in His footsteps. To that end we recommend the appointment of a Personal Service Chairman for each society, who will keep records and report to the State Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. Chas. E. Maddry, Raleigh. She will be glad to advise with you at any time and furnish you with the handbook on Personal Service.

11. Trained Soul-Winners

Again we urge the importance of the definite training of our girls in that highest privilege of Christian activity—soul-winning.

Ask your pastor to conduct a class for your society, so that you may feel somewhat prepared for this greatest of all our Master's commands.

12. Student Organizations

It is earnestly recommended that as our young girls leave home for high schools and colleges, the parents urge them to join the Y. W. and G. A's in their schools. These have been organized now in practically all of our schools, enabling the girls to continue their training in denominational missions, and fitting them for taking up the responsibilities of the home church upon leaving college.

We urge these girls who have the privilege and inspiration of college training to realize their opportunities and responsibilities and to return to their homes, determined to help lead those less fortunate into channels of greater service and usefulness.

Furthermore, we recommend that the leaders in the student organizations endeavor in every way possible to conform to the plans on Young People's and College Work, found in the W. M. U. Year Book, and to follow the plan of State Y. W. A. work as far as possible.

Large campaign pledges were made by our school girls, and it is urged that, as these pledges are paid through the home churches, the amounts be credited to the State Y. W. A. pledge.

With a deep appreciation of your co-operation, sympathetic prayers, and with the earnest prayer that our Father in Heaven will continue to pour out blessings upon our work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,

Y. W. A. Secretary.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, Junior Superintendent, presented the report of the Junior Department. This marks her twenty-fifth year of service. The report was adopted with a rising vote of thanks for the splendid work done during these years.

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT FOR YEAR 1921-22

The ambition of all of our organizations for this year was to reach one-half of their 75-Million Campaign pledge. It is therefore with great rejoicing that we announce the Sunbeams $5,500 beyond their half. Their pledge was $69,000; one-half would be $34,500; and in these two and a half years they have given $40,000.

The Royal Ambassadors are about $3,000 behind in their half-payment. Their pledge of $20,000 calls for $10,000 by this time, whereas they have given $6,900. At the same time it must be noted that they have made a gain of $400 over their gifts of last year, a statement of which we are proud in this year of financial depression.

The report of the Sunbeams for the year is as follows: Number new bands, 100; total number reporting, 491; number reporting each quarter, 201; number contributing more than $100, 25; number contributing more than $15, 218; number contributing less than $15, 273; total contributed, $13,878.49.

Bands leading in contributions are: Lumberton, $926.68; Ashboro Street (Greensboro), $705.87; Rocky Mount, $530; Winston-Salem, $303.22; Ahoskie, $263.12; East Durham, $248.24. Others giving from $100 to $200 are: Caroleen, Morganton, Gastonia, Wadesboro, Brown Memorial (Winston-Salem), Asheville (First), Bladenboro, Shelby, Belmont, Morehead City, High Point, Sanford, McGill Street (Concord), Fairmont, Raeford, Clayton, Edenton, Spring Hill, Greensboro (First). Associations leading: Robeson, Roanoke, Piedmont, West Chowan.

The report of the Royal Ambassadors is: New chapters, 27; total chapters reporting, 83; number reporting each quarter, 30; number contributing more than $100, 10; number contributing more than $15, 41; number contributing less than $15, 42; total contributed, $2,895.35.

Chapters leading in contributions are: Durham (First), $301.63; Lumberton, $247.90; Clayton, $166.07; Hickory, $153.98. Others above $100 are Rocky Mount, Greensboro (First), Ashboro Street (Greensboro), East Durham, Mt. Olive, Ahoskie.

Notable progress has been made in the Personal Service work of the bands and chapters. Leaders are finding lines of work for the children and are also learning the help this is to the children themselves.

The greatest progress in any line has been in Mission Study and Mission Reading. This is due to the work done by Mrs. Reddish, and we feel that it will gather momentum in the coming years from the impetus she gave it. We wish to offer to her our thanks for the work she put into this and our appreciation of the high quality of her service. To Miss Hunter, also, who has so faithfully kept the record of this work since Mrs. Reddish's resignation, we would express our sincere gratitude.

The work of the Junior Superintendent for the year has been as follows: Letters, 281; postals, 61; literature, 2,871; miles, 2,438; talks, 31; associations attended, Eastern, Wilmington, Roanoke, Neuse-Atlantic, Bladen, Robeson, Cape Fear-Columbus, Mt. Zion, Central, Raleigh, Johnston, Little River; total, 12; other meetings, 7. Total expenses, $45.04; received of Miss Hunter, Treasurer, $45.04.

It is not possible for me to close this report without a personal word. Last fall marked the twenty-fifth year of my service as your Band Superintendent. It was in the fall of 1896 that my mother returned one afternoon from the monthly meeting of the Central Committee. She brought me a message from the committee asking if I would take charge of the Sunbeam work in North Carolina. The committee felt that the few scattered bands then at work in the State would increase in numbers and gifts if some special one had oversight of them.

Deeply sensible of the trust they were imposing in me in my immaturity and inexperience, I accepted with the promise of my mother's help. And this has been with me through the years. It has many times been her courage and her spirit of cheer that has carried the work through times when my own heart has lagged.

It was indeed a golden guide-post that pointed my path on that autumn day, and I do wish to offer to you again my thanks and gratitude for this privilege of service that you have granted to me for so many years.

It is a great temptation at such a time to turn back the pages and recall the events of the past years. The bound copy of the North Carolina W. M. U. Minutes in our office is full of facts for the future historian.

The first printed Minutes is of the Convention in Goldsboro, 1891. It records twenty Sunbeam Bands, and contains the following recommendation: "Recognizing the rising generation as the strength and hope of the future church, that the vital importance of interesting children and young people now in mission effort be especially presented to the women of the churches."

The next year five Sunbeam delegates were in attendance, and mention is made of the Chapel Cards for the Centennial Offering and of Children's Day Centennial. Also there was a paper on "How to Make a Mission Band Interesting," thus proving that the chief problem of today also confronted the early band leaders.

In 1894 Miss Heck, in her annual address, asked a solemn pledge of the women: "The pledge is none other than this—that each society during the coming year will double its membership either by bringing in members of its own church, by organizing a Children's Band, or by forming a society in a neighboring church." This also sounds like 1922. At this same convention the first Sunbeam demonstration was given when "Miss Heck gave a practical demonstration of how a 'Mission Band May Be Taught,' teaching the lesson for the month (Cuba) to twenty-five small children."

One is tempted to record more of this early effort toward strengthening the children's work. At Morganton, in 1896, Miss Heck said in her address: "At the meeting of the General Union, the Children's Mission work begun, and so well carried forward by Dr. George Braxton Taylor, was formally given into its hands. This necessitated little change in our North Carolina plans, as Dr. Taylor's work among the Sunbeams in the State had always been carried on through the Central Committee. The occasion was, however, seized to again urge on the W. M. S. the importance of organizing the children for mission study. . . . To such an extent has this work grown that your committee has thought it wise to add to its number one who will act as Band Superintendent, taking, in direct connection with the committee, the correspondence with the Children's Missionary Societies already formed, and the encouragement of the formation of others, together with the editorship of the Children's Corner, the new feature of our Missionary Column in the Recorder." And thus my outlined duties and I were introduced to the North Carolina Woman's Missionary Union.

The number of Sunbeam Bands had grown from 20 in 1891 to 37 in 1896. Their contributions had risen from $224.39 to $425.89 in those six years. A great ambition came into the heart of the newly elected Band Superintendent. It was that the contributions might reach $500. The very next report went to $678, and in eight years it reached the thousand mark. In four more years it was $2,400. Then it was that the Band Superintendent looked up from the figures and uttered the daring hope that some day the Sunbeams would give $5,000 a year. Ten years passed before this dream point was reached. Then the 75-Million Campaign came, and in three years the figures jumped to $14,800. This fourth year, because of unusual circumstances, the gifts have gone back a thousand dollars.

The total gifts of the Sunbeams through the thirty-one years of the W. M. U. is $99,975.69.

We would record also that there are two Sunbeam Bands that have reported every year of the thirty-one. These are Wake Forest and Lumberton. The Raleigh First Church failed one year when it was merged into a Sunday School mission organization. The Sunbeams of Durham First Church and Winston-Salem First have missed only two years. Doubtless some reason could be given in these cases for failure to report. Other bands organized later have a record of constant reports during the years, but space and time prevent naming them.

In 1910 the Royal Ambassadors were launched and reported separately. They have gone in these thirteen years from $282 to $2,895. Their total contributions amount to $11,561.15.

Yet with all of these facts and figures to encourage us, there is no call to rest on our oars. Less than 500 Sunbeam Bands reporting, and less than 90 R. A. Chapters when there are 2,200 Baptist churches—Missionary Baptist churches—in our State!

And what of our methods of mission teaching and training? Are they far in advance of those of twenty-five or thirty-one years ago? May we not set ourselves to do this work more intelligently? May we not pray for hands that are strong and willing and for hearts that are wise and far-seeing? May we not attempt greater things and expect greater things, knowing that "He is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us," remembering that "It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do His good pleasure." For "His is the power and the glory, forever."

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS,

Junior Superintendent.

LIGHTED TO LIGHTEN

In an ancient land where one hundred and sixty-five millions of women have lived through all generations, with no possibility of securing plain human rights, there stands a stately imposing building, the first Christian college for women in Southern India. The seal of this college is a little clay lamp such as is commonly used in that country, with this motto, "Lighted to Lighten," and that motto gives me the theme that I shall bring to you this morning in our Annual Meeting. Lighted to Lighten—a motto that has been the foundation principle on which all our woman's work for woman has been laid.

Light symbolizes purity, knowledge, joy, and from the earliest days of Biblical history, the Divine Presence. On the mercy-seat between the cherubim there burned perpetually the shining light, indicating that God was there. Moses in the desert took off his shoes and fell on his face when he saw the burning bush, for he knew that he stood on holy ground. The law was given on Sinai with wonderful and terrible manifestations of light and power, but it is Isaiah, the prophet in the later days of Israel's history, who in his beautiful imagery, unsurpassed by any writer, brings to us more completely the revelation of the gross darkness that covers the earth and the promise of the Light that is to come that shall shine until that darkness be turned to the brightness of noonday. "Arise, shine; for the light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee" is his triumphant call to his downcast people. Arise! shine! thy light is come; shine that those who sit in darkness may see the light shining in you. Isaiah's vision of the light that should arise was fulfilled in the coming of the Messiah, He who said of Himself, "I am the Light of the world," and who promised that all who followed Him should not walk in darkness but should have the light of life, and it is just in proportion as the light shines from the indwelling presence of God in our own hearts and lives that we can fulfill His commission when He said, "Ye are the light of the world." There is no light without Him, and if there is light, it cannot be hid, for light from its very nature shines.

It is the apostolic conception that God hath shined into our hearts that we might give to others the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ that is bringing to pass the great things in the missionary world today, and has been the incentive for the sacrificial lives and service of those who have wrought mightily for His kingdom in the days that are passed. Were there time I would like to talk of these men and women who toiled in the day of small things so far as results were concerned, and who with untiring hands and unvarying trust labored unceasingly, sowing the seed by the wayside sometimes and on the stony ground, but trusted all to the Lord of the harvest who had called them to His service. They laid the foundation for the great superstructure that is being reared today, and in the great harvest day they will share and rejoice in the reaping. My purpose is to speak briefly of the awakened womanhood of the world and the obligation of the women in our favored land to hold our lamps so high and to let them shine so brightly that they may help light the darkness of the women in the bondage of false religions and heathenism.

Do you realize that after nearly two thousand years of the Christian era that "the non-Christian world is greater in area and population than the Christian world, and that this non-Christian world is dependent on the good will and fair dealing of the Christian nations?" Did you know that two-thirds of the human race is under bondage to a religion that is at best an empty form or a mass of superstition and that has no vital power over its adherents?

It is estimated that two-thirds of the population of the non-Christian world is under twelve years of age. The children of today are to be the men and women of tomorrow; the future of the world lies in their tiny hands. To whom are we looking for the training of these leaders of tomorrow, to the women of the world. If that be true, and who can doubt it? then the statement is true that "the non-Christian world stands or falls with its women." In China, India, Africa, just as in America, it is the mother who takes the little child and guides its footsteps to the idol temple or to the house of God, and who teaches the baby lips to offer prayer and praise. Three-fourths of the teachers in our schools are women, and who can estimate their influence for weal or woe on the growing life of the young people of this generation?

Three-fourths of all the women in the world today are illiterate, these women who are training the men and women of the future, not one woman in a thousand in China can read. Think for a moment of the bondage of ignorance in which the women of all Mohammedan countries are held, of the darkness mentally and spiritually of the women of Africa. To realize fully what this means, look at our doors and think how we have been handicapped in our work and are still handicapped because of our lack of training and knowledge, and then picture to yourself the darkness of women in heathenism with none of the advantages of a Christian civilization. To the Christian missionary is due the credit for the changing attitude of the Oriental world in its estimate of the value of its women. It was the missionary who brought the idea that the despised little girl was entitled to the same training and advantages as her more favored brother and who paved the way for the higher conception of woman's place in the life of her country that is obtaining today. Mrs. Peabody says that "the world war, terrible as it was, has touched in a mysterious way the helpless women of the world and has opened new doors of liberty for them." Certainly it was to the newly awakened Christian womanhood of China that the Red Cross made its appeal, and a group of Chinese women for the first time responded and went out to minister to the suffering and the needy in the name of Him who called not only the women of America and China, but the women of all lands to His service.

To these favored women of America in the past few years there have come new problems and new responsibilities, and they have found it hard with all of their many advantages to adjust themselves to the new conditions facing them. How much greater are the problems and responsibilities that are being thrust on the women of the world who have had no years of training and preparation and no Christian inheritance. A World Survey of Missions sums up their situation this way, "The losses to mankind, to the kingdom of God through the physical, intellectual and spiritual waste of womanhood in non-Christian lands surpasses anything that can be calculated. The human value of girlhood is disregarded. The girl baby comes into the world unwelcomed or welcomed only for the price she will bring when sold to a husband or master. Her body is neglected, her mind ignored, often the soul is denied—and yet the women must be the mothers of the race." After centuries of an attitude like this, how are the women to measure up to the demands of the modern civilization that is so rapidly supplanting the old?

The factory system with its evils came gradually in America, it came almost in a day in Japan and China. Thirty thousand girls are working in factories of Shanghai alone, no sanitary buildings, without suitable housing facilities, they are thrown unprotected on the mercies of a great city. It is in Japan that the factory problem is most appalling. The island kingdom has a population of fifty-seven and one-half millions with but one two-hundred and twenty-first part of the earth's area within her boundaries. How can these people be fed? The agricultural resources are not sufficient; so industrialism with all its attendant interest has had to take its place. With the coming of the factory comes the demand in that land of cheap labor for cheaper labor. Where can the cheapest labor be found? The answer to that question in Japan as in America is from the women and children, and so it is that of the two million workers in Japan's factories more than one-third are women and young girls. The highest labor on earth is the labor that destroys the lives of women and children, the very seed corn of the nation's life. These women and girls are enticed from the country districts by the promise of good wages and the attractions of life in a modern city. They are herded in factory dormitories, given food that is utterly unfit to nourish their bodies, worked sixteen and sometimes eighteen hours a day and are practically prisoners. In a few years they go home to die, for it is estimated that one-third of the factory women of Japan contract tuberculosis each year, and others fresh from the rural districts take their places.

The only hopeful feature in this dark picture is the fact that the Japanese people are realizing the national calamity that will come from this sacrifice of its womanhood and laws are being enacted for their protection, and when the nation takes hold of this problem with the same force with which they handled the problem of illiteracy, conditions will be changed, but this cannot be said of other oriental nations. Japan realizes the need of education for her people, but she does not realize the need of an educated womanhood, still less the need of Christian education. If the Northern Board can complete their plans for the establishment and maintenance of a great Christian College for Women at Tokio, it will do much to solve the Japanese problem that we hear so much of in our daily papers.

As compared with China and Japan the women of India and Africa are far more unfortunate. Some one has said, "The missionary problem in Africa is not alone a spiritual problem, it is a problem of the conservation of human life and natural resources for the ultimate benefit of the whole world—including the African. That might be said of any nation, for anything that affects one nation in a vital way affects all. Take the matter of health for instance. The efficiency of a nation as well as an individual is largely dependent on the physical condition of that nation or individual. No one can be of as great value to the kingdom of God sick as he can be well. The Saviour had infinite compassion on the sickness and sufferings of humanity, and it is a Christ-like service to try to meet the physical needs of mankind.

We have not solved our many problems along this line in our Christian land, but they are not to be compared to those of heathen lands. The average length of a human life in the United States is forty-four years, and it is gradually being raised. In India it is just half of that. The death rate in New York City with its congested population is only 13.6 per thousand due to medical science and sanitation. For the entire United States it is but 14. In China it is between forty and fifty to a thousand, and in India more. Why this waste is a burning question today. The answer is ignorance, superstition, lack of sanitation, doctors, hospitals, but more than these things the utter disregard for human need and suffering that we find in heathen lands. The great plague centers of the world lie in these lands of spiritual darkness where there is no care of the blind, the deaf and the dumb and the physically afflicted, no intelligent care of the sick, no knowledge of the simplest facts of medical science. Human life has no value until the missionary brings the new standard and teaches by precept and by example God's care for the individual.

There is no brighter page in the history of woman's work for woman than is told by the lives of those women who have gone to the foreign field as physicians to minister to the women in those lands who cannot in the direct emergencies be treated by male physicians because of custom. The story of the misery and suffering of the child wives and widows can never fail to make its appeal. Medical missions have opened new doors to the women of the East, and one of the most hopeful features in mission work at the present time is the large number of young women who are being trained in our hospitals and schools to relieve the sufferings of their fellow women. As they minister to the diseased and suffering bodies, they will carry the light of the Christ to the sin sick souls of the patients. It is estimated that in South India there are 70,000,000 women and only one woman doctor. Do you wonder that the government is interesting itself in this appalling waste of the motherhood of their country. If our religion did not demand that we do something to remedy a situation like this, it would be necessary for our own protection. We must wipe out the plague centers of the world or our own land will suffer and our own lives be menaced. The question of Cain must be faced. We are our brother's keeper in more senses than one. The world is knit together by a thousand ties undreamed of a hundred years ago. As the men of India fought side by side with our men in the great world war and the laborers from China toiled day by day at the task assigned to them, there was born a new brotherhood among men. No nation can ever live to itself again and not be counted a slacker in the great campaign for the welfare of the world.

Slowly the fact that education is as necessary for the women of a land as for the men, is gaining ground. Pioneer work in foreign lands for the education of women was done by our mission boards, and today they are still leading in this work. The teacher from the Christian school is in demand, because even a heathen can see the difference in the life and character of one who has, with the advantages of education, been brought under the influence of the teaching of the Christ. The desire for the education of its women has been implanted in most of the nations today. It is our place to see that there is Christian education for the mothers of the next generation.

Social conditions are changing not slowly but rapidly and that in a part of the world where changes were formerly comparatively unknown. How may these women untrained, untaught meet these new responsibilities unless we realize our responsibilities to them and properly equip our schools, our colleges, our hospitals and send a force of missionaries in some degree adequate to the great task before them. The very root of conditions in Turkey and other Mohammedan countries is the enslavement of their women. Nowhere have women had less freedom and less opportunity. Thousands of them have spent their lives in practical imprisonment. Yet the new day has dawned for even the women of Turkey, and the favored few who have had opportunities for self expression are using their time and talents for the uplift of the womanhood of their country and for its highest good. One can but touch here and there on this large subject, but we have said enough to make you think about the conditions facing the womanhood of the world, and the pitiful cries of the world's children that keep ringing in our ears— orphaned, under nourished, and in some places even starving.

To the women of our country new responsibilities have come not only in the enlarged opportunities for service to the peoples of the world but new responsibilities in our civic life. Always have our women wielded a larger influence than they realized, because they have helped to set the standards and mould the opinions of those about them, but today there is a new and more direct responsibility, and it is your privilege to help right every wrong in your community. Much has been said and written about the entry of women into politics, and it has been questioned whether the body politic will be lifted to a higher plane or whether the women will lower their standards to those existing. A large part of the womanhood of the United States is a Christian womanhood, and it is their high privilege to see that this great nation of ours measures up to its name as a Christian nation. To do this there must be a larger consecration of service than has ever been given in the past. The things that are not essential must be cast aside, the joys and pleasures of life must be found in service for others, well rendered, not in a round of so-called pleasures or in self indulgence. The children in our homes must be taught the things of God and trained in His service. All of life must be regarded as a trust for Him and lived in obedience to His commands. Selfishness and self indulgence must be put aside if we would measure up to the great opportunities facing us. As Mrs. Montgomery expresses it in one of our mission study books, we must "seek first to bring Christ's kingdom on earth, to respond to the need that is sorest, to go out into the desert for that loved and bewildered sheep that the Shepherd has missed from the fold, to share all of privilege with the unprivileged and happiness with the unhappy, to lay down life if it need be in the way of the Christ, to see the possibility of a redeemed earth, undivided, unperplexed resting in the light of the glorious gospel of the blessed God." This is the mission of the woman's missionary movement. This is what it means to be "Lighted to Lighten." May the light that comes from the indwelling presence of the Spirit of God shine so brightly in your life that all about you may catch its radiance, and may you pass it on to those who come after you and they to others, until

"The darkness be turned to dawning
And the dawning to noonday bright,
And God's great kingdom shall come on earth
The kingdom of love and light."

MISSION STUDY REPORT

This is the second year in which Mission Study has been made a real feature in our North Carolina W. M. U. There has been much progress but even yet we are only touching the hem of the garment. There can be no deep interest without information. Thoroughly consecrated and informed, our host of women will move forward to greater and greater things in advancing the kingdom of our Lord and Master.

Associational Superintendents reported 360 classes; 216 were reported last year, there being a gain of 144. Thirty-seven have won the first official seal, completing six books; five the second official seal, completing twelve books; six the blue official seal, completing the entire course of fifteen books. Eight Honor Certificates have been awarded, meaning that after completing the course and having the three official seals they taught a Mission Study class. These are as follows: Mrs. J. W. Crow, Asheville; Miss Ammie Wilson, Caroleen; Mrs. D. L. Faircloth, Kinston; Mrs. G. V. Whitton, Weaverville; Miss Una White, Severn; Miss Annie Logan, Asheville; Miss Bessie Tayloe, Ahoskie; Mrs. J. A. Groves, Asheville,—four being in the Buncombe Association. Worthy of special note is the fact that six members of the W. M. S. at Cary, Raleigh Association, have won the first official seal; and five of the W. M. S. at Tabor, Cape Fear-Columbus Association, have the first official seal.

One thousand fifty-five Senior Certificates and 325 Junior Certificates have been awarded; total, 1,380. Last year we had 509 certificates. Seals awarded to Seniors, 1,644; to Juniors, 361; total, 2,005. Last year there were 713 seals awarded. Two hundred sixty-five Reading Cards and 674 Reading Stamps have been won by the Juniors, as against 26 Reading Cards and 48 Stamps last year.

We especially commend the work done in the schools and colleges, Meredith College leading with seven classes, 123 certificates and 129 seals.

We urge that the Senior Societies continue their work with redoubled interest and energy; that classes be held each year in each of our colleges and high schools; that the Seniors foster the study and reading of the Juniors, furnishing them books wherever it is practicable; that each person taking up Mission Study shall carry each book through to completion, taking the simple test necessary to the awarding of certificate and seal.

The progress made during the year has been due to the unflagging zeal and effort of Mrs. W. H. Reddish, our Mission Study Superintendent. The work was very near her heart and she was ready at any sacrifice to further its interests. Since her retirement in October, the leaders in the Societies and Associations have carried the work forward in a noble way.

ELSIE K. HUNTER,
Office Secretary.

A demonstration of Mission Study Courses followed. Recognition of those holding Mission Study awards.

Song—Miss Margaret Highsmith, "He Died of a Broken Heart."

Personal Service Hour. Personal Service report by Mrs. Chas. E. Maddry, Chairman Personal Service Committee, Raleigh. This report was unanimously adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

With a deep sense of humility and of gratitude that we are allowed the privilege of serving as "Laborers together with God," our women are sending in an increasing number of Personal Service reports each quarter.

Compiling these reports is not simply a matter of adding the figures. These in some instances amount to an astonishing number, but in the supplementary reports, a few closely written lines along the margin and on the back of the report blank reveal things of deep human interest, some incident or need that has given to the members of that Society an opportunity to express in personal service their devotion to Him who left them this heritage of ministering to his little ones. There are hundreds of these, with no language of figures to express this kind of service.

The women in communities where there is no place for a Good Will Center, with its many activities, in their quiet way are helping a widowed mother as she strives to keep the home together for her children; they tell of doing the week's washing for a neighbor in her time of need; of sewing for overburdened girls who do not have time to do it for themselves; of tender ministry to an old negro woman who is ill. Many are supplying the needs of patients helpless with tuberculosis, meeting with the colored women in their W. M. S. to teach and direct them. Orphans are being clothed, and orphan girls kept in college, the unsaved are being brought to the Saviour, the wayward girl is helped back into the path of virtue. Boys and girls send sunshine into many a shady place with their gifts of flowers, their boxes of toys, scrap books and their happy little visits, as they, too, are learning the joy of doing for others.

The offering of all these things must go up before our Lord as the odor of a sweet-smelling sacrifice.

Thus the figures of the formal report give only an intimation of the deep currents of devoted service of time, talents and means.

REPORT OF THE GREENSBORO DIVISION

There has never been a time in our W. M. U. work more challenging than the present. As we reflect on the attainments of the past few years and realize that while much has been accomplished we have not measured up to the full extent of our ability, our faith is challenged to the utmost when we look forward to the gigantic task ahead of us.

The Greensboro Division faces this new year with a determination to make the best year in its history.

Our record last year shows progress along many lines. The total contributions for the year are $88,582.45, Mt. Zion leading with $25,255.53. There were fifty-four new Societies organized, Mt. Zion leading with eighteen. Mission Study was especially emphasized during the year, and we are glad to report for senior Societies 265 certificates and 396 seals, also for junior Societies 34 certificates and 34 seals.

Another feature we are anxious to emphasize is our Standard of Excellence. Only 73 of our Societies reported this during the year. However, from these we are happy to report eighteen in Class A, twenty-five in Class B, eighteen in Class C, and twelve in Class D.

As we look out upon our new year, let us renew our allegiance to the great campaign with an enlarged vision of the great work to which we have committed ourselves and let us go forth with praise, prayer and undaunted faith to a great victory.

MRS. WESTON BRUNER.

Raleigh, N. C.

ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

The women who attended the meeting at Rocky Mount last year caught a vision of the wonderful opportunities that are ours, and they returned to their homes and their Societies filled with enthusiasm and a determination to press forward. Through the year they have labored, and while none of the Associational Superintendents have reported the apportionment raised, these women have kept their eyes fixed upon the goal and their hearts filled with love for Him who said, "Lo, I am with thee always."

Therefore, all four Associations report progress. The Roanoke leads in the number of Societies, also in number of new Societies organized during the year. They now have 142 Societies, 29 of these being new ones. The West Chowan is supporting two Bible women and a missionary in China. And there are three happy girls at "House Beautiful," their training made possible by scholarships given by the women of this Association. The Chowan has given much attention to Mission Study and report that all their work is progressing.

The Neuse-Atlantic has been most fortunate in securing Mrs. Theo. B. Davis for its Superintendent, and under her wise leadership we feel that this Association, so long a mission field, is destined to become a real force in the Division.

The entire Division has given more time to training and each has a large number of women interested in Mission Study. In this we feel that we have accomplished much, for when the present financial depression shall have passed, their knowledge of the needs, and their love for the Master, will enable them to shoulder the burden and finish the task so cheerfully begun.

Therefore, with hearts full of thanksgiving for what we have been able to accomplish, and praying for His presence and guidance all along the way, we face the new year with a determination to give our best.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. G. BATTLE,

New Bern, N. C.

Vice-President.

WILMINGTON DIVISION

The following Associations are embraced in this Division: Bladen, Brunswick, Cape Fear-Columbus, Cumberland, Eastern, Johnston, Little River, Robeson, South River and Wilmington.

Number of churches in the ten Associations, 340; churches organized, 213; number of Societies, 402; Societies organized this year, 33.

Bladen, Cape Fear-Columbus, Cumberland, Eastern, Johnston, Little River, Robeson and Wilmington have had Mission Study classes. Total number of study classes, 53; certificates, 82; seals, 122. Eastern leads in study classes and certificates and seals, having had 25 classes, 45 certificates and 82 seals. Some Associations report classes, but no certificates or seals. Number of tithers in Wilmington Division, 410. The Eastern again leads in tithing, with 209 cards signed; 172 enlisted during the tithing campaign. Robeson ranks next, with 78, and Wilmington, 62. Five others report a small number of cards signed.

The Robeson leads in gifts, of $9,642.61; Wilmington follows with $9,006.20.

Every Association reports some increase in membership and contributions except Brunswick. They report increase in membership, but decrease in contributions.

One Sunbeam leader in Eastern supports a kindergarten school in China.

The First Baptist Church, of Lumberton, supports 3 Bible women in China.

A young business girl just sixteen years old in Wilmington First Church is supporting a native worker in China this year.

The W. M. S., of same church, gave a scholarship to a young lady in the W. M. U. Training School last fall.

Mrs. J. G. Layton, of Buie's Creek, in the Little River, made a gift to the W. M. U. several years ago, and the interest is used each year as a scholarship for some girl at the training school.

MISS MACY COX.

Magnolia, N. C.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION

We close the year with profound gratitude to God for the showers of blessings He has bestowed upon the Charlotte Division. We led the State in gifts, our total amounting to $91,057.72; also on the number of A-1 societies on the Standard of Excellence.

We held a large and enthusiastic meeting in Forest City the first week in June, and this year we will meet in North Wilkesboro. We gave an operating table to the Kathleen Mallory Hospital in China in memory of Mrs. Wm. Archer, deceased, late Superintendent of the Kings Mountain Association. We also gave Miss Alda Grayson, for the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, a baby bed and endowed it so that there would always be a welcome bed for a little sick babe in China. Now we did not forget the children at home, but from our Fourth of July book showers we placed 215 books in our Thomasville Orphanage.

We are bearing the expenses of two girls in college, one at Meredith and one at Mars Hill.

We report two volunteers for missions. We are grateful to God for this excellent report.

MRS. T. B. HENRY,
Vice-President.

Wadesboro, N. C.

ASHEVILLE DIVISION

As we go over our books and try to prepare a report of the work done, we find that the words which come naturally to our lips are "We are thankful."

First, we are thankful for the reports that have come in. They all show a gratifying advance along all lines.

We held ten associational meetings. These were reported well attended and societies well represented. Mrs. Reddish and Mrs. Maddry attended a number of these meetings and were a source of inspiration and helpfulness to the women. Our Mountain Assembly was held at Mars Hill last summer. Mrs. Reddish and Mrs. Maddry each taught classes and added much to the value of this meeting. Our Annual Meeting was also held at Mars Hill in connection with the assembly.

Our superintendents all report a more general observance of the special seasons of prayer, also that the programs were well prepared and a larger attendance and greater interest shown. This is encouraging, for we know this means an enlarged vision and greater usefulness.

Believing that a more accurate and systematic reporting will strengthen our societies, we have been urging a more careful study of the Standard of Excellence. Also, believing that one strong society is more valuable than several who sicken and die, we are urging a personal fostering of a new society, by members of a stronger society, until it is well able to work alone. We are glad to report 22 new societies. Nearly all superintendents reported Mission Study classes. Two hundred and thirty-nine seals have been awarded, while four have been awarded the Honor Certificate.

At least two of our superintendents are working in other associations where we have no associational organization. Some superintendents have the very encouraging report that at last they are beginning to receive reports from churches where we have no organizations. We hope this means that eventually we will have a Woman's Missionary Society, and we hope other organizations, at these places.

We are "thankful" again when we realize that our beautiful western part of the State has been spared the great financial depression that other parts have suffered. While we have felt it, it has not been so severe, and we are rejoiced to report an increase in our contributions over last year of $600.

Our Personal Service report shows that much is being done "In His Name." Our association reports a young lady educated by them for the foreign field. She is Miss Gladys Ashworth, and is now located at Shantung, China.

Others report visits and, of vital importance, some report prayer meetings held and definite prayers offered for the uncon-verted. Who can measure the value of these meetings? The societies in and around Asheville have a wonderful opportunity of service in ministering to the patients at Kenilworth and Oteen. There are 1,110 patients there, one-third of whom are Baptists, and the ladies are visiting them, taking fruits and flowers and magazines, sometimes milk and rolls, or anything they might have expressed a wish for, and cheering them in every way possible to hasten their recovery. The different circles in each church are having special days each week, when they spend whole afternoons sewing for these boys. There is also a large field in the sanatoriums of the city where so many come from all parts of the country to regain their health. These need to be visited and cheered, for we know a cheerful mind goes far toward a healthy body. All this is being done as "Personal Service" and because we are "Laborers together for God."

We hope through the coming year to win more tithers, to be able to report a greater number of strong societies, more young people's societies, and a larger number reporting each quarter.

"Unto Thee, O God, do we give thanks."

W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

While thinking of preparing this report to present to you I saw the statement that in 1918, four years ago, North Carolina was represented at our Training School by seven girls. Think of the growth, and, more than that, of the call of God to our girls, which has resulted in sending over three times that number in 1921-22. How we rejoice that our Heavenly Father has deemed our young women worthy and acceptable for special laborers in His vineyard, and that twenty-two of them, touched by the spirit, are now receiving definite training for special Christian service—missionaries, home and foreign, state, associational and church workers, etc. A fine lot of girls they are, and they write frequently in glowing, appreciative terms of the school, its faculty, the course of study, the privileges of service found there, and repeatedly send thanks for the generosity of our women, which enables them to be there.

These dear girls, together with those gathered there from other States, are kept busy by the heavy course of study under seminary professors, music, missionary training and home duties, in addition to the varied activities of the Good Will Center, hospitals, G. W. C., orphanages, mothers' clubs, Bluebird Class, slums, homes for incurables, factories, etc. Truly they exemplify the spirit of the Master as they carry their cheer and sunshine into these desolate waste places. After having become trained, efficient Christian workers, a number will return to their native States and help turn its waste places into fruitful vineyards. What a wonderful investment for our land and the Kingdom!

Our North Carolina girls this year are: Misses Vera Blalock, Sophie Berghauser, Cora Lee Cannon, Annie Crutchfield, Myrtle Fuller, Mary Sue Hunt, Bettie Knott, Lillian Michael, Irene John Mitchell, Katie Murray, Grace Olive, Ella Pierce, Clara Powell, Madeline Price, Mae Reynolds, Thelma Reynolds, Effie Rose, Nannie Sigmon, Pearl Taylor, Ursula Vinson, Esther Wharton, Harriet Wharton, Gaynelle Yates.

By letters once a month in the Recorder we have endeavored to keep you in better touch with the students and their activities, and feel sure you have enjoyed these personal glimpses as given by them.

Fifteen of these girls were granted scholarships: twelve from the Union as a whole, two from associations, and one is there on the Joel Layton-Castleberry Scholarship. The other seven are either meeting their own expenses or having it done for them. Most of the juniors are wanting to return, and there are already many new applications. Let us do all that we can to assist them in this great life-purpose.

This has been a very successful year for the school, both as to finances and in other ways.

At their commencement last spring, held in May, a graduating class of fifty-four went out, were equipped for Christian service in many fields of labor. Some are already in China, Japan, Brazil, Argentina, Chili; others are engaged in home, State, or W. M. U. work or as pastors' assistants. The seed that we sow and nourish in House Beautiful is indeed multiplied a thousand-fold, sending its blessing throughout the world and enriching the lives of the givers. The senior class for this year numbers about sixty strong girls. Some of the interesting students are the daughters of three missionaries and a native Chinese girl on a mission scholarship.

This fall there was a new enrollment of one hundred and thirty-five boarding students and forty-two day students, an increase of fourteen over the previous session. The large number was made possible by the purchase of some much needed property adjoining the school. This is a valuable site and will be used for permanent enlargement soon. Besides accommodating the additional students, it enables Mrs. George B. Eager, the Chairman and Financial Manager, to live near the school. The closer personal contact with her and Dr. Eager has been a blessing to the girls. We know that the school is dear to the hearts of our women because they continue to increase their gifts to it. While twelve scholarships were granted last year, the Executive Committee recommend that this year ten scholarships be granted in addition to the Associational and the Layton-Castlebury scholarships. Besides the twelve scholarships and three additional ones from associations, our women have contributed $1,775 to the current expenses of the school and $2,556.95 to the Endowment Fund.

Mrs. Eager urges our women to continue in prayer for the officers and students and to tenderly care for this vine, which under God's direction they have planted and sustained. In her words, "Keep the school on your hearts and in meeting your pledges be very sure that the amounts needed for current expenses, scholarships, enlargements and endowment funds be provided."

In North Carolina forty Training School girls have labored this past year. Who can estimate the inspiration and good our Baptist cause has received because of their leadership! May God give us more of them, for, true to their alumnae motto, so suitable for alumnae of so great an institution, "That the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea," they carry His power and His Spirit and His blessing with them wherever they go.

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
N. C. Trustee.

Report was adopted with gratitude and thanks.

Report of Margaret Educational Fund—Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs.

REPORT OF MARGARET FUND TRUSTEE

It will be recalled by this body that some years ago a home for the children of our missionaries was given by Mrs. Chambers of New York. It was known as the "Margaret Home," in honor of Mrs. Chambers' mother.

This Home was used as intended for eight years, during which time its comforts were enjoyed by forty boys and girls, and by fifteen of our missionaries on furlough. It was then demonstrated clearly that an educational fund was more needed for the children of missionaries than a home for them. Therefore, with the approval of Mrs. Chambers, the Home and grounds were sold. Money from these, and contributions as formerly from the various States of the W. M. U., were directed toward the Margaret Education Fund for Missionaries' Children.

North Carolina has met her share of this fund, paying her apportionment with such ease that the cause has not needed to be stressed. Thanks to the wise arrangement made by our President, Mrs. Jones, we have been allowed to designate our contributions for this fund and thus have it in hand promptly. We were apportioned $600 for this year, and have received and paid to Mrs. Lowndes $875.97.

The total amount handled by the Union last year was $6,606.10. With this, forty-three scholarships have been granted for this year.

Three of the scholarship students are in North Carolina—Hartwell Foster Ayers and Thornton Bostick at Wake Forest College and Susie Hatchell at Meredith. It is recommended by the Union "That W. M. S. in towns where Margaret Fund boys and girls are attending school be urged to show a motherly interest in them."

It is a beautiful testimony to the lives of our missionaries that so many of their children wish to follow them in mission work. Of last year's students, three are now finishing their preparation for going back to the lands of their childhood for definite missionary service. Four others are planning to go to Brazil; ten to China—three of these last mentioned as medical missionaries.

Already these scholarship boys and girls of other years are out on the mission fields. One of them, the splendid young man of a North Carolina father, Gordon Herring, has been called to the heavenly home. His service on earth was already bearing fruit and full of promise. By his death he calls us to send others.

May we lighten the load of our missionaries by thus providing for the suitable education of their children.

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS,
Margaret Fund Trustee for N. C.

Presentation of Recommendations of Executive Committee—Miss Elsie Hunter, Raleigh.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR THE YEAR 1922-23

We, the Woman's Missionary Union, auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, representing the large number of women and young people in our societies and churches, in view of the enlarged program for service presented to us by our Boards, and the increasing opportunities and open doors that face us on every hand, recommend that we go forward along all lines of our work. To this end we adopt the following recommendations:

I. Watchword and Hymn. That our watchword be, "For ye serve the Lord Christ"; and our hymn, "Come Women, Wide Proclaim." That, in addition to our own motto and hymn, we use throughout the year the motto and hymn of the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention.

II. Declaration of Ideals. That we declare ourselves on the side of all those forces which make for righteousness throughout the world, standing loyally for our mission fundamentals, patriotism, world-wide prohibition, maintaining Sabbath observance, lifting high the moral standards of womanhood and young life in home and in society, urging a general re-establishment of the family altar; and seeking through co-operation with our Government to establish true Americanization on Christian principles, and to encourage public welfare that will improve industrial conditions that affect primarily the public health, education, and purity of life among our women and children.

III. Prayer. Believing that it is through prayer that we come to a knowledge of God's plan for our individual lives, and that it is the source of power in all our service for the coming of the Kingdom, we urge upon all our members the importance of constant and daily communion with God. That we emphasize the place of prayer in our society meetings, asking for the Divine guidance and blessing in our work. That we pray daily in our homes at the 9 o'clock prayer hour for the work of our Woman's Missionary Union, remembering also at this time to unite our prayer with the host of women in our Southern Baptist Convention for the object or individual mentioned definitely on our Prayer Calendar.

That every society observe the Special Seasons of Prayer set apart by our Union—the Week of Prayer for World-Wide Missions the first week in January; the Week of Prayer for Home Missions in March or April; and a day of Prayer for State Missions in September. That in these meetings we follow the programs prepared by the Union, but emphasize the fact that the primary purpose is for prayer.

That we may pray unitedly, we suggest the following prayer calendar:

Sunday—Foreign Missions.

Monday—Woman's Missionary Societies.

Tuesday—Home and State Missions.

Wednesday—Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador Work.

Thursday—W. M. U. Training School and Christian Education.

Friday—Young Woman's and Girls' Auxiliaries.

Saturday—Orphanage, Hospitals, and Ministerial Relief.

IV. Bible and Mission Study. That daily systematic study of the Bible be urged on the part of all the members of our organizations, following one of the many prescribed courses or one chosen by the individual. That societies of all grades pursue the courses in Mission Study outlined by the W. M. U., auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention. That the six books outlined for study in 1918 be completed before taking up others, and that the study be done in classes where practicable, but that individual study be provided for and encouraged. That Mission Study and Reading Courses for Juniors be fostered by the Woman's Missionary Societies. That all who study Missions be urged to stand the examinations required for the awarding of certificates and seals. That each Associational Superintendent be asked to appoint an Associational Mission Study Director for her association, whose duties shall be to promote the interests of Mission Study in her association, and to plan a Mission Study hour for the associational meetings.

V. Young People's Work. Realizing that the future of our Mission cause depends upon the proper spiritual growth and training of our young people, we urge the continued and enlarged development of this phase of our work. We emphasize the importance of a Young People's Leader in every association where feasible, and of the graded system of societies, thus securing the missionary training of our girls from childhood to maturity. We recommend the continued cultivation of the Y. W. A's and

G. A.'s in our colleges and high schools; and in order to insure this, that the W. M. U. or Y. W. A. Association leader send to the State Y. W. A. Leader a list of the girls from her churches going to college each fall, that these college girls be used in our special meetings, that we urge their attendance upon student conferences and assemblies, and that they be given the opportunity of entering into special service when leaving college.

In addition, we urge that the woman's societies will everywhere encourage and foster these younger societies in their churches, helping them in every way possible to attain their Standard of Excellence.

VI. Enlistment. That in view of the fact that a large number of our women and young people are not fully enlisted in the missionary activities of the church, that we observe October as Enlistment Month, endeavoring at that time to increase the membership of our local societies by a canvass of all the women members of our churches. That at the same time we co-operate with our Associational Superintendents in their plans to organize societies in all the churches in their associations where there is no organization. That the stronger societies endeavor, by visiting, helping with programs, and any other means that shall be suggested to foster these new organizations in every way possible; our aim being two-fold—a Missionary Society in every church in our State, and every woman a member of a society.

VII. Literature. Realizing that the moment is crucial for the redeeming of our pledges to the Campaign, we urge that greater effort be made to impress upon our people the needs of our greatly enlarged mission fields through mission literature. To this end, we recommend that we enter heartily into all plans to increase the circulation in our State of our denominational paper, the Biblical Recorder, and our missionary periodicals, Home and Foreign Fields, and Royal Service, a special committee to be appointed in each society who shall have charge of this work and who shall make an annual report to the society.

VIII. W. M. U. Training School. That we continue our loyal support and co-operation in the work of our Training School at Louisville, Ky., paying our proportionate part of the current expenses and maintaining a scholarship fund of $2,000 a year in addition to the Louis Castlebury Scholarship and any associational scholarships that may be established.

That we co-operate with the State Board of Missions in their plans to use during the summer months some of our Training School students in institutes and associational work, the superintendents of the associations in which they will work to assume responsibility for their entertainment and transportation from one church to another, and to arrange an itinerary for them.

IX. Christian Education. Realizing the importance of Christian Education, and knowing what it means to the continued growth and development of our denomination, we recommend that our women give Christian Education one program in the societies each year, preferably June, the month which Home and Foreign Fields and Royal Service devote to this topic. Of the amount to be raised for South-wide educational purposes, $300,000 will be given by the Education Board of the Southern Baptist Convention to our W. M. U. Training School as an Endowment Fund. Each State is to pay its proportionate quota of this amount.

X. Personal Service. Realizing that the chief aim of all Christian work is the saving of souls and that millions throughout the South have never acknowledged Christ, all W. M. U. members and societies are urged to help in strengthening the evangelistic efforts of their churches. That as individuals we seek to become winners of souls. That those who have not studied "Talks on Soul-Winning," by Dr. E. Y. Mullins, be urged to do so, and that those who have studied it endeavor to organize classes for the study of it.

That we emphasize continually the importance of participating in a ministry of relief to the unfortunate, of comfort and cheer to the discouraged, and to that end the superintendent of each association is requested to appoint an Associational Personal Service Chairman, and every society is asked to appoint a Personal Service Committee who shall at the close of each quarter send in on a blank form prepared for this purpose to the Chairman of the State Personal Service Committee, Mrs. C. E. Maddry, Raleigh, a full report of all work done in the name and spirit of Him who said "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

XI. Hospitals. Whereas it is expected that our Baptist Hospital, located at Winston-Salem, will be completed during the year, we recommend that, according to plans that will be given definitely later, our Woman's Missionary Union undertake to furnish a number of the rooms in this hospital—the Sunbeams, the children's ward; the Y. W. and Girls' Auxiliaries, the reception rooms; and local societies and associations, rooms to bear their names.

White Cross Work. That we continue to furnish money for supplies to the Kathleen Mallory Hospital at Laichowfu, China, where Miss Alda Grayson, one of our North Carolina girls, is superintendent. All contributions and supplies sent to this hospital to be reported to Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, Raleigh, Chairman of White Cross Work.

Oteen and Kenilworth Hospitals. That we co-operate with the State Board of Missions in their plans for work among our soldiers at the above hospitals. All gifts for this purpose should be sent through Mr. Walters Durham and will be credited to State Missions.

XII. Orphanage. That we contribute to the Thomasville Orphanage regularly on the first Sunday of the month through our Sunday Schools, no report of these gifts being sent to the W. M. U. Treasurer. All other designated gifts to the Orphanage through the society or the church, on Thanksgiving Day or any other time, to be reported to the W. M. U. Treasurer and credited on our Campaign pledges. No reports of boxes sent to the Orphanage to be included in our reports.

XIII. Annual Meetings. It shall be the policy of the Union to hold an annual session of the representatives of the various societies. Each Vice-President, except the one in whose territory the Annual Meeting is held, shall hold a District Meeting, preferably in the three months following the State Meeting.

Each Associational Superintendent shall hold a meeting of the representatives of the societies in her association each year. Where the associations cover a large territory, union meetings are advised, and have proved most helpful.

XIV. Summer Assemblies. That we conduct at our Summer Assemblies at Wrightsville Beach and at Mars Hill a W. M. U. period, a Mission Study Class being taught at the hour assigned to W. M. U. work or an inspirational address given. That we urge our women to attend the assemblies and to take the examinations at the close of the class and secure the seals and certificates.

XV. Standards of Excellence. That uniform standards of excellence for all grades of organizations be emphasized by the States; that the standards for Women's Missionary Societies and Young Women's Auxiliaries be the one which follows; that this be also the standard for college organizations, Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors and Sunbeams, with the changes noted below. That Women's Missionary Societies and Young Women's Auxiliaries fulfilling all points of their standard shall be on the list of honor as A-1 organizations; those fulfilling eight, in Class B; six in Class C; and four, in class D; college organizations fulfilling all points of their standard shall be on the list of honor as

A-1 auxiliaries; those fulfilling seven, in Class B; five, in Class C; and three, in Class D; and Girls' Auxiliaries, Royal Ambassadors and Sunbeams fulfilling all points of their standard shall be on the list of honor as A-1 organizations; those fulfilling seven, in Class B; six, in Class C; and four, in Class D.

1. <sup>1</sup>At least twelve regular meetings a year, with a devotional service and a definite missionary program, preferably one each month.

churches; special effort to be centered upon those who did not pledge to the Campaign, upon new members, and upon those who may be able to enlarge their pledges because of prosperity. There have come into the churches in our State during the past year 20,328. Most of these are young people who have not pledged at all, and we owe it to their development to influence them to make regular contributions. That a stewardship chairman be appointed in each society, her duty being to secure as many tithers among the membership as possible, and to stress the stewardship of life as well as that of money. That the societies take as their apportionment the amount pledged for one year, plus the amount that may be in arrears. That the society treasurer shall secure from the church treasurer each quarter a statement of Campaign payments made by the non-affiliating women and young people of the church, and include this amount in the quarterly report. The Associational Superintendent is asked to keep in touch with churches that have no Woman's Missionary Union work, urging that payment of Campaign pledges by the women and young people be reported to the Woman's Missionary Union treasurer. That each society send to the Woman's Missionary Union treasurer 10 cents per member for the State Expense Fund, and that this fund this year, on account of increased railroad rates and the cost of printing, be not less than $1,600. That funds for the W. M. U. Training School be sent direct to the Woman's Missionary Union treasurer by the society treasurer; funds for all other Campaign objects to be sent through the church treasurer to Mr. Walters Durham, Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention.

XVII. Financial. That our aim for the year be the proportionate part of our remaining unpaid Campaign pledge. That we do not lose sight of the fact that while our State Convention plans to complete the payment of the Campaign pledge by December 1, 1924, the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention, of which our Union is a part, expects to complete the payment of this pledge by May, 1924. In order that we may co-operate with both organizations, we ask every society to take as its individual aim the full payment of their pledge in time to be included in the Union's report in May, 1924.

Discussion of what we should do for the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, led by Mrs. J. J. Roddick.

Miss Briggs suggested that there be intelligent co-operation by the Societies in furnishing the Hospital, so that overlapping in furnishings may be avoided.

Contributions to the Orphanage were discussed.

The recommendations as a whole were adopted.

W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL, LOUISVILLE, KY.

Deeply conscious of the great need for trained leaders in North Carolina, and realizing the opportunities that lie before us for service in our State, and recognizing that results cannot be obtained without information and prayer, we, as your committee, make the following recommendations:

1. That we bring the subject of the Training School constantly before our girls and young women, securing, if possible, a Training School girl to address our young women from time to time.

2. That we be much in prayer that God will call some of our choicest young women for special services in the needy sections of our State.

3. That we pray more earnestly for our Training School girls who are now engaged in active mission work, and also for those who are now in House Beautiful preparing for special service.

4. That an earnest effort be made by our associations and by our local churches to have representatives in our Training School, by making possible a greater number of scholarships from our State.

5. We also recommend that after these students have completed their training we shall make a more earnest effort to use many of them in our own State.

The Personal Service Report was read by Mrs. G. A. Martin, Concord.

PERSONAL SERVICE

The growth of regular organized personal service during the past year has been remarkable. More of our societies have engaged in and reported their work than ever before. We are getting our eyes open and looking on the fields already white unto harvest. Yet we realize that so many of our societies are failing to engage in definite personal service and thereby losing the joy and uplift that comes from actively participating in this great department of our Union's work. We, as your committee, make the following recommendations:

1. That the societies give themselves unto God, and pray that they may see the opportunities for service in their own communities.

2. That a personal service chairman be appointed in each society who, with her committee, shall dispense comfort and cheer and point out work to be done, and lead their sisters to be faithful stewards of time and heart-power, as well as money.

3. That our young people give regular reports of personal service done and their leaders plan for such work frequently. Only then will we realize the deep joy and marvelous experience which comes to those who truly serve.

4. That where possible, and when practicable, Good Will Centers be established, especially in large cities.

5. That special emphasis be placed on the conducting of Mission Sunday Schools, fostering mission societies' work among negroes, prisoners, visits to hospitals, and equipping and furnishing new hospital at Winston, Oteen and Kenilworth hospitals and cottage prayer meetings, emphasizing winning the

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

Your committee recommends that the recommendations submitted by Mrs. Simms be adopted as a plan of work for the Y. W. and G. A's.

We further recommend that for the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors the following policy be adopted:

Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador Recommendations, 1922-23

With grateful acknowledgment to our Heavenly Father for His blessings upon the Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador work, and with a deep sense of our own shortcomings in the past, and with fresh determination by His power to do greater things in the future, we, the Sunbeam and Royal Ambassador leaders, would resolve:

1. Membership and Organization. To try to reach more of the children and boys in our present organizations, and to form new bands and chapters in 200 churches this year. We suggest that these organizations be effected through correspondence from the State Junior Superintendent, through letters and visits from the Associational Junior Superintendents, and through help from the societies in neighboring churches, through rallies and other meetings.

2. Contributions. We would urge leaders of bands and chapters to collect pledges to date from the children and boys who pledged in 1919, and to secure pledges for the remaining two and a half years from those who did not pledge earlier. We would again urge Birthday or Mission Banks in the Beginners' and Primary departments in the Sunday Schools, the offerings from these to be handed quarterly to the Sunbeam Leader to be included in the report to our W. M. U. Treasurer.

3. Adjustment and Co-operation. We recommend that where the smaller children cannot attend the Sunbeam meetings, arrangements be made with the Beginners' and Primary departments to hold fifteen or twenty-minute mission sessions once or twice a month after the close of the class, money collected through these to be reported as Sunbeam contribution.

4. Mission Teaching. Realizing that we are doing foundation work in the development of mission character, and recognizing our present lack of system and method in mission teaching for little children, we recommend that our State W. M. U. or the General Union be requested to plan for some form of graded mission teaching material for the children of Sunbeam age.

5. Hospitals. We recommend that the contributions of the Sunbeams to the Baptist Hospital to be built at Winston-Salem be used to the amount necessary to furnish the children's ward, this to be known as the Sunbeam Ward.

6. Orphanage. In accordance with the 75-Million Campaign plan, a proportionate part of all undesignated Campaign gifts goes to the Orphanage, and any other designated amounts and special offerings, as at Thanksgiving, made by the children or boys shall be reported to the W. M. U. Treasurer. Where it is so desired, contributions of Junior and Primary classes on Orphanage Sunday in the Sunday School may be reported also to Miss Hunter.

Devotional exercises, Miss Kathleen Mallory.

Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, Nashville, read the resolutions of thanks for the kind hospitality of the people of Charlotte under the leadership of Mrs. J. A. Yarbrough, Chairman Hospitality Committee.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the visitors and delegates to the annual meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, to the city of Charlotte, desire to return our heartfelt thanks for the many kindnesses extended to us during our stay in Charlotte.

First of all, for the hearty welcome of the Reception Committee, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Loyd Withers, who, with the assistance of Mrs. J. A. Yarbrough's committee, assigned and had us conveyed to Charlotte's beautiful homes. It has seldom been our privilege to listen to more inspiring music than has been rendered by the Baptist choirs of Charlotte, under the skillful management of Mrs. Alex Stephens; and also deserving of special mention have been the lovely floral decorations furnished by the florist, C. W. Pettus, and artistically arranged by Mrs. C. T. Brown and her committee on decorations, and to the efficient Mrs. Mason who allowed us to register, and to Mrs.

Minnie Smith, who so beautifully decorated us in our Union's colors, we render thanks.

For such mountain-top experiences as have come to us from the messages of Drs. Maddry and Gray, and our beloved Miss Kathleen Mallory we are grateful, as well as for the soulful solos of Miss Highsmith. Dear indeed to all of our hearts are our own North Carolina girls, who so nobly are giving their lives in service to Him in foreign lands, and the messages of hope from two of these, Mrs. Wade Bostick of China and Mrs. C. K. Dozier of Japan, we shall cherish through the years. Miss Juliette Mather's talk on Personal Service will last in our memories, and the pageants presented have been full of inspiration.

Worthy of special mention has been the kindly courtesy of Dr. Luther Little and the pastors of the other Baptist churches, and we wish for them much success in their fields of labor.

To the railroad officials, who have so generously given us of their time in signing our certificates, we are deeply thankful, as we are also appreciative of the North Carolina daily papers, viz.: Charlotte Observer, Charlotte News, News and Observer, Greensboro News, Winston-Salem Journal, Asheville Citizen, Wilmington Star, Goldsboro News, Winston-Salem Sentinel, Asheville Times, Elizabeth City Advance, for the generous space devoted to us in their columns, and to Mr. Walter L. Gilmore, who gave of his time to report the "doings" of the Convention, we return thanks.

Hard as it has been to tear ourselves from these spiritual experiences, we have found that the "inner man" must be dealt with, and so, for the refreshing and nourishing lunches so efficiently served under the direction of Mesdames C. S. Blanton, W. R. Cornell and D. W. Fink, we return thanks.

"Seeing Charlotte from an automobile" has also been our delightful experience. Truly we have each one received a blessing that we shall carry to our homes and consider sacred. Therefore, be it Resolved:

1. That these resolutions be a means of expressing our gratitude.
2. That a copy be spread upon our Union minutes and a copy sent to the Charlotte Observer.

Address—"Five Words," Miss Juliette Mather, Young People's Secretary, W. M. U., Southern Baptist Convention, Birmingham.

Training School Demonstration given by the Training School Alumnae, Miss Ruth Jinks, of Durham, president.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, who has been the superintendent of the Sunbeam Bands for the W. M. U. of North Carolina for twenty-five years, was called to the platform. The Sunbeam Bands of the State presented her with a W. M. U. and a Sunbeam pin, also a bouquet of twenty-five roses, the presentation being made by Miss Nancy Brasington, of Wadesboro. It was announced by the Sunbeam Associational leaders of the State that the Children's ward in the new Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem would be furnished in her honor and named the Elizabeth Briggs Ward. It was also announced that a memorial would be given in honor of Miss Briggs in the Church Building Loan Fund of the Home Mission Board, Atlanta.

Adjournment.

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
THIRTY-THIRD ANNUAL SESSION

Durham, N. C., March 27, 1923.

The thirty-third Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union was held in the First Church, Durham, March 27-29. The opening session was held on Tuesday evening, Dr. J. W. Lynch, Durham, presiding. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. T. D. Collins, Rev. T. M. Green leading in prayer. The sermon of the evening was preached by Rev. Zeno Wall, D.D., of Goldsboro, text Revelation 21:1; subject, And I Beheld a New Earth.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 28

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. W. N. Jones. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. M. W. Buck, of Burlington, who read the sixteenth chapter of John, followed by short, earnest prayers.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. H. F. Brinson, of Durham. Mrs. Harvey Pollard brought greetings from the First Church, Durham. Response to the address of welcome was given by Mrs. T. S. Franklin, of Charlotte.

On motion of Miss Mary Warren, calling of the roll was dispensed with and those whose registration cards were deposited with the secretary up to that time were recognized as constituting the organization.

On motion of Mrs. L. L. Vaughan, the program prepared and in hands of delegates was made the order of the meeting.

Miss Mary Warren, Corresponding Secretary and Mission Study Superintendent, read her report. It was unanimously adopted. The Mission Study report was also read at this time.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Nearly two thousand years ago the Master called to Him a company of men, gave them certain instructions, and sent them out, on a missionary journey. In a short time they returned with their hearts filled with joy and their faces beaming as they related their experiences of the wonderful tour. Since that time many have started out on similar journeys for the Master. Not quite two score years ago the women of our State set out on a similar journey and at various intervals we have come with great joy to make a report of the work we have been able to do for our Master. As the company grew, the journey lengthened until to-day we encircle the whole world.

Three and one-half years ago we started out with a marvelous objective and some of our own people marveled and questioned among themselves, "Can we do it?" God has led us to undertake great things for Him and His hand in power has marked every step of the way. The keenest joy that comes to His followers is the consciousness of knowing that they are journeying with Him, and have given themselves unselfishly and unstintingly to Kingdom service.

When I come as your Corresponding Secretary to make a report of my work and of your work, I realize the inadequacy of figures and the lack of words to express to you what has been done. This splendid report that I bring to you is due to your loyalty and love to the Master, and I count it a great privilege to bring to you some of the outstanding facts as a result of your work as you have walked, talked, and labored with Him along the way.

On this journey, like many others, when we have come half the way we grow weary and, as a result, the interest lags. In order to keep going steadily on, the Reinforcement Campaign was launched in November, closing with Victory Week, December 3, for the purpose of collecting back pledges and enlisting new members. The organization was similar to the 75-Million Campaign and our women nobly entered into the work.

Associational W. M. U. Directors were appointed, also directors for the local churches. Twenty-six thousand letters were sent to the directors. These, we believe, have been a great stimulus in making our increase in contributions for the year. The third quarter was the greatest in the history of the Union. Special days designated by the Board were observed: Pay-up and Pay-in Week, November 5-12; Day of Prayer, November 22, and November 12, Answering God's Call to Volunteers. Many societies held all-day prayer services in connection with these.

Summer Field Workers.—Through the kindness of the Sunday School Board and State Board of Missions, we had the service of eight W. M. U. Training School girls for three months. June 5-10 there was held at Meredith College a Training School for summer field workers. These girls worked in various sections of our State until September 3. It is with joy that we report a deep interest in prayer, Bible and mission study as a result of their service. Many of the associations that have made great advances in their work are those in which one of these girls labored. We regret that one could not go into every association. The impress of their consecrated lives is stamped upon the communities and seed have been sown in good ground. During the three months they traveled 6,896 miles, attended 725 meetings, made 483 talks, visited 325 churches, organized 190 societies and led 22 mission study classes.

Associational Superintendents.—One of the most encouraging features of our work is that of the associational superintendents. Nobly they have wrought in all departments of our work. Their reports reveal the following facts: That fifty-one annual meetings have been held in the fifty-five active associations, with 970 societies represented. In doing their work they have traveled 16,314 miles and written 12,237 letters and postals.

Standard of Excellence.—From the reports that have been sent to us the following make ten points and A-1: 36 W. M. S., 16 Y. W. A., 11 G. A., 17 Sunbeams, 1 R. A., making 81 in Class A. Those making eight points are in Class B: 79 W. M. S., 13 Y. W. A., 5 G. A., 21 Sunbeams, and 2 R. A., making 120 societies in Class B. The societies making six points are in Class C: 64 W. M. S., 9 Y. W. A., 11 G. A., 31 Sunbeams, and 4 R. A., making a total of 119 societies in Class C. Those making four points are in Class D: 30 W. M. S., 9 Y. W. A., 8 G. A., 28 Sunbeams, 6 R. A., making a total of 81 societies in Class D. The total number of Standard societies is 401. Last year there were 52 A-1 societies and 297 Standard societies. Fifty-three churches report a full graded W. M. U. Mt. Zion leads with nine.

New Societies.—The number of societies that have been reported are 91 W. M. S., 50 Y. W. A., 31 G. A., 113 Sunbeams, and 40 R. A., making a total of 325. Last year 264 societies were organized. The Sunbeams lead in number of new organizations for the year. Tar River Association leads in the number of new organizations with 28; Roanoke follows with 25; Yancey with 19.

Societies Reporting.—The number of societies reporting for the year are 846 W. M. S., 192 Y. W. A., 169 G. A., 499 Sunbeams, 97 R. A., making a total of 1,803 societies reporting during the year. The number of societies reporting every quarter are: 434 W. M. S., 72 Y. W. A., 60 G. A., 35 R. A., and 210 Sunbeams, making a total of 811. Last year 678 societies reported every quarter during the year, and 1,768 reported last year.

Contributions.—Our hearts are rejoicing over the fact that in the third year of our Campaign journey we are less than eight thousand dollars within reach of our quota for the five years. The contributions for the past year were $305,752.89. With thankful hearts our faces are set forward looking to our pledge, $2,167,135.00, as we shall journey to reach our goal. Mt. Zion Association led with $23,649.73. The Charlotte Division was in the lead.

Tithers.—From thirty-three associations there were reported 2,351 tithers. Piedmont Association led with 306; Gaston came next on the list with 225. The number of tithers last year was 2,598. We would have far exceeded this had all of the superintendents reported.

Week of Prayer.—More and more our women are realizing the need of united prayer. Three hundred and ninety-four societies are reported as observing the three weeks of prayer. West Chowan reports 52 societies; Johnston, 38; South Fork, 24.

Field Statistics.—During the year the officers have traveled 13,101 miles, attended 62 meetings, and made 104 talks.

Summer Assemblies.—The Wrightsville Assembly which was to have been held in Wilmington July was called off because of the condition of the railroad strikes at that time. The Union was represented at the Mars Hill Assembly August 1-11 by the Corresponding Secretary who taught the book, Southern Baptists and Their Far Eastern Missions. Mrs. Hilliard taught the book, Going Somewhere, for the Sunbeams, and Miss Forbes, The King's Own for Intermediates.

Russian Relief.—In response to a call issued by Dr. Love at the Southern Baptist Convention in Jacksonville in behalf of the Russian sufferers, the women assumed the responsibility of sending clothing to them. Shipping tags were furnished by the Foreign Mission Board. Like all worthy calls coming from our neighbors, this was responded to most beautifully by our women. These boxes shipped were valued at $3,202.66.

Periodicals.—Number of subscribers to the three magazines, Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields, and World Comrades, and Biblical Recorder are 11,149. Number subscribers to Royal Service, the magazine for the Union, is 3,784. Our goal for the Kansas City Convention is 4,587.

Office Statistics.—Personal letters, 1,876; circular letters, 19,380; postals, 2,181; programs, 13,986; minutes, 2,353; mission study certificates, 2,397; M. S. seals, 3,838; M. S. reading cards, 489; M. S. stamps, 1,178; envelopes, 13,676; mite boxes, 1,612; report blanks, 33,010; stewardship and tithing cards, 1,665; manuals and year books, 4,058; Russian tags, 339; delegate's cards, 2,390; leaflets and tracts, 61,135; fish for Sunbeams, 177; Home Board Reports, 1,207.

A Closing Word.—In bringing my report to a close, I wish to express my deep appreciation to the women of the State and to those in the office who labored so patiently and sympathetically with me in helping to make my tasks a joy and I count it the greatest joy of my life that I have had the privilege of working with the consecrated women of our State, and that we are laborers together with God.

Hitherto He hath led us. May we undertake great things for God, expect great things from God, and say with Paul, "Of this I am confident, that He who began a good work in us will go on completing it until the day of the Lord."

Respectfully submitted,

MARY WARREN, Corresponding Secretary.

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY SUPERINTENDENT

Some writer has said, "All true mission work may be likened to a diamond," in that missions rooted in the spirit of the Master sends forth its rays in every department of our work. Should there be any one department that will cause all the others to send forth brighter gleams at home and into all the world, it must be done largely through the Educational Mission Study.

We realize that when our women with their consecrated lives are thoroughly informed of the needs of the fields, our work will move forward in all lines. With the progress we have made with those already enlisted, what could we not have done had all the members in every society been properly informed. It gives me a peculiar joy to bring to you at the close of this year a report of your work in mission study.

Study Classes.—The associational superintendents reported 597 classes which exceeds the number last year by 237. The Elizabeth City Division led with West Chowan Association ahead of all the others, having 65 classes. Robeson with 33 classes leads in the Wilmington Division. Tar River with 25 classes leads the Greensboro Division, and the South Fork with 20 classes leads the Charlotte Division. The Roanoke, Little River, and Eastern Associations deserve special mention.

Associational Leaders.—A number of new associational leaders have been added this year, making a total of twenty-nine. The Elizabeth City Division reported a mission study leader in every Association; Asheville, 8; Greensboro, 6; Charlotte, 6; Wilmington, 5.

Awards.—Forty-seven first official seals have been awarded this year for the completion of six books, nine second official seals for the completion of twelve books, five blue official seals for the completion of fifteen books, and eight purple official seals for the completion of eighteen books, making a total of 69 official seals against 48 last year. Three hold the first honor certificates, and three have second honor certificates for the completion of all the four courses and teaching additional mission study classes, making six honor certificates. Last year eight honor certificates were issued.

The Elizabeth City Division is at the head of the list in the official seals and honor certificates. Congratulations to the West Chowan which leads with seventeen official seals, two honor certificates and two second honor certificates. The two other associations competing with the West Chowan in holding honor certificates are the Buncombe which holds one second honor certificate and the Raleigh which holds one honor certificate. The names of those holding honor certificates are Mrs. S. J. Kee, Seaboard; Mrs. C. T. Hollowell, Edenton, and Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Raleigh. Those holding the second honor certificate are Miss Una White, Severn; Miss Bessie Tayloe, Ahoskie, and Mrs. G. V. Whitton, Weaverville. There are many others who will soon be ready for the honor certificates.

The Wilmington Association leads in the number of first official seals and has the distinction of a class of eight members studying and receiving their official seals together. The Mount Zion stands alone in holding one Y. W. A. official seal. This was awarded to Miss Annie Crutchfield, Durham, who is now at the Training School. Yancey is distinguished by holding the first official seal awarded to the opposite sex, which was awarded to Rev. Wallace Hartsell, Burnsville. Other men hold certificates. The Mt. Zion and Pilot Mountain have the distinction of holding the largest number of Sunbeam reading cards and stamps. Little River holds the largest number of Sunbeam certificates and seals. The Sunbeams of Lumberton and Leaksville have been most active in this work.

Especially do we commend the work done by the schools and colleges. Mars Hill and Fruitland deserve special mention for the work they have done in mission study. Meredith College leads the list with 145 certificates and 214 seals. Chowan College holds 99 certificates and 204 seals. . . .

There have been sent out from the office 1,687 questions and 7,392 leaflets. Two thousand, four hundred eighty-nine certificates have been issued during the year, which exceeds last year by 1,109. Three thousand eight hundred small seals have been issued, last year there were 2,005; 489 reading cards, last year 265; 1,178 reading stamps, last year 674.

The following awards have been issued:

W. M. S. Certificates-----	1,242	No. of certificates-----	2,489
W. M. S. Seals-----	2,267	No. of seals-----	3,800

2. That study classes be conducted each year in all of our schools and colleges.
3. That senior societies foster the junior organizations in mission study, also provide books for them.

Miss Mary Warren presented the W. M. U. banner to the Association which had done the best all-round work during the past year. Mount Zion Association won this honor. Mrs. M. W. Buck, Superintendent, accepted it for the Association.

Address of the President, Mrs. W. N. Jones. Subject, "Builders With God."

BUILDERS WITH GOD

Always has God sought to reveal himself to man, His plans, His purposes and the things of His kingdom. In the beginning the first man and the first woman heard His voice as He walked in the garden in the cool of the day. Man sought to find God after the fall. "The groves were God's first temples." Here, through the long years amid the deep silences of nature, men lifted up their hearts to Him in prayer and praise.

When a nation of slaves were redeemed by His miraculous power from four hundred years of bondage and were led through the desolate wilderness into the land promised years before to their great forefather, Abraham, they were divinely guided, and Moses, taught by God according to the pattern shown him on the mount, built the Tabernacle—a sanctuary for the God of Israel, where He might dwell among His people. Here we find our first illustration of man building with God that His name might be honored and glorified, and the great purposes of His kingdom accomplished.

The Tabernacle was built according to the pattern that had been given Moses on the mount. No plan of Moses' nor the wisest of the Israelites would have been sufficient. It must be built according to God's pattern even to the most minute detail, and the lesson comes to us through the ages that in building with God it is essential that we build according to His plan, not ours; everything must be tested by His standards if we are to have the seal of His approval. Is there not a tendency today in our plans for His work, in our everyday living, to substitute things that the world has decided will do just as well in place of the plain and simple truths of God's law? See that you build your lives, your part of the structure of His kingdom, according to the pattern He has given in His word. Then we have the lesson that preparation is necessary. Setting up the Tabernacle was a matter of but a day, but many months were spent in getting ready for that day. That the King's business requireth haste is true, but it requires also the very best of our thought, the most careful planning, that we may not that which is intrusted to our hands.

Every one had a part in the preparation. It was not alone the service of the skilled Bezaleel and Aholiab whom God "had filled with His Spirit in wisdom and in understanding and in knowledge and in all manner of workmanship," but the service of those wise-hearted women who spun not only the fine flax, the blue and purple and scarlet for the garments for glory and for beauty for Aaron and his sons, but the coarse goat's hair for the outer coverings of the Tabernacle. It was the combined service of all that made the whole complete. Who can say whose work is most essential to the Master who has planned the perfect structure? To each He gives a task; some of honor, some so small and insignificant that it passes unnoticed, but glorified because it is the task He has assigned. Not only did every one have part in the service of the building of the Tabernacle, but every one had part in the offerings. Only one thing was required, that they be brought by those who were willing. No giving here from a sense of duty, reluctant, grudging, but gifts brought by grateful hearts remembering the many mercies of God, the Red Sea crossing and all His other blessings, and filled with joy that they could have part in building Him a place where between curtains the great God of Israel might dwell among men. Do you wonder that they brought the gold and silver, the precious stones and all needed offering until there was more than enough? What joy there must have been in their hearts as the realization came that there was something in their possession that could be used in the Tabernacle! It was just as essential to have the boards to be overlaid as it was to have the precious metal to cover them; the brass was needed equally with the gold. Each had something he could contribute. There comes no higher joy today than the realization that God needs us in the building of His kingdom, that He needs our offerings, our service, our love, for "whosoever serves God with a whole heart will render to Him a whole strength and will thus bring Him the gifts He most desires." Let us write it deep on the tables of our hearts that it is only willing-hearted service and gifts that are acceptable to God.

The years pass, the Tabernacle lies neglected at Shiloh; no longer does the pillar of cloud rest above it indicating the presence of God. The kingdom of Israel approaches the period of its greatest power and glory under David, and this great king, building with God, plans for the erection of a great temple that shall be as worthy of Him as it is possible for human hands to make it; not an abiding place, but a place where He will manifest himself to His people. Again we have the lesson of preparation, the years spent in making things ready for the building, and again the willing-hearted offerings until the treasury was filled to overflowing, but there were added lessons in the building of the great temple. It was the desire of David's heart, but because his hands were soiled with blood he could only make the necessary preparations. To another, his son, must go the coveted joy and privilege of accomplishing his great purpose. We, too, fail oftentimes in accomplishing the things that are the desires of our hearts, the things that would count for time and eternity, because our lives are stained by sin. There must be purity of heart and life if we would be used in a great way in the service of our God.

To Solomon there was the assurance of a God-given task. There could have been no question in His mind all through the slow process of building that God had called him to this special service, no question as to whether the building of the temple was a dream of his own and would but add to his fame as a king, no questioning as to whether selfish or unworthy motives had actuated him. It was the great task, handed to him by his great father and divinely appointed, a temple to be built for the great God who alone was the hope of Israel. One can only imagine his joy and the joy of the people when at last the great structure stood completed upon the Temple Mount, a mass of snowy marble and gold unequalled in its magnificence. When the people gathered for the dedication ceremonies again, after all the years, the pillar of cloud filled the house of the Lord, an acceptable service because a service for His glory.

A significant thing is the fact that the temple was built in silence. The stone was made ready at the quarries, and there was neither sound of hammer nor ax, nor any tool of iron, heard about the building. The Kingdom of God cometh not with observation, and silently and often unknown in the remote places of earth, the builders are building today each with his own special task, and one day the temple will be completed and ready for the coming of the King. It was not in the great and mighty wind, not in the earthquake or fire, but in the still small voice that Elijah heard God. Growth in the things of God is a silent process; it comes often unnoticed, but is a result of years of study and communion with Him. Each year we have ever new the miracle of spring when, with the rising of the sap, apparently dead branches burst into leaf and blossom and later into fruitage. Where there is the power of the indwelling Christ there will be fruit-bearing and power in service. Spiritual growth is a silent process always.

The children of Israel forget that the blessing of God depends on obedience to His commands, and they are carried captives to a strange land, and the temple is destroyed. When the days of captivity are over and the remnant returns, a new temple is built, though without much of the glory of the former temple. No longer does His presence fill the mercy seat; religion among the Israelites is largely a formal service. The years pass and the day comes when the temple of God is to be built not with wood and stone and precious metals but in the hearts of men. The Messiah comes, makes the atoning sacrifice and establishes His kingdom on earth.

Nearly two thousand years have passed since the dawning of this new temple, this building in which you and I are having a part and which is the most vital thing in our lives today. Christ is the great foundation stone on which this temple is to be erected, "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Christ Jesus." How are we building on this great foundation stone? Are we building so that our work will stand the test at the great day of judgment when all of our work shall be made manifest? Will it abide or will it perish when measured by the standards of heaven? If it is to abide, we must build by faith—faith in the ultimate coming of the kingdom, faith that God's will is being accomplished, faith that our feeble lives are a part of His great plan and that He has given us a part in the great work of world redemption.

All through the ages the great achievements of the past have all been accomplished by those who had faith and vision, those who in their own hearts had evidence of the things unseen and to whom the invisible and the unseen were the only real things in life. Moses saw afar the promised land not only on the mount where God had taken him, but all through the lonely days in the desert as he watched the sheep he saw his people entering into the inheritance promised to them through Abraham. David had before him the vision of the completed temple and the people coming from all parts of the kingdom to worship and saw God dwelling again among His people, Israel. Paul rejoiced in prison, because he looked beyond the sufferings of the present time and saw the completed kingdom of God on earth. If we would build our part into that kingdom, we too must have the vision and see beyond the strife and sufferings, the unrest and turmoil of today the ultimate glory of the structure that is being reared in His name. Faith not only in God's purposes but faith that He is able to use us in His plans. To make our W. M. U. watchword our own experience and to know that "God is able to make all grace abound toward you that ye, having always all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work." The power that would come into our service if we really took God at His word and realized His sufficiency for our every need!

To build for His kingdom we must build first in our own lives that we may not mar our service by our imperfections. They that bear the vessels of the Lord must have clean hands. To most of us there will never come the opportunity of doing what the world calls a great deed, but there comes to each of us anew every day the opportunity of witnessing for Him and manifesting through our lives His life. In the Holy Sepulchre at Jerusalem once a year at Easter time the high priest goes down into the Chapel of the Nativity and, while the great throng waits outside the door, lights his candle at the perpetual lights burning at the altar, and as he comes back to the crowd, one candle after another is lighted from his light. So if we would build aright in our own lives we must light them by His light, and then by our purity and purpose, the consecration of His task—help to lighten the darkness of all around us. It is a slow process, this growth in grace, but day by day, if we put the things of God first, we will grow into His likeness.

We must help to build the kingdom of God in the lives of all with whom we come in contact. No one realizes the influence of one's own life. Is it not a fact that every one with whom we come in contact during a brief day adds something or takes away something from the beauty and happiness and joy of that day? Are there not radiant souls that give you new strength for the task before you, because unconsciously you get something of their love and faith, and on the other hand, are there not those who take away your enthusiasm, lessen your courage and even your faith because of their doubt and discouragement? Let us write deeply into the lives of those about us faith, love and courage—faith in the unseen realities of life, love that beareth and endureth all things, and courage that comes from the consciousness of His presence and guidance.

Thirty-seven years have passed since our Woman's Missionary Union was organized. How many stones have we placed in the structure of the kingdom of God on earth in all of those years? What are our plans for building? First of all we are building into the lives of the women in our churches the realization of their part in this kingdom and their responsibility to those who know Him not and have not our opportunities. Then we are building into the lives of our young people the same responsibility as to the growth and advancement of Christ's kingdom. Training for service, today there are on the foreign field young women who in our Sunbeam bands first learned the joy and privilege of service and who there heard the Master's voice calling them to His work. Mr. Hoover says the race marches forward on the feet of little children, and the cause of our Christ will rest in the coming years on their shoulders. Does it seem sometimes that it is not worth while, this meeting month after month, or week after week, to gather the children and teach them the things of God? The training of the young people in your home and your church and your community is more worth your while today than any other task on this earth. If the young people today are unfit for the duties and responsibilities of the hour, they are not to blame. It is because we have failed to give them right ideals, high standards and have not made them see the value of things that are eternal. Go to your task with a new courage, for it is a God-given task and worthy of your best effort. The blessing that will come from leading the feet of one little child, or one young woman, into His paths is beyond our understanding.

We have endeavored to build through a ministry of relief to the unfortunate in our communities in our Personal Service Department. Who can estimate what this work has meant to the kingdom? Take one year's report with its record of over a hundred thousand visits, its more than two thousand cottage prayer meetings, one thousand religious services, more than two thousand Bibles distributed, two hundred thousand garments given to those in need, to say nothing of the work among prisoners, the hours spent nursing the sick, and the food and flowers sent and multiply it by thirty-seven, and there is a record that has builded higher perhaps than we have even dreamed. Christ met every human need with which He came in contact. We cannot give back the dead to their loved ones, heal those who are suffering from deadly disease or make the blind eyes see again, but there is a ministry of help and healing we can give in His name and through His strength. We must follow His example and give ourselves in service if we would fulfill the royal law in our lives. Ruskin says, "The path of a good woman is strewn with flowers, but they rise behind her steps not before them." Let us strive to make life easier and better for every one with whom we come in contact, and to so fill our days with loving thoughts and deeds that flowers will indeed blossom because we have passed this way.

We have builded for the Master as we have given better educational advantages to our boys and girls, have helped to make homes for the fatherless in our orphanages, and have ministered by our gifts to our aged ministers, and we are beginning a new service through the establishment of our Hospital at Winston-Salem, a service that will make its appeal to every woman in our churches, a ministry of relief to the suffering.

Through our State Mission work we have helped to erect church buildings in destitute sections of our State and aided in the support of our State missionaries, but the greatest service the Woman's Missionary Union has rendered has been in the work the women have done in their local churches through active participation in all plans for kingdom work. The W. M. U. stands simply as an organization of the women in the church for world evangelization beginning in their own churches. Our women are largely the teachers in our Sunday-schools, a work that brings with it the highest privilege and the gravest responsibility as we endeavor to build into the young lives around us the great foundation truths of our faith.

We builded more wisely than we knew many years ago when for two years volunteer teachers were sent during the summer months in order to lengthen out the, at that time, pitifully short term of some of our public schools. With the educational development of the present day no work of this kind is necessary, but the results of that effort have been lasting and more far-reaching than we realized at the time.

Through our Home Mission work we are helping to build a nation, a nation modeled after the one dreamed of by the Psalmist whose God should be the Lord. Out on the frontier where the missionaries go almost as soon as the pioneer seeking a new home, in the deepest recesses of our beautiful mountain country, in the great seaports where the shiploads of immigrants come looking for a land that will give them peace and prosperity, down in Cuba with its wonderful natural advantages and dearth of religious opportunities, we have been building since the very beginning of our organization.

Through our Church Building and Loan Fund we have helped to erect church buildings throughout our territory, a work that will continue as long as there is anywhere a struggling band of believers who are unable to provide for themselves a suitable house of worship.

The work of our Foreign Mission Board has ever held first place in the hearts of our women. No one will ever be able to estimate the value of our prayers, our gifts, our sacrifices through the years. No one will ever know how many in the darkness of heathenism have heard the story of Jesus and His love because we sacrificed and prayed and gave. What our part has been in the evangelization of China, Japan, Africa and the great continent of South America we will never know until the great day when the secrets of all hearts are revealed. We do not know that a steady stream of gifts has poured into the treasury of our Board through our woman's organizations, and that the gifts carried with them the prayers of the givers, thus adding greatly to their value. These gifts are coming today in larger measure than ever before, gifts that are doubly blessed in that they include the giver in the splendid spirit of sacrificial service that permeates our Union.

Perhaps just here we may speak of the growth of our W. M. U. work since last it was our privilege to hold our Annual Meeting in this church. In 1906, because of the large attendance at our annual State meetings, it was decided that the Woman's Missionary Union should meet at a separate time and place from the State Convention. The Woman's Missionary Society of this church invited the Union to hold its first separate session with them. Our gifts that year amounted to $20,000.89. There were in all the State but 462 Woman's Missionary societies, 55 Young Woman's Auxiliaries and 235 Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors. There was no Personal Service Department, no Mission Study.

Seventeen years have passed, our gifts this year amounted to $305,752.89, and in the seventeen years we have given over $1,655,000. For twenty years preceding this session our entire contribution was but $135,000. The total contribution of our Union since its organization is $1,791,094.52. With humble hearts we record this progress, because we have but given Him his own and to Him be the glory. He that buildeth on the sure foundation is assured of success, that ultimately the kingdom shall come in the hearts of all men, and that our labors and prayers are going into a structure that shall endure throughout time and eternity. How much greater the revelation today of the completed kingdom of God we have than those had who in the early days of Christianity gave their very lives in its service. We can almost get a vision through the open doors of the nations, and the unparalleled efforts today to carry the gospel message to the remotest parts of the earth of that completed city where He shall reign forever and forever.

He that buildeth on this foundation needeth not to make haste. What a blessing this would bring to our busy lives, our troubled hearts, if we could only realize its truth. When the storms come and the tempest rages, we have only to wait, resting on Him, because our foundation standeth sure, the waters of sin, doubt and unbelief cannot overflow. We need not to be in haste, trying to crowd the work of years into the brief span of our feeble lives. God ruleth and reigneth. It is our privilege to bring a few stones from the quarry, perhaps to lay them in place, but it is His place to see to the completion of the building in all its power and glory, ours but to build faithfully the part entrusted to us. If our vision has not been clear, if we have marred by following our own pattern instead of the divine pattern in our buildings, we may be sure that after us will come one who shall carry on to completion the structure we dreamed of and labored for. We have this thought most forcefully in Kipling's beautiful allegory of the great English Empire, the Palace:

"When I was a King and a Mason, a master proven and true,
I cleared me ground for a palace such as a king should build;
I decreed and dug down to my levels.

Presently under the silt

I came on the wreck of a Palace such as a king had built.

"There was no worth in the fashion, there was no wit in the plan:
Hither and thither aimless the ruined footings ran.

Masonry, brute, mishandled, but carven on every stone

After me cometh a builder,

Tell him I too have known.

"Swift to my use in the trenches, where my well-planned groundwork grew,

I tumbled his quoins and his ashlar and cut and reset them anew.

Lime I milled of the marbles, burned it, slacked it, and Spread;

Taking and leaving at pleasure the gifts of the humble dead.

"When I was a King and a Mason, in the open noon of my pride,
They sent me word from the Darkness,
They whispered and called me aside.
They said, The end is forbidden. They said,
Thy use is fulfilled;
Thy palace shall stand as that other's, the Spoil of a king who shall build.

"I called my men from my trenches, my quarries, my wharves, and my shears.
All I had wrought I abandoned to the faith of the faithless years.
Only I cut on the timber, only I carved on the stone:
'After me cometh a Builder. Tell him,
I too have known.' "

The great structure of the kingdom of God shall one day stand completed in a glory we cannot now even comprehend, and our weak hands shall have had a part in its building. He has laid the foundation a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation. It is our privilege to say, "And Lord I build upon the foundation which thou hast laid." By laboring together with God we ourselves become His building, His husbandry, the work of His hands. "Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you." Through the power of this indwelling Spirit we can keep His commandments, follow His teachings, and exemplify in our lives His life and build into our character the completed temple after the pattern shown us in the mount.

SALLIE BAILEY JONES.

After the singing of the Union hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, of Raleigh, Chairman of White Cross work, gave a report of what has been done for the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, Lai-chow-fu, China.

REPORT OF THE WHITE CROSS WORK

One of the greatest privileges that has come to the women in our Woman's Missionary Union is the opportunity that we have had to help in the White Cross work. We feel that we have a big part in the Kathleen Mallory Hospital at Lai-chow-fu, China, because North Carolina gave them their Superintendent, Miss Alda Grayson.

Since the last Convention no extra supplies have been sent from the societies, but several of the societies have expressed a desire to make a contribution, and we know our women will ever be ready to do anything they can to help with the needs of this glorious work for suffering humanity on the foreign field.

After Miss Grayson has received the things already sent she is going to write us about what she then needs, and I know we will gladly respond, to make her work there the most effective for the sake of the neglected women and children, and for the love of the Great Physician, who prompts every good and perfect gift.

MRS. Z. M. CAVENESS,
Chairman White Cross Work, N. C. W. M. U.

Mrs. J. J. Roddick, of Winston-Salem, Chairman of Furnishings for the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem, made a report of what has been done by the women toward furnishing the hospital.

REPORT OF THE BAPTIST HOSPITAL, WINSTON-SALEM

As we review the progress of our great nation from the time of the landing of our Pilgrim fathers until today, our hearts throb with patriotism. As we study the growth and expansion of the Southern Baptist Convention since the first convention was organized in 1845, our hearts are filled with unspeakable joy. From that small organization we have seen our denomination grow by leaps and bounds until today we stand as one of the greatest denominations in the Southland. Our beginnings, though small, have grown until like a mighty river, with its various tributaries flowing from State to State, its influence is felt today around the globe. With the new vision we have a kingdom work. We no longer dare to close our eyes to the large things of earthly life, for we realize that today is the day of opportunity. If the call of the Master is recognized our lives will be crowned with glory. In the great forward march our denomination has taken we realize that the establishment of Christian hospitals for extending the Kingdom of Righteousness was that of a well-rounded program of presenting the Master's whole life to the people. So successful has the ministry of healing proved, both in foreign and home lands, by our hospitals that today we are presenting to you an advanced program in this department of His service. When we recall that more than three hundred thousand were treated in our Christian hospitals we feel that we have followed the example of the Great Physician. During the last moments of making the allotment of the Seventy-five-Million Campaign Fund, one hundred thousand dollars was set apart to be given to hospitals in five years. A committee of three without authority undertook to fan the flame of hospital enthusiasm. They made the announcement that no city would be selected for the hospital that did not offer one hundred thousand dollars and a site for the building. The eagerness on the part of so many places was a revelation and an encouragement. It seemed clear the time had come to take up a long-delayed task. A report was made to our State Baptist Convention at Asheville, and a commission of five was authorized to locate the first Baptist hospital of North Carolina. Winston-Salem was selected after many other bids had been considered. Today we have a beautiful building located on an elevated tract of land, occupying an entire square of nine acres, in an exclusive residential section of the city. It will be ready to open its doors to the public by May 1. The hospital building is a fire-proof construction throughout and is five stories high exclusive of the basement. The building is T shaped, the front facing east, being 124 feet across and 38 feet deep. From the central portion an L extends back 66 feet and is 42 feet wide. The basement contains machinery room, boiler, fuel room, refrigerating plant, laundry space sufficient to take care of a plant of 250 patients. The first floor is given up entirely to administration. Here we have dining-rooms, offices, superintendent's and interns' living quarters, laboratories and X-ray rooms. The second floor is a ward floor exclusively and will accommodate 29 patients. The third floor will take care of 41 patients; the fourth 23, and the fifth floor will accommodate 12. The entire L is taken with operating rooms. On each floor are two sun parlors, one at each end of the building and a waiting room. The elevator goes up in the center of the building and there is an enclosed stairway at either end of the main building, and a fire-escape at the end of the L. The exterior presents a beautiful appearance, is finished in brick, trimmed in granite and terracotta. Every effort is being made to see that the N. C. Baptist Hospital will be an institution of which the whole State will be proud.

We feel that the denomination has indeed been fortunate in securing the services of Rev. G. T. Lumpkin as superintendent, who has already entered into his duties with all the energy and enthusiasm that characterize acceptable service, while Miss Heinzerling, as superintendent of nurses, has already demonstrated her ability to organize her forces by the preparation she has made for opening the hospital. The work thus far has not been accomplished without considerable effort, and we would express our sincere appreciation of the untiring services of Dr. Lockett and Mrs. S. W. Morrisett. We have received thus far from the 75-Million Campaign $50,000, from the Baptists and friends of Winston-Salem $50,000. The balance coming from the Seventy-five-Million Campaign will not be due in two more years. The last installment that Winston-Salem pledged, exclusive of the lot, will be July 1, 1923. The commission, feeling that it would be unwise to postpone the opening of the hospital until the balance of pledges were due, suggested the wisdom of a temporary loan on the property and recommended the incorporation of the hospital under the name of the North Carolina Baptist Hospital. It also recommended that the Convention name twelve incorporators, ten men and two women, who should serve as the first board of trustees, and that twelve be authorized to secure a charter for the corporation and borrow the necessary funds to meet the demand of opening the hospital. The contract price of the building was $182,000; the dining-room, kitchen and scientific equipment about $75,000, while the furnishing of the rooms will be about $15,000.

It is with a profound feeling of gratitude that I am able to announce to this body that with the completion of the hospital the women will have completed their task of furnishing the rooms as a free-will offering—every bedroom, ward, waiting room, sun parlors in the building to the amount of $15,000, a gift that reflects His image in the hearts of those who have so nobly responded to the needs of the work. The unselfish giving that has characterized all of our societies has honored our Master. Many that did not feel able to give large amounts sent in their smaller contribution with letters and blessings, adding more than they realized to the accomplishment of our great task, and yet we have a vision of larger things for our women, for with this door of opportunity opened we realize that if our hospital would attain its highest efficiency of usefulness it must become a great training school for nurses. It should furnish in the first place safe surroundings for the unprotected girl away from home, and should furnish a training that will meet the highest standard in modern nursing. Along with it there should be inspiration and encouragement given our young women, inviting them to the large field of usefulness that awaits them in general health and welfare work, in churches employing helpers in institutions, and last, but not least, the private home where she goes to bring comfort and minister in the Spirit of the Master.

The day has dawned that if we as a denomination would reach the highest state of efficiency in our work we must seek to bring Christ's Kingdom on earth by meeting the needs of suffering humanity.

MRS. J. J. RODDICK.

Mrs. S. W. Morrisette, Treasurer of Hospital Furnishings, gave a tabulated report of gifts made toward the furnishing of the hospital.

Dr. G. T. Lumpkin, Superintendent of the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, gave an address, "The Hospital and the Woman's Missionary Union."

Delegates and visitors registered at the morning session, 663. Adjournment.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The first hour of this session was given to Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors, Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, Junior Superintendent, presiding.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. E. L. Baskin, Junior Superintendent of the Mt. Zion Association.

Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, Junior Superintendent, gave an interesting report of the work of the Sunbeam Bands and Royal Ambassador Chapters. This report was unanimously adopted.

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT FOR YEAR ENDING FEBRUARY 28th, 1923

Again the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors line up before us for examination of their year's work. Like the doctors at the public schools, we will measure their growth, put them on the scales to test their weight, and examine their general physical condition and activities.

First Growth.—The added 113 new Sunbeam Bands shows the remarkable height of 604 on our roll. But unlike physical growth, there is a shrinkage also, for 84 Bands failed to report this year. Some of these are too new, others are old ones gone to sleep for a short while. Let us trust that they will soon awaken. We are indeed proud of the height of active Bands, 520, a gain of 29 over last year.

Our State received the W. M. U. pennant for next largest increase in Bands in proportion to the unorganized territory in 1922. Let us hope our fine increase will bring us the banner for first place this year.

Our Royal Ambassadors have grown also; 40 new Chapters, 97 reporting this year, showing a gain of 14 active Chapters. But 16 are "under the haystack fast asleep." Who will search them out and waken them to duty?

Weight.—The Royal Ambassadors are not only growing, but are gaining in weight. Their total contribution for this year is $2,933.08. This puts them about half way their pledge of $20,000 for the Campaign. Their gain in weight is not so rapid as we desire. The average gift per Chapter has dropped from $34 of last year to $30 this year. As physicians we diagnose the case as lack of reporting what the boys of the churches are giving and possibly some lack of energy in the Chapters. The prescription suggested is securing statements from church treasurers, reporting regularly, and rousing active Chapters to an increase of $10 per Chapter for this year.

The Sunbeams have fallen off $1,400 in weight. This causes us some anxiety even though their total is $12,407.59, a wonderful weight when we think of the ages of the givers. The average gift last year was $28, this year $23. The falling off we would diagnose as too little encouragement in the homes, and general indifference of grown people. The prescription is a deep and constant interest on the part of the Women's Societies and the mothers, higher ideals in giving urged by the Band Leaders. An absolute cure could be effected by $5 more from every Band this year, and that would bring the Sunbeams to their full weight of $69,000 for the Campaign pledge.

Special mention is proudly made of the following Bands and Chapters giving most this year: Sunbeams—Ashboro Street, Greensboro, $678.15; Rocky Mount, $450.00; Ahoskie, $263.09; Raeford, $248.34. Twenty-two reported more than $100. Royal Ambassadors—Lumberton, $200.65; Durham, First, $163.17; Clayton, $159.61; Ahoskie, $153.45; Ashboro Street, $152.20; Mt. Olive, $126.50; Hickory, $109.27; Greensboro, First, $108.70.

Associations leading: Sunbeams—Roanoke, $1,063.09; Piedmont, $1,027.00. Royal Ambassadors—Mt. Zion, $480.54; West Chowan, $391.57.

Special Funds.—Three special funds were undertaken by the Sunbeams and R. A.'s. The Margaret Education Fund for missionaries' children asks $600 a year from North Carolina. The total from R. A.'s and Sunbeams is $406.08. Three of the students under this fund are in North Carolina: Susie Herring, at Meredith; Thunton Bostick, at Wake Forest; and John Joyce, at Mars Hill. These are under the special care of the North Carolina W. M. U.

The two other special funds are: First, the Children's Ward in the Baptist Hospital at Winston-Salem, $440.92 being reported from the two Junior Organizations.

To the Church Building Loan Fund they have reported $271.26.

In the mental test our Juniors show wonderful advance. The Juniors have received 803 certificates, 881 seals, 362 reading cards. The Sunbeams have earned 800 stamps for books read at home, and the boys 81 stamps. The total seals, etc., last year was 1,425; this year more than double, being 2,927. With this rapidly developing mental activity, programs should be better prepared, meetings made more interesting and more mission study classes held. Proper food makes for continued strength.

The eye and ear test is united in the work to attain the Standard of Excellence. Sad, sad, that less than one-fifth of the Bands (97), and one-seventh of the Chapters (13), have proper hearing and sight. This is proven by the fact that they cannot hear us urge the importance of attempting to fulfil the Standard, and have not the vision to see its importance. But we are glad to record an improvement and hope for greater this year. The cause we diagnose as lack of careful records at each meeting, failure to study the Standard and neglect of reporting the points reached. The prescription is "make the negative positive."

The heart and general muscular tests are united in the Personal Service for Sunbeams and Knightly Deeds for Royal Ambassadors. Hearts of love for those in need, and hands and feet ready for service are necessary in this. Seventy Bands and fourteen Chapters have passed this test and, we believe, are stronger for it. We would urge such form of exercise for all, and plead again for reports.

May we not, as Junior workers, adopt for our motto this year, "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you," and making strong our own hearts and hands with the attending promise "and lo, I am with you always."

Statistics for the year: Letters, 239; postals, 37; literature, 1,471; miles, 3,817; talks, 20; associations attended: Yadkin, Eastern, Wilmington, Kings Mountain, Catawba River, Caldwell, Mt. Zion. Other meetings: Southern Baptist Convention, Jacksonville, Fla.; Training School for Summer Workers, Raleigh; Charlotte Division, North Wilkesboro; Florida Baptist Assembly, DeLand, Fla. Received from W. M. U. Expense Fund, $66.72.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH N. BRIGGS, Junior Superintendent.

Mrs. I. P. Hedgepeth, Lumberton, presented report and recommendations on the Briggs Church Building Loan Memorial, which was launched by the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors a year ago at Charlotte. Adopted.

BRIGGS CHURCH BUILDING MEMORIAL

One year ago, at the closing session of the thirty-second annual meeting of the W. M. U. of North Carolina, which was held with the First Baptist Church of Charlotte, an announcement was made of a memorial by the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors of North Carolina to the Church Building Loan Fund of the Southern Baptist Convention, in honor of our much-beloved State Junior Superintendent, Miss Elizabeth Briggs, of Raleigh, upon the completion of a period of 25 years of untiring, devoted, and sacrificial service to the Baptist children of the State.

The purpose in establishing this memorial is twofold: To increase the amount to the Church Building Loan Fund, that churches within the borders of the Southern Baptist Convention might be aided in completing houses of worship. The amount loaned will be returned to the Home Board with 6 per cent interest. Then we wish to show our appreciation for the services rendered by Miss Briggs. Through her winsome personality and missionary spirit thousands of children have been made to feel the power of her influence, and catch the vision of the beautiful life. For this we are very grateful, therefore we desire to establish a memorial of $1,000 to the Church Building Loan Fund of the Southern Baptist Convention in the name of Miss Elizabeth Briggs.

We, the Junior societies, submit the following plans for consideration: That the cash contribution of $271.26, the first payment on the memorial, be accepted and sent to the Home Board and credited to the Church Building Loan Fund, together with a photograph of Miss Elizabeth Briggs and placed with the memorials of North Carolina in the Southern Baptist Hall of Fame, with the accompanying wording:

"The Elizabeth N. Briggs Church Building Loan Fund, Established in 1922 by the Sunbeams and Royal Ambassadors of the Baptist Churches of North Carolina."

That the first two quarters preferably be devoted to this special object, money being sent direct to Miss Elsie Hunter, and credit will be given to each Band and Chapter on their Campaign pledge. A leaflet explaining the object of the memorial and suitable envelopes be prepared for the special offering and mailed to the Junior superintendents for distribution. The time for completing the memorial be extended from March 23, 1923, to March 23, 1924.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. I. P. HEDGEPEETH.

Lumberton, N. C.

Mrs. J. S. Slate, of Winston-Salem, told of the Briggs Hospital Ward for children in the new Hospital at Winston-Salem.

Mrs. C. P. Nanney, of Gastonia, spoke on "New Members and Attendance."

Mrs. H. A. Powell, Wendell, gave her experience in using the Circle Plan in her Sunbeam Band.

Mrs. W. T. Atkinson, Fayetteville, spoke on "Mission Study for Royal Ambassadors."

A pageant based on World Comrades was presented by the Sunbeams and R. A.'s of Durham.

The second hour was given to the report and discussion of Personal Service, Mrs. C. E. Maddry, presiding. The report of the Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. Chas. E. Maddry, Raleigh, was presented. It was moved and seconded that this report be adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

The Personal Service report for this year brings to us a new realization of the great activity of our W. M. U. members in carrying out the program which was committed to all Christians of all times. Our rejoicing is not in any large figures that may be given, but in the evidence these furnish that more and more of our people are giving of their means, their time and their personalities to help those who are less fortunate than themselves.

It is impossible to assemble all the statistics for this work, so varied are the activities, and so far beyond counting are the ministries of those who serve. Only when the Book of Life is opened shall we know of all that is being done in His name. Even the reports that were sent in are incomplete, as many individuals and societies are unwilling to report what they do.

Time and space are too limited to give here in detail the unclassified items, such as relief of the unfortunate, helping the widow to hold her family together, house rent paid, fuel, school expenses, medicine, doctor's and nurse's services for the sick, the special work for the boys at Oteen, and many others. A list of these will be found on the Woman's Page of the Biblical Recorder at an early date, in a supplementary report of Personal Service.

REPORT OF GREENSBORO DIVISION

Six years ago this month it was my great privilege to become a member of the W. M. U. of North Carolina and of your Executive Committee. As I look back over the years, I recall very many happy experiences, and I rejoice in almost innumerable ties of friendship that shall go with me through the remainder of my life. It has been a joy to me to labor with you. You are a noble body of women doing a great work for our Lord.

I count it as a happy privilege to have served as Vice-President of the Greensboro Division during these years. This division has shown marked growth and development along all lines and has taken a vital part in our great campaign endeavors.

It is with real regret that I have now to sever my relationship with you. God has called me into other fields of service in your sister State, and I bespeak your prayers that my life may be used by Him in the upbuilding of His kingdom here.

As you meet in annual session in Durham, my thoughts and prayers shall be with you. I shall follow you through the years with keenest interest as you advance to even greater heights. Be not discouraged, but dare to attempt great things for God, for we have the blessed assurance "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

May God's richest blessings rest upon you and may He use the women of North Carolina in a great way in bringing His kingdom upon this earth.

MRS. WESTON BRUNER,

Laurens, S. C.

Vice-President.

Mrs. F. G. Battle, New Bern, Vice-President of the Elizabeth City Division, read her report.

ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

As we review the year's work of the Elizabeth City Division we can but say in the words of the prophet, "The Lord hath done wondrously, whereof we are glad," for surely it has been His guidance that has made this report possible.

All four associations report progress. Mrs. Sawyer, of the Chowan, says that every county in that Association is organized and at work, holding at least two county meetings a year. They have five new W. M. S. Societies and one new G. A., making a total of six new societies this year. They are planning to furnish two rooms in the new hospital at Winston-Salem, and have $487 of this money in hand.

In the West Chowan, where Miss White labors so untiringly, the women are supporting two missionaries and a Bible woman in China. They also have two scholarships in the Training School. Miss White is an enthusiastic Mission Study leader and says that much interest has been shown in Mission Study in her Association, and that a greater number of women have taken the examinations for the seals. They have a missionary society in every church in the Association except one, having organized twenty-one new societies this year. You will all agree with me that this is a remarkable record.

We felt two years ago when Mrs. L. T. Vaughan was chosen to lead the women of the Roanoke that we were indeed fortunate, and her work has been a fulfillment of our expectations. She reports a wonderful interest in Mission Study and says that never before have the women done such consecrated, intelligent work and given such spontaneous service. They have eighteen new societies this year, and are furnishing a double room in the new hospital at a cost of $370.

The work of the Neuse-Atlantic has gone steadily forward, notwithstanding the fact that they have changed superintendents every year for the past three years, and it is difficult for an association to adjust itself to so frequent changes. Mrs. John Carroll took up the work in September and has in many ways demonstrated her enthusiasm and earnestness. There have been ten new societies organized during the year and the Association as a whole is furnishing a room in the new hospital which we will call the Dr. Blanch Barrus Room, in honor of her who was our Corresponding Secretary, and who went from this Association to that position which she filled with so much ability.

The women of Goldsboro First Church are furnishing a room at the hospital, and another church in the Association provided a scholarship in the Training School.

The division regrets, that it has not paid its campaign pledges in full to date. We feel that the fires kindled by our motto, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me," will continue to burn, and that though the years be lean, we will press forward, not in our own strength, but in His, and that when the five years shall have passed we will be able to say with the Psalmist, "Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised."

Respectfully submitted,

New Bern, N. C.

MRS. F. G. BATTLE.

Report for the Wilmington Division was made by Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia, Vice-President.

WILMINGTON DIVISION

We have ten associations in the Wilmington Division. Each held a separate annual meeting. Total number of societies in Wilmington Division, 413; new societies organized this year, 33; number societies lost this year, 20. Number Mission Study classes, 114; Reading Circles, 9; Mission Study certificates, 406; Seals, 536; classes for Juniors, 34; Certificates, 116; Cards, 42; Seals, 116; Stamps, 86. Cumberland, South River, Johnston, Robeson, Wilmington and Eastern have Mission Study superintendents. The Eastern presents a Mission Study banner each year to the church having largest number of classes, including every grade. Johnson's Church (rural) won that banner this year, having had seven classes. We will present large Mission Study report card for Juniors next year.

Brunswick, Little River, Johnston, Robeson, Cape Fear-Columbus, and Wilmington have Junior Superintendents. Cumberland, Little River, Robeson and Brunswick have Y. W. A. Superintendents. Johnston, Robeson, Cape Fear-Columbus, Wilmington, Brunswick and Eastern have Personal Service Chairman. Johnston and Eastern have Stewardship Chairmen. Four hundred ninety-two tithers were reported from Wilmington Division. The Cumberland and Eastern met Campaign pledges.

Cape Fear-Columbus made six points on Standard of Excellence; Brunswick and Robeson, seven; Johnston, Little River and Wilmington, eight; Eastern, nine. Five associations state that their weakest point is lack of leaders; three, that weakest point is young people's organizations; two, the weakest point is Mission Study. The great difficulty in organizing and sustaining young people's societies in each association is lack of leaders and B. Y. P. U. Johnston, Little River, Cumberland, Robeson and Wilmington are furnishing a room in our new hospital at Winston-Salem. Johnston is aiding a girl at Meredith who is preparing to go to the Training School. Robeson Association supports five Bible women in foreign fields. One family in Wilmington Association supports a missionary and wife in China, and a seventeen-year-old girl supports a Bible woman in China.

Little River Association deserves honorable mention. One woman supports a girl at Training School, and one gives sufficient amount to support a missionary. In behalf of the Wilmington Division, we thank Little River Association for our present Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mary Warren. One Sunbeam leader in the Eastern supports a kindergarten school in China. The Eastern had the joy of giving Miss Katie Murray to China this year. Miss Madeline Price visited Bladen, Cape Fear-Columbus and Robeson associations. Her work meant a great deal to our cause in these associations. The Wilmington Division has decided to have a Missionary Institute in each association if possible, instead of one divisional meeting, the time for each institute to be decided on by the association. We had no divisional meeting last year. The Seaside Assembly was called in.

We close our report by adding that the Annual Meeting of the Association was honored and blessed with the presence of our beloved Dr. Blanche Barrus, it being the last meeting she attended, and giving her last and most beautiful message to the Union, closing with an appeal to the young girls; also the blessing of Miss Mallory and Miss Briggs, and Mrs. Minnie M. Anderson, our own dear missionary to China.

MACY COX, Vice-President.

Magnolia, N. C.

Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem, presented the report of the Charlotte Division.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION

The work of the Charlotte Division has gone steadily forward during the past year. We have organized a number of new societies, while our Mission Study classes have grown in interest and numbers. One of the outstanding features of the year was the Divisional Meeting held at North Wilkesboro during the month of June. At this meeting the objects of our Campaign were discussed and plans of work of our State Union emphasized by the various talks that were made. The students of Mt. View presented a splendid pageant in which the rugged cross played a leading part, making a profound impression on all present.

The Charlotte Division furnished more than twenty rooms in our new hospital dedicating one room to be known as the Lila B. Henry Room, in honor of our beloved leader who has led the work in the division so faithfully for the past years.

One of the strong points of this division is the organized Personal Service work reported during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. J. RODDICK,
Second Vice-President.

Mrs. C. A. Kluttz, Asheville, Vice-President, reported for the Asheville Division.

ASHEVILLE DIVISION

As we view the records of the past year, we are encouraged by the progress that has been made. No wonderful work has been done, but there is a steady growth, and a feeling that we are "pressing on the upward way." But we realize that many times we have loitered. Our greatest gain is in the number of Mission Study classes. We report seventy-seven this year, with 197 certificates and 246 seals, also three official seals. In looking over an associational record of five years ago we found a report on woman's work; they had reported six Mission Study classes. This year one church in that Association reported twenty-one study classes, which is another instance that we are "pressing on." This is very encouraging, for we realize that without information there can be no inspiration, and as we study so will we pray and so will we give.

We report 52 new societies, and of these, 33 are Junior societies. We are glad our "little ones" are not forgotten, and that they are being trained in service for the Master. In Personal Service we have found much joy in many ways. One association is supporting a girl at the Training School. Our women are still at work among our sick soldiers, under the leadership of Rev. J. A. McKaughan, who is serving under the Home Mission Board as camp pastor.

A new feature of our work is a Goodwill Center at Ridgecrest, the reports from which are most encouraging. Its influence is shown in both church and Sunday school, having increased the membership of each. Miss Ada Bell is doing very efficient work, reaching the entire life of the community. This is the second Goodwill Center in our division, the other being conducted by Mrs. J. N. Lee on the Indian Reservation.

During the Reinforcement Campaign much interest and enthusiasm was aroused. Quite a number of pledges were received and new ones made. Our offerings have increased. The gifts made the past year are $23,837.27. For the next year we purpose to give more attention to the Standard of Excellence and hope to report a large number of A-1 societies. May we continue to "press forward" until we have attained the prize of the high calling of Christ Jesus.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. A. KLUTTZ,

Asheville, N. C.

Vice-President.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The first hour was given to the consideration of Young Woman's and Girls' Auxiliaries, Mrs. R. N. Simms, Y. W. A. and G. A. Secretary, presiding.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. J. A. Ellis, Raleigh.

Mrs. Simms gave the Y. W. A. and G. A. report for the year. Unanimously adopted.

REPORT OF Y. W. A. SECRETARY, 1922-23

As I come to present this report of the work of the girls and young women of North Carolina for the past year I am filled with gratitude that in a small way I have been permitted to share in leading them, and also am I filled with a keen sense of the responsibility that rests upon us, their leaders, for as we succeed in moulding their lives for Christ, so do we build the future of our denomination, our State and the Kingdom.

I rejoice that I can bring a splendid report along all lines this year. God has blessed our State with prosperity, and he has blessed our endeavors for Him. We are deeply conscious of this as we examine each phase of the work, for we know that unless we labor in accordance with His will and in a manner pleasing to Him we cannot expect to grow. We believe He has been pleased with the spirit of our work and that our girls have been much in prayer and that it has been acceptable in His sight.

Volunteers

In a marked degree has God's favor upon our North Carolina girls been shown in the way He has called them into His service as volunteer life-workers. From all of our colleges come reports of student volunteers for mission work; at Meredith there were five in one week recently, and their morning watch devotional service is crowded with girls, eager to catch the vision their comrades have caught. We have, in addition, more applicants for the Training School than we can care for. It is a great thing for our girls to be touched in this way. So highly do I estimate it that I mention it first in my report.

Mission Study

I feel that the greatest contributing cause for the calling of our girls has been their Mission Study. Our greater emphasis upon Mission Study in the past two years has wrought large returns, and as our girls, in school and in the church societies, have studied the thrilling and inspirational lives of our missionaries, and have learned the needs of their countries, their hearts have been filled with a burning desire to go and share their Saviour with the lost world. Our Mission Study Secretary, Miss Warren, has done a fine work and we cannot thank her enough. We commend the Mission Study that has been done and urge every society to share its joys and benefits. While last year there were 275 seals awarded the Y. W. A.'s, this year there were 490 seals and 320 certificates, 25 reading cards and 25 stamps. The G. A.'s were awarded 96 seals last year while this year they have 162 seals and 124 certificates, 102 reading cards and 172 reading stamps. The Mt. Zion Association has the honor of holding the first official Y. W. A. Seal. Miss Annie Crutchfield, of Durham, now at the Training School, won this honor for her association.

Contributions

What a joy it is to tell you that as the hearts of our girls have been filled with a greater love for their Saviour so have they given more abundantly of their means and have made a gain in their contributions over last year, a gain of $264 for the Y. W. A.'s and of $369.05 for the G. A.'s. The total amount contributed by the Y. W. A.'s is $29,351.28 and $5,726 by the G. A.'s, making a total of $35,077.28. With less than this we led all the other States last year. It remains to be seen who will stand first this year. Let us determine to continue to stand at the head of the list. Virginia and South Carolina ran close behind last year and will again this year, I'm sure.

This amount was contributed by 362 societies, 190 Y. W. A.'s and 172 G. A.'s. The Y. W. A. average per society is $154 plus and that of the G. A. $33 plus.

You will remember that last year Rockingham led the Y. W. A.'s with a gain of ten cents over Greensboro First, but this year Greensboro First holds first place, leading all Y. W. A.'s with $1,729.04 to her credit. Rockingham, Winston Brown Memorial and Winston First come next and also in the $1,000 class, giving $1,408, $1,353.47 and $1,047.10 respectively. Wilmington First with $927.63 and Gastonia with $799.20 come next, while the Raleigh Tabernacle, Edenton, Rocky Mount and Laurinburg with over $600, and High Point, Spring Hill, Wadesboro and Winston-Salem, with over $500 each, all deserve honorable mention.

For the G. A.'s, Winston Brown Memorial again carries off the honors, leading with $511.36. Cliffside follows, giving $316.41, while Clayton and Asheville First come next, each giving over $200. The Charlotte Division again leads the State in Y. W. A. contributions, while in G. A. gifts the Greensboro Division forges ahead.

Last year the Y. W. A.'s in the Mt. Zion Association had the honor of leading the State, but this year the Pilot Mountain wins the banner, giving $3,857.45. However the Mt. Zion is close behind with $3,337.08, and the Piedmont and Pee Dee also gave over $3,000.

Again the Pilot Mountain G. A.'s lead the State with $865.54. Mt. Zion, Piedmont, Sandy Run and Roanoke come next.

There are many others we would like to call by name if time permitted, for while the gifts are smaller, we realize that they represent just as much sacrificial giving in many instances. We depend largely upon these smaller and younger societies, whose memberships will increase from year to year, and whose contributions will likewise grow larger. We trust that each and every one will feel encouraged to put forth a larger effort than ever before, and make this next year the best in our history.

New Societies

Another evidence that our girls have been at work this year is the fact that there are quite a number of new societies. The Y. W. A.'s are stronger by 41 new ones and the G. A.'s have a gain of 32. We rejoice always to welcome these new co-laborers. The West Chowan Association leads in new Y. W. A. organizations with nine, while Roanoke comes next with five. The Central and Roanoke tie in the number of G. A.'s, each having three new ones while quite a number have two.

Reporting and Standard of Excellence

There are 12 Y. W. A.'s and 11 G. A.'s which are A-1 societies this year on the Standard of Excellence. Forty-three Y. W. A.'s and 36 G. A.'s reported an effort to attain Standard and have some grade on it. We hoped to see these numbers largely increased next year for we need to emphasize the attainment of the Standard more and more.

Seventy Y. W. A.'s reported every quarter this year and 56 G. A.'s. We long to see every society report each quarter.

Personal Service

Many of our auxiliaries who do not report their activities are participating in this delightful Christian service, but there is a gratifying increase in those who have reported—52 Y. W. A.'s this year against 43 last year and 45 G. A.'s against 36 last year.

The girls enjoy the White Cross work too, and are now contributing toward a Y. W. A. and G. A. ward in our new Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. Those who have not yet had a share in this are asked to send their gifts as early as possible.

Student Organizations

There is no finer work being done anywhere than in the Y. W. A.'s and G. A.'s of our colleges and high schools. Meredith, Chowan and Oxford colleges all have splendid auxiliaries with earnest, consecrated girls as leaders, and this is also true of most of our high schools. We trust that next year we may have a society in every Baptist high school, for in these our girls continue their training in denominational missions, and from them come not only our church leaders but many volunteers for mission work. Meredith, Chowan and Oxford all have volunteers this year. Many of the student societies are also doing most excellent work in Mission Study and Personal Service. Meredith leads the list in Mission Study with 145 certificates and 214 seals, while Chowan won 99 certificates and 203 seals. Fruitland and Mars Hill also deserve especial mention for their fine Mission Study classes. We cannot estimate the value of these auxiliaries, and we trust that parents, leaders and superintendents will do all in their power to foster them.

Secretarial Work

The contact and correspondence with our leaders and girls this year has been very delightful. Besides the large number of personal letters written to individuals, there has been the preparation of the quarterly letters and personal letters to student societies and the preparation of Recorder notes. It was a pleasure to be in and speak during the Training School for Field Workers held at Meredith in June.

The preparation of a playlet on State Missions during the summer was a real pleasure. It was printed and widely used by both our auxiliaries and the B. Y. P. U.'s.

It was again a joy to be able to assist the Meredith girls in planning their Mission Study classes—seven in number, each studying a separate book and taught by members of our W. M. U. Executive Committee.

An attempt was made to arrange a visit from Miss Mather to our colleges during the fall, but she will come in the late spring instead.

Now as we have reviewed the year's accomplishments and have seen through it all God's smiling favor upon our labor, let us more deeply, more earnestly than ever before reconsecrate ourselves, our gifts and all that we have for His service and determine that in the coming year we will be in a truer sense "Laborers together with God" and know that "God is able" to bless us more abundantly. May we not in a larger way help to make it possible to "Publish glad tidings," to Proclaim to every people, tongue and nation

That God in whom they live and move is love;

Tell how He stooped to save His lost creation,

And died on earth that man might live above.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,

Y. W. A. and G. A. Secretary.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF Y. W. A. AND G. A. SECRETARY, 1923-1924

It is hoped that by adopting and keeping these recommendations before them as a guide for their work the leaders of our young women and girls may better accomplish the ideals and aims of our Union.

1. Consecration of Leaders

No Christian service is of greater importance than that of training our North Carolina girls in mission work. Realizing this, we, as their leaders, determine to better fit ourselves for our great opportunity, both by study and prayer. It is hoped that every one who has not already studied the W. M. U. and Y. W. A. Manual will do so this spring.

2. Co-operation of W. M. S.

It is recommended that in every community we seek the guidance and co-operation of the members of the Woman's Missionary Society for our girls' organizations. We crave their sympathy and urge them to foster and mother the auxiliary in their churches. Where this is done there are fine results.

3. Graded Societies and Enlistment

In accordance with the plans outlined by the Southern W. M. U., it is recommended that we work toward the establishment of graded societies in all of our churches, and see that our young people are properly advanced from one to the other. Our ideal is to enlist all of our girls in mission work, and we suggest that definite plans for so reaching our girls will be made in every church. We trust that the W. M. S. and pastors will plan to enlist the girls in churches where there are now no auxiliaries. Following the campaign, we urge that October be observed as enlistment month. We are asked to make a 10 per cent increase in the membership of our new societies and to gain 60 new Y. W. A.'s and 40 G. A.'s.

4. Programs

Hastily and poorly prepared programs will not hold our girls for they will spend their time where they feel paid for so doing. Consequently we urge that original, wide-awake girls be appointed on the program committees and that they, with the counsellor, will plan far ahead, and use attractive posters, program cards and invitations.

5. Prayer and Bible Study

We cannot stress too strongly the importance of our daily and special prayer services and systematic Bible study. Not until our auxiliary members are filled with the love of Christ, realizing that God has a plan for each individual life, and set themselves to fulfill it, will our mission cause develop as we desire. Let all societies faithfully observe the special days and seasons of prayer as set apart for them: (1) Week of prayer for World-wide Missions, the first week in January. (2) Week of prayer for Home Missions, in March or April. (3) Day of prayer for State Missions in September.

6. Mission Study and Mission Literature

Realizing that when our girls are truly informed as to the imperative needs of the mission fields and learn the thrilling stories of the past achievements of our pioneer missionaries, their hearts will be so touched and enthused that they will give more fully of themselves and their means, we recommend that each society will endeavor to conduct two Mission Study classes during the year, one in the spring and one in the fall. Our Mission Study Leader will be glad to enroll your class and to give the help necessary. Be sure to report your class to her and obtain seals and certificates. Training for Leadership, the Manuals and Year Book are recommended for both Y. W. A.'s and G. A.'s; "From Strength to Strength" and "North Carolina Baptists in Kingdom Building" for Y. W. A.'s, and "The Moffats" and "A Wandering Jew in Brazil" for G. A.'s.

Very necessary to missionary and denominational information is the reading of Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields, World Comrades for G. A.'s and the Biblical Recorder. We trust that every one will subscribe to one of these, and that all three may go into many homes.

It is suggested that a committee shall be appointed in each society to secure new subscriptions and renewals in January of each year.

7. Stewardship

One object of our work is to train our young people to give to the Lord's work as He has prospered them. We urge that our leaders emphasize the importance of stewardship and tithing that our young women may know its joys in early life.

8. Contributions

In order to meet our Campaign pledges we shall have to determine now to labor without ceasing to that end during the coming year. We cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of each leader making definite plans to arouse her members to a sense of the responsibility and the need of sacrificial giving, if necessary. As new members are gained, pledges must be solicited from them, and we urge that in every church the Y. W. A. Leader see that all amounts given by the young women and girls, whether members or not, are credited to the Y. W. A. or G. A. This was the agreement made at the beginning of the campaign. The church treasurer is the one with whom to consult about this most important matter.

In order to meet our Campaign pledge it is necessary that we complete four-fifths of it during the coming year. Each association, each society and each individual needs to do this. This is most important and we urge all officers to impress it upon their members. As we gain new members we should secure pledges from them.

There are some societies who have not yet contributed to the Y. W. A. and G. A. ward in our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. Send your offering during the next two months to Miss Elsie Hunter, Treasurer, Raleigh, N. C.

Each society is asked to send during the year an amount equal to ten cents per member to the W. M. U. Treasurer for the Expense Fund.

9. Standard of Excellence and Reporting

It is hoped that during the coming year we will lay greater emphasis than ever before upon our societies attaining the Standard of Excellence, as given in the State Plan of Work for 1923-24. We urge that the counselors will take active charge of this, and in addition, that all reports be more systematically kept and sent in on time.

10. Personal Service

While more of our societies have engaged in Personal Service this past year than ever before, there are numbers who are losing the joy and uplift that comes from participation in it. Christ is our example in service for others, and we need to train our young people to follow in His footsteps. To that end we recommend the appointment of a Personal Service Chairman for each society, who will keep records and report to the State Personal Service Chairman, Mrs. Chas. E. Maddry, Raleigh. She will be glad to advise with you at any time and furnish you with the handbook on Personal Service.

11. Trained Soul-Winners

Again we urge the importance of the definite training of our girls in that highest privilege of Christian activity—soul-winning. Ask your pastor to conduct a class for your society, so that you may feel somewhat prepared for this greatest of all our Master's commands. It is hoped that our girls will take an active part in the evangelistic services of their churches.

12. Student Organizations

It is earnestly recommended that as our young girls leave home for high schools and colleges, the parents and auxiliary leaders urge them to join the Y. W. A. and G. A.'s in their schools. These have been organized now in practically all of our schools, enabling the girls to continue their training in denominational missions, and fitting them for taking up the responsibilities of the home church upon leaving college.

We urge these girls who have the privilege and inspiration of college training to realize their opportunities and responsibilities and to return to their homes determined to help lead those less fortunate into channels of greater service and usefulness.

Furthermore, we recommend that the leaders in the student organizations endeavor in every way possible to conform to the plans on Young People's and College Work, found in the W. M. U. Year Book and Y. W. A. Manual, and to follow the plan of State Y. W. A. Work as far as possible. We urge these girls as well as all other Y. W. A. and G. A. members to attend and assist in every way possible in the summer assemblies and associational meetings.

Large campaign pledges were made by our school girls, and it is urged that, as these pledges are paid through the home churches, the amounts be credited to the State Y. W. A. pledge.

With a deep appreciation of your co-operation and sympathetic prayers, and with the earnest prayer that our Father in Heaven will continue to pour out blessings upon our work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
Y. W. A. Secretary.

REPORT ON THE W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

As you listened to the greetings from our girls in our Training School in Louisville I know your hearts swelled with pride and gratitude that you have had a share in making it possible for these fine girls to be there. It is a rare privilege—a privilege for them to be called by our Heavenly Father to His service and to be trained for it in this splendid school—and also a privilege for us to have the opportunity of contributing to their expenses and to the maintenance of the school.

North Carolina has an exceedingly fine set of girls there this year. In the fall there were 22 in all, 6 Seniors and 16 Juniors. Two of the number found it impossible to keep up the work on account of ill health and had to return home, but the remaining 20 have had a splendid year and write most enthusiastically of their work, the school and its wonderful spirit, and so very appreciatively of the dear women of North Carolina who have made all this possible for them.

The young ladies enrolled there this year are: Marjorie Spence, Annie Crutchfield, Nannie Sigmon, Ozelle Gardener, Thelma Reynolds, Effie Rose, Alva Lawrence, Ella Pierce, Kate Jenkins, Cora Lee Cannon, Bertha Allen, Mozelle Breeze, Lula McGee, Aliene Johnson, Ora Cansler, Nellie Page, Cleta Naylor, Theodosia Watson, Connie Lomax and Jessie Nielson.

They will shortly go out to swell the already large number of graduates who are reapers both in the foreign fields and in those at home. Wherever we find a Training School girl we find her busy at her Father's business, diligently seeking to serve, and spreading the Spirit of the Master wherever she goes. Forty-odd of these dear girls have been at work in our own State this year, as pastors' assistants, associational and Sunday school workers, Young People's leaders, etc. So it is in all the States, and as a consequence our Baptist cause is developing wonderfully. We may well be proud and, above all, be grateful that our girls are being called for service as they are. Surely it is a sign that God looks down upon them and is pleased.

Besides the ten scholarships granted by our W. M. U., there was the one given by Mrs. Joel Layton, of Dunn; one by Mrs. Hamrick, of Thomasville, and three by associations. In addition to these scholarships, $1,775 has been given by our women for current expenses and $1,385 to the Endowment Fund.

Most of the Juniors are wanting to return next year, and already there are more applications than can be granted. Let us contribute again as generously as we can, that we may care for these volunteers. Surely we would not have one of them turned away, unable to fit herself to answer the Master's call.

It is of especial interest that four graduate nurses are in the school this year preparing themselves for Kingdom work. We look forward to the time when large numbers of these missionary nurses will be going out, ready to minister to both body and soul.

Our North Carolina girls have written of the splendid work done in the Y. W. A. circles of the school in Mission Study, and also of their great delight in having visits and talks from Mrs. W. C. James, our Union President, and Dr. John Lake, the great missionary in the leper colony in South China.

Mrs. Eager reports a most successful year for the school itself. At a beautiful commencement last year there were fifty-five graduates, seven of whom are already at work in foreign fields, and the others scattered over the homeland.

During the summer there were some special students at work in the Training School annex. Some attractive repairs were made in House Beautiful and September 19 found a house full of eager, earnest girls ready for work. Real work they have, too, heavy seminary studies, music, missionary training, experience in hospitals, Good Will Center, mothers' clubs, orphanages, Blue Bird clubs, slums, factories, home duties and various other activities. The spirit of the body, always fine, has been unusually so this year.

Much appreciation has been expressed for the fine boxes and barrels of good things sent by our societies all over the South. Let us remember the girls again next fall, especially near Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Some property adjoining the Good Will Center has been purchased and will be used as a much-needed playground.

Mrs. Eager writes, too, that "After much thought and prayerful consideration the trustees recommended that all State and Associational Scholarships be put on a loan basis, so that more young women might have the advantage of the school. Each State is asked to work out the details of the loan scholarship for itself, but it is recommended that students who receive more than $75 a month refund the loan at the rate of $75 per year. No student who goes to the foreign fields shall be required to refund the scholarships."

North Carolina women love our Training School and are justly proud of it for, truly, we cannot value it and its influence too highly. Our gifts are multiplied a thousand-fold.

Let us continue to give more abundantly of our love, our means and our prayers, and as we carry our dear House Beautiful and its previous girls before the Throne of Grace, let us pray that our Father will richly bless our school and that He will continue to touch the hearts of our North Carolina girls, and call more and more of them into His service.

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
N. C. Trustee.

Song—"Just As I Am," Miss Margaret Highsmith.

"Greetings from This Year's Training School Girls" was given by Miss Wynona Chaney, Durham.

Miss Dorothy Gower, Meredith College, Raleigh, spoke on "The Y. W. A. and the School Girl."

The next hour was given to Mission Study, a pageant, based on the Mission Study courses being presented by the Y. W. A. of the Tabernacle, Raleigh.

Prof. Chas. M. Heck, of Raleigh, gave a check to the Executive Committee, asking that it be used as the nucleus of a fund to be raised to provide a traveling missionary library for colleges. This matter was presented to the Union with the request that a fund be raised for this purpose. A collection was taken amounting to $73.20.

A memorial service for the members of the Woman's Missionary Union who have passed away during the year was held. Special tributes to Dr. Blanche J. Barrus and Mrs. J. Yates Killian were read.

"Nearer My God to Thee" was sung.

Presentation of Plan of Work. Adopted.

PLAN OF WORK, 1923-24

I. Watchword and Hymn. Watchword, "For ye serve the Lord Christ."—Col. 3:24. Hymn, "Come Women, Wide Proclaim." In addition, use watchword and hymn adopted by W. M. U. of S. B. C.

II. Ideals. The Woman's Missionary Union stands for loyalty to the fundamentals of our faith upon which our mission organization has been built up, for patriotism, prohibition, Sabbath observance, Christian Americanization, and is in sympathy with all that makes for righteousness throughout the world.

III. Prayer. 1. There shall be constant and daily communion with God upon the part of each member of our Union.

2. We will unite each morning as near the nine o'clock hour as possible in definite prayer for the work of our Woman's Missionary Union and for the coming of His Kingdom.

3. We will emphasize the place of prayer in all of our meetings asking always for the Divine blessing and guidance upon the things we are doing for His honor and glory.

4. We will follow daily the Calendar of Prayer in Royal Service, in this way getting a closer connection with the lives and work of our missionaries.

5. Special Seasons of Prayer. (1) We will observe the Week of Prayer for World Wide Missions the first week in January; (2) the Week of Prayer for Home Missions in March (or April); and (3) a Day of Prayer for State Missions in September.

IV. Bible Study. We will endeavor in every way possible to enlist all of the members of our societies not only in a daily reading but in a daily study of the Bible, using one of the many prescribed courses for this study or one chosen by the individual. "Study to show thyself approved of God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."

V. Mission Study. The value of Mission Study and the constantly increasing interest in this department of our work is recognized. Every society is asked to pursue the courses of study outlined by the W. M. Union of the Southern Baptist Convention and to have at least one Mission Study class each year, classes to follow the special seasons of prayer when practicable. Full information as to courses of study and seals and certificates can be obtained from a leaflet on Mission Study to be issued from time to time by our Mission Study Superintendent and kept on hand at W. M. U. Headquarters. Each Superintendent is asked to appoint in her association a Leader of Mission Study who shall give this department of work her special supervision and who shall arrange for its presentation at the Annual Meeting of the Association. The Leader should ask each Society to appoint a Mission Study Chairman who will keep the study courses before the women.

VI. Young People's Work. The future growth and efficiency of all of our mission work depends on the training and enlistment of the young people in our churches, and the work of our young people's organizations is today of paramount importance. Every association should have a Young People's Leader. There should be a full graded system of missionary societies in all of our churches: Sunbeam Bands for children from 3 to 9 years of age, Girls' Auxiliaries and Royal Ambassadors from 9 to 16, and Young Woman's Auxiliaries for the young women. It shall be our endeavor to organize and foster in our colleges Young Woman's Auxiliaries, and we shall co-operate in every way possible with these college organizations. Every Woman's Society is asked to foster these Junior organizations in their church to the limit of their ability.

VII. Enlistment. There are only forty thousand women enlisted in the work of the Woman's Missionary Union in our State, and it is estimated that there are nearly one hundred and fifty thousand women members of our churches. To reach these unenlisted women every society is asked to continually seek to reach those among their own church membership who are having no part in the great work of world-wide missions.

October shall be observed each year as enlistment month, and definite plans be undertaken at that time to reach these unenlisted church members. The stronger societies are asked to co-operate with their associational superintendent in her efforts to enlist the churches where there are no W. M. U. organizations, and to endeavor to aid by visiting and helping with programs near-by societies who want and need this help.

Our aim shall be a graded system of missionary societies in every church in our State and every woman and child a member of one of these societies.

VIII. Literature. We will constantly endeavor to increase the circulation of our denominational paper, the Biblical Recorder, and our mission periodicals, Home and Foreign Fields, Royal Service and World Comrades, our new magazine for young people's societies. Each year a committee shall be appointed in our societies to secure new subscriptions and renewals. January is recommended as the time for this committee to do its work.

IX. W. M. U. Training School. The Woman's Missionary Union Training School, located at Louisville, Ky., shall continue to receive our most loyal support and co-operation. Each society is asked to give a special program and a contribution to this school during the year, preferably during the summer quarter. Out of these funds we will pay our proportionate part of the Current Expense Fund of the school and provide a scholarship fund or loan fund of $2,000 in addition to the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, the Hamrick Scholarship, or any memorial scholarship that may be established. The associational scholarships are to be included in the above amount. All money secured through the Education Board is to be used for the Enlargement and Endowment Fund of the Training School.

X. Personal Service. The chief aim of all Christian work is the saving of souls, and as there are large numbers of unsaved people in our midst, all W. M. U. members are urged to help in strengthening the evangelistic efforts of their churches. It is our policy to continue to participate in a ministry of relief to the unfortunate and of comfort and cheer to the discouraged.

To do this work every association shall have an Associational Personal Service Chairman who shall urge this work in her association. Every society shall have a Personal Service Chairman who shall make a report each quarter on a blank form prepared for this purpose to the Chairman of the State Personal Service Committee, Mrs. C. E. Maddry, Raleigh, of all work done in the spirit and name of Him who said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

XI. Hospitals. Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem. We will endeavor to bring our plans for furnishing our new Hospital at Winston-Salem to completion as quickly as possible, and will continue to give this new department of work our sympathy and co-operation.

Kathleen Mallory Hospital, Laichowfu, China. Supplies will be sent as needed to this hospital where one of our own girls, Miss Alda Grayson, is superintendent, through the chairman of our White Cross work, Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, Raleigh.

XII. Annual Meetings. It shall be the policy of the Union to hold an annual session of the representatives of the various societies. Each Vice-President, except the one in whose territory the Annual Meeting will be held, shall hold a Divisional Meeting, preferably in the three months following the State Meeting. Each Associational Superintendent shall hold a meeting of the societies in her association each year. When the associations cover a large territory, union meetings are advised and have proved most helpful.

XIII. Summer Assemblies.

The Morehead City Assembly, June 24-July 1;
The Mars Hill Assembly, July 31-August 9.

The Union will conduct at these assemblies a W. M. U. period, a mission study class being taught at the hour assigned or an inspirational address given.

XIV. Standard of Excellence. The Standards of Excellence adopted by the W. M. U. of the S. B. Convention for all grades of our organizations is the measuring rod by which we measure the efficiency of the individual society and the efficiency of our State W. M. Union.

Report blanks are sent once each year to each society with the ten points on this Standard. It is most important that these blanks be returned promptly to the W. M. U. office, and it is just as important to have a report of the societies that made C and D as it is to have those that make A and B.

1. <sup>1</sup>At least twelve regular meetings a year, with a devotional service and a definite missionary program, preferably one each month.

2. An increase in active membership during the year of at least 10 per cent of the number enrolled at the beginning of the year until all eligible members are enlisted.

3. Meeting Campaign pledges.

4. Regular reports to State officers, according to the plan outlined by the State.

5. <sup>2</sup>One of the denominational periodicals subscribed for in at least one-half of the homes represented in the Missionary Society, the ultimate aim being one in every home.

6. <sup>3</sup>Observance of the special seasons of prayer and gifts for State, Home and Foreign Missions.

7. <sup>4</sup>At least one Mission Study Reading Circle or, preferably, a Mission Study Class during the year.

8. <sup>5</sup>Some definite, organized personal service for the spiritual uplift of the local community, conducted by the members of the society under its oversight.

9. An average attendance of at least one-half of the active membership at the twelve meetings.

isterial Relief and Annuity Board, Bible Fund of the Sunday School Board, our Orphanage and Hospitals, and for our W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky.

Our pledge to the Campaign was $2,167,000. Our quota was $1,100,000. We have paid the quota but we are far short of our voluntary pledge. That we may meet this pledge it is essential that we emphasize the principles of Stewardship and the practice of Tithing on the part of our constituency. We look to each association for the redemption of its pledge. The association must look to the society and the society to the individual members. A Stewardship Chairman is recommended to each society, this chairman to constantly endeavor to increase the number of tithers in her society.

The society treasurer shall secure from the church treasurer each quarter a statement of all Campaign payments made by the non-affiliating women and young people of the church and include this amount in the quarterly report.

The Associational Superintendent is asked to keep in touch with churches that have no Woman's Missionary Union work, urging that payment of Campaign pledges by the women and young people be reported to the Woman's Missionary Union Treasurer.

Expense Fund. Each society is asked to send an amount equal to ten cents per member to the W. M. U. Treasurer for an Expense Fund. One thousand eight hundred dollars is the amount needed for this fund this year.

All funds for the W. M. U. Training School and the Expense Fund are to be sent direct to the Woman's Missionary Union Treasurer, Miss Elsie K. Hunter; funds for all other Campaign objects to be sent through the church treasurer to Mr. Walters Durham, Treasurer of the Baptist State Convention. Report blanks are sent to the society treasurers each quarter. These report blanks are to be signed by the church treasurer when Campaign money is paid to him, or paid through the church collection, and the society treasurer is to forward these signed reports each quarter to the W. M. U. Treasurer, who makes her financial records from these signed reports.

75-MILLION CAMPAIGN

It is with grateful hearts that we come before you, realizing that though there have been times of discouragement, when our faith has wavered, yet our women have come to the front so nobly and thereby have gained a blessing themselves.

We, as your committee, make the following recommendations:

1. That we urge the continued study of stewardship, realizing that all we have belongs to God and that we must be faithful to the trust that is placed upon us.

2. That we urge the further enlistment of all our women; that special effort be centered upon those who did not pledge to the Campaign; upon new members, helping them to catch a vision of greater things; and upon those who may be able to enlarge their pledges because of prosperity.

3. That while necessarily thinking of the money, we may realize that this is a means toward an end, the real aim being the saving of many, many precious souls for the Master's use.

Therefore let us pray that God may help us to grow in grace and knowledge and that this Campaign may be only the beginning of greater and greater things in the years to come.

W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

The Committee on the W. M. U. Training School, after prayerful consideration, submits the following recommendations:

1. That we endeavor to deepen the interest of our girls and women in our Training School by bringing the subject constantly before them, and wherever possible securing a Training School girl to address our young women, especially at our associational meetings.

2. That we, as W. M. U. workers, prayerfully seek the highest type of young womanhood as Training School students, and solicit only those divinely called.

3. That we encourage and, when necessary, help those who are called to definite Christian service to secure a college education before entering our Training School.

4. That we pray more earnestly for our Training School girls who are now engaged in active mission work all over the world, and also for those who are now in training in House Beautiful.

5. That we be much in prayer that God will lead more of our consecrated capable young women into special service in the needy sections of our State, and that we shall have a deeper sense of our responsibility in providing for them while in our midst.

6. That our churches and associations strive more earnestly to provide scholarships, thus making it possible to have a greater number of representatives in our Training School.

The report on Personal Service was presented by Mrs. W. R. Gilmore, Sanford. Adopted.

PERSONAL SERVICE

The growth of regular organized personal service during the past year has been phenomenal. More of our societies have engaged in and reported their work than ever before. Yet we realize that so many of our societies are failing to engage in definite organized personal service and thereby losing the joy and uplift that comes from actively participating in this great department of our Union's work. We, as your committee, make the following recommendations:

1. That the societies give themselves unto God and earnestly pray that they may see the opportunity for service in their own communities.

2. That a Personal Service Chairman be appointed in each society, who, with her committee, shall bring comfort and cheer and point out work to be done, and urge their members to be faithful stewards of time, energy and money.

3. That our young people be encouraged to undertake regular, organized personal service, and their leaders plan for such work frequently.

4. That Goodwill Centers be established, especially in large cities.

5. That special emphasis be placed on the conducting of mission Sunday schools, fostering mission work among negroes, prisoners, visits to hospitals, furnishing and equipping the new hospital at Winston-Salem, administering to the ex-service men at Oteen, holding cottage prayer meetings with the aged and shut-ins, and emphasizing the winning of the unsaved in our midst.

Only thus will we realize the deep joy and marvelous experience which comes to those who serve in the Master's name.

THURSDAY EVENING

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. W. C. James, Birmingham.

Four of our missionaries who were at home on furlough spoke at this session, each telling of the work in her particular field of labor: Mrs. Minnie M. Anderson, China; Miss Cora Caudle, Africa; Mrs. D. W. Herring, China; Mrs. M. L. Braun, China.

Our Service Flag was presented by Mrs. W. N. Jones, the name and station of our new missionaries for the year being given.

The Committee on Resolutions, Mrs. John R. Carroll, Winterville, Chairman, presented its report in appreciation of the hospitality of Durham and all that had been done to make our meeting a success.

RESOLUTIONS

We, the visitors and delegates to the 33d Annual Meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the city of Durham, and to the W. M. U. City Council for the many, many kindnesses extended to us during our stay in your city.

First, to the General Chairman of all committees, Mrs. H. F. Brinson, President of the Council, in planning so wonderfully well for all our needs, and to Mrs. C. L. Haywood, Chairman of the hospitality committee, whose untiring efforts have made us feel and know that we were truly in a city noted for its hospitality. Also we wish to express our appreciation to the transportation, welcoming, publicity, and registration committees for giving us such a hearty welcome, registering and conveying us to our homes and over the city. To the decoration committee for brightening up the rooms with such lovely flowers and ferns; to the postoffice and information committee who gave us the news from back home and any other information we desired; to the rest room and badge committee, and to the Chamber of Commerce for the pretty buttons used with the badges, we want to say thank you.

Deserving special mention is the music committee who has given us such splendid music, and especially to Miss Margaret Highsmith do we express our thanks for the lovely songs she sang for us. We deeply appreciate the courtesy shown to us by the pastors and laymen of this place who have helped make our meeting and stay much more pleasant; to the railroad officials and daily papers, especially the Morning Herald, for their splendid co-operation; to the many merchants who so kindly included a welcome to the delegates in their advertising space in the newspapers; to Mr. M. E. Newsom, manager of the Durham Book and Stationery Company for the beautiful post cards handed to us; to the Fidelity Bank and the Home Savings Bank for the hundreds of pencils sharpened ready for use and delivered to us; to the Seeman Printery and J. T. Christian for all note pads; to the Virginia Life Insurance Co. for the supply of cook books given us; to the Beauxart Shop for lounging room; the First Presbyterian Church for rest rooms, and to Trinity College for opening its doors to us; and for the courtesy shown us in every way by all the people, we wish to thank you one and all.

For such wonderful messages as have come to us from Drs. Wall, Vann, and James we are truly grateful. We each consider it a special privilege to hear our beloved Mrs. W. C. James; her messages are always full of information and inspiration, but it can be truly said of this time, the "last was the best."

Miss Margaret Frost's address, "A Mighty Movement and Its Growth" will last in our memories. We enjoyed the Sunbeam, G. A. and R. A. pageants to the fullest extent.

For the nourishing lunches served by the luncheon committee at the Malbourne, Martha Washington, Lochmoor, and Y. W. C. A., we return thanks. The ride to Chapel Hill was enjoyed and appreciated by every one. We appreciated having so many of our Training School girls and missionaries present and speaking to us.

We have had many mountain-top experiences and received many blessings that we shall carry back to our homes and consider sacred. Therefore, be it resolved

1. That these resolutions be a means of expressing our gratitude.

2. That a copy be spread upon our Union minutes and a copy be sent to the Morning Herald.

DR. BLANCHE JOSEPHINE BARRUS

November 23, 1922

The Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, that for five years grew under the ministry of Blanche J. Barrus as their Corresponding Secretary, the Baptist women of the Northern Board who were to send her out as their medical missionary, and unknowing and uncounted women of India who were waiting for her healing skill, unite in mourning her death. Few people have reached so wide a circle in so short a life. Few indeed have touched life with such charm of personality, such joyous abnegation, such compassionate service.

She graduated from Meredith College in May, 1910, having made a fine record as a student, and having won, by her winsome personality and unselfish spirit, the love and appreciation of the entire student-body and faculty. The following year, June, 1911, she entered the work of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention, as Corresponding Secretary. Through her letters and her travels over the State, visiting churches and associations, she made lasting friendships. Of a singularly unselfish disposition, she gave herself in service to all with whom she came in contact. The work of the Union enlarged and prospered under the faithful and loving service, and through the years the influence of her work will remain and her memory be an inspiration to larger service to many lives that were touched by hers in the busy years.

She resigned her position in 1916 to begin her preparation for work as a medical missionary, a purpose that had guided her life since her early school days. In the Woman's Medical College as student, and in the Philadelphia General Hospital as interne, she won the highest honors and made for herself a place in the affections of the faculty and medical staff such as no other student and interne had obtained. Their hearts ached that their best skill could not stay the malady that overtook her in the last year of work for her full medical degree.

A friend has written: "Her struggle for larger preparation was a heroic masterpiece. She spent herself, not that she might glory or profit by the final triumph at the top of the hill, but that she might the better give out life and light to others.

"As she looked out into the busy world, she saw not what her wonderful talents would bring her, but how much of self she could give.

"Her adaptability was wonderful. With the most refined she moved as gracefully as a pine tree bowing before the south wind, and with the uncultured she was a welcome angel, loved and respected.

"She was beautiful without vanity; learned, without conceit; cultured, without pride; and a Christian in the fullness of faith and love."

In the midst of life, with all that it promised, she has been called Home; her radiant personality, her brilliant intellect, and the loving spirit that gave herself unsparingly to meet the needs of activity, where, who can doubt, life's powers shall find full fruition. Hers was true greatness—great in purpose, great in sacrificial service, and great in the triumphant faith that conquered in the hour of death.

MARY APPLEWHITE KILLIAN

January 12, 1923

A great loss has been sustained by the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina in the death of Mary Applewhite Killian, wife of Mr. John Yates Killian, of Newton, N. C.

For sixteen years Mrs. Killian has been actively connected with the work of the Executive Committee of the State W. M. U. She was elected the first State Secretary of Young Women's Mission Societies at the Annual Session in Durham, April 1906, and held this position until her resignation at the meeting in Monroe, March 1912. During these six years she built up the work of the young women from scattered societies of various names to a strong working force under the name of Young Woman's Auxiliaries.

She accepted this office while a teacher in Greensboro, and carried on the work after becoming a member of the faculty at Meredith College, adding these duties without remuneration to the exacting duties of teaching. Her influence at Meredith was felt by all the students, and she was a pioneer in working up Mission Study among the girls.

After her marriage and removal to Newton, her interest in the work of the W. M. U. continued unabated. For years she has been Superintendent of the South Fork Association and received the banner in 1922 for the best associational work in the State. When in 1922 the North Carolina Baptist Convention, for the first time in its history, elected women to serve on the State Board, Mrs. Killian was one of the three chosen.

For all of the duties entrusted to her she was a conscientious, careful worker. Her calm dignity and affectionate friendliness made her felt in any gathering. In her own home she was at her best. With an unusual gift for home-making, she gave herself in unmeasured devotion to her husband, her little daughter, and to others dependent upon her in the home.

From our human standpoint, so useful and beloved a woman can ill be spared from her home, community and State. Yet, "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts." Isa. 55:8-9.

Looking unto our Heavenly Father with trust in His all wisdom and conscious of His all love, we, the Executive Committee of the Women's Missionary Union of North Carolina, would request that this memorial be adopted by the State W. M. U. in next Annual Session, be published in the Minutes, and sent with deep sympathy to the bereaved husband and daughter.

March 28, 1872, Mary Applewhite Killian was born. She brought joy into her parental home, pleasure to her instructors in school, honors to her Alma Mater, and excelsior was written across her record as a Christian worker.

We thank God for her life—for the six years of Y. W. A. Leadership in North Carolina, for her influence as teacher in Meredith College and the State Normal, but most of all for the noble example of daily service for Christ, our Saviour. May the mantle of the mother fall upon the daughter. Thrice blessed is the child whom God has honored with such a mother. The closing years of Mrs. Killian's life centered in the work of her own association. Many of us remember her face last year at Charlotte when she won the "State Banner." Victory was hers at our last Annual Meeting, and victory is hers today. In behalf of our Charlotte Division, I present in her memory our victory colors in flowers; in behalf of the W. M. U. of North Carolina, our State colors, white and gold.

After the victory then cometh the white robe of righteousness and golden crown of glory.

All sin and sickness, pain and care
I'll leave behind when I go there.
In Jesus home I'll happy be
Throughout that long eternity.
Hallelujah! praise His name
For the home he's prepared for me.
Hallelujah!

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
THIRTY-FOURTH ANNUAL SESSION

GOLDSBORO, N. C., April 1, 1924.

The thirty-fourth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union was held in the First Church, Goldsboro, April 1-3, 1924. The opening session was held Tuesday evening, April 1, Dr. Zeno Wall, of Goldsboro, presiding and conducting devotional services. The sermon of the evening was preached by Rev. Samuel J. Porter, D. D., of Durham; text, Revelation 12:1; subject, "The Woman Resplendent."

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 2

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. W. N. Jones. Devotional exercises were led by Mrs. John Carroll, of Winterville, who read the eighth chapter of Romans, showing that to be filled with the spirit of Christ is a debt required of us. This was followed by a short earnest prayer that we may enthrone Christ in our lives. The hymn "Holy Ghost with Light Divine" was sung.

The address of welcome was given by Mrs. Zeno Wall, of Goldsboro. Response to the address of welcome was given by Mrs. W. J. Brogden, of Durham.

On motion of Miss Elsie K. Hunter, the calling of the roll was dispensed with and those whose registration cards were deposited with the secretary up to that time were recognized as constituting the organization.

On motion of Mrs. R. N. Simms, the program prepared and in the hands of the delegates was made the order of the meeting.

Miss Mary Warren made a motion that a telegram of love and regret be sent to Mrs. J. D. Boushall, Raleigh, our Recording Secretary, and to Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, Nashville, Superintendent of Roanoke Association, both of whom were kept away on account of illness. Carried.

Miss Mary Warren, Corresponding Secretary and Mission Study Superintendent, read her report which was adopted.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

1923-1924

For the third time we have assembled in this city for our Annual Meeting. As we glance back over the minutes of that memorable meeting in 1891, then again sixteen years later, we realize that the Lord has blessed our efforts in His name far more than we had faith to expect.

It is with a high heart and with great joy and thanksgiving to God that we come with our report this year. We come with a high heart because God has been with us to bless and lead us to great achievements; with joy because we have been enabled to be used by Him, and with thanksgiving for His manifold blessings and privileges to us.

This year every phase of our work has gone forward. What has been accomplished is the result of your loyalty, of your prayers, and of God's favor.

Campaign—Interest in the 75 Million Campaign has steadily increased. The special Day of Prayer January 16, called by the State Convention while in session in Gastonia, was generally observed. The W. M. U. Directors have been and are rendering valuable service. Since the Campaign was launched, there has been reported to the office $1,418,173.21. We have exceeded our quota by $318,173.20. With thankful hearts for the past let us remember that if we meet our large voluntary pledge of $2,167,135.00 every woman must do her best to meet her individual and society pledge by November 30.

Associations—The work of the Associations has been for the most part encouraging, and the Superintendents have continued their faithful efforts to bring the societies to a higher degree of efficiency. The Eastern, Gaston, King's Mountain, Piedmont, and Pilot Mountain have each made nine points on the Standard. The Superintendents' reports reveal the following facts: Fifty-one associations held annual meetings at which 1,052 societies were represented. The Superintendents traveled 21,275 miles in carrying on their work, wrote 14,347 letters and postals. Of the 58 full graded Unions, the Mount Zion leads with nine; Eastern and West Chowan follow with six each. The Eastern and Flat River Associations led all the others in organizing new societies with 20 each. Kings Mountain follows with 16.

Organizations—This year 282 new societies were organized. Of this number there were 92 W. M. S.; 28 Y. W. A.; 43 G. A.; 36 R. A.; and 83 Sunbeams. By a careful checking of the mailing list several societies were dropped because they had not reported during the year. The total number of active societies now on roll is 2,281.

Societies Reporting—The number of societies reporting during the year was 1,989, an increase of 186 over last year. Nine hundred three societies reported every quarter which exceeds the number reporting every quarter last year by 82.

Seasons of Prayer—The prayer life of our women has been deepened and they realize as never before the need of united prayer. The number of societies that observed the three seasons of prayer is 365. Of this number 219 observed the week of prayer for Foreign Missions, 231 for Home Missions and 262 for State Missions. Many letters came to the office telling of the large attendance, increase in gifts and a great spiritual warmth at these meetings.

Standard of Excellence—The number of societies graded as A-1 is as follows: 57 W. M. S.; 16 Y. W. A.; 13 G. A.; 6 R. A.; 26 Sunbeams; total, 118. Those graded as Class B are: 115 W. M. S.; 22 Y. W. A.; 4 G. A.; 2 R. A.; 115 Sunbeams; total, 258. In Class C there were 76 W. M. S.; 12 Y. W. A.; 21 G. A.; 3 R. A.; 27 Sunbeams; total, 133. In Class D there were 46 W. M. S.; 9 Y. W. A.; 21 G. A.; 9 R. A.; 29 Sunbeams; total, 114. The number of Standard Societies that made four points and more is 623 which is an increase over last year of 36 A-1 and 221 Standard Societies.

Southern Union Representatives—We were indeed fortunate in having the visits of Misses Blanche Sydnor White and Juliette Mather during the year. In the interest of the Campaign Miss White piloted by the Secretary, made a tour through our State, visited 11 cities, beginning in Asheville and leaving in Lumberton. Again in the fall she made six associational meetings. It was delightful to be a traveling companion with Miss Mather to ten of our splendid schools and colleges during those lovely fall days. The influence of these two consecrated workers is still having its telling effects on our work.

The Heck Library—Another interesting feature of our year's work is the establishment of the Heck Library, a splendid collection of 45 books placed in an attractive book case fitted for the purpose, which has been sent with rules and regulations to Mars Hill College. It will remain there through the summer months, and will be shipped to other schools, express prepaid, in the order that requests are made.

Field Work—The officers attended four of the Divisional Meetings, thirty-seven associational meetings, visited ten schools and colleges and attended associational rallies where possible. They traveled 11,453 miles, made 80 talks, and attended 52 meetings.

Assemblies—The Union was represented at the Morehead City Assembly in June by Mrs. Minnie Middleton Anderson who taught "Southern Baptists and their Far Eastern Missions." At the Mars Hill Assembly, July 31-August 9, the Secretary taught "Decade in W. M. U. Service." A great interest was manifested at both of these and the prospects are far still greater this year.

Periodicals—In order to be an intelligent Baptist one must give heed to reading our denominational periodicals. The total number of subscriptions to our magazines is 11,934.

Tithers—The number of tithers reported for the year is 3,195. South Fork leads the list with 400; Piedmont follows with 316.

Contributions—The most noticeable progress during the year is that of contributions. This year we have surpassed any of the previous years in the history of our Union. While we did not reach our aim for the year, yet our hearts are filled with inexpressible joy for we believe that this large amount is the result of sacrifice and a greater love for our Master. The contributions for the past year amounted to $325,392.12. This exceeds the amount of last year by $19,639.23, and is nearly $10,000.00 more than the contributions of any previous year. The Charlotte Division has surrendered its place in standing first in gifts to the Greensboro Division, its contribution being $97,475.15. Mount Zion led all other associations with $27,913.27; Piedmont followed close with $27,820.28. The First Church Asheville stands at the head of the list in contributions. The W. M. S. gave $8,845.93; the full graded Union gave $9,224.70. The W. M. S. of the First Church of Reidsville follows with $8,678.19; Raleigh First holds third place with $6,525.49.

A Closing Word—The past has been glorious, the future is before us, the present is ours to improve. Let us seek to strengthen some of our weak places which are: First, Enlistment—not quite one-fourth of the women in our churches are enlisted in our societies; second, every W. M. S. should mother at least one of the junior organizations; third, each society should have as its goal the highest grade of efficiency.

With the inspiration of the past achievements may we press on to the prize of the high calling which is Jesus Christ our Lord whom we serve!

Respectfully submitted,

MARY WARREN,
Corresponding Secretary.

This was the best report ever made by the Union, and a motion was made by Mrs. H. M. Finch, of Rocky Mount, that we adopt it with a rising vote.

Mrs. W. N. Jones, President, in an effective way told something of the wonderful growth of our work as a Union, giving God the glory and honor for the heights attained, showing that with God as our Leader, all things are possible.

The report of the Young Woman's Auxiliaries was presented by Mrs. R. N. Simms, Y. W. A. Secretary, who at this time offered her resignation. A motion was made by Mrs. C. L. Haywood, of Durham, that we accept this report, with her resignation, extending to Mrs. Simms a rising vote of thanks for her efficient work as Y. W. A. Leader.

Y. W. A. AND G. A. REPORT, 1923-24

As I began to prepare this report to present to you, my heart was filled with conflicting emotions—sadness that this would be the last report of Y. W. A. and G. A. Work that I would have the privilege of bringing you, great joy that at last my dream of several years, an all-time Young People's Leader is about to be realized, and thankfulness that I have been permitted to have a share in the work during these past six momentous years. It has been a joy to render what service I could during these years, but the demands upon my time by my children have made it impossible for me to longer continue as leader of this rapidly expanding work.

I'm sure you will be interested in looking back with me over these years of our girls' cause. Six years ago our Y. W. and G. A. societies numbered 249 and this year we have 468 to report. Two hundred nineteen new ones have been organized during this time. Our contributions at that time amounted to $6,086.15, while to this convention we rejoice to report $34,301.63, an increase of $28,215.48. For the past two years our Y. W. A's have led the Y. W. A's of the South in contributions and we hope this may be so this year also. None were reported as having attained the standard in contrast to 116 this year, and there was no report on mission study, though we know some was being done. So in all phases of our work we could note a like increase. The impetus of the 75 Million Campaign has done marvelous things for them as well as for our other societies. This I know rejoices your hearts for it shows that our Heavenly Father has blessed and multiplied the efforts of our young women, and that He is blessing and developing these girls of today into worthy leaders of tomorrow. I know you will join with me in prayer for even greater increase and blessing upon the years that are to come.

As we study the reports of this year we are impressed with the fact that this past year has been one of intensive development and strengthening of the life of each society rather than the effort to organize new societies. Everywhere we see evidences of greater power and we are bound to realize that this will mean larger future development. A larger number of societies have reported every quarter, more mission study has been done, there are more societies on the "Standard of Excellence" and the average gift per society is larger although the total is smaller for the Y. W. A's.

In this report I desire to mention first, as I did last year, the fact that God's blessing upon our young people is being shown by the way in which He is calling them into His service. We rejoice that they are answering His call and crowding our Training School to its capacity. We trust that more and more may this be true.

Bible Study and Mission Study

We feel sure that the Union's program of systematic and daily Bible study and mission study has been largely responsible for this. Our Mission Study Secretary has stressed this department constantly and very fine work has been done by many of our local and college auxiliaries. Most interesting books have been studied, thrilling the girls with a desire to help carry the gospel to those in need and to be co-laborers with the great missionaries now there and with those who have paved the way. We want to see every Y. W. A. and G. A. girl in mission study classes at least twice a year. Last year we thought the Y. W. A's were doing wonderfully well with 320 certificates, 490 seals, 25 reading cards and 25 stamps. This year we rejoice that they report 549 certificates, 758 seals, 56 reading cards and 85 stamps. The G. A's make a fine increase with 253 certificates against 124; 363 seals against 162; 141 reading cards against 102 and 242 stamps against 172. Eight official seals have been won by Y. W. A. girls this year.

Contributions

You are eager, I'm sure, to know just how that sum of $34,301.63 is divided between the Y. W. A's and G. A.'s. The Y. W. A's contributed $28,089.61 and the G. A's $6,212.02. One hundred ninety-two Y. W. A's and 198 G. A's contributed these sums, making an average of $146 for the Y. W. A's and $31 for the G. A's.

For several years Rockingham and Greensboro raced for the leadership of the State in Y. W. A. gifts. Greensboro First, leads this year again, giving $1,646.34. Durham Temple and Winston-Salem Brown Memorial are very close for the second place, Brown Memorial winning by 51 cents—her gift being $1,331.51 over Durham Temple's $1,331. Winston-Salem First, comes third with $1,118.16, while Rockingham and Eliza Yates, Raleigh, gave $987.66 and $870.40 respectively. In the $600 class this year we have the Raleigh Tabernacle, Spring Hill, Wadesboro and High Point. We wish that time and space permitted the mention of many others who deserve honorable mention.

The honor of leading the G. A's goes again to Winston Brown Memorial with a contribution of $377.64, while Winston-Salem First, comes next with $363.12. Clayton holds third place with $279.81 to her credit.

In Y. W. A. and G. A. contributions the Charlotte Division leads the State with $2,209.07 from the G. A's and $10,693.81 from the Y. W. A's. The Greensboro Division comes second with $9,184.30 for the Y. W. A's and $1,802.74 for the G. A's.

Interest always centers around which association will lead. Last year the Pilot Mountain had that honor of leading Y. W. A's but this year the Mt. Zion wins out, with $3,447.51 to her credit. The Piedmont is second with $3,121.98 and Pilot Mountain third. The Pilot Mountain G. A's hold the banner for the third time, giving this year $978.23. Mt. Zion follows with $441.49 and Buncombe, Sandy Run and Piedmont all gave $300.00.

New Societies

This past year the G. A's have led in the organization of new societies. They have 43 new ones and the Y. W. A's have 28. The Chowan Association leads the Y. W. A's with three new ones reported, while the Eastern heads the G. A. list with six to her credit. The Raleigh G. A's follow closely with five and Sandy Creek, Central and West Chowan with four each.

Standard of Excellence and Reporting

There has been a splendid growth in the number of societies who have reported their standing on the Standard of Excellence.

For the Y. W. A's there are 16 A-1 societies; 22 Class B; 12 Class C; and 9 Class D. There is a fine increase for the G. A's too—13 A-1; 4 Class B; 21 Class C; and 21 Class D.

These records which show the intensive development of the individual society are very gratifying for it means better prepared girls and work of a higher nature accomplished. All through the coming year let us not fail to urge systematic efforts to attain the standard, and be sure to report what is done.

Seventy-six Y. W. A's reported every quarter and 64 G. A's. Last year there were 70 Y. W. A's and 56 G. A's. Can't we have every society reporting every quarter?

Personal Service

So many of our auxiliaries are doing fine personal service work who never report it. We hope that hereafter you will report your personal service work each month to your personal service chairman, who will in turn see that it is reported each quarter. This year 44 Y. W. A's and 41 G. A's are reporting their personal service work and are getting great joy from what they are doing. It embraces visits to sick and shut-ins, trays, flowers, hospital, Orphanage, penitentiary and jail work, service in song and many other things. A Lumber always enjoy the White Cross Work, and a great many have contributed toward our Y. W. A. and G. A. work in our Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem.

Student Organizations

We rejoice to report that increasingly good work has been done this year by our Student Organizations. Last year we led the South in the number of Students' Societies on the Honor Roll, at the S. B. C. There are no finer auxiliaries in the state than those at Meredith, Oxford, Chowan, Mars Hill and Fruitland. They have consecrated, capable leaders, and unusually fine officers, who prepare splendid programs and do everything possible to care for the religious life of the girls. That they are being trained for W. M. U. service is shown by the fact that when they go home they are leaders, and God is calling many of them into definite Christian service. Last fall we had the privilege of having Miss Mather spend ten days with Miss Warren visiting our schools.

These student societies have had fine mission study classes also.

Fruitland leads this year in the number of seals, winning 108. Chowan comes next with 105 seals and Meredith third with 84, Wingate with 22. All made fine records. Fruitland and Chowan had every girl in school in mission study classes three times during the year and Chowan twice. At Meredith there were five classes at one time. Haywood, Mars Hill and Buies Creek have all reported some mission study, too.

At the recent Student Conference held in Raleigh for Virginia, South Carolina and North Carolina, there were quite a number of Y. W. A. girls among the delegates. It was especially gratifying that at the Y. W. A. dinner, held during the Conference, there were a larger number of the North Carolina delegates present than from the other States. It was gratifying to feel that our Y. W. A. girls were being chosen to come to this important meeting, and also gratifying that they are ever loyal in their attendance on any Y. W. A. function.

We cannot stress too much the importance of our school girls being trained in denominational missions and we trust our schools and leaders will everywhere foster their development.

During the past year there has been an unusually large correspondence with our leaders and girls. It has been gratifying to note that there have come practically no complaints about how hard the work is, but over and over the expressed desire to be of greater service, a better leader, an A-1 society, the seeking of information as to how to succeed. Besides this correspondence with individuals, there has been the usual preparation of the quarterly letters and also a special letter to the Associational Y. W. A. Leaders and to the student auxiliaries.

In the summer a second playlet on State Missions was prepared for the girls to use in their State Mission programs.

It was again a pleasure to be of some assistance to the Meredith Y. W. A. in planning for their Mission Study classes. They had four this year—three taught by members of our Executive Committee and each using a separate book.

When I think of the part I have had in Y. W. A. and G. A. history during these past years it is with a deep consciousness of several things— first the small amount of time I have been able to give compared to the great love and desire for the cause in my heart; and second, an overwhelming sense of God's power and goodness in taking the small gift of self, and by His wonderful power using it as He has to His glory. Even though our service is small let us realize that His power to use it is beyond our understanding. Let no one stand back because she feels she can't give largely.

And now as we set our faces toward a new era in Y. W. A. and G. A. history—an era of greater opportunities and possibilities, let us determine that as heretofore we will be worthy followers of our King.

Working, abiding, trusting always that as we give sacrificially of ourselves and our substance, no matter how small that gift may be in our own sight, God has the power to bless it and use it abundantly.

Let us not only reconsecrate ourselves to His service anew but let us be much in prayer for our new Young People's Leader, and pledge our most loyal coöperation and support.

As she comes with all her time and thoughts ready to be used for the good of our North Carolina Young People, and with her heart, we are sure, burning with love for service and a desire to be used, we can look out into the future years and catch a great vision of what is to come. Let us not falter, but with a high courage plan great things, and go forward with the faith to accomplish. It is a great time in our history. Let us meet it worthily, counting it high honor to live in "a time on ages telling" when "to be living is sublime."

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
Y. W. A. and G. A. Secretary.

Mrs. T. M. Pittman of Henderson, Junior Superintendent, gave her report of Sunbeam and R. A. work and offered her resignation. In accepting her report and resignation, the Union, on motion made by Mrs. G. T. Lumpkin, of Winston-Salem, gave a rising vote of thanks and the chautauqua salute to Mrs. Pittman for her untiring efforts and efficient service through twenty-seven years. It is with regret that we accept her resignation.

REPORT OF JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT

Seventeen years ago we met in our Annual Session here in Goldsboro. At that time there were 142 Sunbeam Bands reporting with a total contribution of $1,788.42. We compare these figures with those of today and find 687 Bands, 85 of which are new this year, and a separate organization of the boys with 159 Chapters, 36 having been organized since our last meeting. So the total number of Junior societies, not including the Girls' Auxiliaries, is 846.

In contributions the growth is even more wonderful. We have this year $12,637.45 from the Sunbeams and $3,174.55 from the Royal Ambassadors, a total of $15,812.00 against $1,788.42 in 1907. Again we can report that our Sunbeams led those of the Southern Baptist Convention in gifts.

These amounts bring our Sunbeams within $4,000.00 of their total pledge of $69,000.00 for the 75 Million Campaign. We feel sure that the first two quarters of the present year will see this amount in the treasury and the children will have the joy, not merely of meeting their apportionment, but of reaching their full pledge.

Up to the time of the Campaign the Sunbeams had given some $60,000.00. During the five years of the Campaign they have contributed $65,000.00—more in five years than in the twenty-eight since their date of organization. Surely these figures must dispel all doubts in our minds as to the success of the Campaign. They furnish us with new standards of what the children can give.

The Royal Ambassadors lack some $6,000.00 of their pledge. This is probably due to the fact that the amounts given by the boys in the churches have not been reported to us, though their pledges were.

In Standard societies, the Sunbeams have gone from 97 last year to 197 this year; the R. A's from 13 to 20. In mission study the Sunbeams have received certificates, seals, reading cards and stamps to the number of 3,648 against 1,645 last year. The Royal Ambassadors have gone to 231 against 39. Truly these are indications that our work with the boys and children is growing more stable and more educational.

In the Associations leading in new organizations there are the West Chowan and Eastern, each with four new R. A. Chapters; the Flat River has ten new Bands, and the Cumberland eight.

In contributions from the Sunbeams, four associations report more than a thousand dollars—the Roanoke, West Chowan, Pilot Mountain, and Piedmont. Three associations report more than four hundred dollars from the Royal Ambassadors—the Mt. Zion, West Chowan and Piedmont.

Sunbeam Bands leading in contributions are: Ashboro Street, Greensboro, $704.36; Rocky Mount, First, $556.23; Hickory, $229.59; Brown Memorial, $222.87; Lumberton, $220.92; Ahoskie, $203.80. Twenty-two Bands gave more than one hundred dollars each.

Eight R. A. Chapters passed the hundred dollar mark—Lumberton, $274.53; Brown Memorial, $201.14; Clayton, $183.16; Asheboro Street, Greensboro, $167.00; Hickory, $120.48; Greensboro, First, $118.95; High Point, $108.80; Mt. Olive, $100.00.

Gifts by Divisions from the Sunbeams are as follows: First, Charlotte Division; Second, Elizabeth City Division; Third, Greensboro Division; Fourth, Wilmington Division; Fifth, Asheville Division. For the Royal Ambassadors they are: First, Greensboro; Second, Wilmington; Third, Elizabeth City; Fourth, Charlotte; Fifth, Asheville.

Your Junior Superintendent has had the privilege of attending seven associational meetings this year—the Montgomery, Yadkin, Beulah, Surry, South Yadkin, Liberty and Pilot Mountain; also, the Divisional Meeting in Asheville, the Baptist State Convention and seven special meetings; miles traveled, 2,580, received from Expense Fund $50.88. In all of these meetings the strong impression was received of the information the women have in regard to the work of the Woman's Missionary Union, of their expanding and deepening interest in it, and of their loyalty to its plans and purposes.

Strong in the accepted laws of childhood is the rule that no child ought to remain too long leader of the game or in the center of the ring. For twenty-seven years you have allowed me to hold this position in our children's mission work. In your loyal devotion to the success of the work, you have joined hands about me and have given untiring effort to carry out the plans and suggestions offered. It is only fair now that you let me join hands with you as a leader of a local Band and that another be chosen to direct us in our united service. When offering my resignation to the Executive Committee last December, I felt that I was only stepping from one place in the work to another and that my heart would always be as truly in it. Let us rejoice together that our work has grown so that it needs an officer who can put her whole time into it, and let us unite in offering to her our steadfast allegiance.

Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.

ELIZABETH BRIGGS PITTMAN,
Junior Superintendent.

The W. M. U. Banner was presented by Miss Mary Warren to the Association which had done the best all-round work during the past year. The Piedmont Association, Miss Mollie Patterson, Superintendent, won this honor. Miss Patterson being absent on account of sickness, Mrs. B. K. Mason, of Greensboro, accepted the banner for the Association. On motion by Mrs. Clyde Turner, of Greensboro, the Secretary was authorized to send a message of sympathy and congratulations to Miss Patterson.

A song, "Thou Wilt Keep Him In Perfect Peace," by Miss Pauline Patton, of Morganton.

The President, Mrs. W. N. Jones, delivered her annual address: "The Conquering Hosts."

THE CONQUERING HOSTS

The biblical account of Jacob's vision, from which I get my subject, is brief. "And Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. And when Jacob saw them, he said, This is God's host; and he called the name of that place Mahanain" i. e., two camps. What a picture this brings to us, the man weary, heart-sick, returning after years of toil in the land of his forefathers to the land of his father and grandfather from which his own sin had driven him out. Facing the wrath of a justly angry brother he is overburdened with cares and responsibilities, and he looks to the future with fear and uncertainty when suddenly he sees the vision of hosts of bright angels, and there comes to him assurance of God's protection and power.

From the beginning of the conflict between the forces of good and the forces of evil there have been the two hosts engaged in this spiritual warfare, the visible forces of the children of God and the invisible forces of the Most High God. When the children of Israel were led forth from their bondage in Egypt and through the power of these invisible forces, the Red Sea had become dry land, and they had crossed into the promised land, Moses led the children of Israel into a song of triumph saying, "I will sing unto the Lord for He hath triumphed gloriously, the horse and the rider hath he thrown into the midst of the sea. The Lord is my strength and my song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will exalt Him," and in a burst of praise declares that "The Lord is a man of war" and ends with the prophecy that runs all through the word of God, "The Lord shall reign forever and forever." Our God is a man of war, and there comes to each one who calls upon his name a challenge to participate in that warfare in which He is leader and in which there is no discharge.

When Israel had entered Canaan and the gates and walls of Jericho had fallen because of the forces of the two armies, the earthly forces marching around the city day by day for seven days carrying the ark of God with them and the heavenly forces unseen working through them and with them, the people were again set apart to God, through the rite instituted by Him, to be the special objects of His favor. The passover was kept commemorative of His great deliverance, and then there came to Joshua to strengthen him for the great task before him, the vision of the man with the drawn sword in his hand. Appalled by the sight the earthly leader of Israel asked, "Art thou for us or for our adversaries?" and the answer came, "Nay, but as captain of the hosts of the Lord am I come." "And Joshua fell on his face and worshipped, and the captain of the Lord's host said, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot for the place whereon thou standest is holy." Joshua, the captain of the earthly host, was given the vision of the captain of the heavenly host that he might be strengthened for the responsibilities to which God had called him. The vision of the unseen forces is what we as servants of God need today. We see the results of the forces of evil with which we are contending, we see partially the many agencies for the advancement of the Kingdom of God on earth, but we need spiritual vision to look beyond earthly leaders and to see the great Captain of our Salvation, to look beyond our own agencies and activities and to see the forces of God eternally vigilant working out His great purpose for this world's redemption and to know that He is fighting with us. Literally God fought the battles of the Hebrew people sending the lightning and the thunder, the hailstones and the hornets upon their enemies. Not once, but many times, was the promise fulfilled that ten should chase a hundred and a hundred put ten thousand to flight. Do we realize that He is fighting for us today in our warfare to win the world for Him, and that there would be greater evidences of this if our faith were greater?

When Elisha and his servant fled to Dothan to escape the wrath of the king of Syria, his servant saw only the chariots and horsemen of the king surrounding the city, and he was filled with fear. When Elisha prayed that God would open the eyes of his servant, he saw not the valley filled with the horsemen and chariots of the king that had so terrified him, but the mountains filled with the horsemen and chariots of fire that God had sent to protect Elisha. The prophet knew that God was protecting him, but the servant saw only the earthly enemies not the heavenly defenders. Conditions were not changed when the servant's eyes were opened, but what a difference there must have been in him after the heavenly vision. Too often we look around us and some times downward when the thing we need to do is to look away from ourselves and the things of earth and to look upward for new courage, new faith, and a new realization of God's presence and leadership. "The vision of the heavenly forces may be brief, but the fact of their presence remains forever more." It is only as we grow in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour that the assurance of the unseen realities of life comes to us. The surest guide is not the one who sees most clearly the way before him but the one who knows not the way and is looking day by day for the pillar of cloud and the pillar of fire to show him the way. They that walk by faith and not by sight alone have the true vision.

There are two great passages in the New Testament dealing with the Christian life under this metaphor of warfare; the familiar one in the letter to the Ephesian Christians in which Paul reminds them of the spiritual conflict in which they have entered, the power of God that is theirs for the asking, the foes to be met, not only flesh and blood, but against principalities, powers, the rulers of the darkness of the world and urges them to put on the whole armor of God, truth, righteousness, preparation of the gospel of peace, faith, salvation and the sword of the spirit, praying always, looking constantly to the invisible forces; and the one in the letter to the church at Corinth in which he urges with this armor of God the knowledge of Him, and righteousness in our personal lives, and obedience, that first essential of a good soldier. We cannot win victories for God if we are not keeping His command, and disobedience will bring to us not only disappointment and failure as it did to the children of Israel, but it will bring conflict without the vision of the unseen and eternal that alone gives us the strength and courage we need.

Christ promised His disciples power, but more than power He promised His perpetual presence in their efforts to give to the waiting world the knowledge of the salvation He had brought to a world lost in darkness and sin. The early church realized that it was indeed the Lord working with them that wrought so largely for the growth and spread of the Kingdom. Always before Paul there was not only the vision of the crucified Christ but the vision of the ever present power of the living Christ in all His efforts to make known His name to the world. It was this that enabled him to endure hardships and persecution and to look beyond the things of the flesh and to write out of his own experience, "For we look not on the things that are seen but at the things that are not seen, for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things that are not seen are eternal." It was this power of the Spirit of God that wrought so mightily for the church of Christ in the early centuries. The growth at that period was most remarkable and converts came from every walk in life and with every degree of culture, and the gospel was carried throughout the known world notwithstanding the bitter persecution that arose at that time. What but the consciousness of the presence and power of Christ sustained the great host of Christian martyrs who counted it a joy to give up their lives for their Lord and to share in the fellowship of His sufferings. In the catacombs of St. Sebastian in Rome alone rest the bodies of one hundred and seventy-four thousand of these martyrs, whose blood was indeed the seed of the church.

Our time is too brief to trace the progress of Christianity through the ages, the period of ecclesiasticism that followed the period of evangelization and martyrdom, down through the dark ages to the beginning of the great missionary movement in the eighteenth century, and its wonderful progress in the nineteenth, but always in every period as we look back, we can see that working together were the two great forces: those to whom God had committed the task of carrying His gospel and the unseen power of the Holy Spirit that pervaded and actuated their service.

Christ gave many parables to His disciples in order that they might comprehend the meaning of a spiritual kingdom; the one of the leaven is typical of the modern missionary movement. Always the small beginning, unnoticed by the world, and gradually under the human agency that places it in the measure of meal and the divine agency that causes it to multiply until the whole mass is leavened is what we can see in the history of every mission field today.

From the day when William Carey went to India and Robert Morrison to China and labored and toiled for years, working against closed doors abroad and lack of sympathy and coöperation at home, the story has been the same. Paul wrote to the disputing Corinthian Christians, "I have planted, Apollos watered, but God gave the increase." We plant the seed, those who follow us water, but always it is God who gives the increase. So quietly, so persistently has the leaven been working that we can hardly realize the extent of the growth of the Kingdom today. No longer does the missionary work for seven years before a single convert rewards his labors, but on our larger and older mission fields there are native boards with many workers who are using the methods of Christian nations in propagating the gospel, organizations of women and children, schools, colleges, hospitals and philanthropic and Christian activities of various kinds. Gradually the whole lump is being leavened through the combination of human agency and divine power.

In 1907 when Miss Heck spoke to the Woman's Missionary Union assembled in their annual meeting in this church, she chose as the theme of her message, "The Dignity of Missions," and she told us that the salvation of a whole world originated in the thought of God for the world, and that only the divine mind could conceive of a thing like that, that missions cost the life of the Christ and had been ennobled by the sacrifice and service of the great hosts of those who had given their lives in this great cause down through the centuries. Because of these things and because we stand today as a part of that great company of the earthly hosts who are putting their lives into Kingdom work, let us think for a moment of some of the things which pertain to this service.

First, The Privilege of Service—"Laborers Together With God," the permanent motto of our Southwide Woman's Missionary Union, is not only the incentive to our missionary work but our strength and inspiration as well. To join the innumerable hosts who through the ages have found not only a closer fellowship and a fuller knowledge but an unspeakable joy as they have shared in the labors of His kingdom is a privilege beyond all comparison. And yet great as is the privilege it is open to all. He who labors with God though he may lack all the essentials of what the world calls greatness, walks along a "pathway illumined by the very presence of God and leaves a shining path to lighten the way of those who follow."

Why Christ used human instrumentality to carry on His divine work is one of the mysteries. Always He leaves to our doing the things within the range of our possibilities, and oftentimes we keep Him waiting, because He cannot give us the great blessings He has in store until with our human hands we have removed the difficulties in the way. He multiplies today the loaves and the fishes as He did by the sea of Galilee but we like the little lad, must bring the loaves and the fishes to be multiplied. The work of human redemption by the will of God is a work of coöperation. To those of you who know something of this joy of laboring together with God we would ask that you endeavor this coming year to bring others to know the joy and privilege of His service. We must reach the great number of our unenlisted women, not alone because Christ needs them in His plans, but because of the great privilege we shall bring to their lives.

Then, The Cost of Service—We would have no one enter the conflict without first counting the cost, because service means sacrifice. As the salvation of the world cost first the life of the Christ, so has it cost the lives of countless of His followers all through the ages. It calls today for the sacrifice of self and selfish indulgence, self seeking and self love. From His cradle to His grave Christ lived for others. Shall not we do likewise? There will be burdens to be borne, but always there is the great burden bearer who will sustain us under their weight. "Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ." Burden-bearing is a law of Christ, and to even the weakest of His followers comes the joy of making the way easier for some other child of God. The way will be difficult at times, but always we may follow the feet of our Guide. Paul writing to Timothy said, "Endure hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ." The joy of His service and the consciousness of His approval will make the difficulties in the way of no moment. The service with the earthly host will call for your best, every talent, every energy brought under the control of the mighty King of kings to be used by Him according to His will. It will be a victorious service, because it is God's purpose to win the world for Himself. It is easy, as some one has said, to recognize the leadership of Christ in apostolic days, but different to see His guiding hand in our own times; but whether we realize His presence or not, He stands at the forefront of the battle today with unlimited power, and under this divine leadership ours is a triumphant contest, and assured victory. What we need is the vision of the invisible God to give us a new courage for the conflict, to realize the meaning of the Savior's words to the questioning disciples, "With God all things are possible," to feel no doubt nor discouragement when His Kingdom is concerned, and to go forth in His name looking to Him and not to our own efforts for victory.

Paul, summing up the varied experiences and hardships of his life in a burst of triumphant Christian faith, exclaims, "Nay in all things we are more than conquerors through Him that loved us." That love from which no earthly experience can separate us is the hope through which we, too, are to conquer, and to join the innumerable throng of those who with white robes and palms of victory around the throne of God in heaven praise Him without ceasing. To those who are weary, who sometimes find the burden too heavy, who feel that the task before them is too great, this is the message of the hour. Lift up your eyes, and see the angels in the way and catch the vision of the heavenly hosts. Today,

"O, rest beside the weary road
And hear the angels sing."

After singing "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," a paper, "Thoughts About the W. M. U. Meeting in New Bern, 1915," written by Miss Fannie E. S. Heck who was ill at the time of the New Bern meeting, was read by Mrs. R. N. Simms.

On motion the Secretary was instructed to send a message of love and appreciation to Mrs. Mattie M. Heck, Raleigh, mother of Miss Heck. A motion was also made and carried that this paper be incorporated in our Minutes.

During Miss Heck's last illness she kept a diary in which, when strength permitted, she recorded the happy events of her days and the "long thoughts" which came to her. For this reason she called it "My Pleasure Book."

The last record is a vivid picture of the meeting of the North Carolina Union in New Bern in March, 1915, as she saw it through her imagination.—S. M. H. S.

THOUGHTS ABOUT THE W. M. U. MEETING IN NEW BERN, 1915 March 24, 1915.

My first thought this morning, as if it had come from my sleeping to my waking hour without a conscious ripple, was of the Union meeting in New Bern. I have been following them constantly in my thoughts—the home leaving, the meetings on the train, the growing crowds, the smooth farm-gardens as they near Goldsboro, the first thought of the sea, the crowded train as it pulls out on its way further east, the level stretches, the talk of my society, my association, trials, triumphs, plans, the arrival, the bustle and stir in the station filled and for the time, managed by women.

Tuesday afternoon the Vice-Presidents gather, how earnest they are, how familiar, how resourceful! I search the lines to see if all are there. Some are missing from family cares, some from sickness, one has gone to a brighter land. Does she think of this gathering as we do who still are here, though absent? What does she think of it from her point of vantage? Is she not glad of the women she taught to take a wider view of life than even the heights of their native hills could give them? Is she not glad of journeys hither and thither on missions of love in her own community?

But without her and without me, the meeting goes on and I would not have it otherwise. Indeed, though I know there will be words of regret and messages of love, I would not have my sickness, my removal from this undertaking, make one jar. If in the past we have built well there will not be. This is one end I have constantly had in view so that anyone of the officers might at any time be called away or aside by God and still what had been done for Him stand firm as a foundation for a yet greater building. Only a foundation stone out of sight—by and by out of mind—but let the super-structure grow.

I had a picture of the New Bern church before me this morning (Wednesday) as they gathered. I recalled the interior from a visit years ago. Again more greetings as down all the streets that converge here, the women come; the crowd is thick around the doors; inside is welcome; the church fills rapidly. I see the ancient interior, the high gallery at the back, the busy anxious officers moving to and fro in front; the tall vase of white flowers on the stand that are my representatives. I hear the organ notes; the officers are in place; my many years fellow-workers, Mrs. Jones; Lizzie Briggs, my mission child; Blanche Barrus, pure, sweet loving, young in years and wise in judgment; Mrs. Farmer, sweet and modest; pretty Mrs. Bunn, and the new sweet-faced stranger in the presiding officer's chair.

Again I search the lines of familiar faces, bench by bench, praying for each woman and each kind of woman gathered there—the one with years of service needing new endowment of strength, of brightness, lightness, joy and renewal for service; the young, enthusiastic married woman whose bright brilliancy wins and charms, needing persistency, long views, patience in failure, wisdom through disappointment, gentleness to work with others, above all unshakable love to Christ, and the realization that on her depends the future of great religious ideals; the young women, pretty, educated, called by many voices, asking if this is worth time and thought, needing a view of the world as Christian young women could make it, a vision of the women they may become if with heart and soul they attach themselves with open mind and heart to a great cause; the girls with wide eyes, asking much of the world, looking at the leaders with timid admiration, lingering for a smile or touch of the hand and harboring dreams and ambitions for China or Japan; the children in for the Sunbeam exercises who will remember this time for many years to come and when they are filling the places of those whom they now look upon with awe; the careless one coming with the crowd, needing light.

Then through another's voice I hear myself speaking my message as president. I could not put into it all my heart, so much of which has been in labor with them.

The tie is severed; the anchor is up; the ship grows smaller as it leaves the strand and smaller yet to wait at the harbor bar for the outgoing tide.

A message of love comes across the widening waters.

MRS. CHAS. E. MADDRY

Mrs. R. N. Simms, North Carolina Training School Trustee, gave her annual report of the W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky. Adopted.

REPORT W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

The longer I have an intimate knowledge of our Training School, the harder it always seems to write anything like an adequate report about it. Its work is so broad and far-reaching I always have the feeling one would have in trying to count the sands of the sea.

Year by year House Beautiful grows more beautiful—more lives are trained into its high ideals and sent out to beautify the desert places of the earth.

This has been an unusually good year in every way for the school. While Mrs. McLure has been very much missed, Miss Littlejohn has been a great success as principal and although she dreaded the task so much at first, has really found great joy in it. So it seems is the case with all the other officers and workers in the school. There is a fine spirit everywhere, both among teachers and pupils. As the new girls come in they soon catch this spirit of House Beautiful and its impress upon their character is quickly seen. There have been one hundred twenty-two boarding students and thirty-six day students this year.

The students form of government is a great success and of great value, teaching the girls to place the welfare of the school above all personal affairs.

The day's duties are somewhat strenuous, but being well ordered are accomplished with ease. The courses of study are heavy and consequently our Board asks us to send only girls with well trained minds and healthy bodies.

The last graduating class numbered fifty-eight, all the applicants being successful in securing their degrees. Most of these girls are already at work, blessing the world wherever they are.

An enlarged course in mission study and W. M. U. methods was added this year and Miss Wilmer Bucy, an alumna, secured for that department.

Here at House Beautiful, Mrs. Eager says, all that mother love can suggest is done for our girls, and the home-life is beautiful. Based on the family altar, the spiritual, social and material phases of home-life are well cared for.

Many generous gifts have been sent from the States—each State showering the school at some special season. Georgia and West Florida pledged pecans; Illinois and Missouri, apples; Alabama, chickens for Valentines; Tennessee, fruit-cake for Thanksgiving; Florida, oranges and grapefruit; Louisiana, cane syrup; North Carolina, Easter chickens; Maryland, oysters in shell; Virginia, peanuts; Arkansas, rice; New Mexico, sweet potatoes and celery; Virginia and South Carolina sweet potatoes; Oklahoma, turkey for Christmas.

Because of these generous gifts and fortunate purchases several thousand dollars have been available for renovating the buildings. Plans for remodeling, so as to give more room, were ready and $115,000 available for this purpose.

The Good Will Center, with Miss Littlejohn at the head, has grown steadily, and has this year been the medium through which unusually fine work has been done. Miss Littlejohn says that more and more do the people in that section appreciate the friendship of the consecrated young women who go out from House Beautiful to this "house by the side of the road" to "be a friend to man." Here the girls receive the practical training that makes them such splendid leaders. I wish there could be space in this report to tell of the wonderful amount of work done in all the different activities of this Center. The good that is done cannot be recorded. Like the waves of the sea the touch of the lives of these girls upon the hungering, thirsting souls of that great city will spread on and, multiplying, result marvelously and almost unbelievably.

Any report on the Training School would not be complete without a mention of the Y. W. A. and its influence. With the entire student body divided among its seven circles, this organization, we are told, keeps the religious life of the school at high water mark. Each circle prepares one pageant to illustrate the topic of the month when they have charge, and so very fine have they been, the city churches have been eager to have them repeated. Their report on their activities and contributions is splendid.

North Carolina has had twenty girls at the school this year and a letter from Mrs. McLure recently said that while on a visit there she found them an unusually attractive group. Eight of these girls expect to graduate this spring and most of the Juniors hope to return.

Eleven of this number received help, some from our State Funds, others the special scholarships—Louis Castlebury, Hamrick and Associational.

The names and addresses of our 1923-24 students follow:

Bertha Allen, Cary; Lillie Aldredge, Kinston; Mozelle Breeze, Durham; Ozelle Gardner, Lattimore; Vera Harper, Rocky Mount; Aliene Johnson, Salisbury; Alva Lawrence, Apex; Lillian Mabry, Essex; Lois Miller, Norwood; Lula McGee, Purtlear; Clela Naylor, Dunn; Nannie Newsome, Ahoskie; Mattie Macon Norman, Hertford; Foy Peele, Roxobel; Mary Hanes Tucker, Milton; Grace Thomas, Broadway; Elizabeth Turnley, Murfreesboro; Ruth Jinks, Durham; Margaret Moore, Dunn; Ethel Eaton, New Bern.

There are already a large number of new applications for entrance next year and we must be sure to contribute generously this summer, so that these dear girls may go. Many of our girls come back to our own State to work and prove a great blessing, others are carrying the light for us into foreign lands, and into dreary waste places here in the homeland. Surely such training of young lives is the best investment we can make of our means.

We rejoice that our North Carolina women have always given abundantly for this purpose and will continue to do so.

During the year they have given $5,513.17, and through the Education Board we are credited with $1,090.00 for endowment and enlargement.

The General Board of Directors of the School last year recommended that the State W. M. U's establish "Loan Funds" to meet the needs of applicants and this was adopted. Foreign missionaries will not be required to pay back the loan, but all others will pay at the rate of $75.00 per year as soon as they earn $75.00 per month. Individual and associational scholarships may still be given.

Another recommendation adopted was the request that churches with financial ability give a young woman, who volunteers for free service as a church worker in her own church, the training for two years.

At a recent meeting, the Board of the School unanimously passed the following motion: "Resolved, That in the future no student wearing bobbed hair will be admitted to the Training School, and that those now in the School wearing such hair be requested to allow it to grow and to wear nets until it has attained proper length." In passing this resolution there was only the deepest sympathy and love in the hearts of the Board, for the impulse of youth that prompted the following of this custom. They believed that such a custom would react unfavorably on our beloved school and would lower its high ideals and weaken the influence of the students as Christian workers. They felt sure our girls would not knowingly do anything to detract from the beauty and dignity of their beloved House Beautiful, made possible by the love and sacrifice of countless Southern Christian women.

Because of this love and sacrifice during these twenty years over 1,200 young women have gone out to serve humanity. Their service is recorded by the beautiful service flag unfurled at the Southern Baptist Convention last year. Inspired by the Spirit of the Master, touched by the zeal of Paul, they are doing a large part in saving the world for Christ.

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
Training School Trustee.

Mrs. T. M. Pittman, member of the Margaret Educational Fund Committee for N. C., gave her report for this Fund. Adopted:

REPORT OF MARGARET EDUCATION FUND

The "Margaret Education Fund" is the outgrowth of a gift of ten thousand dollars in 1905 for a home for missionaries' children. Finding that a fund for the higher education of these children was more needed than the Home, a change was made in 1914. By gifts through the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention, the amount has increased to about thirty thousand dollars. The interest of this is used for the education of children of missionaries of our Foreign Mission Board or of our Home Mission Board in countries outside the United States.

Though rigid requirements are made before granting scholarships, two hundred and thirteen children have received this help in the past seven years. There are some sixty on the list this year and applications are being received from many more.

The annual aim in money for this Fund is apportioned among the states. The North Carolina apportionment is $600 and it is gratifying to report this full amount met.

The General Union realized that there were yet other opportunities besides the money payments for the women in their relation to the Margaret Fund students. The young people who were recipients of its benefits were far from their parents and often far from any kindred. They were thus entrusted to the Union to be watched over and made happy in their changed surroundings.

For the past year or more each state has been assigned several students for special care, love, attention and prayers. They are usually students at school in that state or whose parents are natives of it. Five students were assigned to North Carolina: Hartwell Ayers of China at Wake Forest College; Mary and Susie Herring and Clarissa Poteat of China at Meredith; and John Joyce of Brazil at Mars Hill.

At Christmas boxes were sent to these students by the G. A. of Clayton; Y. W. A. of Kinston; Y. W. A., G. A., R. A., and Woman's Society of Waynesville. Among the things sent were cake, candy, fruit, collars, handkerchiefs, ties, stationery and many other dainty and substantial gifts.

Because this Margaret Fund is supplying so great a need of our beloved missionaries and their children, and because we rejoice to lighten a little their cares and their sorrows of separation, the following is recommended:

1. That the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina accept any quota in money assigned by the General Union.
2. That the work and need of the Margaret Fund be presented at every Associational Meeting.
3. That societies wishing to make personal gifts to the scholarship students communicate with the State member of the Margaret Fund Committee.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH BRIGGS PITTMAN,

Chairman Margaret Fund Committee.

Miss Mary Warren, Mission Study Superintendent, presented her report of Mission Study which was adopted. Recognition was made of the certificate and seal holders. Mrs. E. M. Downing, of Fayetteville, told how she taught a class in the Home Mission book, "Cuba for Christ." Mrs. C. E. Byrd, of Saxapahaw, gave her experience in teaching missions to young people.

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY SUPERINTENDENT

One day while Jesus and his disciples were lingering near Jacob's well He told them to lift up their eyes and look on the fields that were white already unto harvest. This is mission study. Many of us have had the happy privilege of looking into our own homeland, through the mountain schools, into Cuba, China, Japan, South America and Africa. As a result of these glimpses into our fields, the needs and the problems of the workers have become a part of our own lives, for many tokens of love have been sent to our missionaries and most of all, some of our women have become intercessory missionaries.

Associational Leaders—Much that has been accomplished has been due to the enthusiasm and constant study on the part of our associational leaders. At the associational meetings several such leaders have been appointed and are nobly taking hold of the work. We now have 39 Associational Mission Study Leaders. It is interesting to recall that those associations and societies that are taking a greater interest in the mission study are those that have official Chairmen and Leaders.

Study Courses—For the requirements met in the study courses the number of certificates issued is: W. M. S. 1202; Y. W. A., 395; G. A., 253; R. A., 93; S. B., 1174, making a total of 3120 which exceeds the number of last year by 631.

The number of small seals awarded for the year: W. M. S., 3040; Y. W. A. 758; G. A., 363; R. A., 96; S. B., 1475; making a total of 5735 which is 1935 more than the previous year.

Official Seals—The number of official seals has increased this year by 104. The seals that have been awarded this year are as follows: For the first course, 93; for the second course, 27; for the third course, 24 (blue); for the fourth course, 11 (purple); for the Home and Foreign course, 3 (garnet). Mrs. S. J. Kee and Mrs. R. R. Lanier have the distinction of holding the official seals for all of these courses, also the second purple and garnet official seals. Eleven Y. W. A., official seals have been awarded, which makes the total number of official seals for the year 173.

Honor Certificates—The number of honor graduates has also shown a great increase over last year. Those holding four official seals and who have taught a study class, or classes, are Mrs. Wallace Hartsell, Asheville Division; Mrs. M. W. Buck, Mrs. J. L. Garner, Mrs. R. C. Garner, and Miss Mary Warren, Greensboro Division; Mrs. S. J. Kee, Mrs. O. W. Maddry, Mrs. H. B. Hines, Mrs. R. R. Lanier and Mrs. Paul Edwards of the Elizabeth City Division.

Young People—Colleges and High Schools: Fruitland Institute stands at the head of the list this year in the number of small seals which is 108. Chowan follows close behind with 102. Meredith follows with 84; Yancey Collegiate Institute with 77, Wingate with 22. Other schools have done creditable work. There were twenty-two classes reported from the schools.

Official Seals: The one Y. W. A. U., official seal of last year has multiplied itself by eleven this year. Ten of these are in the Elizabeth City Division—eight from one society.

Small Seals: The number of small seals issued are as follows: Y. W. A., 758; G. A., 363; R. A., 96; S. B., 1475; total number of seals issued to young people 2,892.

Reading Courses: The reading courses are prepared for the junior societies and those doing individual reading receive cards and stamps. There were 518 reading cards and 1,259 reading stamps issued.

Classes—There have been 634 classes reported to the Superintendent during the year.

Statistics—Leaflets distributed, 4,075; questions sent, 1,711; certificates issued, 3,120; small seals, 5,729; official seals, 172; honor certificates, 14.

Interesting Facts—The Elizabeth City Division leads all the Divisions in mission study awards. West Chowan is ahead of the other associations in the Division. Mount Zion stands at the head of the Greensboro Division; Pilot Mountain, the Charlotte Division; and Little River, the Wilmington and Buncombe, the Asheville Division. Two of our Associational Superintendents—Mrs. Wallace Hartsell, Mrs. M. W. Buck, are honor graduates. Mrs. M. L. Braun of Chapel Hill is the first returned missionary to hold an official seal.

Personal Word—Keenly conscious of my many weaknesses, I want to express my deep appreciation for your patience and forbearance with me in helping to keep the numerous records in mission study. May we not only look into the fields, but pray the Lord of the harvest that He may send forth laborers into His harvest.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY WARREN.

On motion the secretary was asked to send a message of greeting to Mrs. W. H. Reddish, Morganton.

Dismissed with prayer by Mrs. W. C. Barrett.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

D., Raleigh, Vice President for North Carolina of Foreign Mission Board, introduced the speaker, Rev. J. Marcus Kester, Educational Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Va. Mr. Kester's subject was, "Giving the World the Gospel of Christ."

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 3

Services opened by singing, "Come, Women, Wide Proclaim." Devotional services were conducted by Mrs. C. A. Kluttz, Asheville, Vice-President Asheville Division.

Hymn, "Something for Thee."

Minutes read and approved.

Reports from Our Workers at Home: Greensboro Division—Mrs. M. W. Buck, Burlington; Elizabeth City Division, Mrs.

F. G. Battle, Raleigh; Wilmington Division, Miss Macy Cox, Magnolia; Charlotte Division, Mrs. R. L. Hardison, Wadesboro; Asheville Division, Mrs. C. A. Kluttz, Asheville. Each Vice-President gave a report of her Division, presenting the Associational Superintendents present from the Division who in turn made brief reports of their Associational work. These reports were unanimously adopted. Mrs. H. M. Finch, of Rocky Mount, reported for the Roanoke Association in the absence of the Superintendent, Mrs. L. T. Vaughn.

GREENSBORO DIVISION

It may be unwise to pause long enough to tell you the geographic location of the Greensboro Division. I have been living in this Division for more than ten years and I have never had the boundary lines brought to my attention. It extends as far east as Louisburg, Wake Forest and Raleigh; as far south as Southern Pines and Aberdeen; as far west as High Point; and as far north as Reidsville and Roxboro.

The large cities embraced by this territory are Raleigh, Durham, Greensboro and High Point. A number of large towns are included—Louisburg, Henderson, Oxford, Roxboro, Chapel Hill, Sanford, Burlington and Reidsville. So you see our problem is rural.

About three hundred and seventy churches are on the minutes of the eight Associations. These Associations are Tar River, Flat River, Central, Raleigh, Sandy Creek, Mt. Zion, Piedmont and Beulah.

The newly elected Vice-President was so ignorant she did not know that this Division was not expected to have a "get-together" meeting because the State Convention had met within her borders.

May 8th a call went out to the Associational Superintendents to meet in Raleigh for a conference. Seven of the eight were able to attend and a day was spent getting acquainted with each other and looking into the future with a view to trying with the help of God to do better coöperative work as a Division.

May 14th a meeting with a group of women in Durham resulted in an arranged program which was used June 14-15 at Louisburg in the Tar River Association.

An itinerary was arranged for Miss Cora Caudle, our missionary to Africa. On a Monday afternoon in June she spoke to a Union Meeting in Raleigh, at night she addressed the City Council of Baptist Women in Durham. Tuesday she attended the Auxilliary Conference of the Mount Zion Association at Chapel Hill, speaking in her helpful way. Tuesday night she was in Hillsboro giving information of her field of labor. Wednesday night was spent in Burlington and the neighboring churches (Glencoe, Hocutt Memorial, Graham, Haw River) were invited to listen to this enthusiastic speaker. By previous arrangement all the Baptist churches in Greensboro had been invited to a service at Ashboro Street where again this phase of our work was presented to attentive hearers. Friday was spent in High Point with Baptist women.

I have visited Tar River, Sandy Creek, Beulah, Mt. Zion and Piedmont Associations during the year, made a little talk at the Woman's Missionary Society at Reidsville, visited the City Union of High Point; met with the Executive Committee of the Piedmont Association to assist in their planning for their year's work; spoke at the First Baptist Church in Greensboro at the September meeting. I have traveled 1,008 miles; mailed 650 pages of literature, 100 programs, 2,000 stickers, written 140 letters.

May I pause long enough to thank the Superintendents for their splendid coöperation throughout the year. It is with regret that I bring this report to a close with so little to show for the year's work.

Respectfully submitted,

Mrs. M. W. BUCK,

Vice-President.

ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

As we review the work done during the past year by the Elizabeth City Division, our hearts swell with gratitude and praise to God that He has enabled us to make this, the best report in our history.

Every phase of our work has grown, and the outlook for the future is most encouraging. We have four associations in this division, each directed by a conscientious consecrated woman, who counts not her time her own, but who has dedicated, time, talent and self to God, for this work. It is due to the untiring, enthusiastic work of these Superintendents that we are able to report this progress along all lines.

Mission Study has a larger place in our program of work than ever before; stewardship has found a fertile field in which to grow, while personal service has found a more ready response than heretofore.

In the organization of new societies West Chowan leads, having 21 to their credit this year. All associations report more societies making Standard of Excellence. Junior work has a more prominent place in the thought and plans of our work. We held our first Divisional Meeting during the Seaside Assembly at Morehead. The attendance was small but what was lacking in numbers was made up in interest and we trust that from this small beginning will grow a splendid organization that will mean much for the work of the Division.

We have the pattern before us, and looking unto God, the Giver of Every Good and Perfect Gift, we will press forward to make the finished garment as perfect as human hands and loving hearts can weave it.

Our Campaign pledge has not been paid, but we have faith to believe that this year will be our best year and when the campaign is finished we trust the Master will be able to say of us "She hath done what she could."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. F. G. BATTLE,
Vice-President.

WILMINGTON DIVISION

The reports from the Associations in the Wilmington Division show many marks of progress, but we still have many weak points and more persistent effort needs to be put forth in every Association.

Each of the ten held separate annual meetings. It was my pleasure to attend the Wilmington and South River. There are 321 churches in this Division and 429 societies. Sixty-one new societies have been organized this year, but many have died and we only have a net gain of 16. The weakest point is Young People's societies and in this report we make an appeal to each Association to put forth every possible effort to organize more young people's societies this year, for on them do we depend for recruits and future leaders of the W. M. U.

Steady increase in mission study is gratifying in nearly all the Associations, there being great increase in study by the Juniors. Johnson's Church (rural) in the Eastern again won the mission study banner, having had nine classes, 13 certificates and 53 seals, 11 being official seals. The Junior certificate was presented to West's Chapel (rural).

We rejoice to report an increase of 320 tithers, total number 712. We hope to have a Stewardship Chairman in each association, and to report a much larger increase next year.

Our Division has not met Campaign pledges, but heroic effort is being put forth. One woman in Bladen Association supports a missionary on foreign field. Brunswick Association has established a scholarship in Training School to be known as "Mary Ward Memorial;" two in Eastern support Bible Woman in China; Robeson supports four Bible women. Little River has two girls in Training School—Cleta Naylor and Grace Thomas. Grace is using the Castleberry Scholarship given by Mrs. Joel Layton. One girl in the Wilmington Association supports a Bible woman, and a couple in First Church Wilmington supports a foreign missionary. Mrs. R. L. Williams of same church has deposited a loan fund for a scholarship in Training School, probably to be used by a girl in Wilmington Association.

Three Associations have Y. W. A. Leaders, 8 have Junior Leaders, 7 have Chairman of Personal Service, 9 have Mission Study Leaders. Brunswick made 7 points on Standard of Excellence; Eastern, 9; Johnston, 7; Little River, 7; Robeson, 6; Wilmington, 8; Cape Fear-Columbus, 7; Bladen, Cumberland and South River failed to report on the Standard.

Cumberland leads in number of mission study certificates, 129; Robeson leads in number W. M. S. 33, and Sunbeam Bands, 35.

Eastern leads in total number of societies, 105, especially leads in Young People's Societies, also leads in Mission Study classes, and Junior reading circles; in tithers, 223, and new societies, 17.

We held Divisional meeting in Wilmington in February; four Associations were represented and voted to have meeting again next year in Wilmington.

The Eastern was blessed with five foreign missionaries at annual meeting. The Woman's Missionary Societies in the Eastern gave a bed with all equipments in our N. C. Hospital, as a memorial of the 15 years of service of their Superintendent, for which she feels deeply grateful and gives God the honor. Sixteen years ago in January I accepted this work with fear and trembling. God has blessed my feeble efforts and for every success we give Him the glory. We pray his richest blessings on the Woman's Missionary Union of N. C., and ever on our faithful president and other officers.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX,
Vice-President.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION

It is with great joy and profound gratitude that we present to this Convention the annual report of the Charlotte Division. During the year your Superintendent attended the Kings Mountain Association so ably presided over by Mrs. John Wacaster. The South Fork Association which met at Hickory was also visited. This Association has been sadly bereft, having lost two Superintendents, Mrs. Mary Applewhite Killian and Mrs. S. T. Gaddy, in less than three years. In company with Rev. A. I. Justice a journey was made to the South Mountain Association where the W. M. U. work is reorganized and "the fields are white unto harvest. For the twenty-eighth time I presided over the Pee Dee Association, resigning in behalf of the Charlotte Division. Mrs. R. L. Hardison is now Superintendent of this Association. It was a joy to be with Mrs. C. M. Beach, Superintendent of the Union Association, and find such an active and faithful band of co-laborers. This Association will be hostess to the Charlotte Division in June, meeting at Wingate, our Junior College town. Wingate will be hostess on this occasion. Our last annual meeting was held at Albemarle. We had four missionaries with us—Dr. and Mrs. Anderson from China, Mr. Powell and Miss Caudle from Africa. Miss Warren, our Secretary, was also present.

We are most grateful to our Heavenly Father for the work accomplished this year. We have 31 A-1 organizations and 98 Standard Societies, have taken 980 seals in all, the W. M. S. having 660; Y. W. A., 43; G. A., 44; Sunbeams, 233; and 31 official seals.

Total contributions this year $97,450.90. We pledge ourselves anew to the loyalty of our Convention work and to redouble our efforts to make Mother's Day one long to be remembered in our Hospital gifts. We realize that ignorance of the Bible and Sabbath desecration are evils invading our home life. We must be up and doing "with a heart for any fate, still achieving, still pursuing, learn to labor and to wait."

Unto the true and faithful
I sound the clarion call
Those who obey God's commandments
Are the truest and happiest of all.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. LILA L. HENRY,
Vice-President.

ASHEVILLE DIVISION

For years our State motto has been, "For Ye Serve the Lord Christ;" and surely it is graven upon the hearts of our women. For no other service would be rendered as joyously; for no other Master but the Lord Christ would such sacrifice be made that there might be offerings to lay at the Master's feet and each and every one has received her reward through the joy of serving.

This does not mean that we have met all our pledges, but each year our gifts are growing and there is a determination to pay, even if a little late. We have given this year $25,578.23. The noble women who are our Associational Superintendents are responsible for the gains. They have given such faithful service in writing letters, visiting societies and holding Associational Meetings, and we see the results.

We held a Divisional Meeting at Asheville last May and already plans are being made for our meeting at Hendersonville in May this year. We want these meetings to be both inspirational and helpful.

We have enjoyed mission study; our books are so entertaining that it is not necessary to have dull classes, and to this we attribute much of our gains. We report 76 mission study classes with 202 certificates and 308 seals, also two official seals.

We have gained 35 new societies; of these twenty-one are junior. From observation we believe these juniors make more enthusiastic members.

One of the forms of organized Personal Service that gives large returns is the work among our sick soldiers at Oteen. As one of our returned missionaries expressed it, " 'Tis Home Mission work laid at your own door." The boys are cheered by different forms of entertainment, and evangelistic services are often held. A good many souls have been saved. The meetings are held with the approval of Rev. J. A. McKaughan who is employed by the Home Mission Board as Camp Pastor. May we continue to faithfully "Serve the Lord Christ" on down through the years and the harvest will be great.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. A. KLUTTZ.

Vice-President.

A message of greetings was sent to the W. M. U. by Mrs. Lila L. Henry, Vice-President of the Charlotte Division, who is out of the State. On motion the Secretary was instructed to send a reply to this message.

A telegram of greeting was received from St. Pauls Methodist Woman's Missionary Society of Goldsboro. On motion the Secretary was asked to send words of appreciation for this message.

Song—"I Made of My Heart a Temple," Miss Pauline Patton, Morganton.

Reports from Our Workers Abroad by four foreign missionaries. Mrs. M. L. Braun, missionary from China, spoke of her work, impressing the thought that "truly the harvest is plenteous but the laborers are few." Mrs. Chas. A. Hayes, of Canton, China, portrayed vividly a picture of China lost without Christ. Miss Sophie Lanneau, Soochow, China, spoke of "The Renaissance in China and Our Mission Work There." Mrs. J. M. Gaston, Laichowfu, China, told of the hospital work at that station, and expressed her appreciation for the many White Cross supplies sent by the various Societies of our Union. Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, Raleigh, Chairman of White Cross work, was called to the platform and spoke briefly of White Cross work in the State.

Mrs. W. J. Jones, Salemburg, brought before the body the work of Pineland School for Girls, emphasizing the importance of Christian schools.

Rev. W. M. Gilmore, Raleigh, Stewardship Secretary of the State Convention, in a few words told of the importance of realizing our stewardship.

All the messages of the morning were inspirational and showed the great need of paying our pledges to the 75 Million Campaign and meeting our obligations to God.

Mrs. J. M. Gaston read a message from Mrs. Weston Bruner, formerly a member of our Executive Committee, now living in Laurens, S. C., which was appreciated.

After announcements, the Union adjourned with prayer by Dr. Wall.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Song—"Love Divine All Love Excelling."

Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. C. L. Greaves, of Raleigh. Minutes read and approved. Our Sunday School Board and Its Work was presented by Mrs. Hight C. Moore, Nashville, Tenn., in a most interesting and effective way.

Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Winston-Salem, gave a report on the Baptist Hospital, emphasizing particularly the observance of Hospital Day, May 11. Miss Sophie Lanneau, of China, and Rev. C. E. Brooks, of Goldsboro, who had been patients in the Hospital, gave their impressions of the institution, testifying to the beautiful Christian spirit manifested there.

REPORT OF THE BAPTIST HOSPITAL

During the past year the blessings of God have been manifested in the Baptist Hospital work in our state. Since our last meeting in Durham the Baptist Hospital has been completed and opened for service. The formal opening was held on May 28. The first patient was admitted May 29. In the first ten months of operation more than 1,000 patients have been admitted representing every denomination and those without any church affiliations. These have come from every part of our state, some from Virginia and some from S. C., and New York. About 10% of the number treated have been charity or part pay patients, that is at least 100 of our poor suffering Baptists of the State have received the benefits of the hospital without money or price. Nearly all have been sent home well and happy. The hospital has a growing patronage from all over the State as well as in Winston-Salem, and the number of patients being treated each day is gradually increasing. It now looks as if the hospital within a few months will be able to meet all of its operating expenses except for the charity work. The growing popularity of this institution is largely due to the efficient medical staff associated with it, for no more successful physicians are to be found in the South than those associated with this hospital. The Christian courtesy extended by our Superintendent, Rev. G. T. Lumpkin and his co-workers, as well as the faithful and efficient services rendered by the nurses under the wise direction of Miss Heinzerling, have added to the comfort and recovery of all patients who have entered its doors. The Christian atmosphere of our hospital has won the esteem and respect of every patient that has entered its doors; and one by one as the patients feel that they have been restored to health and strength there comes a realization that they have also felt the touch of the Master through the faithful Christian ministrations that have been accorded them during their days of suffering. When the hospital opened its doors every private bedroom, waiting room, sun-parlors and wards had been beautifully furnished by the W. M. U., and the B. Y. P. U's of the State while eleven rooms have been furnished in the house rented for the nurses' home. Besides the various plates we have marking the memorials of each room, a larger plate will be placed on the general reception room door in honor of the W. M. U., of North Carolina who came so nobly to the assistance of the Hospital Commission in a time of such great need. Aside from this liberal gift of the women and children of the State, nothing has been appropriated for the operating expenses of this our newest enterprise of our State Convention. When the hospital opened its doors not one cent had been appropriated to purchase the needed supplies for the dining room, kitchen, laundry, laboratory department, and X-Ray Room. So for the cost of these necessities the trustees were compelled to borrow $15,000.00 from the State Mission Board. For the first few months we ran at a considerable loss. We averaged about $500 in charity work each month. We now face a large amount of interest to be paid due to the fact that $78,000 pledged on our building is still due, while the 75 Million Campaign still owes the hospital $58,000 that cannot be paid until more pledges are paid; but we are growing in patronage and feel that our influence for good is rapidly enlarging. We are getting nearer the hearts of the people all over the State, and a greater number are calling on us for help. We have a wonderful mission of healing and service, but if we continue to minister to the needs of the suffering we must have the financial support of the Baptists of the State to meet the crisis we face for the next few months. The funds to care for our poor brothers and sisters are sorely needed. The women and children of this Union are requested to put over a program on Mothers' Day that will save a score of lives and help hundreds of poor suffering Baptists. In doing this we will honor the Master who said "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of these ye did it unto me."

MRS. J. J. RODDICK,

Some of Our Denominational Schools and Colleges were presented in ten minute messages. Miss Mary Loomis Smith spoke for Meredith College; Miss Bertha Moore for South Mountain Institute; Mrs. D. Rich, of Winston-Salem, for Buie's Creek Academy; Mrs. R. L. Moore for Mars Hill College; Miss Eunice McDowell for Chowan College.

The Biblical Recorder was presented by Rev. J. S. Farmer, Raleigh, Business Manager of the Recorder. The Union accepted a proposition to put on a campaign for new subscribers at the rate of $1 to January 1925, taking thirty days in which to do this work.

Mention was made by a former student of the death of Dr. F. P. Hobgood, late president of Oxford College.

Miss Mary Warren then read the names of our departed members, the Union standing in honor to their memory, after which the Memorial Hymn was sung.

XII. W. M. U. Training School: 1. The Woman's Missionary Union Training School, located at Louisville, Ky., shall continue to receive our most loyal support and coöperation. (1) Each society is asked to give a special program and a contribution to this school during the year, preferably during the summer quarter; (2) Out of these funds we will pay our proportionate part of the Current Expense Fund of the school and provide a scholarship fund or loan fund of $2,000 in addition to the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, the Hamrick Scholarship, or any memorial scholarship that may be established; (3) The associational scholarships are to be included in the above amount; (4) All money secured through the Education Board is to be used for the Enlargement and Endowment Fund of the Training School.

2. Two scholarships for the year 1924-25 to be given to the foreign students, who are coming to our country to be trained to do missionary work in their native lands, these scholarships to be in addition to the designated number.

XIII. Margaret Educational Fund: 1. The Margaret Educational Fund is used for the education of the children of our missionaries. Over and above the number provided for by the endowment fund, the states are asked to contribute an amount to be used for additional scholarships. Two hundred dollars provides a scholarship.

2. We recommend that for the coming year the W. M. U. of North Carolina provide four scholarships to be given preferably to children of our North Carolina missionaries.

3. A society or an association may provide these scholarships.

XIV. Orphanage: 1. A special collection will be taken for the Orphanage on Thanksgiving Day each November, amounts given at this time by the women in the societies to be reported to the W. M. U. Treasurer on regular report blanks.

2. At the close of the Campaign it is preferred that all amounts given by women in the Sunday School for the regular Orphanage collection on the first Sunday be credited to the Sunday School and not to the W. M. Union.

XV. Our Young People: 1. That every W. M. S. organize and foster a Sunbeam Band and at least one other W. M. U. organization for young people in its local church, striving constantly to attain the ideal of a full graded Union.

2. That each Association have its Young People's Leader, whose duty shall be to organize and keep in close touch with the W. M. U. young people's organizations in her Association and the State Young People's Leader.

3. That the leaders of our young people be urged to take the Correspondence Course offered from the W. M. U. Headquarters, Birmingham, and to subscribe for World Comrades, Royal Service, Home and Foreign Fields, and the Biblical Recorder.

4. That we continue to organize and foster Y. W. A.'s in our colleges and schools. That a college hostess be appointed by the W. M. S. of the local church in each college town, also that the appointing of a Y. W. A. Secretary be urged in our Baptist colleges and schools for the purpose of directing the religious, social and recreational life of the school. That the college students be invited to annual meetings of the Association in which the college is located, and be used on W. M. U. programs during their vacation.

5. That the young people's organizations be urged to continue their interest in mission study, using books recommended by the Union and applying to State Headquarters for certificates and seals.

XVI. Standard of Excellence: 1. That the uniform Standard of Excellence adopted by the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention shall continue to be our Standard. Printed in full on inside of first cover page.

2. Standard of Excellence blanks will be sent out during the fourth quarter and should be filled out, answering Yes or No to each point, and returned with financial report.

3. Standard of Excellence charts for each organization can be secured from W. M. U. Headquarters, 1111 Age-Herald Bldg., Birmingham, Ala. We recommend the use of these as most helpful in attaining the Standard of Excellence.

XVII. Contributions: 1. The Woman's Missionary Union is an agency for raising funds for all the Boards and benevolences of our Convention: (1) The Foreign Mission Board; (2) The Home Mission Board; (3) The State Mission Board; (4) The Education Board; (5) The Ministerial Relief and Annuity Board; (6) Bible Fund of Sunday School Board; (7) Orphanage; (8) Hospital; (9) The Margaret Educational Fund; (10) the W. M. U. Training School.

2. All societies are requested to fill out and send in the quarterly reports to Miss Elsie K. Hunter, W. M. U. Treasurer, promptly at the close of each quarter: (1) First quarter closes May 31, 1924; (2) Second quarter closes August 31, 1924; (3) Third quarter closes November 30, 1924; (4) Fourth quarter closes February 28, 1925.

3. The society treasurer shall secure from the church treasurer each quarter a statement of all Campaign payments made by the non-affiliating women and young people of the church and include this amount in the quarterly report.

4. The Associational Superintendent is asked to keep in touch with churches that have no Woman's Missionary Union work urging that payment of Campaign pledges by the women and young people be reported to the W. M. U. Treasurer.

5. Expense Fund: (1) Each society is asked to send an amount equal to ten cents per member to the W. M. U. Treasurer for a State Expense Fund, this fund to be used for officers' traveling expenses, office rent, printing, and incidentals. Two thousand dollars is the amount asked for this year for this fund. (2) An amount equal to five cents per member should be sent by each society to the Associational Superintendent for expenses in associational work.

6. All funds for the W. M. U. Training School, the Bible Fund of the S. S. Board, the Margaret Educational Fund, and the Expense Fund are to be sent direct to the W. M. U. Treasurer, Miss Elsie K. Hunter. Funds for all other Campaign objects except the Orphanage are to be sent through the church treasurer to Mr. Walters Durham, Treasurer Baptist State Convention. Orphanage fund is to be sent to the Orphanage treasurer, Mr. F. B. Hamrick, Thomasville, N. C.

7. Report blanks are sent to the society treasurer each quarter by the Associational Superintendents. These report blanks are to be signed by the church treasurer when money is paid to him or paid through the church collection and the society treasurer is to forward these signed reports each quarter to the W. M. U. Treasurer who makes her financial records from these signed reports.

The following memorial was read by Mrs. F. A. Bowers, of Morganton, and adopted as presented:

Whereas, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina at the session held in Rocky Mount in 1921 passed a resolution granting to women the full rights of membership in the Convention;

And whereas for three years the women have had representation on the Mission Board;

Therefore, we, the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina in Convention assembled in Goldsboro, April 1-3, 1924, respectfully petition the Baptist State Convention at its next annual session to elect three women to membership on each of the Boards of the Baptist State Convention and that from year to year we, the Woman's Missionary Union, be allowed to furnish a list of active W. M. U. workers from which the Committee to nominate Boards may select these members.

A resolution regarding the observance of the birthday of Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, recommended by the Wilmington Division, was presented by Miss Macy Cox. Adopted.

RESOLUTION OF THE WILMINGTON DIVISION

The Wilmington Division, in conference in Wilmington First Church, February 21, 1924, voted unanimously to recommend to the W. M. U. of N. C. in their annual session in Goldsboro, April 1-3, 1924, that we observe the birthday of our dearly beloved and never-to-be-forgotten, Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, who for twenty-nine years was our faithful president of N. C., and fifteen years president of our S. B. C. Miss Heck has led thousands of women and young women in lives of usefulness for their Master. We who knew her, will ever love her memory, and thank God for her beautiful consecrated life, for her godly leadership and loving counsel. We earnestly desire that a knowledge of her and her works shall ever live in the generations yet to come, and that her last message to N. C. Girls shall be passed on through coming years to girls who never saw her sweet face or felt her warm and thrilling hand clasp; that her message to the women, to "lead the young people gently in lives of usefulness" may continue to ring in the ears of the women in future ages; that we shall honor her birthday with appropriate program and offering, to be known as the "Fannie Heck Birthday Offering;" this year the offering to be given for foreign missions; objects each year to be decided on by the State Executive Committee.

Miss Heck went to her reward in 1915. June 16, of this year, she would have been sixty-two years old. Shall we not give 62 cents each, or more, June 16 as a token of our love for her, and the God whom she loved and served, to be used to help send the gospel to foreign lands? This recommendation comes from the Vice-President and a host of other women of the Wilmington Division.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX.

The Committee on Time and Place reported through its Chairman, Mrs. W. L. Griggs, North Wilkesboro.

TIME AND PLACE

Your Committee recommends that the time and place of the next Annual Meeting be left with the Executive Committee.

MRS. J. R. McCLAMROCH,
MRS. D. H. WILCOX,
MRS. A. E. HAMPTON,
MISS INEZ REID

Mrs. W. C. Barrett, of Gastonia, presented the report on Recommendations.

RECOMMENDATIONS

With the sincere hope that these recommendations may help to crystalize in our minds some of the great purposes of our Union and emphasize some points of special importance at this time, your committee begs to submit the following:

I. That we adopt as the basis of our work for the coming year and as a standard of achievement the "Plan of Work" presented by the Executive Committee.

II. That during the remaining months of the 75 Million Campaign every society make every possible effort to collect all amounts due on pledges made by individual members and that we assist further in the successful completion of the great work by help and encouragement to the other members of our churches. We are thankfully conscious of and deeply grateful to God for the splendid response already made by the W. M. Union of N. C., to this Campaign. We rejoice that our quota has been reached, but we earnestly hope that every society will endeavor to meet its pledge. To accomplish this there must be yet more sacrificial giving, a fuller and deeper appreciation of our relationship to God as stewards, the coöperation of the members who have made pledges, more faith-filled prayer, and a more Christ-like vision of humanity and its needs. In these things we earnestly pray that this great task may be accomplished with success and with great glory to Him.

III. Wishing to emphasize still further the importance of stewardship in the accomplishment of this great task we recommend the prayerful study of stewardship and the conscientious practice of it; and the coöperation on the part of the societies with any denominational program for the accomplishment of this.

IV. That during the new year we emphasize and greatly strengthen our Young People's work. We view with great pride the wonderful growth and achievements of these organizations under the consecrated and efficient leadership of Mrs. T. M. Pittman and Mrs. R. N. Simms. They rejoice with us that these Young People's organizations have passed from the stage of infancy and dependency into one of such vigorous growth and activity that their care requires the services of a full-time leader who can give all of her time to this work. In view of this new era of their work we earnestly recommend that especial emphasis and encouragement be given the Young People's work in all of its phases during the coming year.

V. In view of the enlarged work and increased opportunities for service among our young people, we recommend that our societies pray more earnestly and that our members place themselves more fully in the hands of God to be used as His instruments in the calling of our young people, both girls and boys, to definite Christian service, and that more of our consecrated young women may fit themselves for service in our W. M. U. Training School in Louisville.

VI. That we incorporate into our work this year the spirit embodied in the "Plan of Work," that is, that through mission study we become informed and enthusiastic workers in our Master's cause, through prayer, consecrated and spirit filled co-laborers of His, through study and practice of the principles of stewardship, we become honest and trustworthy stewards of God; through personal service we exemplify to the world the compassionate heart of Christ toward the sick and needy and unfortunate of the world, and in the winning of the lost to Christ, and in the enlistment of those saved in active service we carry out Christ's great commission to his followers.

The Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, Mrs. H. F. Brinson, Durham, made the following report:

RESOLUTIONS

We, the visitors and delegates to the thirty-fourth Annual Meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina, desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the city of Goldsboro for the many kindnesses extended to us during our stay in your city.

First of all, to Mrs. George Norwood, Chairman of the Hospitality Committee, under whose capable leadership our every comfort was anticipated and cared for.

Also we wish to express our appreciation to the transportation, welcoming, publicity and registration committees for their cordial welcome, registering and conveying us to our homes while in the city; and to our gracious hostesses who not alone opened the doors of their homes, but their hearts as well.

To Dr. Wall for his interesting ministries.

To Mrs. Zeno Wall for her most charming words of welcome.

To Miss Juliette Mather for her beautiful address.

To Mrs. C. C. Hoggard of Ahoskie for her faithful and efficient service as Recording Secretary.

The postoffice, information and rest room committees each rendered us valuable service.

The lovely flowers were messages of cheer to us from the decoration committee. The badges with their attractive buttons were another expression to us of Christian greetings from the Chamber of Commerce.

Deserving special mention is the music committee under the leadership of Mr. D. L. Sheldon, and especially to Miss Pauline Patton do we express our thanks for her beautiful messages in song.

The courtesies of the pastors and laymen and the young ladies of the church who acted as pages have been sincerely appreciated, and have added greatly to the pleasure of our visit.

To Rev. W. M. Gilmore for his excellent reports of our meeting.

To the railroad officials and daily papers, especially the "Goldsboro News" for their splendid coöperation, to the Wayne National Bank for the stamped post cards; to the Brown Drug Store and Andrews Drug Company and Palace Drug Company for courtesies; to Henley Furniture Company, to Efrds, and to Kress for the dainty folders; to Mr. Bain for the pads for taking notes; to Messrs. N. E. Bradford and Mohn R. Crawford for the hundreds of sharpened pencils; also to the Nash Printery and Brown Brothers for note pads; to the Boy Scouts who were so courteous and thoughtful of us, and for the inspiring messages as have come to us from Drs. Porter, Wall and Kester, we would express our sincere appreciation.

We deemed it a special privilege to have a number of our beloved returned missionaries bring us messages, and for the beautiful solo by Mrs. Braun. For the nourishing lunches with which we were served. We have indeed reached mountain-peak experiences and received many blessings that we shall carry back to our homes and treasure in our hearts. Therefore, be it resolved:

I. That these resolutions be a means of expressing our gratitude.

II. That a copy be spread upon our Union Minutes and a copy be sent to the Goldsboro News.

OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION

Winston-Salem, N. C., March 31, 1925.

The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina was held with Brown Memorial Church, Winston-Salem, March 31 to April 2, 1925. The meeting opened Tuesday evening, Rev. W. D. Spinx, of Winston-Salem, presiding. "Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing" was sung. The Scripture lesson, Romans 10:1-15, was read by Rev. J. F. Carter, of Winston-Salem. Prayer was offered by Rev. J. A. Snow, of Winston-Salem. The Convention sermon was preached by Rev. Chas. L. Greaves, D.D., Pastor of Tabernacle Church, Raleigh; text, Acts 16:14, 15; subject, "The Relationship of Character to Mission."

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 1

The opening business session was called to order at ten o'clock, Mrs. Wesley N. Jones in the chair. "How Firm a Foundation" was sung and Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Superintendent of Pilot Mountain Association, led the devotional exercises, using some verses from the first chapter of Joshua. Prayer was led by Miss Kathleen Mallory, of Birmingham, Ala. An Address of Welcome was given by Mrs. W. D. Spinx, of Winston-Salem; response by the president, Mrs. W. N. Jones.

Motion was made by Mrs. J. J. Roddick that the calling of the roll be dispensed with and those whose registration cards had been deposited with the secretary be recognized as constituting the organization. Carried.

Miss Mary Warren made the motion that the program in the hands of delegates be adopted as the order of business. Carried.

Hymn, "Love Divine," was sung. Report of the Corresponding Secretary, Miss Mary Warren, was read and adopted.

ANOTHER YEAR

Again I am permitted to bring to you an account of our stewardship. This report represents not only my own small service but the splendid service of many co-workers—the Executive Committee, Committee Chairmen, Associational Superintendents, Young Peoples' Leaders, and even down to the society leaders and especially those in the office with whom I have been so closely associated. May God bless them all. It has been a peculiar joy and great blessing to work with every one.

While walking home from the office sometime ago, near the close of the year, one of the most beautiful sunsets I think I ever saw was before me. As I gazed at its golden glow, words were wanting to express the deep emotions of my heart. There were heartaches because of many things undone, the fields are white and the laborers are so few. An increased faith and great joy thrilled my soul when I thought of the answered prayers, the unenlisted ones brought into service, and especially do I rejoice that this year our work has gone forward in all lines.

While gazing at the golden sunset, its array of colors and its radiance, had I been an artist I would hold before you a picture representing your work. The golden glow which stood at the center represents the 2298 active societies, and from these organizations go thousands of smiling faces in the spirit of prayer, arms loaded with cares and busy feet for the Master.

The green flashes would represent growth—life that is flourishing. During the year 330 new societies were added to the list which is an increase over last year of 48. The Charlotte Division leads with 111; followed by Greensboro, 62; Wilmington, 56; Elizabeth City, 53; Asheville, 48.

The Eastern and Flat River Associations lead with twenty each; the Roanoke, 17; and King's Mountain, 16.

The beautiful halo of purple would represent Woman's Missionary Union spirit brooding over all of her activities, caring for her children. All during the year she has been watching the Standard, strengthening the weak points of the societies. Six hundred and fifty-three were graded on the Standard of Excellence, 157 made all points, and are graded as A-1. Two hundred and six are in class B; 172, class C; 118, class D.

The Associations reporting the largest number of societies that met four points and more on the Standard are: Roanoke, 48, 14 of which are A-1; West Chowan, 44, 11 are A-1; Mount Zion, 39, 17 are A-1.

The banner churches, with full graded Woman's Missionary Unions, all societies making at least four points on the Standard are: Antioch, Little River Association; Rocky Hock, Chowan; Magnolia, Eastern; Burnsville, Yancey; and Stoney Creek, Roanoke.

Most tenderly has the W. M. U. spirit been hovering over her organizations, watching and guiding her youth in the Asheboro Street Church, Greensboro. Only one full graded W. M. U. with all societies A-1, stands in a class of its own and is the Banner W. M. U. of our Union. Where is it? Asheboro Street Greensboro! God grant that the mother spirit may hover over the young people and lead their feet into active, joyful service.

The violet flashes of love, watchfulness, and prayers will naturally send out its golden rays of yellow as we have gone on our mission to help others. The social life, the personal touch either in person or by letter, reporting faithfully the work you have done, have brought rays of sunshine to brighten and cheer the hearts of your officers. One thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight societies reported during the year; 939 reported every quarter. Oh, that we had heard from every society each quarter!

On June the first we were happy to have Miss Dorothy Kellam, Atlanta, Ga., come to us as Young People's Leader. She has added cheer to all of us and especially to our young people. She will give her work in detail.

You have written letters, we have answered them; you planned meetings, we tried to attend; we have worked and planned together.

During the year 51 Annual Meetings were held; 41 of these were attended by the officers.

Three Division Meetings were held: Asheville, Charlotte, and Wilmington. We were fortunate in having Miss Blanche White, the W. M. U. Field worker, attend the Asheville Meeting which met in Hendersonville.

Perhaps there is no time during the year where the social life and personal touch are manifested more than at the Assemblies. We had unusually good attendance, and increased interest in all of these.

Mrs. C. E. Maddy taught "Japan on the Upward Trail" and Miss Janie Parker taught "The King's Own" at the Eastern Assembly, Morehead City. At the Mountain Assembly, Mars Hill, Miss Annie Logan taught "W. M. U. Methods," and Mrs. Perry Morgan taught "Chinese Lanterns." It was the privilege of your Corresponding Secretary to teach the "W. M. U. Manual" at the Eastern Assembly and "Ming-Kwong" at the Mountain Assembly, also hold informal conferences as needed.

The same interest was manifested in the Chowan Assembly. Miss Kellam taught "Ming-Kwong" and Mrs. R. B. Lineberry, "Manual of W. M. U. Methods." We urge our women and young people to take greater interest in our Assemblies. Surely these are great opportunities and we must not fail to grasp them in reaching the young people.

We are deeply grateful to Dr. Maddry and the State Mission Board who have made it possible that we may have two field workers. Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok, North Wilkesboro, is working with our women in eleven associations; Miss Ozelle Gardner, Morganton, is at work in the Catawba River Association. They, too, are an inspiration to all with whom they labor.

As I studied the sunset scene, it seemed that the red which furnished the heavy background stood out most prominent and brightest of all the colors. To me this represented the spirit of sacrifice—love gifts in bringing the Great World-Wide-Program to a glorious victory. Many precious letters were received relating the joy of sacrificial giving: from emergency women who not only paid their pledges but helped others pay theirs; the many love gifts which came through the Alabaster boxes; all of these helped make the success of our Great 75 Million Campaign.

The W. M. S. First Church, Asheville, led all of the societies in contributions with $8,923.30, the full graded W. M. U. gave $9,482.98. The Raleigh First Church W. M. U. came close behind with $9,221.30.

Most grateful are we to Mrs. D. Rich, Winston, for the contribution of $4,985.95 which brought the W. M. S. of Winston, First Church to $9,309.15 and placed this society at the head of the list in contributions.

The W. M. U. of Raleigh, First Church, led in contributions during the five year period, the total amount raised was $46,535.20. Asheville, First, came second with the total amount contributed $41,318.40. While mentioning these larger contributions we are mindful of those women and societies who made sacrificial gifts and even gave the widow's mite in order that the Master's work may go forward. When we lay self at His feet, "Truly we can say not I, but Christ that lives."

"Others, dear Lord! Yes, Others
And none of self for me,
Help me to live for Others
That I may live like Thee."

MARY WARREN,

Corresponding Secretary.

Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's Leader, read her report which was adopted.

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER

Spring time is in our bones for from between the frills of the curtains in my room I saw many evidences of it as I collected my thoughts for this report.

Chubby little yellow-haired Bobby across the street runs out to shake hands with every one who passes. Here comes a whistling boy on a wheel. And here, bless her heart, is the healthy girl of a dozen or more years with books under her arm who thinks it is a sin for anybody—and herself in particular—to have to go to school on such a glorious spring day. No wonder at her disgust, for she has just passed Meredith College where the older girls are calling “good-bye” and running out with suit cases. They are homeward bound for the spring holidays!

Naturally my mind's eye pictures something more. What else could the tot with golden hair be but a Sunbeam? The whistling bicycle rider is a Royal Ambassador on an errand for the King, and we sincerely hope that the school girl has a little more life to put into her Girl's Auxiliary than is manifested in her laggard trudging home from school. The college girl is our delightful Y. W. A. friend.

This year has brought me the new and interesting experience of watching these four young people through our W. M. U. window, and often of running out to play big sister to them.

How they have grown! There are 112 new Sunbeam Bands, 28 new R. A. Chapters, 57 Girl's Auxiliaries, and 46 Y. W. A.'s making a total of 241 new organizations. This is 49 more new societies than we had last year. Total organizations of all young people 1320.

The children are growing in wisdom as well as in stature. There have been issued to young people 1,115 mission study certificates, 2,063 seals, 68 reading cards, and 136 stamps. Fifty-two Y. W. A. girls received official seals.

We are proud of the 91 A-1 organizations; 41 Sunbeam Bands, 19 G. A.'s, 6 R. A.'s and 25 Y. W. A.'s. Standard organizations are as follows: 64 Y. W. A.'s, 64 G. A.'s, 22 R. A.'s, 131 Sunbeam Bands. Total 281.

It is encouraging to see so many reporting even though not A-1. 926 reported during the year, and 398 every quarter. We thank the leaders especially for this.

The Sunbeam child contributed $12,227.41; the G. A. $5,-987.54; the R. A. $3,201.21; and the Y. W. A. girls gave $27,-921.73. Total $49,337.89. The North Carolina young people have led the other Southern Baptist States in contributions for the last three years, and let us hope this will make it four.

It was more than a blessing to seven of our mountain schools, and to me in particular, to have Miss Emma Leachman in our state for nearly three weeks in October. We needed her spiritual energy and good common-sense advice.

In our schools two new College Y. W. A.'s were organized at Round Hill Academy and Boiling Springs. Now 6 of the 11 are A-1. They are: Meredith College, Buie's Creek Academy, Mountain View, Sylva, Chowan, Fruitland. I have reveled in the good fellowship of Chowan and Meredith College girls during a week of mission study in each place. Wingate Junior College leads the list in the number of seals awarded. It is worthy of note that mission study is a part of the regular curriculum there for both boys and girls. Fruitland received the largest number of official seals. All except two schools were visited during the year.

Y. W. A. girls frolicked together and learned many things at our first South-wide Y. W. A. Camp at Ridgecrest in June. There will be another one this summer, June 16-26.

A new step has been the centralization of young people's work in each association under one leader.

The closing remarks of both Mrs. Simms' and Mrs. Pittman's reports for last year will ever fire me on to try to climb greater heights, leading mother W. M. U.'s four children along with me. Mrs. Pittman asked that you pledge me your "steadfast allegiance." You have given it beyond my fondest hope. Mrs. Simms besought you to pray much for your new leader, and without those prayers, I could never have brought you this report of your work. Thank you, dear friends and officers for lifting so much during this first year.

Once more, with His steady help, we will go forward! Arise to the call of our young people and our Master!

The award of the State Banner, which is given each year to the Association doing the best all-round work, was made by Miss Mary Warren, Corresponding Secretary, the Roanoke Association winning this honor. In the absence of Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, Superintendent of this Association, the banner was accepted by Miss Nina Collins, Sunbeam Leader of the Association.

Motion was made by Mrs. R. N. Barber that the Union send a telegram to Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, Superintendent of Roanoke Association, expressing regret because of her illness, and announcing to her that her Association won the banner. Carried.

Mrs. Wesley N. Jones gave her annual address. Topic, "Vision and Victory." A rising vote of appreciation was given for this address and for the reports of officers.

VISION AND VICTORY

It was not only the voice of God, but the vision of the far distant land that He had chosen for His people that gave Abraham the faith and the courage to leave his kindred and home and set out on the long and dangerous journey to a land and a people that he knew not. Moses, from the summit of Mount Nebo, looked into the distance and saw the land of Canaan in all its beauty and promise, but with the eye of faith he had seen that land for many years, and the sight had brought him a new courage and a new hope through all the trying experiences of the wilderness wandering. It was the vision of the Lord that came to Paul on the road to Damascus that was the incentive for his untiring labors and enabled him in the closing days of his life to say in a song of triumph, "I have fought a good fight; I have finished my course; I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord shall give me at that day."

Always those who through the passing years have wrought great things in the history of mankind have been the ones who with the natural eye saw the wrongs of the present, and with the eye of faith saw the possibilities of a changed condition.

It was a vision of the world's deep need, brought to us through the heart-breaking experiences of four years of the world war, and the realization that only Christ could meet that need that caused the leaders of many of our great denominational organizations to put on a program five years ago that would in some adequate way make His name known to all men, and thereby right the wrongs of our present civilization. We cannot trace the history of these great missionary movements, but must confine ourselves to the one in which we had a part, "The 75 Million Campaign." Dr. Geo. McDaniel, the President of our Southern Baptist Convention, says, "Looking back upon the campaign I am firmly convinced it was of God. He was not responsible for the human blunders, which are now perceptible to all, but He was as surely in that movement as He was in Israel's emergence from Egypt and entrance into Canaan. Israel was sometimes faithless and disobedient, and suffered the consequences, but their children came into the Land."

There is no question but that the past five years record was the greatest missionary movement since the great command to evangelize the world was given. We did not accomplish all that we hoped for, because some who caught the vision of a mighty achievement lost it in the contemplation of the needs nearer home, but there is no period in the world's history when there was such a definite plan and such a large accomplishment toward winning the world to Christ. Briefly I want to recall to you a few of these accomplishments gathered from the various reports that have been made.

Southern Baptists contributed as much to Foreign Missions in the past five years as they did in the seventy-four preceding years of the Convention's history.

Our Foreign Mission force has been doubled.

Seven new countries have been occupied, adding 128,000,000 of people to our missionary audience.

We have baptized as many persons on our foreign fields as we had members on the fields after our many years of work at the beginning of the campaign.

We have increased the number of churches in foreign fields by 590, the number of schools from 512 to 860, and the number of students more than 100 per cent.

The hospital work in foreign fields has been doubled, the number of hospitals increased from fourteen to twenty-three, and in our own country we have added twelve hospitals and have treated 195,000 patients, and given over one million dollars in charity service for those who would not have been helped but for our ministry of healing.

We have added 426,542 new members to our churches who alone should give to the 1925 Program a strength and power that should bring success to its every aim.

More than fifteen thousand of our young people have enlisted for definite Christian service, and for the first time we have more trained workers than our boards are able to send out.

Sixteen million dollars have been put into our various seminaries, schools and colleges, and we have added eight thousand to the enrollment in our schools.

Two new orphanages have been established, bringing the number of Southern Baptists are maintaining to nineteen. Nearly two million has been spent in the better equipment of these orphan homes, and over three million in clothing and feeding and educating these children that it is our privilege to care for.

For our aged ministers through our Relief and Annuity Board Southern Baptists have done more the past five years than in all the years prior to the Campaign. An interest-bearing endowment and reserve fund for relief alone of more than five hundred thousand dollars has been established, and the annuity allowance increased to five hundred dollars a year.

These brief statements give but a glimpse of what has been done, but we want to look particularly at the work of the Woman's Missionary Union in which we are vitally interested.

We must not lose sight of the fact, when we begin to think and speak of the large increase in the gifts of the Union the past five years, that up to the beginning of the campaign no reports were made by the States of money given to State Missions, Christian Education, Ministerial Relief, Hospitals and Orphanages. Contributions to these objects formed a part of each State's records, but were not included in the reports given by the Woman's Missionary Union of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The year preceding the Campaign Southern Baptist women gave a little more than six hundred thousand dollars. During the five years of the campaign their gifts averaged a little less than three million annually. The total gift of the Union for the thirty-one years previous to the campaign amounted to $5,712,200.80. The total amount given during the campaign was $16,713,140.00.

There can be no question that as far as the Woman's Missionary Union is concerned the campaign was a glorious victory. Not only along the line of contributions, but in number of organizations, increased interest in mission study, training in Christian service, in all departments of our work there was marked progress.

In North Carolina the Campaign brought to us a new conception of giving. In the beginning of our woman's mission work it was largely a gathering of pennies and dimes. Many of our members paid only a small sum each month, dues, we called these small gifts. Then came the special offerings each making its own appeal and giving us the opportunity to make larger gifts. Gradually as our interest increased because of increased knowledge we began to give more liberally. Tithing was stressed, and many societies could claim a few tithers among their members.

The first year of the Campaign we increased our gifts from a little less than one hundred thousand dollars to more than three hundred thousand and for the entire Campaign period we gave $1,683,885.21. During this time we increased the number of our missionary organizations from 1845 to 2164 notwithstanding the fact that a large number were dropped from our roll because of their giving all funds to local activities. 1980 Mission Study classes were held and 10,965 seals awarded. As a result of our Personal Service work 1153 conversions were reported and 7302 religious services held, to say nothing of the large number of visits to sick and strangers and the help given to those in need.

Our Associational Superintendents traveled 76,162 miles, your officers 66,374 miles, a total of 142,536 in the interest of the Campaign. 98,147 letters were written and 586 talks made by the officers of the Union and 72,197 letters written by the Associational Superintendents. 8,577 tithers were reported, and 42,950 women enlisted in the work of the Union. Herein lies one of the weak points in our work. It is estimated that we have 150,469 women in our churches. Less than one-third of this number are enrolled as members of our Societies. Not more than one-third of the 3,500,000 Southern Baptists had any part in the Campaign. It is imperative that we reach this unused power in our churches. If each member of a missionary society will this year reach one uninterested and unenlisted woman, next year we should report eighty-four thousand, over half of our women, as members of our Societies. Is this such a simple plan that we feel it is not worth our effort? It is simple, more than that it is practicable, and it would be impossible to estimate just what the results would be to the work of the kingdom. This is but a partial record of what has been accomplished. Not until the day when the secrets of all hearts are revealed, will we know the love and the labor that have gone into this Campaign.

With grateful hearts to Him who has enabled us to do such large things for His name's sake and glory we would offer our tribute of praise and thanksgiving today. Ours has been a joyful privilege, to Him we give the glory.

To the great host of women throughout our state who have labored in season and out of season and who have made these large results possible, we would acknowledge the indebtedness of your officers and would express our sincere and heartfelt appreciation for your labor of love, your sympathy and cooperation.

As we go into the new program, let us go in faith, believing that God who has led us thus far will lead us until His will for us shall be accomplished. We must stand for the things upon which we have builded our work throughout the years. First of all for prayer. The task is so great, there is so much to be done that it will be impossible to accomplish it unless we spend much time in prayer. It is only through prayer that there will come power in our service. We shall make no mistakes if we wait to follow His leading. It is only through prayer that we can bring our lives so into harmony with our Father in heaven that His Spirit may come into our hearts and fit us for the task before us. It is not by might nor by power but by my spirit, the message that came after the storm and the whirlwind through the still small voice to the great prophet of old that the world will be won to Christ. Always it has been our experience that the results were largest not when we were most active, but when we prayed most, and I do not question that this is the experience of all who are engaged in kingdom work. In every emergency, in every great effort in His ministry we find our Lord in prayer. He is our great example. What would it mean to our work if every one of our forty-two thousand women were remembering each day our nine o'clock prayer hour, were following day by day our prayer calendar and strengthening and girding with Divine power our missionaries and leaders. Go into the new program on your knees, remembering that power is of God.

Then we must inform our people. How thrilling are the stories of missionary interest and activity today. There has never been anything in the world's history to equal it. God is moving upon the people of the earth. There is no excuse for having an uninteresting missionary program. No fiction can record such achievements, such sacrifices, such wonders as our missionary annals, but so few are reading and studying the modern "Acts of the Apostles." Not only must we give our best thought to the preparation of the monthly program in our missionary societies, but we must have in every Society our mission study classes, our reading circles and see that our denominational paper and missionary magazines are not only circulated among our members but read and studied. Our people must be informed.

The first poster we had in the Campaign, the one that was hung on the wall of every church in North Carolina, was an outline of our Campaign program for four months. The type was so large that all could see these words, "Intercession, Information, Enlistment, Stewardship." One follows the other in a natural sequence; Intercession that the Spirit of God may move upon the hearts of His children; Knowledge of what is being done to carry out His Divine plan and will; Enlistment in His service and a life held in trust for Him. Do you wonder that a program like that was followed by Victory Week? Built on this foundation the New Program will bring a greater achievement than the old, great as that has been.

Paul still blinded by the heavenly vision said, "Lord what wilt thou have me to do." Jesus said to His disciples, "I appoint unto you a kingdom." In these words we find our commission. To the disciples at the last supper He said not only, "If ye love me keep my commandments," but, "If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love." Our service is the measure of our love to the Master and the assurance of His abiding presence in our lives. In Dr. Van Dyke's A Legend of Service he tells the story of the angel whose duty it was to bring to the Lord of the angels reports of those who had shown great devotion to God. The angel questioned as to which of three devout men had loved and served best of all. The Lord gives him a message to take to each of them that will be a test:

"Tell each of them the Master bids him go
Alone to Spiran's huts across the snow
There he shall find a certain task for me
But what, I do not tell to them or thee."

The angel goes first to the temple where the great preacher is about to speak and gives him the message. The preacher startled looks around and whispers, "Why?" Then he goes to the humble scholar whose devotion had so impressed him, but the scholar with sorrow and reluctance thinking of his limited strength, and questioning his own ability, asks, "How?" Then to the third, the humble servant whom he finds joyfully at his daily task, he carries the message:

"He whom thou servest would have thee go
To Spiran's huts across the snow
To serve Him there."

And the angel's face grew bright as the answer came, "When?" and he took the circlet from his brow and gave the crown answering, "Now." May the realization of the privilege that is ours in being, "Laborers Together with God," "That the Whole World May Be Filled with His Glory" so possess our hearts and minds that the every day tasks of life may be transformed by His presence, and when the call to His service comes, may we answer not "Why" or "How" but give to Him a joyful and an unquestioned obedience.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES.

Song, "Simply Trusting Every Day."

The report of the Training School Trustee, Mrs. R. N. Simms, was read. Recognition of the Training School girls present was given and prayer was offered by Mrs. T. M. Pittman for our Training School girls. Report was adopted.

REPORT OF W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

It is always a very distinct pleasure to me to present to you the yearly report of our W. M. U. Training School, because I know that this wonderful institution holds one of the first places in the hearts of our women. They show their love by the gift of money and the gift of their daughters, by their prayers and constant thought.

A few days after our Annual Meeting last year North Carolina women sent their gift of chickens for the Easter dinner, and these were so abundant that not only were there plenty for Easter, but also enough for the Senior dinner. Miss Littlejohn wrote most kindly of their appreciation and enjoyment. We are asked to make the same gift this Easter.

The session of 1923-1924 was completed in a splendid way, fifty-four graduates taking part in a beautiful commencement, with Miss Kathleen Mallory, just returned from the Orient, making a splendid address.

Miss Carrie U. Littlejohn, who accepted the duty of acting as principal so reluctantly, made a fine officer during both years. It is a pleasure to tell you that after much prayerful consideration a lady principal has at last been chosen, and will begin her duties soon. I am not at liberty to divulge her name, but I can say that she is splendidly qualified and is greatly loved by all who know her.

It is felt that the school will not only maintain its high standard and fine spirit under her direction, but will go forward in a worthy way.

This past session opened in September with a smaller attendance than they had for three years, due to a number of things, depressing financial conditions in the South, inability of the Board to appoint the usual number of new missionaries, fewer opportunities to enter definite Christian service at home, etc.

North Carolina still leads in the number of girls enrolled, having twenty this year, South Carolina being second with fifteen. Ten of these girls are on scholarships or loans, and ten are meeting their own expenses. Miss Gertrude Mattison, of Raleigh, is chairman of the North Carolina group. It is a joy to know that our girls are entering wholeheartedly into all the various activities of the school, scattering joy and sunshine in many ways.

This year our Executive Committee is recommending that we give assistance to fourteen girls, this number including scholarships, both private and associational.

The Good Will Center, always the medium for such fine training for girls, was in charge of Miss Webb, of Georgia, and Miss Greene, of South Carolina, during the summer months. The Training School family are rejoicing over the fact that they are to have a new Good Will Center. Miss Alice Johnson, of Virginia, is the new and very capable director of Good Will Center work.

House Beautiful was kept open through May last year to accommodate the women in attendance on the Sunday School Clinic held in Louisville.

In addition to the splendid gifts for the table, which are such a help, there have been other fine things done. Mrs. Willie Chilton, of Christian County, Kentucky, remembered the school with a legacy of $2,600, a legacy of $500 has been left by the husband of a member of the Board of Managers, and a gift of $100 from the estate of Miss Erie Brown has been received. The Alabama trustee presented the school with a long-desired gift, a sedan car, which is called "True Love." Another dearly prized gift is a portrait of the dearly beloved principal, Mrs. McLure.

As the Training School will not be able to depend upon the Seminary Library when the latter institution moves out of town, our Board is already very wisely trying to provide against that day by considering ways and means to build up a reference library. Some Liberty Bonds, kept in reserve, were voted as a nucleus, and the $100 gift from Miss Brown's estate added, making a total now of $325. This is a definite need of the school, and it is hoped that interested friends and alumnæ will take the hint.

It is of particular interest to note that practically every girl in school took the new course in W. M. U. work this year. This is especially fine training, as every girl will have a chance to serve in W. M. U. work in one way or another.

North Carolina women have given splendidly of their substance this year. Their contributions amount to $4,633.30. We have reported through the Educational Board for endowment and enlargement the sum of $1,621.02.

Now let us set our faces and ideals forward and higher. Our Heavenly Father has been most gracious in this call to our young women for His service. Let us pray that He may continue to find them worthy, and let us be ever watchful and on the alert to direct and train them, and see to it that they have the opportunity to consecrate themselves for Christian work. And let us continue to pour out our gifts that these dear girls who heed His call may find their way into our House Beautiful, where they may learn to love Him better and serve Him more wisely.

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,

North Carolina Trustee.

Report of Margaret Education Fund was made by Mrs. T. M. Pittman, North Carolina member of this committee. Mrs. Pittman showed to the body a solid silver gravy spoon, a gift to the Margaret Fund by Mrs. G. E. Allen, of Raleigh, making the suggestion that by a collection we raise enough to redeem this spoon and return it to the owner. Collection was taken amounting to $117.68. Report was adopted.

MARGARET FUND REPORT

Scholarships from the Margaret Fund were awarded this year to sixty-four students. These came from missionary homes in Africa, Brazil, Chile, China, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Panama, and Switzerland.

Five of these students are at school in North Carolina, and our State W. M. U. is asked to have special oversight of them. They are: John Joyce, of Brazil, at Mars Hill; Wade Bostic, of China, at Mars Hill; Alexander Herring, of China, at Buie's Creek; Mary Herring, of China, at Meredith College; Clarissa Poteat, of China, at Meredith College.

Special societies were asked to send boxes to these boys and girls at Christmas, and others have promised boxes for Easter.

North Carolina was apportioned $400 of the $4,800 to be given to the Margaret Fund this year. Our treasurer's report shows $556.68.

Mrs. Guy E. Allen, of Raleigh, the daughter and granddaughter of missionaries, has given a handsome silver gravy spoon to be sold for the benefit of the Margaret Fund. It has been in her family more than a hundred years, so the gift is one of real sacrifice. This spoon is here in my hand today. We want to offer it to our Secretary, Miss Mallory. She will show it at the committee meeting at the Southern Baptist Convention in Memphis in May, and such disposal of it will be made as the committee sees best.

Respectfully submitted,

ELIZABETH BRIGGS PITTMAN.

MRS. CHAS. E. MADDRY, Chairman.

The body now heard Miss Emma Leachman, Field Worker of the Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga., in an address, her subject being, "The Call of the Home-Land."

The hour given to the Baptist Hospital having arrived, the Hospital Report was read by Mrs. J. J. Roddick, member of the Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF THE BAPTIST HOSPITAL

Gradually the ministry of healing is becoming a recognized part of our Baptist program. Some few people are still asking the question, "Do we need a hospital?" But the record of our work in our hospital answers conclusively the question and demonstrates beyond peradventure that caring for the sick is a necessary and blessed part of our ministry for our brethren and sisters.

Two thousand six hundred patients have been cared for since its opening twenty-one months ago. Three hundred and thirty of these were charity. They have come to us from every corner of the State—from the mountains and the plains, from the west and from the east, from the north and from the south—and from as many points come grateful expressions of praise and commendation. Many would have died, and many others would remain invalids for life had not this hospital opened its doors.

For the charity patients we have spent over $11,000. These charity patients have spent 4,553 days in the hospital. Some of them paid a part of the bill and a few churches sent us a donation to be credited to the account of the patient sent, but after giving credit for all this, the average cost per patient has been $35.00. That is not a great amount to spend to save a human life or to relieve a brother or sister from suffering and set them free to live and serve their day. Who would question the value of such an investment? If all the churches would patronize the hospital, encourage pay patients to come here, too, and increase our revenue, we could give this aid to hundreds more every year. These people came from as far east as Elizabeth City, Lumberton, Warsaw, Beaufort, and as far west as Saluda, Asheville, Murphy, and Black Mountain. They represent all classes of people. Among these charity sufferers have been children from the Orphanage, ministers and their wives from our humble country and small town fields, school teachers, students in college, and people without means from the farm, from the village, from the cities—everywhere—they have sought our care, and we have received them all when they have come recommended by the physician and the church.

We try to offer to these not only medical and professional care, but consecrated Christian sympathy and influences. This part of our hospital work has been the greatest asset and the most praised feature of our service.

We are using about 85 beds now, including the nursery and the children's ward. This means that we have our 65 beds for adults. We are handicapped because our private rooms are few in number. All those on the fifth floor are being used for nurses' rooms.

We need a Nurses' Home for many reasons. Chief among these is the great drain on our income. We must spend a great deal for rent and lose the whole fifth floor, which would bring in a revenue of about $800 per month, could we use it for patients.

Then our girls have to be scattered around, and when the next class is organized we will have these girls in three different places. We cannot give them the proper care or provide the proper surroundings for them, scattered this way. Besides they have no place for entertaining their friends, no place for recreation. We must lose ground unless this home is immediately provided.

The Board earnestly hopes that this year the W. M. U. may see some way to begin a plan that will relieve their fearful embarrassment and handicap. Nothing would increase our usefulness and possibilities more than the building of this home.

We need also to put our full force behind Mother's Day offering. You understand that Mother's Day offerings go to pay for charity. We have used $11,000 this far for this work. We are now spending about $1,000 per month, as the number of charity patients are greatly increasing.

Every dollar of the $11,000 we have used we have had to borrow. Three thousand three hundred and thirty-seven dollars of this we owe the State Mission Board, and the rest we owe the bank in this city. We can't go on borrowing for this purpose. The banks have told us we must stop. What shall we do? We can't stop doing charity work. That was the primary thing the hospital was built for. We must not let these, our brothers and sisters, die. We must raise at least $20,000 on our Mother's Day to pay what we already owe, and have something to do business with for another year. We must do this or close our doors, because as long as the hospital is open we will be compelled to take in the charity folk.

We want to ask that the ladies at this meeting will resolve to get behind the Mother's Day offering in their churches and in their associations and see to it that every one of them present the cause and make an offering for this work on that day.

Remember that every dollar given on that occasion goes for charity, and we have no other source from which to draw funds for this purpose.

The Baptist State Convention passed resolutions urging the churches to undertake to raise not less than $20,000 for charity work on Mother's Day, and we trust that the W. M. U. will pass similar resolutions at this meeting.

Of the number of patients received, there were 979 Baptists, 1,171 other faiths, 450 not Christians.

MRS. J. J. RODDICK.

Rev. G. T. Lumpkin, Superintendent of the Hospital, presented a number of nurses—Miss Edna Heinzerling, superintendent of nurses, and eighteen nurses in training. Misses Beach and Gillespie, who are in training for work on the foreign field, gave their impressions of the hospital. Superintendent Lumpkin spoke of "Our Need of the Hospital and the Hospital's Need of Our Support." Upon adjournment cars were provided to take the delegates for a visit to the hospital.

Adjourned with prayer by Mrs. H. M. Finch.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Rev. D. H. Wilcox, Winston-Salem, presided over this service.

"Onward Christian Soldiers" was sung, after which Rev. J. T. Byrum, of Winston-Salem, read as the Scripture lesson 1 Corinthians 13.

Prayer was led by Rev. H. W. Baucom, of Winston-Salem.

Rev. C. E. Maddry, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of State Convention, Raleigh, introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. C. E. Burts, D.D., General Director 1925 Program, Nashville, Tenn. Dr. Burts spoke on "The Challenge of the 1925 Program."

"From Greenland's Icy Mountains" was sung, after which the benediction was pronounced by Rev. D. H. Wilcox.

THURSDAY MORNING

After singing the hymn, "Take Time to Be Holy," devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Bertha Moore, Superintendent of the Sandy Run Association, using Acts 1:8, emphasizing "Our Judea."

Hymn, "I Love to Tell the Story," was sung.

Minutes were read and approved.

A telegram from the North Carolina girls at the Southwestern Training School was read. Mrs. R. N. Simms made a motion that this body send a telegram of love and greetings to our North Carolina girls at the Southwestern Training School. Carried.

Mrs. R. N. Simms read a letter from our North Carolina girls at W. M. U. Training School in Louisville. A telegram was sent in reply to this.

The hour for reports of Divisional Superintendents having arrived, Mrs. S. J. Beeker, Y. W. A. Superintendent of the Pilot Mountain Association, gave the report of the Charlotte Division in the absence of Mrs. T. B. Henry, Superintendent of that Division. Superintendents of the four other Divisions were present and reported as follows: Greensboro Division, Mrs. M. W. Buck; Elizabeth City Division, Mrs. C. C. Hoggard; Wilmington Division, Miss Macy Cox; Asheville Division, Mrs. C. A. Kluttz.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION

It is with gratitude in our hearts and praises on our lips that we submit this report, the best in our history. The Charlotte Division has this year contributed $102,361.37, thus leading the State. This Division also led in the number of new organizations, reporting 111.

There were 29 A-1 organizations, 169 standard societies. The association leading in A-1 organizations is the Pilot Mountain. Honorable mention: Brushy Mountain, Stanly, Gaston, and King's Mountain. The association leading in gifts was the Pilot Mountain, contributing $24,098.77.

Our Annual Divisional Meeting was held in June at Wingate, N. C., where is located one of our most promising junior colleges.

Among our visitors were the President of our State W. M. U., Mrs. W. N. Jones, Dr. Sam J. Porter, and our beloved missionary, Mrs. M. L. Braun, who has returned to her former field of labor. The Charlotte Division had the honor of the first visit from our new Young People's Leader, Miss Dorothy Kellam. Mrs. S. J. Beaker led the young people's work and was assisted in rendering a splendid and inspiring pageant by the secretary of Charlotte Division, Mrs. J. E. Hoyle.

This year the Division will meet in June at Newton with the South Fork Association which, under the leadership of Mrs. Mary Applewhite Killian, took the State banner, and was no less progressive under Mrs. S. T. Gaddy who left us for the beautiful beyond last year. Mrs. T. C. Singleton will be hostess superintendent and desires a large attendance at our June session in Newton.

Forgetting those things that are behind us, let us press forward toward the mark of the high calling in Christ Jesus.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. T. B. HENRY,
Superintendent.

GREENSBORO DIVISION

Once again we can truthfully sing:

"Here we raise our Ebenezer, Hither by Thy help we've come."

For, from this resting place we can review the endeavors of the past and plan for the future.

In response to a questionnaire sent to the eight superintendents of the Greensboro Division all replied promptly, answering every question and writing fully and encouragingly of the work in their respective fields. Each association has a young people's leader who is faithfully and cooperatively pushing the work among the auxiliary societies.

Several associations have been organized into groups trying to have at least one meeting a year in each group, while two associations report enthusiastic and helpful quarterly meetings. A definite time each quarter is scheduled for the meeting of the executive committee. Four superintendents think these meetings have meant more to the advancement of their work than any one cause. Each association held an Annual Meeting with two or three sessions, with well arranged instructive and inspirational programs. Raleigh Association, with part of Raleigh within its boundaries, had the joy of having our distinguished presidents, Mrs. W. C. James, of our southwide organization, and Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, of our own North State, in attendance. Both speakers were at their best.

We planned to have an Annual Divisional Meeting at Cary last June, when we were advised by the local board of health that we could not hold the meeting because of an epidemic of a contagious character in the community.

With the untiring work done in the past by these consecrated godly women, with the vision of the opportunities for service before them, with the call on every hand for greater endeavors, I believe the nineteen twenty-five program, as outlined by our leaders, will be carried to a victorious completion.

I attended six associational meetings in the Greensboro Division, as follows: Piedmont, Tar River, Central, Raleigh, Mt. Zion, and Beulah; also spoke at the Liberty Association; attended the State Convention at Goldsboro, Southern Baptist Convention at Atlanta, the Summer Assembly at Mars Hill for ten days, the Summer Assembly at Ridgecrest for a few days, and met with Dr. Maddry in Conference in Durham and at Hillsboro. I have written one hundred and ten letters, mailed three thousand pages of literature, and have traveled two thousand and eighty-four miles.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. MARTIN W. BUCK.

ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

It is with great joy and profound gratitude that we review the work of the past year and note the progress that has been made in the Elizabeth City Division. This division has shown marked growth and development along all lines, and has taken a vital part in our great campaign endeavors. A number of new societies have been organized, while our Mission Study classes have grown in interest and numbers. All four associations report progress.

In Chowan Mrs. Newbold labors untiringly since the resignation of Mrs. Gardner.

Under the capable leadership of Miss Una White, the women of West Chowan are supporting one missionary and two Bible women in China. They also have three scholarships in the Training School. Several of the societies in this association this year have sent boxes of supplies to some of our mission schools. Miss White is an enthusiastic Mission Study leader, and has a Circulating Mission Study Library in her association.

The Roanoke is indeed fortunate in having Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, a very enthusiastic worker, as its leader. She reports a wonderful interest in Mission Study, and says that one of the strong points in this association is personal service. The Halifax County women are going regularly to the State Farm on Sunday, holding religious meetings. Nash and Edgecombe are looking after their respective county homes, and are visiting them often and holding services, taking the inmates fruit, flowers and good literature. This association has doubled in numbers all junior societies, and has organized many W. M. S.

The work in the Neuse-Atlantic has gone steadily forward. Mrs. Lane, the newly elected leader, having left the association, Mrs. J. S. Hodges, of New Bern, has taken her place.

No divisional meeting was held this year, as the Convention met in our Division. This division regrets that all the societies have not, as yet, pledged to the 1925 Program.

As we lift up our eyes and look on the fields, may we see with a widening and deepening vision what Jesus saw when He said to His disciples, "Truly the harvest is plenteous, but the laborers are few." May we press onward in His service, "Never weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap if we faint not."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. C. HOGGARD,

Superintendent.

WILMINGTON DIVISION

All glory and praise to Him who has wrought through the W. M. U. of the Wilmington Division many wonderful things to prove His love and power, but we deeply regret being unable to report greater progress in the greatest of all work.

Of the nine associations in this division, Bladen, Cape Fear, Columbus, Robeson, New South River, and Wilmington have new superintendents.

We held a Divisional Conference in Wilmington in February with six associations represented. Four of the new superintendents were present, and have taken hold of the work with zeal and courage. We were assisted in this conference by Miss Mary Warren, who brought us much information and inspiration.

It was my privilege to attend associational meetings with Brunswick and Wilmington, and to lead the Wilmington meeting, in the absence of the retiring superintendent. I was prevented by heavy rains from reaching Cape Fear-Columbus and Robeson associational meetings.

It was also my privilege to meet in Clinton a committee from New South River and assist in securing superintendent for last half of this year, as they have had no superintendent since their annual meeting in October.

We have 338 churches in this division with 416 societies; 59 new, but a net loss of 13.

Bladen leads in new societies, 14. Eastern leads in total number, 94. Mission Study classes 93, Johnston leading with 19, but received no certificates or seals. Certificates 148, Robeson leading with 31. Seals 427, Little River leading with 223. Reading Circles 10, South River leading with 4. Reading cards for Juniors 70, Robeson leading with 61, and 29 stamps.

Tithers 564, Eastern leading with 225. Wilmington and South River made five points on the Standard of Excellence; Cape Fear-Columbus, Brunswick and Robeson 6, Bladen and Little River 7, Johnston and Eastern 8.

Cape Fear-Columbus and Eastern met campaign pledges for five-year program. This division reported $41,344.16 this year.

At the annual meeting of the Eastern, the W. M. Societies gave a shower of much needed articles for Fruitland Institute; the Y. W. A.'s and G. A.'s a shower for Yancey Collegiate; the R. A.'s and Sunbeams gave a shower for South Mountain Institute.

May He who owns us, our time, talent and possessions, continue to bless and lead us into greater service for Him.

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX, Superintendent.

ASHEVILLE DIVISION

If our 75 Million Campaign had only accomplished one of the things it did, it would have been a success. It has aroused a greater spirit of faithfulness among our Baptist women. After having once seen the greater field and greater responsibilities that lay before them, they caught the vision of what it would mean, and while reverses and sickness, and trouble have come, they stood firm. We are expecting them to stand as firmly during our 1925 Program. Our superintendents are indeed leaders in faithfulness, for it is due to their untiring zeal, and their great love for the Master that the progress has been made.

Our women made a heroic effort to redeem their pledges, and a great many did. However, it was not done without that same spirit of faithfulness and wonderful sacrificing of self. Our gifts this year are $26,408.44. This is quite an increase over last year. Asheville First Church led the State in gifts.

We held a divisional meeting at Hendersonville last May which was well attended, seven associations being represented. This year our meeting will be held at Sylva, May 19-20. We hope this one will be the best and most helpful that has been held so far. Mission study goes steadily forward; the books are so inspiring that we see the results long after the book has been studied.

An incomplete report shows 70 study classes, 820 seals and certificates, and 5 official seals. The First Church at Asheville led the State in Mission Study.

We have gained 36 new societies. All societies report doing Personal Service, and this is well, for we feel that we are truly ambassadors for Christ while doing these things. The hospital at Oteen and other Sanitariums near Asheville still claim the attention of a large number, and truly this is worth while. The patients are so eager for any attention that might be shown them that there is always an unsatisfied longing to do more after a visit there. May this and each succeeding year grow better as we remember the promise of the Master, "Be thou faithful until death and I will give thee a crown of life."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. A. KLUTTZ, Superintendent.

Vocal selection—Miss Pauline Patton, Morganton.

Motion was made by Mrs. R. L. Hardison, Superintendent of Pee Dee Association, that we send a message of greeting to Mrs. T. B. Henry, absent Superintendent of Charlotte Division. Carried.

Miss Kathleen Mallory, Corresponding Secretary, Southern Woman's Missionary Union, Birmingham, Ala., gave an address. Topic, "Witnesses of Faith, Hope, and Love."

Messages from Our Foreign Fields were given by Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt, formerly of Shanghai, China, and Mrs. A. R. Phillips, of Buenos Ayres, Argentina.

A letter to the Union from Mrs. M. L. Braun, of Kaifeng, China, was read by Miss Mary Warren.

Announcements. Delegates enrolled, 486; visitors, 125.

Adjourned with prayer by Mrs. John Wacaster.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

The hymn "All the Way My Saviour Leads Me" was sung.

Miss Sallie McCracken, of Thomasville, conducted devotional exercises, reading Psalm 106.

Minutes were read and approved.

Report of White Cross Chairman, Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, was read by Miss Mary Warren. Adopted.

REPORT OF WHITE CROSS WORK

In a letter last summer from Miss Alda Grayson, Superintendent of Nurses of the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, Laichowfu, Shantung, China, she asked that we send her twelve dozen pajamas for the convalescent patients there in the hospital. We were so glad to have this definite request. The letter was printed in the Recorder and some of the societies responded to this call. So far I have had fifty pairs reported to me, but there may have been some sent to Miss Grayson that were not reported to me. I do hope we soon have the amount she asked us for.

We now have another opportunity, which I hope we will respond to immediately. (Letter from Miss Grayson.)

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. Z. M. CAVENESS,
Chairman White Cross Work.

EXCERPT FROM MISS GRAYSON'S LETTER

"When I was getting ready to leave some of you said to me, 'Let us know when we can do anything to help you.' So I am coming with a request, and it is a pretty big one. We need a sewing machine very much. We have been using Mrs. Gaston's all these years, and it is showing wear. I am sure you can do this White Cross work and not let it interfere with your regular gifts."

Mrs. J. J. Roddick, Superintendent of Pilot Mountain Association, accepted this work for the Charlotte Division, saying that they would send a sewing machine to Miss Grayson at the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, Laichowfu, China.

Report of Mission Study was read by Miss Mary Warren, Superintendent, and adopted.

REPORT OF MISSION STUDY SUPERINTENDENT

William L. Stidger says: "Books are like windows of a great tower. They let light in. Every life is a growing tower. It is built up stone by stone. The higher it grows the darker it gets if we do not put a window here and there to let light in. That is what a book does to a life."

You have put in windows that have added light to your lives as you have studied missions during the past year. Some of you have been enabled to see not only our work at home, but your vision has been lifted and carried out into fields afar as you have continued your study.

Through mission study you have drawn the curtains back, your mental haze has been brushed aside, and you have learned to see with clearer vision the work and conditions in our homeland and the far-away fields. Information of the right sort is the foundation for effective and radiant lives.

In growing the life tower for the past year some have laid well the foundation and have studied the courses as prescribed, many are still adding windows while climbing the stairway. In reviewing the work of the year, let us see how well we have builded our tower. This can best be done in the light of our W. M. U. Fundamentals.

First, prayer is the cord which draws us close to our Heavenly Father from whom comes our strength. We have two splendid books—Intercessory Prayer and How to Pray.

The Bible is the first and greatest of all mission books, studying it from the missionary point of view we have, All the World and All the Word, and The Ministry of Women.

The prime object of every Christian should be that of winning souls for the Master. We are grateful for the books, Talks on Soul-Winning, and Bible Evangelism for those who would be soul-winners.

Not only should the Christian win souls for the Master, but she should enlist them and gently lead them into joyful service for Him. For this we have Making America Christian, Of One Blood, The Christian in Social Relationships, Ministers of Mercy.

Many letters have come to us with a plea for leaders—more leaders. Oh, if we could only realize what stewardship really means. I know of no better books on stewardship than Stewardship and Mission, Woman and Stewardship, and Stewardship of Life.

Then last, but not least by any means, you have builded strong the tower through the study of our fields. With your missionary bifocals you have been permitted to look into Cuba through Cuba for Christ; into our mountain schools through Oak and Laurel; and all about you through From Strength to Strength; The Highway Service; and into the History and Workings of our W. M. U. through In Royal Service; A Decade in W. M. U. Service, and the Manual of W. M. U. Methods.

Again through your mission bifocals you have been able to look into China in a very special way this year. Many valuable books have come into our possession during the year: China's Real Revolution, China's Challenge to Christianity, Home Letters from China, Ming-Kwong, Torchbearers in China, Chinese Lanterns, and Chinese Baby. Last year we studied Japan, and had some splendid books. Next year we are looking forward with great anticipations to the study of South America. (See page 100 for books recommended for study.)

More and more we are realizing that we cannot pray intelligently, work effectively, and give of our means as we should if we do not keep abreast with these times and our religious activities.

Some of you have so well constructed your tower and have completed the prescribed courses that you are assisting others and are holders of honor certificates. You are also encouraging the holding of church schools of missions.

The society reporting the largest number of study classes during the year is Gastonia, with thirty-nine, while Asheville, First Church, led with the largest number of seals, 347. The Mount Zion led all the associations in study class with 76, while Buncombe led with the largest number of seals, 413.

During the year I have reviewed new mission study books and prepared questions on seven. A mission study leaflet introducing the new course and plan of study was prepared and sent to all societies.

I could not close this report without adding a word of appreciation for your sympathetic cooperation in helping me keep the records, and especially for your patience during the transition from the old to the new course of study. I am deeply grateful to the leaders for their heart interest, the many hours of preparation of the teachers and students, the enthusiasm kindled, and the many loving prayers offered for workers afar and near. As you continue the study during the coming year may your life be as a lighthouse, aglow with radiance, leading others into richer, fuller, and happier lives in His service.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY WARREN.

The body was addressed by Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok, W. M. U. Field Worker, North Wilkesboro, on the subject, "The Other Woman."

Names of members who had been called away during the year were read by Miss Mary Warren, the audience standing in their memory. The hymn "Sweet Bye and Bye" was sung.

Barrus, Corresponding Secretary of the North Carolina W. M. U., 1911-1916.
2. Kathleen Mallory Hospital, Laichowfu, China. Supplies for this hospital are to be sent by our societies, as needed, through the Chairman of our White Cross Work, Mrs. Z. M. Caveness, Raleigh.

VIII. W. M. U. Training School:

1. The Woman's Missionary Union Training School, located at Louisville, Ky., shall continue to receive our most loyal support and co-operation. (1) Each society is asked to give a special program and a contribution to this school during the year, preferably during the summer quarter; (2) Out of these funds we will pay our proportionate part of the Current Expense Fund of the school and provide a loan fund of $2,800.00 including the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, or any memorial scholarship that may be established; (3) The associational scholarships are to be included in the above amount; (4) All money secured through the Education Board is to be used for the Enlargement and Endowment Fund of the Training School.

XI. Our Young People:

1. That each W. M. S. feel a mother's responsibility for the missionary education of her children of all ages by fostering Sunbeam Bands, G. A.'s, R. A.'s, and Y. W. A.'s. That strong young people's organizations help organize and foster others in nearby churches.

2. That each association elect one Young People's Leader who appoints assistant where advisable. Duties designated on leaflet from State Young People's Leader.

4. That all leaders become better informed through study of the Correspondence Course offered from W. M. U. Headquarters, Birmingham, Ala.

5. That the new grading for R. A.'s and G. A.'s be put into effect where leaders are available and it seems wise. Junior G. A. and R. A. ages, 9 to 12; Intermediate G. A. and R. A., 13 to 17.

7. That a College Y. W. A. in each college and school in North Carolina be the object of interest and concern to the school president and faculty, students, and local W. M. S., from which a hostess is appointed. That they follow suggestions in "The Officer's Council Guide Book," and get program material from "The College Bulletin." That attention be given to the Sisterhood Special, a fund to help our foreign students who are to return to their own countries and do mission work; and to the Pen and Brush Guild. That our girls be featured on programs at spring councils and summer association meetings.

8. That more enthusiasm be aroused for the study of missions, using books recommended, and receiving deserved awards.

9. That the Standard of Excellence be particularly upheld, recorded, and reported.

XII. Standard of Excellence:

1. That the uniform Standard of Excellence adopted by the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention shall continue to be our Standard. See page 98.

2. Standard of Excellence blanks will be sent out during the fourth quarter and should be filled out, answering "Yes" or "No" to each point, and returned with financial report.

3. Standard of Excellence charts for each organization can be secured from W. M. U. Headquarters, 1111 Age-Herald Bldg., Birmingham, Ala. We recommend the use of these as most helpful in attaining the Standard of Excellence.

XIII. Stewardship and Contributions:

1. That each society shall appoint a Stewardship Chairman who shall (1) get members to sign Stewardship Card and keep records of cards signed, these cards to be reported to the State Corresponding Secretary and Associational Stewardship Chairman; (2) Furnish tithers with Individual Tithing Record Cards and aid in training our women and young people to be faithful stewards; (3) Direct every-member canvass when necessary and keep record of all pledges made.

2. The Woman's Missionary Union strives to train its members in giving systematically to the benevolences of the Convention, contributing according to the plan of the local church. During the three seasons of prayer, and for objects committed to the W. M. U., special offerings are taken. All other contributions are made to the 1925 Program.

3. All societies should send quarterly reports to Miss Elsie K. Hunter, W. M. U. Treasurer, Raleigh, promptly at the close of each quarter: First Quarter closes May 31, 1925; Second Quarter closes August 31, 1925; Third Quarter closes December 31, 1925; with December, 1925, our year to be closed with the calendar year.

4. Expense Fund: (1) Each society be asked to send an amount equal to ten cents per member to the W. M. U. Treasurer for a State Expense Fund, this fund to be used for officers' traveling expenses, office rent, printing and incidentals. (2) An amount equal to five cents per member should be sent by each society to the Associational Superintendent for expenses in associational work.

5. All funds for the W. M. U. Training School, the Bible Fund of the Sunday School Board, the Margaret Educational Fund, and the State Expense Fund, are to be sent direct to the W. M. U. Treasurer, Miss Elsie K. Hunter, Raleigh. Gifts to the Orphanage are to be sent to Mr. F. B. Hamrick, Treasurer, Thomasville. Funds for the 1925 Program, embracing all other benevolent objects, should be sent through the church treasurer to Mr. Walters Durham, Treasurer, Raleigh.

6. Report blanks are to be sent the societies by Associational Superintendents, these blanks to be signed by the church treasurer when money is paid to him, the society treasurer forwarding these signed reports each quarter to the W. M. U. Treasurer who makes her financial records from such reports.

7. That our financial aim for the year be $333,333.33; for ten months, $277,777.77.

The Report of Time and Place Committee was made by the Chairman, Mrs. C. L. Haywood, of Durham. Adopted.

RESOLUTIONS

As the thirty-fifth Annual Meeting of the W. M. U. comes to a close we, the delegates and visitors, wish to express our appreciation of the many courtesies extended to us during our stay in the Twin City.

To Mrs. G. T. Lumpkin, her committee, and our hostesses, for the cordial welcome and the delightful hospitality accorded us.

To all those who have furnished tablets, pencils, arranged for luncheons, and in any way facilitated our work, we are grateful; also for the publicity given to our meeting through the splendid reports given by the daily papers, Winston Sentinel and Winston-Salem Journal, and the reports of Mr. Gilmore to the daily papers of the State.

To the Transportation Committee, who have so faithfully piloted us to our homes and for the delightful drive to our Baptist Hospital, where we inspected our great plan for healing the sick. The superintendent and nurses from our State Baptist Hospital deserve our heartfelt thanks for giving us a glimpse of our hospital work through their splendid program, also for the luncheon given at the hospital in honor of the Executive Committee and Associational Superintendents.

For the efficient services of the ushers, postoffice officials, registration and other committees we extend thanks.

It has been a pleasure to meet in the beautiful church building of Brown Memorial, and for this, the music, flowers and cooperation of the Baptist pastors of the city, we are grateful.

We esteem it a great privilege to have had among us and to speak for us, two of our beloved missionaries, Mrs. A. R. Phillips, Buenos Ayres, and Mrs. Eph Whisenhunt, Shanghai, China, who with our own Miss Mallory, Miss Leachman, Dr. Burts, and other visiting speakers, have filled our hearts with inspiration for future service. We feel especially grateful that Dr. H. A. Brown, beloved throughout the State, has been able to be in our meetings, shedding a benediction by his presence. Also for the beautiful Y. W. A. Pageant, "How the Light Came," written by Mrs. Maude Reynolds McLure, ex-principal of our Training School This pageant was written as a result of a study of "Ming-Kwong," our most interesting mission study book, enlarging our vision of what the Master has for us to do in His vineyard.

We are delighted to have had the opportunity of visiting the First Baptist Church building and inspecting their wonderful new plan. Especially beautiful in its appointments and the thought prompting it, is the Carrie Rich room, in memory of one of our former members.

We, the delegates, deem it a special privilege to say this, yet it does not express fully our appreciation of the many kindnesses shown us during our meeting in Winston-Salem as guests of the Baptist women of Winston.

Resolved (1), That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes.

Resolved (2), That a copy be sent to the papers.

Respectfully submitted,

PROCEEDINGS
OF THE
WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION
OF NORTH CAROLINA
THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION

Raleigh, N. C., March 2, 1926.

The thirty-sixth annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, was held with the First Baptist Church of Raleigh, March 2-4, 1926.

The meeting opened Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Dr. T. W. O'Kelley, of Raleigh, presiding. "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung. The Scripture lesson, Acts 16, was read by Dr. Charles L. Greaves, of Raleigh, after which Dr. R. T. Vann, of Raleigh, offered prayer. "Jesus Shall Reign" was sung.

The Convention sermon was preached by Dr. John R. Jester, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem. Text, Luke 12:56: "Ye can discern the face of the sky and the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?" Subject, "The Times in Which We Live."

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 3

The Union assembled for business at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, President, in the chair. Song, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee."

The morning prayer service was led by Mrs. J. A. Ellis, of Raleigh, who read Isaiah 51: 1-17. Mrs. Charles E. Brewer led in prayer, followed by Mrs. Jo Weathers. Solo by Mrs. W. H. Pittman, Raleigh, and a prayer by Mrs. Edna Harris.

The Union was graciously welcomed by Mrs. J. W. Bunn, of Raleigh. Response was made by Mrs. G. T. Lumpkin, of Winston-Salem.

On motion of Miss Inez Reid, the calling of the roll was dispensed with, and those whose registration cards had been deposited with the Secretary were recognized as constituting the organization.

On motion, the prepared program now in the hands of the delegates was adopted as the order of business for the session.

Our Union hymn, "We Praise Thee O God," was sung. The report of the Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Herman T. Stevens, was read and adopted, the Union giving Mrs. Stevens a rising vote of thanks for her faithful service.

REPORT OF CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

"Praising God for all things."—Luke 2:20.

If I had ingenuity enough I would try this morning to hold before you an account of all the activities of W. M. U. of North Carolina for the year 1925, March 1-December 31. This task is impossible and any attempt would be dry and unpalatable as spirit must lead and not acts.

In thinking of my work for the year and the preparation of this report, the one word "Praise" has ever been before me. Will you not let your imagination have free play and see before you an imaginary banner on which is written in large letters the word "Praise." Truly, every heart is brimming full of joy and profound gratitude for the marvelous way God has directed during the past year.

The first letter on the canvas would represent the prayerful hearts of patient and courageous women who often gathered in the churches for the monthly missionary meetings and the two seasons of prayer; also the numerous ones who found added strength and courage during that golden morning watch. How we do praise God for the sweet fellowship and joy of meeting at the throne of God at such holy hours.

The second letter before you would represent reports—yes, your reports and mine. "The shepherds returned glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen as it was told them." Likewise, your officers come today with a few tabulated reports as you have related your work to us. It is with grateful hearts that we come thanking God for the records of the year and in the making of these may His name be glorified.

The number of new societies organized and old ones revived during the year is 430. The number of active societies at the close of the year is 2,465. Because of the large number of organizations not reporting during the year, which have been dropped from our roll, there is only a net gain in the number of organizations over last year of 167.

High praises have been on the lips of many because 456 societies made at least four points on the Standard. Sad, sad to say that this is 149 less than the number reaching the Standard for last year. Some have been singing praises with gladness because 136 societies attained all 10 points on the Standard, and are graded as A-1. Roanoke Association heads the list with 36 standard societies, 13 of which are A-1. West Chowan comes next in line with 34 and 9 A-1. King's Mountain holds third place with 13 and 8 A-1.

Some are singing praises with gladness and are rejoicing over the distinction of having three full graded A-1 Unions; namely, Asheboro Street, Greensboro, Piedmont Association; Stoney Creek in the Roanoke; and Zoar in King's Mountain. These three hold the distinction of receiving the first banners presented by Southern W. M. U. to North Carolina for full graded A-1 Unions.

What better thing could the letter A represent than A-1 givers? All giving to all objects at all times for world-wide missions. Some have rendered praises to the Father with their substance. Some have paid their pledges and with joy they have made Thank Offerings. Many of these represent real sacrifices, for all of which we most earnestly thank God, and praise His name. While we are about 29 per cent of our goal for the 10 months, we are rejoicing over the fact that the total amount represents not only large gifts from a few societies, but 1,775 societies have had a share in this, and have reported at least one quarter during the year. 842 have been faithful to send reports all four quarters with their gifts. We are glad to place the W. M. S., Greensboro, First, at the head of the list in gifts, $5,295.33; Asheville, First, second with $4,778.29; Winston, First, $4,573.41, and Raleigh, First, $4,378.42. The Piedmont Association led with $16,492.21; Roanoke came next with $14,598.91.

The letter I rightly stands for the personal interest gained through knowledge. Many have joined the great host in singing praises with understanding as they have studied and turned the pages of our Mission Study books. With every forward step, there is a loss of something in the old, and something gained in the new. Such is true with Mission Study records. With the present system of study for the W. M. S. many have forfeited their old certificates and credits for books studied in the old courses, while in the new, they have gained the record cards, and later, their new certificates. It is heartening to know that through the fearful change the desire for Mission Study seems to have been strengthened. During the 10 months, 5,068 small seals have been issued, which is a gain over last year of 1,330.

The next picture on the canvas would represent service. First, I would mention the consecrated service rendered by my faithful partners in the office who with the sweetest spirits, have worked faithfully with all departments. In the second place, I am thinking of the ever-ready counsel and advice of our president, and the inspiration given by our Executive Committee. Again, I am thinking of the splendid cooperation of the Associational Superintendents, Chairman of Committees, leaders of Young People's organizations, even down to the faithful officers of the local societies. How our hearts are rejoicing because of the many volunteers who have shown the praises of Him who called them into the many places of service. During the year 51 Annual and 5 Division Meetings were held. Miss Juliette Mather and myself represented the Union at the Mars Hill Assembly. Mrs. C. C. Smith and I were the representatives at the Chowan Assembly.

Last, but not least, His praises shall continually be on our lips for the enlisted ones, those whom the faithful have led into larger fields of service. The W. M. U. is most grateful for the State Mission Board in making possible two field workers for the year. Miss Ozelle Gardner gave her time to the Catawba River; Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok devoted her time to ten Associations in the northwestern division. During the year, they traveled 12,930 miles, visited 164 churches, attended 390 meetings, made 188 talks, taught 43 Mission Study Classes, and organized 38 societies. Under the wise leadership of Mrs. Stukenbrok two associational W. M. U.'s were organized.

Under the proposition made by Dr. Van Ness at the Southern W. M. U. in Memphis last May, we have had two rural field workers: Miss Florence Thomasson, who worked during the months of August and September in the South Yadkin Association; and Miss Della Huggins working in the Western North Carolina during September, in the Tennessee River during October, and the French Broad during November and December. They spent 125 days in the work, reached 41 communities, revived 15 societies and organized 23, taught 23 Mission Study Classes, traveled 1210 miles, and made 46 talks, attended 16 meetings.

Another interesting phase of our enlistment work was the volunteer work among the Indians. As the result of an urgent appeal which came from Mrs. J. N. Lee, Cherokee, Miss Cora Lee Cannon gave the month of September in an unselfish, most beautiful service working with the Indians. During that time she attended 5 Indian churches. Talks, meetings conducted and classes taught during this time number ninety. Her service was gratis, and rendered in a most joyful way, the State Mission Board defraying only her traveling expenses.

Last, we mention the work of the officers. It is in great humility, yet in service, joyously rendered, that your officers have been privileged to attend 51 annual meetings. Mrs. Jones attended 18, traveled 5,231 miles, made 24 talks, and wrote 257 letters. Your secretary was privileged to attend 3 division meetings, 2 assemblies, 24 annual meetings, 4 County Unions, and 17 other meetings, making a total of 50. Talks made 73, miles traveled 8,430.

Having given you a partial report of our work for the year, I feel that I must add a personal word as I bring you my last report as Corresponding Secretary. I count it one of the greatest joys of my life in having been privileged to serve the women of my own State. His praises are ever on my lips because of His gift of you to me as true friends and co-workers. As I withdraw to the work of a local church, I am looking forward to joining the ranks of local volunteers, and there put into practice some of the many things you have been doing. We praise God for the progress we have made and for all of His blessings as we press along together in this session. In His sweet presence we gain fresh courage and inspiration for the coming year. May many hundreds of women and young people join in this great and glorious work, and they too shall swell the great chorus, as they follow His leading.

“Lead on, O King Eternal,
The day of march has come;
Henceforth, in fields of conquest
Thy tents shall be our home.
Through days of preparation
Thy grace has made us strong,
And now, O King Eternal,
We lift our battle song.

Lead on, O King Eternal
Lead on, lead on.”

Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's Leader, read her report, which was adopted.

REPORT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S LEADER

This is the month which mingles showers and sunshine. Is it not wonderful that every year at this season we have a time to look not only at the raindrops, but at the abundant showers of blessings that He has sent upon our little efforts? Thus comes the sunshiny happiness in our hearts which encourages, and makes us resolute to be more and more faithful in our illimitable opportunities to bless the world through the young people entrusted to us. "A faithful man shall abound with blessings."

Even though this year has been two months shorter than last, we find eighteen more new organizations than were reported last year. There are 46 new Y. W. A.'s, 75 G. A.'s, 29 R. A.'s, and 111 Sunbeam Bands, making a total of 261. And so we count our blessings!

As we "name them one by one," we can again rejoice over the blessings which reach to all lands through the gifts of the four W. M. U. children. In such showers of blessings dimes and dollars are the drops. If we make allowances again for the ten-month year, we should not be discouraged over our contributions. They are credited as follows: Y. W. A., $16,510.85; G. A., $3,482.59; R. A., $1,825.02; Sunbeams, $6,756.02. Total, $28,573.98.

Surely the study of missions has brought blessed results. Last summer at association meetings I made note of the fact that societies which reported the largest gifts were societies which reported the most mission study. Our mission study barometer indicates the award of 1,373 certificates, 1,833 seals, 81 reading cards, 109 reading stamps, 23 Y. W. A. official seals.

It is always a blessing to me when there is an opportunity to touch one of our schools or colleges. Not so many were visited this year, since this report can only include the four reached before January—Meredith, Buie's Creek, Chowan, and N. C. C. W. We are especially jubilant over the organization of a Y. W. A. at North Carolina College for Women where there are approximately five hundred Baptist girls. Due to the change in our scheme of reporting, we mention here the college Y. W. A.'s which were A-1 at the close of their school year in May, 1925. They are Buie's Creek Academy, Chowan College, Fruitland Institute, Mars Hill College, Meredith College, Mountain View Institute, Sylva Collegiate Institute, and Wingate Junior College.

A-1 organizations are as heartening as the sunshine itself. There are 14 A-1 Y. W. A.'s, 18 G. A.'s, 9 R. A.'s, and 44 Sunbeams, totaling 85. When all is adjusted to the calendar year, surely we can double this number! Standard societies, 214.

It is good to note that Junior G. A.'s and R. A.'s have been so heartily adopted for children between nine and twelve who have outgrown the Sunbeam Band.

During the past summer nine Associations featured Young People's Councils. They were Beulah, Central, Gaston, Little River, Mecklenburg-Cabarrus, Pilot Mountain, Roanoke, Robeson, and Tar River. They followed a suggested program planned for all four organizations, and a number have spoken of resulting benefits.

At the State Baptist Student Conference at Chapel Hill, a Y. W. A. banquet was a special feature with about seventy-five present.

Simultaneous with the Mars Hill Assembly, our R. A. and G. A. Camps occurred. They were under the excellent direction of Mr. James Ivey and Miss Lucy Spivey.

June 16-26 found the second Southwide Y. W. A. Camp within our own matchless mountains at Ridgecrest. North Carolina girls who attended can testify to its being a memorable occasion.

In the fall, five churches in Durham united in a profitable Y. W. A. week-end.

Thanking God for these showers of blessings, and remembering that "a faithful man shall abound with blessings," we will renew our efforts and seek daily for His energizing power!

Respectfully submitted,
DOROTHY KELLAM.

Mrs. H. T. Stevens presented the W. M. U. banner offered to the Associational Union doing the best all-round work during the year to the King's Mountain Association. It was accepted by Mrs. John Wacaster, Superintendent of the Association.

Mrs. Wesley N. Jones gave her annual address as President, the theme being, "Four Decades of Woman's Missionary Work." "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow" was sung, following which Mrs. R. N. Simms, in behalf of the Executive Committee, presented to our President a lovely basket of roses as an expression of their love and deep appreciation of Mrs. Jones and her untiring efforts for our Union.

FOUR DECADES OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION WORK 1886-1896. GIFTS $27,330.51

On this occasion, the fortieth anniversary of the organization of our Woman's Missionary Union or the Central Committee of Missions as it was then called, it is fitting that we should take a backward look and recall the experiences and blessings that have been ours as we have endeavored to advance the kingdom of God through our Woman's Missionary work.

At the time of the organization of the Central Committee Dr. Theodore Whitfield, pastor of the First Church, New Bern, was Vice-President for North Carolina of the Foreign Mission Board. Early in January, 1886, he came to Raleigh and was a guest in the home of Rev. C. T. Bailey, at that time Editor of the Biblical Recorder. The purpose of his visit was to organize in this state in the interest of the mission work an organization of women similar to the ones that were doing such effective work in South Carolina and in Virginia. There was much discussion over this matter between Dr. Whitfield and Dr. Bailey which resulted in their going one morning to see Miss Fannie E. S. Heck and laying the matter before her, asking her if she would serve as President of this Committee. Miss Heck consented and Dr. Whitfield returning from this visit said to me. "Miss Heck has agreed to be President of the Central Committee, and it is her wish and mine that you should be the Corresponding Secretary," and added, "your father wants you to do this." The latter was sufficient for me, and without knowing in the least what a Central Committee of Missions would be expected to do, I accepted. The next step was to select a committee of women from the two Baptist churches of the city. The Pullen Memorial Church was a mission at that time, and both the new President and Corresponding Secretary were teachers in the Sabbath school there.

On January 1886 in the office of the Editor of the Biblical Recorder the following ladies met and organized the Woman's Central Committee of Missions: Mrs. N. B. Broughton, Mrs. T. H. Briggs, Mrs. M. T. Norris, Mrs. T. E. Skinner, Miss Lida McDaniel, Mrs. J. M. Barbee, Mrs. John E. Ray, Mrs. W. E. Nelson, Mrs. R. G. Lewis, Mrs. G. W. Swepson, Mrs. W. H. Pace, Miss Maggie Perry, Mrs. T. D. Wray, Miss Fannie E. S. Heck and Miss Sallie Bailey. Two only of these ladies have served throughout the forty years of our history, Mrs. T. H. Briggs and your speaker. One, Mrs. N. B. Broughton, served thirty-nine years, having entered into rest the past year.

The committee meetings continued to be held in the office of the Editor of the Recorder, the Editor kindly vacating for that purpose. There was no money at our disposal, but the State Mission Board agreed to pay the necessary printing and postage expenses. As the work increased, the Board has been most liberal in meeting all needs of our Union, and today our work is loyally supported by our State Mission Board. This new committee found on investigation ten active missionary Societies in the State. Some of these were organized not long after Luther Rice's remarkable missionary journey through some of our Southern States soon after his return from Burmah, and probably were a direct result. Others were organized by the Central Committee appointed in 1877 whose work because of opposition was of such short duration. These Societies were giving about five hundred dollars a year. Seventy-five societies were organized the first year of our work, and their gifts to missions amounted to a little over a thousand dollars.

The Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention was not organized at this time. There were no prepared programs, no mission study text books, in fact very little missionary information could be obtained from any source. To meet the need of the Societies for information Miss Heck began the publication of a little sheet which she called, "The Missionary Talk." It was about the size of a sheet of ordinary letter paper and carried this text as a motto, "The Lord gave the word, great was the number of those that published it." Not one copy is in existence today that we know of, but it served a fine purpose in the beginning of our work.

The Corresponding Secretary resigned in 1888, and Mrs. James A. Briggs was elected to succeed her. Mrs. Briggs gave twelve years of most efficient service to the Committee. In 1900 the first Corresponding Secretary again took up the work. The duties of the Treasurer occupied nearly all of the time of both of these officers, and in the early years of our history Miss Heck did much of the work of the Corresponding Secretary in addition to her duties as President. The Missionary Talk and quarterly letters were mailed direct from her home.

In these first years many things stand out in our memory; first, the organization of Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention in Richmond, Va., in 1888. Miss Heck was present at this meeting and was deeply interested in this step which was to mean so much in the coming years, but the North Carolina committee was instructed not to take part in the organization. Looking back I do not think our leaders were opposed to it, but they feared a repetition of the events of 1877 and its effect on our new committee. North Carolina joined the Union in 1891, three years later.

Then we recall our first Annual Meeting in Goldsboro. This meeting was held at the same time and place as the State Convention in the fall of 1891. St. Paul's Methodist Church kindly opened its doors to us for our sessions. Fourteen Societies sent delegates, and our Treasurer's report showed a total gift for the year of $3,192.14, this a sixty per cent increase over the previous year. This first session is memorable because here we made plans for our first Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for China. Two thousand dollars was asked for from our Southern W. M. U., three thousand dollars was given, our gift was $256.28. Our gift the past year for this offering was more than ten thousand dollars. Plans were made for the Centennial Offering in 1893, for the building of memorial chapels at home and on our foreign fields. There was no Annual Meeting in 1893 as Miss Heck was ill during much of that year.

Associational Vice-Presidents, as they were then called, were first appointed in 1894. Their special work was to organize and foster the Societies in their respective Associations. The North Carolina Union has been wonderfully blessed in the work of its Vice-Presidents or Superintendents as we now designate them. Many of them served for a long period of years, and they have been a most important factor in the growth and success of our Union. We met that year in Charlotte, and Dr. Willingham, the Corresponding Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board, spoke on, "A Loving Memorial to Dr. and Mrs. Matthew T. Yates, by the Women of North Carolina," and the Yates Memorial Fund was begun. This was completed the following year, and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Britton were sent out to China as our Yates Memorial missionaries.

In connection with our Christmas Offering we began to observe the Week of Prayer for World Wide Missions, and so helpful had this been that in 1895 we began the observance of a Week of Prayer and Self-Denial for Home Missions. Later we changed this to a Week of Prayer and Thanksgiving for Home Missions.

These first ten years were the days of beginnings, but we think as we have recalled some of the events of this period we can see how well our foundations were laid; foundations on which we have builded all through the years.

Prayer—For God's guidance and blessing on all that we should undertake for His Name's honor and glory.

Service—On the part of every woman with the highest motive as shown by our Union Motto, "For Ye Serve the Lord Christ."

Information—That we might know as to the need and progress of the King's business and Stewardship—Of time, gifts and life itself.

The beginning of the second decade was marked by a step forward in the addition to our W. M. U. organization of a leader whose special work should be to train the children in our churches in mission thought and activity. Miss Elizabeth N. Briggs, (Mrs. T. M. Pittman) was chosen for this important position, and with what marked ability and how faithfully she performed this service for a period of twenty-five years is known all over our State. The Sunbeam work had been organized in Virginia through Mrs. Elsom and Dr. Geo. Braxton Taylor, a few years previous, and we had a few organizations in our churches, but it was not until Miss Briggs took charge of this branch of the work that there was any real development. This year over six thousand packages of literature were mailed to our Societies, and Miss Bertha Hicks (Mrs. Clyde Turner), kindly consented to help the officers with this part of the work. Miss Susan Clark (Mrs. W. A. Erwin), and Miss Susie M. Heck (Mrs. Alphonso Smith), aided Miss Heck frequently as the work became more arduous. We began the second period with eight Associational Superintendents at work in their respective Associations.

Mrs. H. B. Duffy, Neuse-Atlantic; Mrs. S. M. Robbins, Cape Fear; Mrs. A. J. Ellis, Central; Mrs. H. P. Markham, Mt. Zion; Mrs. Frank Bennett, Pee Dee; Mrs. H. T. Chapin, Sandy Creek; Miss Laura Lazenby, South Yadkin and Miss Grace Brown, West Chowan.

The Annual Meeting was held in the Methodist Church in Morganton, and there were nine delegates beside the officers reported in the minutes of that year's meeting.

The organization of a definite work of ministry to those in need in our own communities belongs to this second decade, mention of this being found first in the minutes of the session of 1897. We find also that the number of Associational Superintendents had increased from eight to twenty-one.

The emphasis at this time was laid on Enlistment, and we want to quote here a message from one of Miss Heck's annual addresses urging that every woman should have a part in our W. M. U. work which is as applicable today as it was then. "If God is anything, He is everything. Any education however high or broad is incomplete without a knowledge of God's present work in the world. Whether God is served on unpainted benches or silken cushions only that service is pleasing that serves to save all. We look and pray for the coming of the Lord again, and as another has said, 'Everything that makes for the advent of God in the world is right, everything that postpones it is wrong, that is the sum of the whole matter.' We may go further and say every act towards the coming of Christ's kingdom brings us into relation with Him, every act away from this end divides us from Him. We have our motto, 'Laborers Together with God.' It is not being laborers that ennobles us, it is being together with God." Our enlistment work is far from finished. May this message from one whose voice is silent but whose spirit is still with us inspire us to renewed effort along this line.

In the recommendations presented to the Annual Meeting was one looking to the organization of a Teacher Volunteer Corps to supply teachers during vacation months to any section of the state where this service was needed and desired. You will recall that this was the period of a four months term for our public schools in rural communities, before Governor Aycock made his great educational campaign in North Carolina. This movement was in response to an appeal from Mrs. Walter A. Clark, for many years a member of our committee and a woman with a most beautiful Christian spirit. She had seen a vital need for work of this kind. The teachers were given board by the communities they served, and their railroad expenses paid by the Committee. It was a labor of love and a voluntary service, and no one can estimate its far reaching results, far greater than we hoped or dreamed.

A missionary calendar was presented to the Societies in 1903. This calendar carried the pictures of Rev. W. C. Newton and his wife, missionaries to China, this motto: "All for God whose I am and whom I serve," the study topics for the year and our aim—to add one hundred new societies, to double our membership and to give twelve thousand dollars to Foreign, Home and State Missions. This aim we failed to reach by a few hundred dollars, but we took thirteen thousand as our goal for the coming year.

Resolutions were presented looking to the furtherance of the work among our young people, and our third Yates Memorial Missionary, Miss Lottie Price, was sent to Shanghai during this period. It was at the session of 1903 that we first considered the matter of holding our Annual Meeting at a separate time and place from the State Convention. Monday was set apart by general consent as a special day for prayer for our W. M. U. work.

The first field work we engaged in was in 1905 when Mrs. C. M. Follett of Durham was appointed General Organizer for the W. M. U. Mrs. Follett in the first year organized ninety-three societies and was most zealous in her work.

It is in the minutes of 1905 that we find too the appeal for the newly established Margaret Home for missionaries' children and for our W. M. U. Training School at Louisville, Ky., such an important factor in our work today and one that lies so close to the heart of our North Carolina W. M. U.

At the close of this second decade we had 625 Societies and an annual contribution of $17,158.49.

1906-1916. Gifts $360,793.75

Twenty years from the appointment of the Central Committee the Union held its first separate meeting. This was held in the First Baptist Church in Durham, April 9, 1906, just four months after the previous session in connection with the State Convention in Raleigh. It is interesting to note that at the end of twenty years activity the gifts of our Woman's Missionary Union amounted to a little more than twenty thousand dollars per annum. The theme of the meeting was, "The Heavenly Vision," and some of us in the past few years have seen in some degree the realization of the vision presented to us at this session.

An epidemic of scarlet fever prevented our meeting in Hickory the following year as we had planned, and the Goldsboro Church, always so loyal to our W. M. U., opened its doors to us.

It was definitely determined that the time of our State meeting should be the fourth week in March. This year we have changed the time to the first week in March because of the change to the calendar year. It is remarkable that through the past twenty years March weather has proven ideal, even very little rain has fallen to inconvenience our delegates at these annual sessions.

So great had been the advancement of the Sunbeam work under the direction of Miss Briggs that at the meeting in Raleigh in 1905 Miss Mary Applewhite of Greensboro was appointed chairman of a committee to report as to the advisability of a better organization of the work among our young women. This committee made a favorable report, and later Miss Applewhite was elected leader of the Young Woman's Work. She served in this capacity six years, and after her marriage to Mr. J. Y. Killian and removal to Newton she was elected Superintendent of the South Fork Association. Early in life she was called to her reward, but the memory of her faithful and efficient work in our W. M. Union will remain an inspiration to those who knew her and worked with her.

A most important step in the growth and enlargement was the election of Mrs. Hight C. Moore as Corresponding Secretary of the Union in April 1907. Mrs. Moore carried on the work of the Union from her own home as did the other officers at that time and gave herself unsparingly to this work. She served first as Corresponding Secretary then as Trustee for our Training School at Louisville until her removal to Nashville, Tenn. Her work for the North Carolina Union has proven a lasting and most valuable service.

Miss Heck served as Vice-President of the Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to Southern Baptist Convention until her election as President in 1895 when Miss Susan Clark (Mrs. Ernest Erwin) succeeded her. In 1908 the present incumbent was elected to this position and has served the past eighteen years.

The Sunbeams early in this third decade began the support of a Sunbeam medical missionary, Dr. Chas. A. Hayes. Many of you heard Mrs. Hayes speak of the work done by Dr. Hayes for the children of China and had your hearts touched by the story of the sight he had given by his medical skill to the blinded eyes of these little ones. Who can estimate just what this one step has meant in giving physical and spiritual sight to these children in a distant land.

There are forward movements that we should like to recall at each of our Annual Meetings, but lack of time forbids. In 1909 Miss Heck was ill, and the meeting stands out because of the presence of Miss Edith Crane, then Corresponding Secretary W. M. U. of S. B. Convention, and Miss Anna Hartwell's memorable address.

In Oxford the following year Rev. W. C. Newton of our Northern China Mission spoke to our women in an evening session, and perhaps at that time we reached the highest tide of spiritual power in an hour that will never be forgotten by those present.

On account of the growth of the work Mrs. Moore felt that she could not continue to give so much time from her home duties and resigned as Corresponding Secretary. Miss Elizabeth Briggs was elected in her place, and Mrs. J. S. Farmer became our Sunbeam Leader. This arrangement lasted but one year, Miss Briggs taking up her work with the Sunbeams again in 1911, when for the first time we elected a Corresponding Secretary to give her full time to the work with a salary for her services.

It is remarkable that for twenty-six years the Woman's Missionary Union had no salaried officers. A small amount had been given the Corresponding Secretary to cover the amount the work was costing her but no full time salary.

Miss Briggs was Secretary at the time we moved into our first office on the fourth floor of the Tucker Building. The rent was paid and the office furnished by the expense fund of the W. M. Union. A stenographer was employed this year, and with better equipment there was much more efficiency on our part.

Miss Blanche Barrus was elected Corresponding Secretary in 1911. She came to us on completing her course at Meredith College with her heart fixed with the great purpose of giving her life to Medical Mission work on the foreign field. After heroic service and I may add heroic sacrifice God called her home with humanly speaking this purpose unfulfilled, but she left an impress on the work of the W. M. Union that will abide forever.

The Royal Ambassadors, a mission organization for boys, was added to our list of organizations at this time. Miss Briggs was the originator of this organization which was soon made a part of Union work and adopted by every one of our states. At a recent meeting of the W. M. Union of Southern Baptist Convention a request came from some of the leaders in the Northern Convention that they might use our name for their organization of a similar character.

In 1912 Mrs. J. S. Farmer became our Recording Secretary and served in this capacity until her death. Her gentle, lovely spirit, fine judgment and loyal service were a blessing to our Union, and the memory lingers through the years.

The meeting in New Bern in 1915 was notable because of the sadness and solemnity with which we gathered. Miss Heck was ill in a Richmond Hospital, an illness from which there was no hope of recovery. Mrs. F. D. Lethco, our First Vice-President, presided with grace and ability. For the last time we listened to a message from our beloved President, a farewell from the one who had guided the North Carolina Union since the days of its organization, and whose impress on the work will never be effaced. Adorning the pulpit throughout the sessions was a large bouquet of white roses, Miss Heck's last gift to the Union. How much we owe to her I dare not say, but, in my inmost heart I believe that the growth and success of these past few years have been due first of all to the guidance of our God, and then to the wise planning and splendid leadership of her who put her very life into this work.

1916-1926. Gifts $2,150,506.59

The work of the past ten years is familiar to most of you. It has been a period of marvelous growth and unprecedented contributions.

The outstanding event is the Seventy-Five Million Campaign. Miss Bertha Carroll was our first W. M. U. Director, and Miss Mary Warren completed the task she so ably began. Our campaign apportionment was $1,100,000. We pledged over two million and paid $1,683,885.21 in the campaign period. We repeat what we said in our W. M. U. meeting in Washington that whatever may be said as to the advisability of this or that method used in our campaign plan, it brought to our Union a new conception of giving and a larger vision of service.

Much emphasis has been placed on field work, and our officers have not spared themselves in their efforts to attend Associational Meetings and to bring about a personal contact with our workers all over the state. Miss Barrus resigned as Corresponding Secretary at the beginning of this period as she felt she could no longer defer her preparation for her chosen task as a medical missionary. Miss Bertha Carroll, another graduate of Meredith, was elected to succeed her and gave to the Union four years of devoted and most efficient service. On her resignation in 1920 Mrs. W. H. Reddish was elected Corresponding Secretary. Mrs. Reddish was admirably fitted for this position, and it was a matter of great regret that she was not physically equal to the task. Miss Mary Warren who retires as Corresponding Secretary at this session was elected at the meeting in Charlotte in 1922. To her untiring service we would give much credit for the success of the Campaign, and she leaves the work with the love and appreciation of the women of our Union. In 1920 because of the growth and increase demands of the work Miss Elsie K. Hunter was added to our force as Treasurer. From this we date the beginning of business efficiency in our office, it being impossible for one worker sometimes in the office and sometimes in the field to give immediate attention to office details. Your speaker, with deep gratitude, would bear testimony today to the splendid service of our consecrated and efficient Treasurer. How much we owe to her none of us really know.

When Miss Applewhite removed to Newton, Miss Ellen Graham was elected Y. W. A. Leader. She served two years and was succeeded by Mrs. J. W. Bunn. From 1914-1916 Mrs. C. E. Mason was Leader of this department of our work. On her removal from the State Mrs. R. N. Simms was elected to fill this position and served in this capacity in addition to her duties as Trustee of our Training School at Louisville until 1925 when Miss Dorothy Kellam of Atlanta, Ga., a graduate of our Training School, was elected to give full time to this work. The position of Young People's Leader had been a labor of love entirely, and Mrs. Simms had worked untiringly to develop the work to the point where it would demand such recognition.

In the past ten years our work has grown from 1,316 societies in 1916 with an annual contribution of $52,959.41 to 2,298 societies giving $324,571.16 in 1924. The high mark in our gifts was reached in the closing year of the Seventy-five Million Campaign when our women gave $325,392.12.

In the forty years of our history we have given $2,637,698.90. All of this large amount but $126,398.56 having been contributed in the last twenty years and $2,150,506.59 in the last decade.

From the day the first Central Committee meeting was held in the office of the editor of the Biblical Recorder in January, 1886, to the present time the Biblical Recorder with all its influence has stood behind the work of the Woman's Missionary Union. The editors have not only worked for us and spoken for us, but they have given us one page of the paper each week. The money value of this in forty years would be nearly two hundred thousand dollars. Our large accomplishments would not have been possible without this help, and we most gratefully acknowledge our indebtedness to each one of them.

To Dr. Livingston Johnson who as Corresponding Secretary of the State Convention and Editor of the Recorder has been untiring in his efforts in our behalf we would express our deep service through the years. It has been by His power and led appreciation for the great service he has rendered us. The W.

M. U. of North Carolina would not occupy the position it does today but for him.

Early in our work we selected as our motto, "For Ye Serve the Lord Christ," and that has been the motive power of our by His guiding hand that we have gone to what we believed our divinely appointed task, and today we would say with deep humility and thankful hearts in the words of the Psalmist, "Thine, O Lord, is the greatness and the power and the glory and the victory. Now, therefore, our God we thank Thee and praise Thy glorious name."

We would acknowledge the indebtedness of your officers to the faithful women all over the State who make up our W. M. Union. It would be impossible to estimate their splendid service or to say how large a part of the success of the W. M. Union these forty years is due to them. Its accomplishments are their accomplishments, its success their success.

All through the years the members of your Executive Committee have given themselves unsparingly to your work. Regardless of rain, cold or heat or holidays when the regular time of meeting comes, they are in their places unless providentially detained ready to give their best to the work which occupies so large a place in their hearts.

To the pastors who have labored with us and for us, we would express our gratitude for their loyalty and cooperation. Their names will never be forgotten, and we wish there was time to mention each one of them. To the few who have opposed our woman's work we would say, "You have failed to understand what we were trying to do, and we have no bitterness because of your misunderstanding."

To Dr. C. E. Maddy, our Corresponding Secretary, we would express for the Union our love and appreciation for his deep interest and loyal support. He has made the enlargement of our work possible, and particularly are we indebted to him for the appointment of our two field workers whose service is already bringing large results.

Rev. W. M. Gilmore as a pastor was always a friend to our W. M. U. and since his connection with our denominational headquarters, he has rendered us valuable assistance which it gives us much pleasure to acknowledge here today.

And now may I say this personal word, I cannot express my deep appreciation of the privilege it has been to me to have had forty years of active service in the work of our Woman's Missionary Union nor the joy and blessing the work has brought to my own life. I thank you for your love and loyalty. Not one dissension has marred our work in all this long period of service. Always we have wanted to do the thing that God wanted. His will has been ours; so there has been unity. To all who have labored with us for the advancement of the Kingdom of God, we would say:

"The Lord bless thee and keep thee,
The Lord make His face shine upon thee,
and be gracious unto thee,
The Lord lift up His countenance on thee and give thee peace."

Raleigh, March 3, 1926.

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES.

In the absence of Mrs. T. M. Pittman, the Margaret Fund report was read by Miss Elsie Hunter, and adopted. At the suggestion of Mrs. Jones, the Secretary sent to Mrs. Pittman a telegram expressing the love of the Union.

MARGARET EDUCATION FUND

The Margaret Education Fund continues its loving ministry to the children of our foreign missionaries. This year sixty-seven scholarships were granted. Three of these students were assigned to North Carolina for special care.

The Plan of Work adopted at our Annual Session, 1925, recommended that we provide four scholarships in our State to be used preferably for children of North Carolina missionaries. This would make our aim $800.00. Our Treasurer's report shows $631.59 for the ten months covered by the new date for closing the books.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. THOMAS M. PITTMAN,

N. C. Representative Margaret Fund Committee.

Recognition of the following visitors was made at this time: Mrs. W. J. Cox, President of the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, Principal of the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. William B. McGarrity, Superintendent of Southwestern Training School, Fort Worth, Texas; and Mrs. Weston Bruner, Laurens, S. C.

After the appointment of the following committees on Time and Place, and Resolutions, and the election of the Nominating Committee from the floor, and a report from the Enrollment Committee that 552 delegates had registered, the Union adjourned with prayer, led by Mrs. W. N. Jones.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The Wednesday afternoon session opened at 3 o'clock in the assembly hall of Meredith College with the singing of the Doxology, Mrs. R. N. Simms presiding. Prayer was offered by Mrs. W. N. likeness." Prayer by Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, followed by special music by the Meredith College choir.

President Charles E. Brewer spoke words of greeting. A pageant, "The Light of the World," was presented by Meredith girls. At the suggestion of Mrs. R. N. ### ASHEVILLE DIVISION

In our Division there have been changes, disappointments, days of sorrow, and days of rejoicing and yet through it all we have had the guiding hand of our Heavenly Father.

In each Association we find the women taking a part in all activities fostered by the W. M. U. as the following facts will tell: We have 110 Woman's Missionary Societies having a membership of 2,183; eighty-eight Junior organizations with an enrollment of 1,113. Eight of these societies are A-1 for the year 1925. Forty-seven new societies have been organized, 1,263 mission magazines subscribed for and 69 societies have observed the three seasons of prayer. One hundred and twelve mission study classes were held and 1,004 awards given for this. Asheville, First Church, leads the State in mission study awards. Three churches in two Associations have the full graded W. M. U. Our contributions for the year total $16,346.55.

We are indebted to our faithful superintendents and their co-workers in each Association for this splendid record. New Superintendents have been chosen in Buncombe, Three Forks, Tuckasegee, Western North Carolina, and Yancey. These are already entering into their new duties with an earnestness that will mean much to their Associations.

The home-going of our beloved leader, Mrs. C. A. Kluttz, brought sorrow to many. She was a faithful and tireless worker and we who are left must continue the work she loved so well.

Through the kindness of our State and Sunday School Boards we were enabled to have two special workers in our division for a part of the year—Miss Della Huggins and Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok. Their work consisted largely in conducting study classes, distributing literature, securing subscriptions to mission magazines and organizing societies wherever there was opportunity. Both added much to the value of their work by personal visitation in the homes.

The Mountain Assembly at Mars Hill is each year increasing in interest and widening in scope. This year we were pleased to meet there representatives from seven Associations in our Division. The classes, conferences and inspirational addresses heard there are doing much toward training our future leaders.

One unique feature in connection with the Assembly and the Camp for G. A.'s and R. A.'s was the attendance of 25 boys and girls from Yancey Association. They were chaperoned by the Superintendent of the Association and the ladies from the W. M. S. Sleeping quarters were secured in the dormitories and the young people brought tents and provisions and did their own cooking outside, thus adding to the enjoyment of the Assembly work.

In the Y. W. A. Conference at Ridgecrest our Division was represented by young women from six Associations.

Our Annual Divisional Meeting was held in May at Sylva. Nine Associations were represented. The meeting for this year will be held in June, with Calvary Church, Asheville. Much interest and inspiration were given the divisional meeting and also associational meetings by the visits of Mrs. H. T. Stevens and Mss Dorothy Kellam.

All our societies are active in personal service and we rejoice to note an increase in the religious activities. Of special interest are the three phases of Home Missions found in our division, viz.: the Oteen Hospital, Mountain Schools, and Cherokee Indians. Each of these claim attention from the Association in which they are located. Infirmarys have been furnished in two of the schools while barrels of canned goods and other provisions have gone to others. The Good Will Centers at Ridgecrest and Cherokee continue to be of benefit to their communities and are also gaining in friends to the cause. The missionary society at Cherokee has been most active and their first contribution to outside causes was made this year.

Two Daily Vacation Bible Schools were conducted in our Division and plans are already made for their sessions the coming vacation.

Showers for the Baptist Hospital are being given by several societies. Meredith College and the Nurses' Home have likewise been remembered by our women.

A feature of the work in Macon has been the programs at the special season of prayer. The women from the various churches coming together at a central place for the meetings, the program including representatives from each of the churches. Much encouragement and inspiration has thus been given the women.

May the work of the past year help us more fully to realize our responsibilities and opportunities and by the help of God may we go forward to a larger and better work in the coming year!

Respectfully submitted,

ANNIE L. LOGAN,
Superintendent.

CHARLOTTE DIVISION

Madam President and Co-workers of this Convention: As I come before you to make a yearly report of the Charlotte Division, my thoughts are centered around the one who organized this Division, who organized this State Convention, and she had no peer in our Southern Baptist Union.

I feel that you are thinking of her, too, for we all love the name of Fannie E. S. Heck. Do you recall her prophecy of 1913? She likened our W. M. U. to a building, and the work of the first twenty-five years, she regarded as the foundation, on which a superstructure of strength and beauty should be erected.

It seems as though I still hear her say "This foundation is entrusted to you—you the women of the present, you, the women of the future. I charge that you build upon it worthily."

Year by year the Charlotte Division has kept Miss Heck's vision ever before them, and we have endeavored to place on this foundation a few stones of "beauty" and "worth."

Last year we held our Annual Meeting in the beautiful little town of Newton. Mrs. T. C. Singleton was our hostess and I am asking her to take two of my ten minutes and tell how we built while there.

"The Charlotte Divisional Meeting was surely a great help to the South Fork Association—Newton especially. I feel that great and, I trust, lasting, benefits were accomplished. Our own societies have grown larger and stronger and visions of possibilities have brought about new organizations already."

We remembered the Kathleen Mallory Hospital in China and gave $65.00 for a sewing machine for our own Alda Grayson from Rutherfordton, who is our beloved nurse in that Hospital.

Our contribution to the Home Board work was $25.00 for books to Bessie Harrill, our missionary and teacher in the Cuban-American College.

Those of you who have studied the book "Cuba for Christ" will remember on the front page of this book is a picture of the Cuban flag held by two of our missionaries. One of these is Bessie Harrill and the other is Mildred Matthews. Bessie Harrill was brought up in our own Thomasville Orphanage. She won a scholarship to Mars Hill, and while there volunteered for mission work. She was accepted by the Home Board and sent to Havana to teach. Bessie seemed a wonderful fit! She mastered Spanish quickly and also digested the Cubans foods. She made a good Cuban.

As you know, it is contrary to the rules of the Home Board for a missionary to marry into the Latin Race. But the Home Board consented for Bessie to marry a Cuban minister, who fell in love with her while he was at the College studying Theology. Dr. McCall married them last spring and since Bessie was an orphan, our Division wanted to send her a bridal gift. So we gave her $25.00 for religious books. Good books in Spanish are scarce, but Bessie is an expert typist and she makes excerpts from books and rapidly translates them into the Spanish Language. The books the Charlotte Division put into her hands will be given largely to our Cuban Christians.

I have mentioned the special work for Home Missions and for Foreign Missions, and now I want to mention our special State Mission gifts, which consisted largely in scholarships to Wingate Junior College and our Mission Schools. A larger number were given this year than ever before. Some of our women interested Mr. J. F. Alexander in this feature of the work and when he died last October, he remembered this work in his will.

Again we lead the State in our total year's contributions to all objects, which amounted to $61,380.88. We have 24 A-1 societies.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. L. HARDISON,

for Mrs. T. B. Henry, Superintendent.

GREENSBORO DIVISION

The world is full of changes, and since the Greensboro Division is a part of the world it is but natural that changes should take place in this Division. Six of the Associations have elected new Superintendents, namely: Beulah, Central, Flat River, Mt. Zion, Raleigh and Tar River. As a co-worker permit me to pause for a moment to pay tribute to the faithful, untiring and constructive work done by the ladies who served their Associations as leaders. We may rest assured, I feel confident, that they will give their successors in office the benefit of their experience.

A Divisional Rally or Annual Meeting was held in June, at Oxford, with forenoon and afternoon sessions. Our honored President, Mrs. Wesley N. Jones, gave an inspiring address. Mrs. Chas. E. Maddry, another State officer, was present and conducted a round table on Personal Service work. At this time Mrs. Maddry made it very plain that we were not to lessen our individual service to those who needed our ministries, but that our various Missionary Societies were to organize for larger, farther-reaching, more constructive and co-operative helpfulness. The reports from the Personal Service Chairmen in all of the Associations, tell of work done in jails, county homes, prison camps, hospitals (both white and colored); of patients at the Sanatorium being supplied with clothing, literature and many things to minister to their comfort; nine girls at Samarcand were remembered, gifts were made to Mission fields and to some of our Margaret Fund students; new garments were made and sent to the Orphanage, etc.; in a perfectly splendid manner.

More than forty different books have been studied by members of our Women's Missionary Societies and auxiliaries. Liberal gifts have been sent to the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home fund, but not sufficient to give much encouragement to the Trustees. Two Scholarships are given to Training School students, Mt. Zion having one of her own young women using the love-gift this year.

Our total gifts to all purposes for the year were $53,648.88.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. M. W. BUCK,
Superintendent.

ELIZABETH CITY DIVISION

As we review the year's work, we praise God for His blessings.

The reports from the Associations in the Elizabeth City Division show many marks of progress, due to the untiring and enthusiastic work of the superintendents of the associations. Although we have not reached our financial goal, we have every reason for gratitude. With thankful hearts we report the year one of encouragement, for the work has been steadily progressing, both in numbers of new societies, and a quickened sense of responsibility in the old ones. Steady growth, deepened interest, and many times real sacrifices have been clearly evident.

The societies have responded very generously to appeals for special gifts, particularly to Foreign Missions.

The seasons of prayer have been observed, bringing much uplift and inspiration to all attending them. Enlistment has been emphasized in each Association, with the result that many active workers have been enlisted. In every phase of W. M. U. work great interest has been manifested, but Stewardship has been the outstanding thought of the year.

The widespread and deeper interest in Mission Study is among the special successes. Our greater emphasis on Mission Study in the past has wrought large returns. As our women have studied the thrilling and inspirational lives of our missionaries, and have learned the needs of their countries, they have caught a new vision of Stewardship, and their hearts have been filled with a burning desire to give of their best to the Master.

The women of the West Chowan Association are supporting a missionary and two Bible women in China. They have three scholarships in the Training School.

I am happy to report that Edenton Church of the Chowan Association is also supporting a missionary, Miss Ola V. Lee, of Soochow, China. Several of the societies have, during the past year, sent boxes of supplies to some of our mission schools. A box sent from the Chowan Association to a Home Missionary was valued at $250.00.

The women of Roanoke and Neuse-Atlantic Associations report a wonderful Personal Service work, visiting jails, defraying expenses of poor at hospitals and holding prayer meetings. They are realizing the imperative need of lifting Personal Service out of the realm of mere visits and dispensing of relief, to that of soul-winning, for many will never be reached with the gospel, except through our Personal Service. We feel sure that many of the societies that do not report their activities are participating in this delightful Christian service.

The annual associational meetings held during the year were largely attended and much information gained from the splendid speakers. We record the fact that Mrs. L. T. Vaughan, who for several years has been the efficient and untiring Superintendent of the Roanoke Association, resigned in October and Mrs. E. B. Beasley has taken up the work in this Association.

Our Divisional meeting held in June at Rocky Mount had the largest attendance on record, and from this meeting we gained much inspiration. A deeply spiritual tone was evident, well fitting our hearts for the helpful messages brought to us.

The West Chowan Association will be hostess to the Elizabeth City Division in June, meeting in Windsor.

Now, as we have seen through the year's accomplishments God's favor upon our labor, let us press on attempting great things for the God we love and expecting great things from God for the causes we espouse, and we will not be disappointed.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. C. C. HOGGARD, Superintendent.

WILMINGTON DIVISION

"The Lord hath done great things for us, whereof we are glad," and to Him be all the glory and praise for the joyful privilege He has given to us, to be His partners in carrying on the work of the Kingdom.

It was my pleasure to attend eight of the nine Associational meetings in my Division, the Little River being left out on account of inconvenient schedule. The meetings were well attended and splendid programs carried out. The women showed strong evidence of spiritual enthusiasm and in every Association a desire to go forward.

Bladen Association is going steadily forward, with Mrs. W. O. Biggs, Superintendent. It paid pledge, also apportionment to Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home, and made nine points on Standard of Excellence.

Brunswick had been unfortunate, the Superintendent, Mrs. C. S. Ward, being physically unable much of the time to do the work, but some of their reports were very good. They made six points on Standard of Excellence.

Cape Fear-Columbus was also handicapped, having new Superintendent, who was unavoidably hindered a part of the year, but with the faithful Mrs. Memory, the former Superintendent, to help, a good work was done. Mrs. J. T. Best is Superintendent this year.

The Eastern completed their campaign pledge, made eight points on Standard of Excellence, leads in number of tithers, and paid apportionment to the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home of $200.00. Miss Elizabeth Middleton, a Y. W. A., of Magnolia Church, is in our Training School, a volunteer for Foreign Mission work. We thank the Northampton Union of West Chowan Association for her scholarship. One W. M. S. in the Eastern sends a valuable box every year to frontier missionary; one W. M. S. clothes two children at Thomasville Orphanage; one Sunbeam Band supports Kindergarten School in China.

At the Annual Meeting in August, a plan was adopted to help raise the debt on our Boards, paying $2.00 for one minute of world-wide mission work. One hundred and six members signed cards, "minutes and money for God," some paying for five minutes or more. Every association in the Wilmington Division followed this plan of the Eastern except the Little River, which I could not attend, and 398 signed the cards at our meetings, paying nearly nine hundred dollars. The Eastern is furnishing a double room in our new Seminary.

Johnston Association, under the splendid leadership of Mrs. B. A. Hocutt, leads in mission study classes. The young women of Clayton Church support a Chinese family; the husband is a preacher, and the wife a Bible Woman. Through Clayton W. M. S. a native worker in China is supported. The Johnston is planning for a half-time worker.

Through the faithful service of Miss Mattie Bain, the Little River Association reports more A-1 societies than ever before, and leads in mission study seals. Miss Marjorie Spence has gone from her Association as missionary to Chile. Mrs. Joel Layton continues to give Scholarship to Training School. Little River made seven points on Standard of Excellence.

Through the consecrated leadership of Mrs. Horace Baker, the Robeson Association steadily goes forward. They lead in number of societies and gifts.

The New South River has been very unfortunate, having Superintendent only about seven months of the year, and the new Superintendent elected in January is just beginning work. They now have Mrs. E. M. Downing, capable and consecrated, to lead them, and we hope for good work.

Mrs. C. O. Baird, new Superintendent of Wilmington Association, is working wisely and faithfully, and has accomplished much in the few months she has served. The W. M. S. in each of the Wilmington churches are taking a rural church to organize and foster new societies, as result of a wonderful day of prayer in January.

We held our Divisional Conference in Fayetteville in January, which was not largely attended on account of snow. Five associations were represented, and the meeting was filled with interest and cooperative spirit. We were most fortunate to be assisted by Miss Dorothy Kellam.

Many new societies have been organized this year, but with great regret we report a net loss of 63, and urge each superintendent to put forth greatest effort to reorganize every society and organize new ones, also to put on enlistment campaign for the whole year, making this the greatest year in the service of our Lord and Master. Remembering that we are laborers together with God and are His witnesses,

Respectfully submitted,

MACY COX, Superintendent.

"Jesus Shall Reign" was sung, after which Mrs. W. J. Cox, President of the W. M. U. of the Southern Baptist Convention, Memphis, Tenn., gave an inspiring address on the theme, "The Challenge to Strength," 2 Cor., 12:9, "My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness." Solo, "It Was For Me," was sung by Miss Margaret Highsmith, Raleigh.

Mrs. K. D. Stukenbrok, North Wilkesboro, W. M. U. Field Worker in ten Associations in the northwest section of the State, gave an interesting report of her work.

Mrs. J. W. Bunn announced that 670 delegates and 153 visitors had registered up to this time.

Adjourned with prayer by Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

"The Morning Light is Breaking" was sung. Mrs. F. D. Lethco, Charlotte, led the devotional meeting, using Hebrews 12: 1-3. Prayer by Mrs. W. A. Smith, Raleigh. Minutes were read and approved.

Mrs. Z. M. Caveness read the report of White Cross work, which was adopted.

WHITE CROSS WORK

In a letter from Miss Alda Grayson, of the Kathleen Mallory Hospital, Laichowfu, Shantung, China, she reports gifts of pajamas, handkerchiefs and toys received by her. And the Charlotte Division has given this year $65.00 in money for a sewing machine for Miss Grayson.

The women of North Carolina have given the twelve dozen pajamas that Miss Grayson asked for last year.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. Z. M. CAVENESS,

Chairman White Cross Work.

Mrs. C. E. Maddry, Personal Service Chairman, read her report, and after discussion by Miss Mae Reynolds, Tabernacle Church, Raleigh; Mrs. A. J. Smith, Franklin; Mrs. Horner, Henderson, and Mrs. M. H. Privett, Spring Hope, it was adopted. Solo by Mrs. W. W. Arnold, Raleigh.

PERSONAL SERVICE REPORT

With special emphasis being placed on organized methods, the reports for this year indicate an increased interest in personal service. Many societies are undertaking in a systematic way to minister to the needs of the neglected and others in the community, and are finding new life and zeal in this direct contact with human need. It is not too much to hope that every society this year may undertake at least one form of organized work, multiplying its usefulness in that while fostering missions in far-off places they are fostering missions right at the door in a very special and effective way.

REPORT ON THE BAPTIST HOSPITAL

The Baptist Hospital has been serving our people for two years and eight months. Eternity itself will be necessary to reveal the wonderful results of these months of loving ministry and healing. Over four thousand patients have been under our care, people of every religious belief and many who were not Christians. They have come from every quarter of the State and suffering from almost every kind of disease. While we cannot say that we have healed them all, the death rate has been about one and one-half per cent.

Many of these sufferers had no other hope. They were not able to pay for the treatment in private hospitals, and their lives were depending upon the kindness of the Baptist people who opened the way for their healing in our Hospital.

Three hundred and fifty-two during the last year came as charity or part pay. Mothers, with children waiting at home; fathers, who must live to provide the daily bread; babies, that had been left without a mother; children, bound by disease or deformity—they came, and we received them all. As the result the blind now see, the lame now walk, the deaf now hear, and the poor have had the Gospel preached to them. Some of the glorious conversions thrilled the hearts of those who toil to help.

What a blessing this Institution could be if we were able to say to all that need our ministry, "Come, we can care for you"? But alas that we must struggle on with meager supplies when hundreds cry in pain for relief. Twenty thousand dollars would increase our charity service so that we could care for five hundred next year. Why not make it possible, dear sisters? Let us resolve to see that Mother's Day is observed in every church in our Association this year and an offering be made for these poor sick ones, our brothers and sisters, God's children.

Then our Hospital deserves the patronage of Baptists in the State who are able to pay for their hospital services. In fact it must be thus supported if it ever performs its mission. It takes $6,250 per month to meet the operating expenses. Now the charity contributions have never amounted to more than $12,500. Therefore $5,000 must be collected from pay patients each month to meet the obligations. Now Methodists, Presbyterians and other denominations from a distance support the Baptist Hospital. They have discovered its worth, its comforts, its facilities and its superb service, and they are willing to go some distance to secure this better service. Why will it not pay Baptists to do the same thing? And, besides, when we go to our own hospital we get better rates, better service, and then help to make a place for those who by force of circumstances are not able to pay for their hospital service. It is our own institution. If we fail to support it how can we hope to build its reputation?

The greatest thing that comes to our attention now is the need of a nurses' home. There are thirty-eight nurses, pupil and graduate, in the institution. Twenty of these room on the fifth floor of the hospital building; eighteen room in a rented house. Now these girls have to sleep on the floor where all operations are performed. Day and night disturbances are going on on this floor, but day and night these girls must try to find rest and sleep in the noise. Moreover, there is no place for recreation, no place for entertainment, no place for worship, no place for class work. We now use one of our three bed rooms for the class work. They are hemmed up in this almost prison, depriving them of all the privileges and the enjoyments that every young woman ought to have. It is not fair to these girls preparing for life work and doing hard work, many, hours, to be shut in such narrow quarters.

But even greater is the appeal when we think that these girls are using twenty-two beds that patients might be using, are occupying beds that would easily rent for around a thousand dollars a month; that they are preventing the hospital from enlarging its ministry of healing to scores of people each month and thus decreasing the amount of charity because always the amount of charity must be governed by the number of pay patients or the amount of income we have.

Baptists today could not make a greater investment than to build a nurse's home. It would save $3,600 per year rent. It would open one whole floor to patients. It would make better nurses and Christians of these girls. Can we longer wait? What do we need? It will take $45,000 to build adequately. If we could get half of this, the trustees will build the nurse's home and pay the interest while we pay the rent in small amounts per year.

Could we not this year organize plans for raising one-half of this amount? We already have some in bank. There are a few thousands promised by individuals. If we could raise ten thousand dollars this year, the building could be erected and these urgent needs would be supplied. Moreover, we would be paying a most deserved tribute to one of our greatest women whose spirit would rejoice with us over this achievement. Let us not falter; the call is too great; suffering humanity, forty girls and our Lord wait on us. We will not fail them.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. J. J. RODDICK.

The hour for the Memorial Service having arrived, Mrs. Herman T. Stevens read the names of the members of the Union who had died since the last meeting, the audience standing. Miss Annie Logan paid special tribute to Mrs. C. A. Kluttz, Asheville, former Superintendent of the Asheville Division; Mrs. W. N. Jones paid tribute to Mrs. N. B. Broughton, Raleigh, member of the Executive Committee since its organization. Miss Margaret Highsmith sang as a fitting close to the service, "When I Get to the End of the Way."

Mrs. F. D. Lethco, second Vice-President, was called to the chair. Mrs. Herman T. Stevens read the Plan of Work for 1926 section by section, giving time for discussion of each section. On motion of Mrs. W. N. Jones, the Plan of Work was adopted. Miss Kellam, with girls dressed to represent "World's Comrades," made a plea for members of the Union to subscribe for the young people's magazine.

PLAN OF WORK

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Missionary Union recommends:

1. That the plan of work adopted by the Woman's Missionary Union Auxiliary to S. B. Convention and presented to each society in the Year Book be adopted as far as is practicable as our plan of work for the year.

2. That we endeavor to complete the fund for the Blanche Barrus Nurses' Home this year, every society to send in a contribution to this fund in May, and the Heck Memorial Offering in June also to be appropriated to this purpose.

3. That we cooperate in plans for the Mars Hill Assembly, July 20-29; that we urge Y. W. A. girls and leaders to profit by the South-wide Camp at Ridgecrest, June 15-25; and that each associational Young People's Leader make a special effort to reach all societies through separate associational camps for G. A.'s, R. A.'s and Y. W. A.'s.

4. That we accept our quota of the fund appropriated to the W. M. U. by the Sunday School Board for field work, plans for this work to be made by the Corresponding Secretary and the Associational and Divisional Superintendents in the territory in which the work is to be done. An amount equal to that appropriated by the Board is to be given by the locality requesting this aid.

5. That we increase our Expense Fund to meet the growing needs of our work. All societies are asked to send in a contribution to this fund.

6. That we observe Monday, October 4, as a day of prayer for State Missions, and that our Educational Work be given a part of the program that day.

7. That we make our contributions this year according to the printed blank for reports—all society, associational, and state reports to be for the calendar year.

8. That as all gifts for Woman's Missionary Union Training School at Louisville, Ky., Margaret Educational Fund, and S. S. Board Bible Fund are reported by W. M. U. of S. B. Convention as W. M. U. Specials, we take as our apportionment for this Fund, $5,500.00, appropriated as follows: To Margaret Fund, $800.00; to Sunday School Board Bible Fund, $300.00; to Training School Loan Funds, including the Louis Castlebury Scholarship, $2600.00; to Current Expenses, W. M. U. Training School, $1800.00.

9. That we take as our aim for this year, 1926—	$265,000.00:
First quarter—January, February and March-----	$65,000.00
Second quarter—April, May and June-----	65,000.00
Third quarter—July, August and September-----	50,000.00
Fourth quarter—October, November and December--	85,000.00

This amount, which includes all gifts to Cooperative Program and to Special Offerings, is to be apportioned to the Associations and by the Associational Superintendents to the societies.

Mrs. F. D. Lethco was called to the chair, and the following "Memorial to the Baptist State Convention" meeting in Wilmington in November was read by Mrs. W. N. Jones, and, after discussion by her, was adopted unanimously by a rising vote:

MEMORIAL OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION TO THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION

Realizing the imperative necessity of rebuilding Meredith College at once, the Baptist State Convention, in session at Gas-tonia in 1923, authorized the issuance of $750,000 worth of six per cent bonds for this purpose, the Convention pledging its honor and credit for the redemption of these bonds during a period of fifteen years. These bonds were sold and therefore became a solemn obligation, not of Meredith College alone, but of the Convention itself and the payment of these bonds, together with the interest, constitutes a first claim upon all the funds of the Convention. In addition to the bond issue of $750,000 it was found necessary to borrow $250,000 more to finish the buildings and enable the college to move to the new site. The debt therefore on the Convention for the building of the new Meredith is one million dollars and the yearly interest on this sum alone is $60,000.

Since the debts were incurred, the needs of every other Baptist school in the State have greatly increased, while the debts upon all of our mission Boards have grown to appalling figures. At the same time the gifts from the churches for our Cooperative Program have decreased more than a quarter of a million dollars a year—from the high days of the 75-Million Campaign. The situation has become distressingly acute, when we realize that the amount coming to Christian Education out of the 1925 Co-operative Program lacked several thousand dollars of being enough to meet the interest and retirement fund of the Meredith bond issue alone, to say nothing of the requirements of the other colleges and schools belonging to the Convention. If the Board of Education were relieved of the enormous charge incident to the liquidation of the Meredith College bonds year by year, they would have money enough for the normal needs of every school we own. The quickest way for the relief of our other schools is to pay off these bonds immediately.

The Woman's Missionary Union has always stood faithfully and loyally by every plan and program put forward by the Baptist State Convention. We believe fully in the Cooperative Program and support it on all occasions. We believe the only hope for all of our work, and especially Christian Education, is in standing loyally by the Cooperative Program. We must let nothing hinder or interfere with the regular, systematic giving through our Cooperative Program for the current support of all our work. The payment of this debt on Meredith College will not hinder our regular work year by year. We must appeal to special friends of Meredith, alumnae, and well-to-do Baptists to pay this debt over and above their regular gifts to our work for current support. Our women have a profound dislike for debt and they especially dislike to see their money go for interest charges, when there is such need around the world for the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We realize that this debt on Meredith has already become a serious handicap in all of our work and unless this burden of debt is lifted from the Convention, we face the possible breakdown of our whole Cooperative Program.

The Convention will celebrate its centennial in three more years—1930. We ought to make this event forever memorable by paying off the last dollar of the debt that is now crushing our great school for girls.

Therefore, in view of the facts set forth above, we the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina memorialize the Baptist State Convention, meeting in Wilmington in November, 1926, to launch a campaign in 1927 for the payment of the debt on Meredith College by 1930, and thus celebrate the One Hundredth Anniversary of our organized Baptist work in a fitting and worthy manner. We pledge ourselves as an organization and as individuals to cooperate in every possible way, to the fullest extent of our ability, for the worthy and successful conclusion of such an undertaking.

On motion of Mrs. J. J. Roddick, the President's address delivered at the beginning of this session will be put in tract form for general distribution.

At the suggestion of Miss Macy Cox, a "love offering," amounting to $128.29, was taken to assist the young ladies of Meredith College in improving the grounds around that institution.

On motion of Mrs. A. L. Betts, Washington, flowers were sent to Mrs. M. A. Heck, mother of Miss Fannie E. S. Heck, former President of the Union.

Mrs. John Wacaster, Superintendent of Kings Mountain Association, read the following resolution, and after discussion it was adopted:

"Resolved, That all Divisional, Associational and Society officers be subscribers to the Biblical Recorder, and that The Recorder be placed in fifty per cent of the homes represented in the W. M. S. and Y. W. A."

The following report of the Time and Place Committee was read by the Chairman, Mrs. S. M. Boettcher, of Elizabeth City, and adopted:

TIME AND PLACE

Your Committee on Time and Place recommend Wilmington as the meeting place for 1927, and the time, first week in March.

The Committee on Resolutions made the following report through its chairman, Mrs. H. M. Finch, Rocky Mount, which was adopted by a rising vote:

RESOLUTIONS

We, the delegates and visitors, at the thirty-sixth Annual Meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina express our deep appreciation of the cordial hospitality extended to us in our State Capital.

We would especially commend Mrs. J. W. Bunn and her efficient committee for the admirable arrangements provided for our entertainment and comfort.

To our hostesses who have so kindly opened their homes we render our heartfelt thanks.

We also record our appreciation of the kindness shown us by the civic clubs in transporting the delegates to and from Meredith College.

To the Board of Trustees, President and Students of Meredith College, we extend hearty thanks for the delicious luncheon so generously served at the college, and to the college girls who so effectively rendered the pageant, "The Light of the World."

We congratulate Mrs. W. N. Jones, our president, upon the completion of forty years of magnanimous service in the W. M. U., and express the hope that she may be spared many more years to enjoy the work which is so dear to her heart. It is due to her inspiring leadership that the W. M. U. has been able to make itself felt as a potent force in all the denominational work in the State.

We also congratulate Mrs. H. T. Stevens, better known as Miss Mary Warren, on the success which she has attained as Corresponding Secretary for the past three years. It is with exceeding regret that we are to lose her consecrated leadership as Corresponding Secretary, but we rejoice that we are to retain her in our work in the State.

We esteem very highly the noble work rendered by Miss Elsie K. Hunter, Office Secretary and Treasurer; Miss Dorothy Kellam, Young People's Leader; Mrs. W. M. Gilmore, Recording Secretary; and the Executive Committee for their wise counsel and ready assistance in every forward movement.

To Mrs. W. J. Cox, our beloved Southern President, and the Principal of our W. M. U. Training School, Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, we owe in large part the success of our meeting because of their inspiring messages; we extend them our thanks.

The coming of our beloved Dr. E. Y. Mullins, President of the World's Baptist Alliance, and our Seminary has meant much to the uplift of our gathering. We consider it a rare privilege to have had him with us and to give us such a timely message on "The Tasks Ahead"; and to Dr. Jester for his masterly message.

To our great-hearted Secretary of Missions, Dr. C. E. Maddry, we acknowledge our indebtedness for his untiring efforts and cooperation in every branch of our work.

To the public press for its helpfulness in extending the influence of our Convention throughout the State by the excellent reports of the addresses and business sessions, we extend our grateful appreciation; and in particular to Rev. W. M. Gilmore for his splendid publicity work.

To the various choirs of the city for their contributions of musical selections we extend our thanks.

Words fail to express the deep satisfaction we feel for the extremely fine presentation of the closing pageant by the Young People, under the direction of Miss Kellam. It is a most fitting close to impress our women with the needs of the mission fields at home and abroad.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the Minutes;

Second, that a copy be sent to the papers.

The report of the Nominating Committee was made by the chairman, Mrs. J. L. Hodges, New Bern, and adopted.

REPORT W. M. U. TRAINING SCHOOL

The twenty-first birthday year of the Woman's Missionary Union Training School has been a very happy one for the Training School Family.

Foremost and most important was the coming of a new principal, Mrs. Janie Cree Bose. Already beloved by all W. M. U. women, she has quickly made an even larger place for herself as the "little mother" of our Training School girls. Their letters sound her praises as do those of the faculty.

Mrs. Eager writes that although the winter has been unusually severe the health of the student body has been unprecedented.

While the enrollment is smaller there is an unusually fine group of girls in attendance, and splendid work has been accomplished.

There is much satisfaction over the fact that arrangements are now being made for the Seminary professors to continue their lectures to the Training School students after the Seminary is moved to its new home, "The Beeches." To the delight of all, they will probably be given in the Training School class rooms.

The officers and students made a one hundred per cent subscription to the Seminary Campaign. It amounted to over twenty-five hundred dollars.

Insomuch as the Boards are not able to send out new workers, there is a greater demand for instruction in church secretarial and W. M. U. work. Consequently, the school management is planning to offer a more comprehensive course for pastors' assistants and church secretaries. The W. M. U. course of instruction, under Miss Wilma Bucy, has been very much appreciated and largely attended. The results will be evident throughout the South. Churches will do well to secure secretaries who have had this comprehensive training.

The new Good Will Center has been a great success. Its activities have been doubled and the convenience and attractiveness of it has been a joy. Rental of the gymnasium and the little apartment has been a source of income, practically meeting the current expenses of the Center. Miss Carrie U. Littlejohn, the very efficient director, has Miss Alice Johnson, of Virginia, as her assistant.

In our report last year, mention was made of the need of increased library facilities. Several donations, amounting to a few hundred dollars, have been used to add to the reference books and the Maud R. McLure Reference Room has been established for special work. Individual gifts would be greatly appreciated.

The girls and faculty are most appreciative of the splendid gifts of chickens, potatoes, cakes, fruit, canned goods, nuts, linen, etc., that have been sent this past year. We hope that this spring every society in North Carolina will help send chickens for the Easter dinner. An over supply would be gratefully received. Send either chickens or the price of one or more.

North Carolina has had 12 splendid girls there this year. They have been wonderfully happy and most enthusiastic.

Our women have contributed $2,373.26 for the school and $599.95 was sent for us through the General Educational Board, making a total of $2,973.21.

In addition, the missionary societies of North Carolina sent an abundance of chickens for the Easter dinner at the Training School, as well as many other good things.

It is a great privilege to have a share in an institution like this, so signally blessed by God. Let us keep it very close in our hearts and prayers and do our best to guide many young lives towards its portals.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. R. N. SIMMS,
North Carolina Trustee.

Mrs. Simms presented Mrs. Janie Cree Bose, Principal of the W. M. U. Training School, Louisville, Ky., who delivered an inspiring address on "Follow Me." Luke 5:27.

Miss Dorothy Kellam presented to the Little River Association the banner offered by her to the Association whose young people's organizations made the largest percentage of A-1 societies during the year, which was received by Mrs. Joel Layton, Lillington, Young People's Leader for that Association.

After singing "Love Divine, All Love Excelling," a pageant, "The Pearl of Great Price," written and directed by Miss Kellam, was presented by more than a hundred young people of Raleigh, Mrs. Frank D. Castlebury taking the leading part as reader.

Thus closed one of the best sessions in the history of the organization, after prayer by Rev. Walter M. Gilmore, of Raleigh.

	MRS. WESLEY N. JONES,
MRS. WALTER M. GILMORE,		President.
	Recording Secretary.
